CORRECT DRESSING.

Gentlemen often hesitate about patronizing the highest class of tailors on account of the price; but the extra charge over ordinary tailors is not profit, or a tax for reputation; but represents actual value received. Many garments are out of style when new, simply because ill proportioned and not correctly cut; the wearer does not know what the matter is, but is conscious of a difference between his own clothes and those of others he meets in society. Men who can afford it make a great mistake in not wearing the best designed clothes, as the result represents the best selection of London materials, and the finest workmanship, combined with artistic cutting. We make a specialty of strictly fine tailoring, and every one of our workmen is a skilled mechanic, capable of producing artistic results. We have nothing but the best foreign woolens, and in exclusive patterns shown only to the few high-class houses; all gentlemen of taste are invited to call, as goods will be cheerfully shown.

The New Scholarship.

A few weeks ago the sum of $5000 was left by Mr. Charles L. Flint to found a scholarship in Phillips Academy. We understand that Mr. Flint started out a poor boy from North Reading, which was his native place, and worked his way up until he found himself Chairman of the School Committee of Boston, which position he held till loss of health compelled him to visit Florida, in which place he recently died.

Business Meeting of the Tennis Association.

The Tennis Association held its annual business meeting last Saturday noon for the purpose of electing new officers for the ensuing term. The meeting was poorly attended and the election passed off very quietly. J. H. Field was elected President; J. C. Sawyer, Vice-President; S. C. Hutchins; Secretary; S. S. Yardley Treasurer. There being no further business to come before the meeting, the President declared the meeting adjourned.

Yale's New Recitation Building.

A brief description of some of the interior features of the new recitation building now in process of construction at Yale will be of interest to many here. Rooms in the first two stories and basement will be fitted up with the completion of the building, and extra space will be left in the third story for such use as the requirements of the University may demand. The vestibule at the main entrance is designed to be faced to the height of nine feet, with a dado of fluted brown stone, and above with buff colored brick; the floor to be laid in red tile, and the ceiling made of oak. The main hall will be reached through a small lobby. From the hall two staircases will lead to the floor above, and will be finished in oak of plain but handsome design.

The lower floor will contain five large rooms; one of these being the main lecture room, situated at the north end of the building, fifty by fifty-five feet in size, and containing seats for three hundred persons, arranged in amphitheatrical order.

On the second floor will be six recitation rooms, offices for the instructors, and a large lecture room. The north end of this lecture room will be seven sided, and the ceiling will be formed by the roof-timbers, giving a height of twenty-four feet. It will contain fifteen large windows.

The basement will contain ten large rooms, and the engine which will be furnished with steam from the college heating plant, and will drive the blower and fans of a ventilating apparatus. This apparatus admits of any amount of hot or cold air being brought to the registers through separate pipes.

The carving of the exterior will be very elaborate. The building will be finished by the opening of the fall term at least, and there is a chance of its being opened at commencement time.

April Outing.

With the April number Outing begins its fourteenth year of prosperity. The first article is one of much interest to all, and especially so to those who have visited any of the recent dog shows. The contribution on Clumber Spaniels is profusely illustrated, and cannot fail to interest one who owns any kind of a dog. The cyclist's story "A Wheelman's Fatalities" is light and pleasant reading. E. M. Garnett continues "The Evolution of Form in College Rowing" in a discussion on the "Bob Cook" and "Storror" strokes. The lover of the gun and rod will be well repaid by reading the articles on American elk and trout fishing in Canada, while for a story "Not Guilty" will make him justly indignant. The admirers of fast horses have two articles; one on "Coursing in Ireland" and the other on English racing. In view of the recent challenge for the America's cup, the article on the Larchmont Yacht Club and its representative yachts will be read with interest by many. The number taken as a whole is a remarkably good one, and well deserves whatever time may be spent on it.

College Items.

The uniform of the Yale nine is the same as that of last year except that the Y is sewed to the pocket of the shirt, and the shoes are of black leather.

Columbia has consented to the participation of Yale in the Columbia—Harvard Freshman race, provided Harvard is willing. If Harvard does not agree to this the challenge will not be accepted.

The Harvard nine has a surplus of $3,650. The eleven has a debt of $1784.

