

The Phillipian.

VOL. XII.

PHILLIPS ACADEMY, ANDOVER, MASS., JANUARY 22, 1890.

NO. 29

Salem St. 2, English Commons 1.

The first hockey game of the season was played by the Salem Street and English Commons teams on Saturday on the meadow back of the Gymnasium. Play was begun at about 2.30 and shortly after Eastman made the first goal for Salem Street. After some sharp playing Ames followed with a goal for English Commons thus tying the score. Salem Street, however, soon scored again, and thus won the game by a score of 2-1. Although the game did not last more than twenty minutes the playing was sharp throughout, and at times exciting. For Salem Street, Camden (Captain) and Eastman did the best work, and for English Commons Hinkey (Captain), Neale, and Ames.

Andover-Exeter.

The following communication from the Faculty to Messrs. Stearns, Bliss, and Addis explains itself.

ANDOVER, MASS., Jan. 18, 1890.

The Faculty of the Phillips Academy at Andover desire to say in reply to the petition of Messrs. Stearns, Bliss, and Addis;

That they appreciate the desire of the petitioners, and those whom they represent, for the installation of a new series of athletics between the Phillips Academy at Andover and Phillips Exeter Academy, and are willing, as they have been from the beginning, to co-operate with the Exeter Faculty, when advised by them of similar willingness on their part, in the joint establishment and maintenance of such rules and regulations as will protect the games from incidents and occurrences like those which led to the summary close of the former series.

The Faculty desire, as an advisory committee, to call attention, in case a new series is begun, to the importance of providing in the new regulations for the seasonable appointment of judges, umpires, etc.; a point which seemed not sufficiently guarded heretofore. Also to the importance of an explicit understanding between the two schools as to the games which under the old scheme would have been played in June, October, and November, 1889.

The PHILLIPIAN is unable to print a notice in this issue of the action which the Faculty at Exeter has doubtless taken on the matter by this time, since the regular meeting of the Exeter Faculty occurs on Tuesday evening. However there is no apparent cause for either school to feel doubtful as to the outcome of the matter, as the spirit and essential points of the above document are not such as would seem to give the slightest cause for hesitating on the part of the Exeter Faculty. It will doubtless be generally known very soon—and perhaps is already known at the time the PHILLIPIAN goes to print—whether by the action of the Faculty at Exeter the three contests which occurred in the spring last year are assured to the schools this year or not, and by Saturday at the latest it is probable that all hindrances will be settled and done away with.

Class Meeting.

P.S. '90

On Mr. Mayers calling a meeting to find out what action the class would take as regards the Senior present, it was moved by Mr. Hollister, and seconded by Mr. Tarbox that P.S. '90 should act independently of P.A.; the motion was carried. The president appointed Messrs. Grant, Perham, and Sargent to confer with Prof. Graves about the matter. At the same meeting Messrs. Hollister and Weston were appointed to co-operate with the committee of P.A. about the class ride.

Base-ball at Exeter.

The Exonian of January 18 contains an article on the base-ball prospects of that academy, from which we have obtained the following facts. The candidates have already gone into active training in the gymnasium. White (captain) will in all probability occupy his old position in the box. There are three candidates for this position. For catcher there are four candidates; eighteen men are trying for positions in the out-field, and seventeen for the in-field; of whom five are trying for first base, four for second, four for third, and four for short stop. This makes a total of forty-three men who are trying for positions. Of this number three were members of last year's team, namely, White, Smith, and Saunders. The chances for selecting a good nine from these men are of the best, and in all probability Exeter will put a nine in the field next spring fully as strong, if not stronger than that of last year.

Senior Club.

The Senior Club under Prof. Coy met for the first time on Saturday evening in the school library with a promising out-look for an instructive and profitable course during the winter. The meetings are conducted under the same general plan as other years.

The following men are availing themselves of the advantages which the club affords:

Beard,	Craig,
Bard,	Cross,
Brown,	Cummings,
Campbell,	Dodge,
Chamberlain,	Eaton,
Cochran,	Emerson,
Griffin,	Pomeroy,
Lamprey,	Robinson,
Lane,	Taylor,
Moseley,	Smith,
Osgood,	Williams.

Mr. Taylor read an essay on the book entitled "For the Right," and Mr. Smith on the book entitled "Adam Bede." At the next meeting on Jan. 26, essays will be read by Cummings, Brown, and Griffin, after which there will be a discussion according to parliamentary law, during which one fellow chosen by the club will preside. Cushing's Manual will be used as authority, and it is recommended that each member provide himself with a copy at once.

Winter Tournament.

