WILLIAMS COLLEGE 6, ANDOVER 0

Williams College and Phillips Andover
Play an Even Game.

Andover was defeated 6 to 0 by Williams College yesterday in a game evenly played. In the line Andover seemed fully on par with the visitors, but the home team appeared deplorably weak back of the line.

The old Andover men on the Williams team, Captain Branch, Chadwell and Simmons, all played exceedingly well. Draper also put up a good game for the visitors. For Andover Matthews, Davis, McAbee and Bloomer did the best work.

Marsh opened the first half by kicking to Cullinane, the latter seemed unable to hold the ball and Williams secured it on a fumble. By steady rushes Andover's goal line was reached, Branch was sent over for a touchdown but fumbled the ball, Simmons dropping on it. Branch kicked the goal, score 6 to 0. For the remainder of the half both sides played evenly. Davis picked up the ball after it had been fumbled in a scrimmage and ran 80 yards for a touchdown with three Williams men closely following. Unfortunately the run did not count, as the ball was not in play when fumbled. Davis had to retire. Bloomer took his place. Time was called before either side scored.

In the second Jones replaced Wilhelm, Hellman took Howard's place and Wallace replaced Stiles. On Williams, Lawrence, Jay and Williams replaced Camp, Cottrell and Marsh. Neither side was able to score.

Editors of the Phillipian:

School meetings called after chapel have been by custom almost exclusively sacred to foot-ball, base-ball, tennis and other athletics generally, which fact is indicative of the very true and healthy importance of these matters in relation to the fellows individually and to the school as an institution. It is because I believe that it likewise, in perhaps a small degree, but for some what the same reasons, is important that I wish to discuss, before the assembled school by means of your columns, the Dramatic Club.

What is the relation of its Dramatic Club to a school, and to the individual students of that school? Like athletics, it tends to develop in connection with the rest of his education certain traits which a fellow should have, traits mental and physical. And, also like athletics, it connects the school by a strong bond of mutual interest with the outside world, collegiate and non-collegiate. It is in the best sense an advertisement for the school. This is the beginning and the end: the two reasons that should make the faculty and fellows, as thoroughly interested in Dramatics as in athletics.

In detail Dramatic work gives a fellow self-possession and self-confidence. It makes him critical of his general bearing. It is a drill for his pronunciation, enunciation and oral delivery generally; it develops his speaking voice, trains his memory, and teaches him, or tends to teach him, to appear before his assembled fellows without pain to himself or them. In studying and committing to memory his lines, he may, as in the instance of one of Sheridan's comedies, be working with some of the best literature in the English tongue. I do not wish to compare any department of our education to closely, certainly not to extol one at the cost of another. Yet, if dramatic work as a profession produces a better man than, say base-ball as a profession, why, in making ourselves what we should be, is not the Dramatic club, at least as effective and important as athletics. Compare the champion base-ball player of America with Sir Henry Irving or Coquelin—Athletic prowess is Andover's chiefest glory; were this her only glory, it would be her chiefest shame.

The above is but introductory. What is the relation of the Andover Dramatic Club to the long needed, slowly coming New Gymnasium? A large part of the money necessary for its construction has already been given by alumni and friends of the school. There remains but twelve thousand dollars to be raised. What have we ourselves done, we the present-tense membership of the school? What can we do,?

The importance of our secondary employments, our athletics, our school papers and our Dramatic Club in keeping us in touch with the alumni and the world generally, is undoubted. What people are interested in they give money to. The money making power of a amateur dramatic society in a fair state of health is not small. The Boston Cadets earn for their organization thousands of dollars a year. Now fellows, best fellows in school, support the Dramatic Club! Come out and try for parts in the annual comedy. There will be nearly a score of characters. That leaves over four hundred good fellows to talk about it to their friends, to take their sisters and cousins and aunts, to help bid for the seats when they are put up at auction, to interest the professors' wives and the other ladies of the town that they may assist us as patronesses, to make the Gymnasium Benefit, the social, scholastic and financial event of the year!

