Communications.

Editors of Phillipian:

As the time for contributions for the Mirror to be handed in is fast approaching, we would again like to call the attention of those who are intending to hand, in matter to the fact that the date fixed is Saturday, February 15. Thus far the interest which has been taken is very slight; especially in Grinds; yet we trust that many are reserving their efforts until the last moment.

Contributions may be handed to any one of the editors between now and Saturday.

Editors { C. A. Robinson
H. P. Moseley
G. R. Noyes

Editors of Phillipian:

A communication which appeared in the PHILLIPIAN some time ago proposing three contests with Exeter in base-ball and foot-ball aroused so much interest that the subject ought not to be dropped, at least not without further consideration of the merits of the plan. Now, when the old agreement is being amended by the representatives of the two schools, is just the time to consider such a change, and the majority of the fellows regard this plan very favorably. As its advantages are so many it is probable that the feeling at Exeter is much the same, and would it not be, well, therefore, for the committee to suggest this change to Exeter's representatives, or at least consider the matter further?

Yale vs. Atalanta.

According to the Boston Herald of Monday:

"Yale has agreed to row the eight-oared crew of the Atalanta Boat Club. The race will take place on Lake Saltonstall, near New Haven, ten days before Yale rows Harvard on the Thames."

The result of this race will be watched with great interest. In 1871 the Atalantas had the honor of defeating both Harvard and Yale; since that year frequent efforts have been made to induce Yale to row the sturdy oarsmen of the Harlem. Captain Van Raden of the Atalantas will allow the Yale men all the sway they wish in regard to conditions, lest any complication might lead to a postponement of the race.

Preliminary Contest at Yale.

The first of the preliminary contests in shot-putting and high jumping held in the gymnasium at Yale, took place Friday evening before a large number of spectators. The work done by the contestants was excellent in consideration of the fact that the men had had no practice before. In the shot-putting H. H. Elcock, M.S., was scratch at 35 feet. Mills, '93, won the cup for the evening with an actual put of 33 feet, 4 inches. The contestants for the high jump did exceedingly well, and brought out several promising candidates for the Mott-Haven team. Tenny, '91 and Dunstan, D.S., were tied for first place at 5 feet 5 1-2 inches, but the toss was resorted to, and Tenny won, thus holding the cup for the ensuing week.

Yale-Princeton Schedule.

A meeting of the representatives of Yale and Princeton's Base-ball Association was recently held, and a schedule of games made out, which is as follows:

May 3. At New Haven.

May 10. At Princeton.

May 24. At New York

It is thought that Harvard will, later in the season, arrange some games with Princeton.

The New England Collegiate Base-Ball Association.

The New England Collegiate Base-ball Association held a meeting at the Parker House in Boston Friday evening with President A. F. Clark, of Williams, in the chair. Trinity is no longer a member of the league, as it failed to play all its games last year. The National League rules were adopted with the exception that whether a ball was a foul tip or foul fly was left to the discretion of the umpire. The judiciary committee is to consist of the three captains of the nines. Most of the teams will play with Brown, though she has withdrawn from the league. The following were the officers elected: President, A. W. Clemenshaw, Williams; first vice-President, Edwin Duffy, Dartmouth; second vice-President, C. G. Dubois, Amherst; Secretary and Treasurer, G. B. Stovers, Dartmouth. The following games were arranged:

May 7. Williams at Amherst.

May 16, 17. Dartmouth at Williams.
May 25, 24. Amherst at Dartmouth.
May 30. Amherst at Williams.
June 3, 4. Dartmouth at Amherst.
June 7. Amherst at Williams.
June 13, 14. Williams at Dartmouth.
June 21. Williams at Amherst.

Senior Club.

The regular meeting of the Senior Club was held last Saturday evening. Mr. Taylor was chosen to act as chairman by the club. Mr. Lane rendered two selections from "Romola," after which Mr. Robinson read the second half of his paper on "Rienze." A select reading entitled "Mr. Gilfils Love Story" by George Eliot, was then read by Mr. Osgood. Owing to some misunderstanding Mr. Beard's essay was omitted, thus giving an opportunity for parliamentary practice in which all became warmly interested, and received much benefit. At the next meeting essays will be read by Messrs. Eaton and Beard.

Alumnorum.

John Crosby, P.A. '86, Yale '90, spoke at the Long Island Yale Alumni dinner to the toast "Greeting from the Campus" February 4.

E. W. Dustin, P.S. '85, Yale Divinity School, entered for the high jump at the first Yale gymnasium contest Saturday evening last, and O. H. Brown, P.A. '89, for putting the shot.

O. A. Schreiber, ex-'89, presented the resolutions of the Sophomore class at Yale, looking to the abandonment of the somewhat juvenile disturbances which have heretofore made Washington's birthday at New Haven a source of considerable annoyance.

Thirty-one Sheff. Seniors got appointments, among them W. P. Brown and H. G. Day who fitted at Andover. The highest number of appointments heretofore was twenty-one.

Campbell and Bartlett, both P.A. '88, Williams '92, have been elected as two of the Gull editors.

Mr. Warren F. Draper, P.A. '43, has presented to the library a poetical translation of the Culex of Virgil by the late Lucius M. Sargent. It is number one hundred and four in the Virgil library, and was published in 1808.

College Items.

Cornell's new laboratory will cost $80,000.