Twenty-four men have been appointed as a committee at Yale to collect subscriptions for the new gymnasium.

The Princeton Glee Club start on their Western trip April 10th giving their first concert in Buffalo.

C. K. Ober, the college secretary of the Y.M.C.A., is going the rounds of the colleges making arrangements for the men who expect to go to Northfield in the summer.

The ground for Vassar's new gymnasium has just been broken; the construction will go speedily on during the next three months.

The Yale News says that sixty men have been expelled from Andover during this year. We think that number too large and that forty would be nearer.

Shearman of Yale in the third winter meeting at Harvard, jumped, running, 5 ft. 8 5-8 in., beating the Yale record by 5-8 in. He also broke his previous record, 10 ft. 3 5-8 in. by 3-8 in.

The new board of editors elected for the Yale Record are S. A. York Jr., J. M. Murdock, E. L. Munson, H. Van D. Shaw, B. S. Kohler, and H. C. Foot.

THE ANDOVER PRESS, PRINTERS.

There seems to have been no movement so far this year towards forming a bicycle club. Last year, as in former years, a club of this sort has been successfully formed and carried on. Runs have been made to Lowell, Boston and other neighboring places which have been a source of recreation and exercise to many who otherwise would not have exerted themselves to ride outside of the streets of Andover. Although there are other more important sports to detract from this, owing to the large number of wheels in school, it would seem as though a club might be formed which would add much to the interest in school in this direction.

It is generally conceded, both here and at other schools and colleges, that the spring term is the pleasantest of the three divisions of the school year. After being in a large measure confined for nearly four months to indoor sports and amusements, in addition to the time spent in the pursuance of studies, one is able to fully appreciate the advantages and pleasure to be derived from being able to spend his leisure moments in the open air, whether engaged in athletic sports, or otherwise recreating himself.

Of course base-ball presents more attraction to all at this time than other athletic features of school life, since it is taken up so extensively in and out of college at this season of the year. But little can be said so early in the season of our outlook in this direction, and our chances of success in the final game with Exeter.

Last Friday's game with Dartmouth revealed several places and points of weakness in the nine, such as carelessness in base running, unnecessary muffing, weak batting, etc., all of which may be remedied, at least partially, by hard, constant, and faithful practice. The men have in Mr. Stearns a competent leader and an earnest worker, yet success depends perhaps as much on every man as upon the Captain. Of course the make-up of the nine is subject to change for some time to come, and it is only through willing and faithful work on the part of every man that good results can be hoped for.

The spring tournament forms another pleasant feature of the term before us. It is to be hoped that every man who has any reason whatever to feel himself personally interested in athletics will show his interest by taking part in this, since a lack of contestants in several events will, of course, prove disastrous to a well contested tournament.

Communication.

To Editors of Phillippian:

There were a number of complaints last term, especially among the new fellows, about Philo being very dull. I think we who are not members who ask ourselves the question why these complaints have been made, will see at once that the blame rests upon our own shoulders.

Then if we would see Philo boom, let all of us who are still outside join and do our part to the best of our ability, and I am confident we will hear no more complaints; the only way this can be accomplished is by increasing her membership and our own interest.

A NEW MEMBER.

Class Photographs.

All those who wish to obtain pictures of the foot-ball team of last fall will apply to F. H. Barbour at once as all orders must be out soon. And also the appointment cards will be issued by J. D. Cameron this term for sittings at Notman's. It is particularly advisable that the students have their pictures taken early in the term, as there is always a rush at the end of the term, and a large part of the work is then delayed. As Notman has been chosen class photographer this year, all should go to him; especially the Seniors, and also the school, as he is the best photographer in Boston. Saturdays from two to four is reserved for the students of P.A.

Cape May Team.

The season of the Cape May nine will open on July 1, and the club will be a very strong organization. The membership is made up almost exclusively of college men. The batteries will be Ames and Brokaw of Princeton, Hyndeman and Lansing of the University of Pennsylvania, Stearns and Upton of Andover; the basemen will be Lana of Princeton, McConkey of Yale, and Mowry of Princeton; Shortstop, Campbell of Harvard; outfielders, Knickerbocker of Princeton and Durell and Payne of the same college. The schedule of games arranged includes contests with the Staten Island, Bergen Point, Young America, Riverton, Wynestood, Pottstown, Highland and Bordentown clubs, besides the Beacons of Boston.—Boston Herald.