The officers of the Athletic Association have decided to have the following events in the winter tournament:

- Feather Weight Sparring.
- Light Weight Sparring.
- Middle Weight Sparring.
- Heavy Weight Sparring.
- Feather Weight Wrestling.
- Light Weight Wrestling.
- Middle Weight Wrestling.
- Heavy Weight Wrestling.
- Fence Vault.
- Putting the Shot (16 pounds).
- Parallel Bars.
- Hitch and Kick.
- Indian Clubs.
- Running High Jump.
- Horizontal Bar.
- Tumbling.
- Trapeze.
- Rope Climbing.
- Rings.

As it is earnestly desired that the tournament be of special interest this year, all those who have taken first prizes here will be allowed to enter in the same events only where handicaps can be given. Names should be handed as soon as possible to Mosely, '90, Secretary.

Athletics at Harvard.

Harvard has again been tinkering with her athletics. This time it is done by the "Committee on the Regulation of Athletic Sports," and is summed up in the rules, first, that Harvard shall engage in intercollegiate contests only in New England; second, that the former rule does not apply to this year; and third, that Harvard shall urge that no one be a member of any university team who is not a candidate for the A. B. or B. S. degree or a special student in the college or scientific school. The Crimson says, regarding the rules, that unless a dual league is formed, Harvard will be out of all systematised intercollegiate athletics, but that the eyes of the public will be centered on her athletics as much as on those of any other college.

In consequence of the regulations Captain Linn of the base-ball nine, and manager Burnett have sent to Mr. McCoy, the secretary of the college base-ball league, a formal withdrawal of Harvard from the league, and Mr. McCoy has sent his withdrawal as secretary of the league to Captain Calhoun of the Yale team.

The Yale News speaking editorially says that this, in effect, dissolves the league, and the only course open to Yale is to arrange an independent series of games with both Harvard and Princeton.

Yale Junior Appointments.

The Junior appointment list at Yale, which was announced last week, contains the following Andover men:

- "Philosophical Orations," Cox.
- "High Orations," Bancroft and Tweedy.
- "Orations," Graves and McClung.
- "Dissertations," Kernochan and Moyle.
- "Second Disputes," Carter, McBean, Poole, Walcott, and Walton.
- "First Colloquies," Barnett, G. F. Smith, and Thompson.

All those who were awarded philosophical and high orations become members of Phi, Beta, Kappa.

The Phillipian will be issued every Wednesday and Saturday during the school year except in vacation.

All communications must be accompanied by the writer's full name and address, not necessarily for publication unless so desired.

Communications may be addressed to the Phillipian, Andover, Mass., or dropped in the Phillipian box placed in the main hall of the Academy building.

The editors do not hold themselves responsible for the opinions of any correspondent.

THE ANDOVER PRESS, PRINTERS.

The reading room committee have certainly acted wisely in deciding to substitute gasoline for the kerosene now used in the reading room. The expenses attending this is a matter that the school should bear as a whole, and in view of the fact that the reading room is one of the most essential, most used, and most enjoyed of school equipments, it is to be hoped that a sufficient sum will be speedily raised at the school meeting which will be called for that purpose. The lamps in present use are a poor accommodation, and necessitate repeated white-washing of the walls and ceiling, owing to a way they are treated by those using the room. As electricity has been found impracticable at present, the present scheme is the best one for securing proper light.

Now that the events of the winter tournament have been decided upon, the PHILLIPIAN wishes to again urge those interested to select their events, and to commence training as soon as possible. The outlook for a good tournament is by no means poor. The present interest in sparring connected with Mr. Dole's class, and the forming of a sparring class later by Mr. Norton, formerly instructor at Harvard, will doubtless insure some sharp contest in this line, and the other events can be made equally interesting if the new material in the school does not hesitate to come out. There will probably be an opportunity for some to enter the meeting of the Boston Athletic Association on Feb. 15, which is of course a desirable thing to do. The training necessary for entering this meeting will certainly better one's chances of winning in the tournament here, and it is to be hoped that several will enter from P.A.

Alumnorum.

Walter Oakes, P.A. '83, Harvard '87, the son of President Oakes of the Northern Pacific, has been appointed Secretary and Treasurer of the Puget Sound and Alaska Steamship Company. This is a new line, and will compete with the Union Pacific steamers for the coast traffic.

Fred Arthur Howland, P.A. '84, Dartmouth '87, is private secretary to Gov Dillingham, Waterbury, Vt.

Hon. E. Moody Boynton, '53, is pushing forward with characteristic energy his bicycle railway, and has a working road a mile and a quarter long at Gravesend, Long Island. If successful, as it has proved to be thus far, it will revolutionize the railway traffic of the world. The points claimed are economy of construction and operation, safety, comfort, and a speed three or four times greater than is attained by present methods. Mr. Boynton gave the bell for the Seminary chapel in 1876.

Shearman, '89, who was taking a post-graduate course at Yale has recently left college. Yale men now feel discouraged concerning the inter-collegiate meeting, as they expected Shearman would win both the broad jump and pole vault.

The Princeton base-ball cage will be ready for use February 10.