Hon. Seth Low is the eleventh president of Columbia.

The Cornell Glee and Banjo Clubs will take a trip to the West during the spring vacation.

Harvard's athletics in all the branches cost each student about $25 last year.

The next commencement will be the twenty-fifth anniversary of the opening of Vassar College.

The Mapes brothers will again represent Columbia in the inter-collegiate games this spring.

Cornell University was awarded a gold medal at the Paris exposition for its educational exhibit.

Harvard has six, Yale five, and Princeton three graduates in the United States Senate.

Nineteen Sheff. Freshmen have been suspended on account of their Latin condition not being passed off.

For the junior exhibition at Yale 67 per cent of the whole class were appointed, and 61 per cent of the athletes, showing that the athletes stand nearly as well as the average student.

There is some talk of uniting the Harvard, Yale and Princeton Southern Clubs in one solid fraternity, but no action has yet been taken in the matter.

It is reported that a league will be formed by the Freshmen of Columbia, Cornell, University of Pennsylvania, and Bowdoin on account of Harvard's refusal to row the Columbia Freshmen.

The Rev. Lewis F. Stearns, D.D., P.A. '63, professor of Theology in Bangor Seminary, is giving a course of lectures on Missions before the Union Theological Seminary in New York City.

Seven Yale men have announced their intention of competing in the games of the Boston Athletic Association. They are: Robinson, '90, for the 50 yard, 220 yd. and 440 yd. dashes; Deming, '90 S., for the 50 yd. dash and high jump; Lentilhon, '90, S., for the 50 yd. and 220 yd. dashes and the 1-4 mile run; Tenny, '91, high jump; Lloyd, '91, 1-2 mile and mile runs; Ryder, '91, pole vault; Kitchell, '92, high jump.

The Phillipian will be issued every Wednesday and Saturday during the school year except in vacation.

All communications must be accompanied by the writer's full name and address, not necessarily for publication unless so desired.

Communications may be addressed to the Phillipian, Andover, Mass., or dropped in the Phillipian box placed in the main hall of the Academy building.

The editors do not hold themselves responsible for the opinions of any correspondent.

THE ANDOVER PRESS, PRINTERS.

At the last meeting of the PHILLIPIAN board, Townsend, '91, was elected an editor.

How is it that we do not get any more money than we do? While not absolutely in poverty we are so very near it as to derive no comfort from the proximity, and a good round sum could be spent here without any of it being misapplied or lavished on luxuries. The physical laboratory has stood in an unfinished condition for several years; the plans for a new Commons dining hall were drawn up before any present member of the school came here; on one or two rare occasions a vague rumor has arisen of the possible probability of building at some time or other some new dormitories for Commons; and the idea has been more than once expressed that a new gymnasium would be quite a useful adjunct to the school. With all these wants how is it we don't get the money to provide for them? It is not because our alumni are too few, for the records of the Academy will disprove that; it is not because they are all poor, for you can pick out plenty who are wealthy, even as wealth is counted to-day; and it is not because they are wanting in patriotism, as you can easily see by reading the speeches made at the dinners of the Alumni Association. Then you will be inclined to ask with us again, how is it that with all our needs we do not get more assistance.

It has been said that we are at a disadvantage in being connected to a certain extent with the Theological Seminary, claiming that money which was intended by the donor to go to the Academy has by want of clearness in the will gone to the institution across the road. Anyway, more than once when our spirits have been cheered at the thoughts of receiving a nice little legacy of twenty or fifty thousand dollars we have only suffered the disappointment of seeing it deposited in the coffers of the aforesaid Seminary, where last year there were nine active professors, the librarian, and two lecturers, and only forty-eight students; where the necessary annual expenses of a student are rated at $156.50 plus washing, etc., while it appears that almost any student there can get $200 per year beneficiary aid, possibly considerable more; and having his room rent free and furnished into the bargain. On the other hand we have twelve professors to three hundred and fifty or sixty students. The lowest possible estimate of a year's expenses here would be $225, and the financial aid would be very limited.

Now we arrive at Boss Tweed's celebrated question, "What are you going to do about it?" We don't intend for the present to offer any specific directions in the way of remedying the state of affairs we complain of, but if nothing else can be done we must cling to the Seminary in the hope that when it dies—whether it will be from post-mortem probation or senile decay there is no knowing—it will leave us some of its millions.

The tug-of-war teams at Yale will hold a series of inter-class pulls beginning this week. Every effort will be made to develop some good material for the 'Varsity team.

At the meeting of the Boston Athletic Association on February 15, Harvard will be represented by about sixty men. Yale will send four men, Brown six, Amherst ten, Princeton six, Williams six, Colby one, Andover four, and Exeter one. Eight teams have entered for the tug-of-war. In all there are 700 entries.

A recent Harvard Crimson contains the following:

"The Cornell Sun is overcome with surprise in learning from the article in the Spirit of the Times, from which extracts were recently printed in the Crimson, that Yale does not claim the boating championship of American colleges. Cornell, the Sun says, defeated Bowdoin on Lake Quinsigamond, July 5, 1887, by two feet. The argument advanced by the Spirit of the Times, if supplemented by this fact, clearly gives the championship to Cornell. Certainly the Yale News and the Harvard Crimson in endorsing the statements of the Spirit of the Times make this concession. If Yale does not now claim the championship nothing now remains to be said about the matter.