Class Meeting.

P.A. '91, at a class meeting held last Friday, elected the following officers for the ensuing term: President, Snell; vice-President, R. G. Dodge; Secretary and Treasurer, A. M. Brown.

Y.M.C.A. Business Meeting.

At a business meeting of the Y.M.C.A. last Saturday evening it was decided to appoint a committee to make arrangements for having copies of the constitution printed, and authorized to suggest changes in the constitution subject to the approval of the society.

Schedule of Amateur Lawn Tennis Association.

The executive committee of the A. L. T. A. have made the following arrangements for games during the coming season: Single championship on Aug. 21 at Newport; championship doubles on July 1st at Staten Island.

The remaining dates are:

Flushing L. T. C., June 3 to 8; St. George Cricket Club, June 10 to 15; New Haven, L. T. C., June 17 to 22; Orange L. T. C., June 24 to 29; Springfield, I. T. C., July 15 to 20; Southampton L. T. C., July 22 to 27; Wentworth L. T. C., July 29 to Aug. 3; Nahant and Mt. Desert, Aug. 5 to 10; Narragansett L. T. C., Aug. 12 to 17; Lenox L. T. C., Sept. 2 to 7; and Rochester L. T. C., Sept. 9 to 14. Several other games have been arranged with different clubs of the Association. Many of the P. A. boys will probably have the pleasure of witnessing some of these games.

Sale of Tennis Court.

The Tennis Association held a meeting, Tuesday noon, to sell the tennis court in front of the school building, having no use for it now as they have a dirt court behind the school. Addis acted as auctioneer, and sold it to the highest bidder for $21, who was Bacon, '89.

Anderson, P.S. '90, will not return to school this term.

A cup has been offered for the longest drop kick made with a foot-ball in the Columbia spring games. The kick must exceed ninety feet.

Pictures of the Yale athletic team will be exhibited at the Paris exposition.

Phillips vs. Dartmouth.

The first game of the season (six innings) was played on the campus Friday afternoon between Andover and Dartmouth, which resulted in a defeat for the home team, as was expected. Dartmouth played an excellent game. Andover did not play at all brilliantly, save in the first inning, when Stearns struck the side out. After that he seemed to have lost control of the ball, sending ten men to first on balls; the majority of them scoring. The loss of such players as White, Anderson, and Dalzell had marked effect, and will have not a little to do with our success this season. The team as played was an experiment, which showed that a majority of the men are lamentably weak at the bat, and that hard work will have to be done if they are to be proficient. Upton caught finely, and it is safe to say will give satisfaction this season as successor to Knowlton and Gorman. Leland at first played fairly well, and if he will put a little life into his work, may rest assured that it will be appreciated. Owsley at short played well. Brown at third would be better than at second. The out field had but few chances to display itself. Bliss had but one opportunity, and he embraced that in style.

The game began with Andover at the bat. Dickerman hit to left field and was out at 1st, Hoyt to Gault. Upton made a base hit, stole 2d. Stearns went to 1st on balls, then a wild pitch allowed both Upton and Stearns to score. Owsley flied to Williams. Bliss got 1st on balls, stole 2d, and in trying for 3d on Lansing's base hit, was put out, Hoyt to Williams.

For Dartmouth, Williams struck out. Gault got 1st on balls, reached 2d on error by Brown, but was left then. Woodcock and Abbott both struck out.

Second inning, Brown, Leland, and Lee struck out in regular order. Ranney retired, Stearns to Leland. Hoyt 1st on balls, 2d on wild throw, but out at 3d, Upton to Lee. Norton and Viau both reached 1st on balls and scored on Lee's error, which let Jones safe at 1st. Jones was sent home by Williams' hit. Williams took 2d on an attempt to put out Jones at third. Gault wanted to send both men in, but was out at 1st, Brown to Leland.

Third inning, Dickerman struck out. Upton safe at 1st on Abbott's error, out at 2d, Viau to Williams. Woodcock got 1st on balls, stole 2d, sent to 3d by Ranney's base hit and scored on Ranney's out, while forcing Woodcock at 3d. Abbott struck at the air three times, and took his seat on the player's bench. Hoyt out at 1st, Stearns to Leland.

