CORRECT DRESSING.

Gentlemen often hesitate about patronizing the highest class of tailors on account of the price; but the extra charge over ordinary tailors is not profit, or a tax for reputation; but represents actual value received. Many garments are out of style when new, simply because ill proportioned and not correctly cut; the wearer does not know what the matter is, but is conscious of a difference between his own clothes and those of others he meets in society. Men who can afford it make a great mistake in not wearing the best designed clothes, as the result represents the best selection of London materials, and the finest workmanship, combined with artistic cutting. We make a specialty of strictly fine tailoring, and every one of our workmen is a skilled mechanic, capable of producing artistic results. We have nothing but the best foreign wools, and in exclusive patterns shown only to the few high-class houses; all gentlemen of taste are invited to call, as goods will be cheerfully shown.

May Breakfast.

The plan of giving a May breakfast which was inaugurated in Andover last year with such great success was again tried this year with even better fortune than last. The affair was well advertised and arrangements were made for seating 1,000 persons. Each of the churches in town had a separate table managed by persons who had undertaken that difficult part of the business, and a large corps of waiters, both ladies and gentlemen had been pressed into the service. The breakfast was opened at five o'clock, and from that time until eight a continuous stream of people was passing in and out of the hall. The tables presented a very neat appearance, and the company in the hall was a very lively one. Flowers were used liberally, and those of the guests who wanted them for personal use could procure them at a counter provided for that purpose. The Phillips Academy orchestra occupied the platform, and from time to time rendered suitable selections.

Y.M.C.A.

At the last regular business meeting of the Y.M.C.A. it was decided to elect officers for the entire ensuing year instead of for the ensuing term as heretofore. Also a letter was read by the corresponding secretary from the international committee giving notice of the international convention to be held at Philadelphia from the eighth to the twelfth of May, and urging that a delegate be chosen conjointly by Inquiry and Y.M.C.A., who shall attend the convention as representing the christian element of Phillips Academy. The society then appointed Mr. Snell as the delegate, subject to the approval of Inquiry. At the Wednesday evening meeting of Inquiry, last week, Mr. Snell was approved of by the society, and provided the faculty are willing, which is not to be doubted, he will represent the two societies at the convention. This convention will probably be the largest ever held so far by the Association, and it is very important and much to be desired that Phillips Academy identify herself as being represented in such a convention of christian delegates.

Dr. Pick's Lecture on Memory.

The first lecture of the course of five to be delivered by Dr. Pick came off Thursday afternoon in room nine at half past one o'clock. The class was made up of about seventy of the students and three of the faculty. The most interesting part of the lecture was the explanation of his method of remembering the order of the rulers of England. The next lecture will take place Monday night at 6.30 o'clock. A few words on the life of Dr. Pick may be of interest to the students. The name of Dr. Edward Pick, the famous German philosopher, for the last twenty years has been familiar to circles of learned men, chiefly because of his authority in matters of psychology and language during his serious studies and teachings in Germany and England, and as a result of his achievements as a publisher of numerous works containing several unique philosophic systems. These books have attracted the attention of the world, and have been the starting point for many famous controversies and agitations; one especially, "A Rational Means of Improving Memory," completely demolished the old ideas of schools of Memoria Technica of Aime, Paris, and Leibnitz. Dr. Pick brings introductions from the most famous educators of Europe, and since his arrival in America has received considerable attention at the hands of the great periodicals, The Nation and Westminster Review especially eulogizing the man and his methods.

The Harvard Andover Club Prizes.

We print below the notice received from the Andover Club at Harvard in regard to the prizes offered for excellence in English composition.

The Harvard Andover Club offers two prizes, of $15 and $10, for excellence in English composition and elementary Rhetoric. The competition is open to all members of the Senior and Middle classes of both departments of the Academy. The prizes will be awarded on the basis of two examinations. The first examination (two hours) will be on elementary Rhetoric. It will consist in part of questions on the subject-matter of A. S. Hill's Rhetoric, pages 1-62 and 79-84, and in part of the correction of specimens of bad English like those set on the Harvard entrance papers in English. The second examination (one hour and a half) will consist of a short English composition upon one of several subjects announced at the time of the examination. The subjects will concern school life at Andover. The papers will be prepared by a committee of the Andover Club acting in conference with one of the instructors in English in Harvard College. They will be sent to the Andover faculty before June first.

In regard to the composition, attention is specially called to Hill's Rhetoric, pages 79-86. The compositions will be judged largely with reference to their simplicity, directness, and freedom from elementary errors. The prizes will be awarded by a committee appointed by the Andover club, subject to the approval of the faculty of the Academy.

Tennis Tournament.

The tennis tournament has resulted so far as follows: Farnum and Dodge vs. Brown and Hooker, won by Farnum and Dodge, 7-1, 5-6, 6-2; Farnum and Day vs. Sawyer and Wells, won by Farnum and Day, 6-0, 8-5; Spaulding and Moore vs. Babbitt and Eaton, won by Spaulding and Moore, 6-3, 6-1.