J. R. I.

Editors of the Phillipian:

The class relay teams, which will be run in connection with the fall track meet are, as Captain Kimball said in chapel, to encourage new material to come out for the track team. Would not these teams defeat their objects unless all "A" track men were debarred from entering?

Editors of the Phillipian:

Why would it not be a good plan for the Advisory Committee to regulate the color of the sweaters and size and shape of the "A" given to the different athletic teams of the school so that each team would have a certain, determinate sweater and "A" in order that a graduate of the school, returning after a few years could tell by the looks of a sweater and "A" how the wearer obtained it;

whether on the eleven, nine, or track As matters are run now no team is restricted and the captain and manager may determine the color of sweater and size and shape of the "A" and it is absolutely impossible for an alumnus to be able to say by the looks of an "A" sweater how its possessor gained it.

Chess Club.

The chess club will hold its first meeting to-night in room 2, Science Building, at 7 o'clock. All new fellows interested in chess are invited to be present.

Banjo Club.

The following is the temporary make-up of the Banjo Club:

Banjeaurines; Moseley, Paine, Parks Squire, Janes, Fitch. 1st. banjos; Sheldon, Lenore, Farnum. 2nd. banjos; Solomon, Philbrick, Garrison. Guitars; Bradley, Lyon, Bruff, Ruhl. Bell, Shaw. Piccello Banjo; C. O. Day.

Another trial of the banjo club will take place to-night at 6.45.

Philo.

The third meeting of Philo was opened with prayer by R. W. Merrill. The following men were proposed for membership and accepted: N. C. Hull, Goldsmith, Katzenbach, Robbins, Bodfish, Yardley.

The literary program was opened with, "The Topics of the Week" by Moore, after which Cannon gave a select reading. Merrill continued the program with a declamation.

The debate followed, "Resolved, That the Secretary of war has been guilty of gross mismanagement and inefficiency in the recent war.

The affirmative was supported by Black, assisted by Mahoney and Pierce. The negative by Hanks, assisted by Newall and Hicks.

Cannon, Moore, and Hill spoke from the house on the affirmative, and Blaikie, Sweet and Bennett on the negative.

The vote before debate was affirmative 15, negative 2; after debate, affirmative 6, negative 16. The chair gave his decision with the negative.

Stebbins then delivered a critique, and the meeting adjourned.

The Andover Press.

Saturday, October 1, 1908.

One morning in chapel last week the students of Worcester Academy raised $940 for the support of their football team this fall. As there are only 166 men in the school it follows that each man gave liberally toward the support of his team — averaging $6 per man. Following this comes the news that last Tuesday morning the students of Phillips Exeter Academy raised amidst the greatest enthusiasm, $1200 for the support of their team. Exeter has less than 250 men in school, so the average subscription was about $5.

The PHILLIPIAN urges every member of the school to give as liberally as he can to the support of our eleven, and make the task of the Manager, in collecting, as easy as possible. Few realize how large a task a Manager undertakes in raising money for the support of a team and how much time is spent seeing each fellow personally and often coaxing for a subscription.

We are sure Phillips Andover students are as liberal and able to give as those of Worcester and Phillips Exeter.

Dr. Bancroft has gone. We regretted to see him go as much as he regretted to leave us,—this is saying a good deal. Here's wishing him a pleasant trip and Professor Graves a prosperous administration.

School Meeting.

At a school meeting this morning W. I. Greenway was elected second manager of the football team.

Game Cancelled

The game with the Haverhill High School this afternoon has been cancelled.

Camera Club.

At the meeting of the Camera Club on Thursday, G. E. Merrill was elected President and Burbank, Gould, and Scully were appointed as a committee to draw up a new constitution.

Dramatic Club Trial.

The trial for parts in the annual comedy will be held Monday evening at 7 o'clock in Room 9. Books may be procured this afternoon of Jean Ross Irvine at the Brick House.
