P. A. Authors.

Lawrenceville Letter.

LAWRENCEVILLE, N. J., }
DEC. 7, 1896. }

Mr. French, the musical director of the school, has just issued a book of "Songs of Lawrenceville." He has been working a long time to prepare this book and has got together about fifty songs. The book is well arranged and seems to have made a hit.

Three numbers of the lecture course were given last week. Mr. Pray of New York gave a sleight-of-hand exhibition on Saturday, Nov. 28; on Wednesday, Mr. Havens of the Faculty delivered a very interesting lecture on "Scenes in Syria;" and on Saturday night, Mr. Watson, also a member of the Faculty, lectured on "Modern Egypt."

The house championship foot-ball games have been finished. The Dickinson House won after a very exciting game with the Cleve House by a score of 16 to 6. Every house entered a team and both the Kennedy and Davis made creditable showings.

Dr. Mackenzie, the Head Master, attended the annual meeting of the "Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools of the Middle States and Maryland," held at Philadelphia last week. He was president of the association during the past year, and as presiding officer, delivered a very strong address. President Schurman of Cornell University succeeded him as president.

Rules, drawn up by a committee from the Fourth Form, in regard to the wearing of an "L" and stripes on sweaters and jerseys, will be brought before the school at a near meeting and will there be acted upon.

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AT ANDOVER POST-OFFICE.

The Andover Press.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1896.

The time is approaching for the senior class to think about the election of officers for Class Day. The Faculty, last year requested that these elections hereafter, take place earlier than usual. Already many schools and colleges have chosen their commencement officers. Because of the length of time required to prepare for Class Day exercises, it is readily seen that such elections must not be delayed too long. It is important that before the final meeting takes place sufficient time be given the members of the class to think over the matter so as to choose the right man for the right place.

The total gate receipts from the football games at the University of Pennsylvania were $19,500. The average attendance was 6,000.

Supplementary Reading.

The examination in the Supplementary Reading will be held the first part of next week.

W. D. Osgood, the Pennsylvania half-back, was killed while besieging a fort in Cuba.

Philo.

The last literary meeting of Philo for this term will be held next Friday evening in Society Hall. The programme is as follows:

Declamation, E. L. Skinner.

Extempore, R. S. Newcomb.

Address, R. H. Edwards.

The subject for debate will be "Resolved that Gladstone's attitude toward Armenia is more justifiable than Roseberry's." Affirmative, Freund, assisted by F. M. Wheeler; negative Richardson, assisted by Twining. J. H. Thomas will give the critique of the meeting.

"Prep." Schools Deficient.

The committee of overseers of Harvard college on composition and rhetoric, after an examination of the entrance papers of last year found a deplorable amount of illiteracy among the students just from preparatory schools. They saw that this college had before it work which should have been done in "prep" schools. Much money, time and energy was to be spent in teaching what should have been taught in their preparation for college. Prof. Goodwin says: "There was no conceivable justification for using the revenues of Harvard college or the time and strength of her instructors in a vain attempt to enlighten the Egyptian darkness in which no small portion of her under-graduates were sitting." And the committee further proposes to print this year the papers of all candidates applying for admission, thus comparing the method in the different preparatory schools, and bringing in this way before the public eye the true state of affairs.