Notman, the school photographer, will be in Andover next Tuesday to take the different classes and the school. If there are any other groups to be taken, please notify one of the committee at once.

THE ANDOVER PRESS. PRINTERS.

Our own tournament which will be held on Saturday, the first of June, will serve as a preliminary tournament to the interscholastic meeting with Exeter. The Association has purposely offered a larger number of events than usual, and they will select from the list in proportion to the entries, a sufficient number of events to nicely occupy an afternoon. The class spirit has seemingly flagged this year, perhaps owing to the doing away with the tug-of-war at the winter tournament, and in order to excite a higher class feeling, which we believe materially benefits the school, a new contest will be offered with which to close up the tournament, viz. a "bean-pot race." This is contested by a team of four runners from each class, and if held will take the place of the class base-ball game, unless the classes organize a league for that purpose and arrange their own prize. The Athletic Association tries to do its best to make the field day interesting, and the fellows ought to do their

All names for entries to the events for the spring tournament should be handed to Mr. E. R. Sanford, Secretary, on or before May 25.

In an editorial of our last issue we published an article which reflected severely on the action of the faculty last Tuesday. Our opinion in regard to the decision of the faculty is still unchanged. We offered our criticism in a candid way, but it was not our intention to offend or attempt to lessen the dignity of the faculty in any way whatever. We regret, however, that the form of expression could cause offence. The relations existing between the faculty and the students have, within our remembrance, been of an exceptionally harmonious character, and we believe that this harmony and the welfare of the school is promoted by a free exchange of opinions.

There has been a slight decrease in the attendance at Inquiry on Sunday evenings lately, but it is hoped that as there are only a few more weeks in the term that there will be a full attendance at each meeting. Let every fellow come to-morrow evening.

Running Interests.

In the thirty-eight days which remain before our contest with Exeter it is of the utmost importance for every man who can run a hundred yards in less than twelve seconds or a mile in eight minutes to buckle down to hard, whole-hearted work. Mr. Pettee has already begun to train the men. For the hundred yards the cinder path in the Seminary grounds will probably be used while the mile runners will train on the old turnpike. The time made Thursday afternoon was fair, but the runners seemed afraid of showing what they were worth and displayed very little knowledge of starting. Of course these faults may be overcome but if they are, it will only be by exceedingly hard work which if successful will bring much deserved praise on the competitors. The Athletic Association has already appeared to the school and it now remains for each individual member to see that we win at least seven events. Mr. Pettee or Mr. Cartwright will be only too happy to receive the names of any desiring to train either with a view to compete in the tournament or simply for the personal benefit which may be derived from systematic exercise.

The Y.M.C.A. Convention.

The 28th International Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of North America to be held next week in Philadelphia is expected to be the largest and most important Association meeting ever held. Special rates for delegates have been secured from many of the railroads on the continent, and societies all over the United States and Canada will have full representations there. Accommodations in the city will be provided for the delegates. For all others in attendance reduced prices have been obtained at several different hotels in the city. Interesting and important topics will be discussed, and reports showing the wonderful and encouraging progress of the Association work submitted to the convention. President Ritton of Princeton, and President Raymond of Lawrence University, Wisconsin, are to give important addresses, and an evening session of the convention and a separate college conference will be granted to the college delegates.

It is planned to get up an excursion to Washington on Monday following the adjournment, for the enjoyment and convenience of the many delegates who will no doubt desire to see the national capital. This will certainly be a wonderful gathering in the "city of brotherly love," and the results to those who attend, to the city itself, and to the country at large will be immeasurable.

Notice.

As it takes five weeks to develop pictures, the fellows would do well to sit for their pictures early, and have them ready for exchange before school closes. Apply to F. H. Barlow and J. D. Cameron for appointments.

College Items.

The National Athletic team will start for Europe about June 1.

Harvard students who have graduated from other colleges and are working in different departments of the University have reported favorably to the committee appointed to look into Harvard's moral and intellectual life, and propose to form a club soon.

Clark University is to be opened next October. No catalogue has yet been issued, but the plans will soon be made known. As yet but three members of the faculty, excepting President Hall, have been chosen. President Hall is now abroad for the purpose of securing the services of eminent Germans. The college, though maintaining an individuality of its own, will to an extent be like John Hopkins, and not intended to conflict with Yale, Harvard, and similar colleges. It will aim to fit students for the exceptional work demanded of scientists.

Yale is very hopeful of possessing a new gymnasium at an early date. $115,000 of the necessary $180,000 has already been subscribed. With a view of getting the remainder, eight hundred circulars have been sent to alumni in and about New York soliciting their assistance. Like Andover, Yale has felt the need of a "gym," and proposes to exert its every effort toward securing its desire.

The corresponding Secretary of the Y.M.C.A. has received a communication from the college Secretary of the central international committee, desiring a report of the numerical strength of Christianity in the school. The secretary of this committee is now in Japan, and wishes reports in regard to this matter from the leading colleges and schools in the country in order to counteract the efforts made by sceptical men to persuade the natives that Christianity is losing its hold among the educated people of America.