Fourth inning Owsley struck out. Bliss 1st on balls 2d on a pass and scored on Lansing's out, Ranney to Gault. Brown flied to Viau. Norton made a neat base hit to left, 2d on wild pitch. Viau 1st on balls, took 2d on pass while Norton went to 3rd; then both men scored on Jones' hit. Jones scored later on Gault's base hit. Williams flied to Owsley. Gault stole 2d and 3rd, Woodcock was out, Upton to Stearns. Abbott 1st on balls; both Abbott and Gault were left on bases. Ranney was retired, Stearns to Leland.

Fifth inning, Leland hit along right foul line and Gault fielded him out. Lee struck out, Dickerman out. Norton to Gault. Hoyt, 1st on balls, stole 2d and 3rd, scored on Viau's hit. Norton struck out. Viau thought he would have some fun between 1st and 2d but was put out for running out of line. Jones 1st on balls but stayed there as Williams flied to Bliss.

Sixth inning. Upton opened the sixth inning with a rattling two base hit. Stearns hit a hot one to Viau who fielded it and then made a wild throw to 1st letting both men cross the home plate. Owsley struck out. Bliss flied to Woodcock. Lansing reached 1st on missed third strike and took 2d on a passed ball. Side retired by Brown striking out. Gault made a hit to centre and got 2d on a wild throw. Woodcock flied to Stearns. Abbott made a base hit, sending Gault home, stole 2d but was left there as Ranney struck out. Hoyt retired. Stearns to Leland. The following is the official score:

In the boat race between the Cambridge and Oxford Universities, the Cambridge boat won by four lengths; but of forty-six races rowed between the two Universities, Oxford has won twenty-three, Cambridge twenty-two, and one was a tie.

Harvard and Yale have decided to play their foot-ball game next fall at Springfield, if proper grounds and necessary railroad arrangements can be made.

Princeton was defeated by Jersey City in a well played game on Saturday last, by the score of 2 to 0. Only two safe hits were secured off Ame's delivery.

The Seniors drop French and German this term.

Candee, P. S. '90 spent most of his vacation at Quincy, Mass.

Baker P. A. '92 formerly of E. C. 5-2, has moved to L. C. 2-6.

Osborne, P. A. '91, visited friends in Boston and vicinity during vacation.

Rev. Frederick R. Abbe ex-P. A. '44 died a week ago last Sunday in Dorchester.

An interesting course of lectures have been going on at the Theological Seminary.

The snow-storm of Sunday the 31st prevented the intended work on the campus.

The old rule once more holds true, "if March comes in like a lamb, it will go out like a lion."

This year's Glee Club has been a success financially, which cannot be said of that of last year.

Those who spent their vacation in Andover were compelled to amuse themselves indoors.

It is rumored that Princeton will have only two sets of examinations hereafter, February and June.

The tennis courts are being prepared for the coming season, and several are already relined.

Several boarders in Commons have changed their boarding-place for the term and are now taking meals at the Hayward House.

About ten of the Academy boys attended evening service at the South Church last Sunday although it was very stormy.

Beers, ex-P. A. '83, and ex-P. S. '84, now a student at the Yale Theological Seminary, has been visiting in Andover for a few days.

A photograph has been taken of those persons who took part in the mock trial, which was held at the last meeting of Philo last term.

On account of the roads being so muddy the party intending to walk to Salem were compelled to postpone their trip until some future time.

Electric lights are to be put up in town for trial. In case such a method of lighting should be adopted by the town,
the afternoon chapel service on Sunday
would probably be changed to five o'clock.

By mistake it was stated that the outside meetings being carried on by some of the fellows were held in the schoolhouse of the Scotland District.
Instead it is the Holt District.

A BAD BREAK.

We were seated in the hammock,
It was some time after dark,
And the silence grew longer
After each subdued remark.
With her head upon my shoulder,
And my arms about her close,
Soon I whispered, growing bolder,
"Do you love me, darling Rose?"
Were her accents low, to equal
All my heart had dared to hope?
Ah! I never knew the sequel,
For her brother cut the rope!