Andover vs. Amherst.

The best game of ball played on the campus this season was that on Thursday afternoon between Andover and Amherst. Both teams played a sharp fielding game until the seventh inning, when by costly errors by Andover supplemented by three hits for Amherst, four runs were scored after two men were out, and several easy chances to retire the third man had been given. Amherst had in her crack pitcher, Hare, who was exceedingly hard to hit; his support was almost faultless. Stearns pitched a good game, and Upton gave him fine support. Dickerman's running catch of Belcher's fly to centre; and Sexton's work at short were the features in fielding. Pond's work at first was the best exhibition that he has yet given. Owsley played finely until in the sixth inning he was run into by Sullivan and had to retire in favor of Fox. Leland made the only double play in the eighth itning. McCormick distinguished himself by making one of the three hits that were made by Andover.

The game began with Andover at the bat. Dickerman struck out. Upton was an easy out, Hare to Belcher. Four bad balls sent Stearns to 1st, where he remained, for Owsley went out, Sexton to Belcher. For Amherst Belcher fouled to Brown. Storr flied to Leland, while Sullivan fouled to Upton.

Second inning, Leland out, Hare to Belcher. Lansing made a hit, but was out by running over 2d. McCormick struck out. Walbridge struck out. Thayer made a hit, but was forced out at 2d by Sexton who went to 3d on a passed ball, but did not cross the home plate as Allen struck out.

Third inning, Brown out, Sexton to Belcher. Pond retired at first, Sexton to Belcher, while Dickerman struck out. Burns out, Owsley to Pond. Hare took 1st on balls, stole 2d. Belcher struck out. Storrs then made a hit that was too hot for Stearns to handle, sending Hare across the plate, stole 2d, but was left as Sullivan fouled to Upton.

Fourth inning, Upton out, Sexton to Belcher. Stearns made a hit, and went to 3d on a passed ball, but was not able to score for Owsley struck out and Leland fouled to Belcher. Walbridge reached 1st on Owsley's error, but he came to grief trying to steal 2d, Upton to Leland. Thayer out, Owsley to Pond. Sexton struck out.

Fifth inning, Lansing 1st on balls, then McCormick made a rattling hit to centre, advancing Lansing to 3d. McCormick stole 2d. A passed ball let Lansing score, while McCormick took 3d. Hare quickly disposed of Brown, Pond, and Dickerman in regular order. Allen was an easy out, Leland to Pond. Burns struck out. Hare took 1st on balls, and would have scored had not Dickerman made a fine running catch of Belcher's fly.

Sixth inning, Upton struck out. Stearns 1st on balls, took 3d on Belcher's error, but was left as Owsley struck out, and Leland flied to Thayer. Storrs was given a base by Leland's error, stole 2d and 3d, and scored, error by Owsley. Sullivan out, Stearns to Pond. Walbridge made a hit. Again Owsley made an error letting Thayer at 1st and Walbridge 3d, but no scores were made as Sexton struck out and Allen was a victim at 1st, Stearns to Pond.

Seventh inning, Lansing out, Hare to Belcher. McCormick flied to Belcher, and Brown struck out. Brown safe on error by Owsley, stole 2d. Hare struck out. Belcher out, Brown to Pond. An error by Leland and hits by Sullivan, Walbridge, and Thayer gave Amherst four runs making score six to one in Amherst's favor. Neither side scored in eighth inning. Pond and Dickerman both struck out, while Upton fouled to Belcher. Allen out, Leland to Pond. Fox fumbled and Burns was safe, but he redeemed himself by fielding Hare's hit to Leland, retiring both Burns and Hare. Andover failed to score in the ninth.

Phillipiana.

P.S. '90 is reviewing the metric system.

Robinson, P.A. '90 is having trouble with his eyes.

Prof. Comstock gave his class a short talk on the care of the eyes, Monday.

The team have received their suits.

Ladies will be admitted to the memory
lectures.

The Botany class are busy getting specimens.

Mention of our grand stand has been made in the Yale News recently.

The Exeter faculty voted against the admittance of White to play on the team.

Latin Commons base-ball men were out at an early hour Tuesday morning practising.

Mr. Pettee had the good fortune to hear all the speeches in New York last Tuesday.

Part of Exeter's nine saw the game
Thursday and judging from their looks went back considerably encouraged.

Pond, who enters P.S. '90 preparatory for the Yale Sheffield School, will play first base for some time at least.

The Middlers are now taking the third book of the Aeneid as review work in Latin.

A small party of English Commons fellows attempted to serenade Latin Commons Monday evening, but for lack of courage gave them the benefit of their programme at quite a distance on the campus.

The Hare and Hound Club is now regularly organized, with Mr. Lyon as President. The intention is to hold runs about twice a week; short distances
at first, and then gradually increasing.
All are invited to take part.

An original rhyme,—

"Not grand and sublime,
But sparkling and bright."

Did you think, I'd indite

Such a metrical crime,

When you ask me to write
An original rhyme?

This page is a sight;

I am not worth a dime.

Pray, excuse me to-night.

I'll do better next time
