Hockey Team Candidates.

Fourteen men handed in their names as candidates for the hockey team yesterday in response to a call made by Captain Snow.

Andover had a hockey team last year for the first time, and this team was an unusually good one. The principal game was played with Massachusetts Institute of Technology in which Andover was defeated by the close score of 1 to 0.

Captain Snow is the only member of last year's team back in school, but judging from the interest there seems to be in hockey this year Andover will have as good a team, if not a better one than last year.

Capt. Snow plays one of the forwards. The other candidates for the forwards are Phipps, Davies, Schultz, Benedict and Petit. Phipps played on the second team at St. Paul's last year, and Schultz captained the first team at St. Paul's. Benedict played on the scrub team at Andover, and Petit on the Wellsboro Athletic Club. Davies captained a team at his home.

Studley, who has played on a team at Providence, R. I., Griffing, who has captained the Cheshire Academy team, and Pitzipio are candidates for point.

The candidates who are not as yet determined as to their positions are Hill, Richards, Goldsmith, Derr, Stern, Black and Van Wickle. Hill played on the scrub team at Andover last year, and Van Wickle was a substitute on the first team.

There are, no doubt, other players in school who have not yet given their names to Captain Snow, and it is requested that they do so at once.

Mirror Notice.

As previously announced, all designs for the Christmas poster and the cover for the December number must be handed in to the editors before next Monday evening, the 7th. Also all MS. for that number must be handed in before the evening of the 10th.

The String Quartette.

The string quartette of the Academy will give a musicale on Saturday, December 17th at 4.30, in the Academy building. No admission will be charged and the whole school is cordially invited to attend.

Philo.

The regular meeting of Philo was held last night in Society Hall. Cannon opened the meeting with a prayer after which Merrill called the roll and read the minutes of the previous meeting. W. H. Thompson was then proposed for membership. The literary program was opened by Danenhower, with topics of the week. A declamation by Pierce came next, after which Bennet delivered a declamation entitled "A Genuine Mexican Plug." A select reading followed by Bodfish entitled "Revenge." The debate was, "Resolved: That labor organizations promote the best interests of working men." Nicholas, Black and Stern supported the affirmative while the negative was upheld by Hawks, G. E. Merrill and Moore. The vote stood affirmative 9, negative 13, before debate, and after debate affirmative 5, negative 16. Bodfish, Danenhower and Hill spoke from the house on the affirmative, Burns on the negative. The chair decided in favor of the negative.

An amendment was passed allowing the regular program to be changed, and the meeting then adjourned.

Forum.

The sixth regular meeting of Forum was held last night in Room 9. Hardwick opened the meeting with a prayer, after which the minutes of the previous meeting were read. The society then elected Kimball, O'Connor and Irvine as a committee of three to arrange for a debate with Exeter.

The program was opened with a declamation by Charwate, after which Newman gave a select reading. Robinson gave an extempore on "Peculiar Local Customs," and Skick made a speech. The debate then followed, "Resolved, That a scientific education is of more benefit to one preparing for a professional life than a classical education." The affirmative was supported by Houghton, assisted by O'Connor, the negative by Baker, assisted by Butkiewicz. Ryder, Colby and Ryman spoke from the house on the affirmative. The vote before the debate was affirmative 0, negative 16; vote after debate, affirmative 3, negative 13. Howe's name was proposed and accepted for membership. After the critique by Crawford the meeting adjourned.

School Calendar.

C. N. Kimball '99, will handle a school calendar this year, which will be on the same general plan as that which was published last year by Waddell but will contain more pictures. There will be cuts of this year's football team, second eleven, and of Capt. Holt. There will also be pictures of the Phillips Street eleven, last year's tennis champions, the track captain, and the '98 track team, the base-ball captain and the '98 base-ball team, the 1900 Relay Team, the Fall track squad, of the campus during the Andover-Exeter foot-ball game and a snap-shot of a scrimmage during the game. The calendar will also contain separate cuts of Dr. Bancroft, Mr. McCurdy, Prof. Graves, Mr. Stearns, and a faculty picture. Also there will be pictures of the three musical clubs, of the editors of the school publications, and the officers of the Dramatic Club. Finally there will be an 8x10 cut of this fall's school picture.

Bible Class.

Mr. Stearns will meet the bible class at 12 o'clock in Society Hall to-morrow. The lesson will be the vi chapter of Matthews.

Inquiry.

The subject for to-morrow night's meeting is, "What is true friendship?" Proverbs xxvii. The officers elected for the winter term will begin their term of office to-morrow night. Mr. Stearns will address the meeting so it is urged that all who possibly can be present.

Supplementary Reading.

Examinations on the following books will be held near the close of this term:

Classes I and A. Barrie's A Window in Thums.

Classes II and B. Longfellow's Tales of a Wayside Inn.

Classes III and C. Stevenson's New Arabian Nights.

Classes IV and D. Anthony Hope's Prisoner of Zenda.

The Harvard-Columbia dual lacrosse league will form a tripple league by admitting Cornell.

School Prizes.

Following is given a brief history of the various prizes in school, open to one and another of the different classes and organizations:

THE DRAPER PRIZES.

The Draper prizes were founded by Mr. W. F. Draper of the class of '43, of Andover, and are for "selected declamations." This prize is open to every member of the school and the men are chosen after a trial before a committee. The first prize is of $20, the second of $12 and the third of $8. Last year the first prize was won by F. J. O'Connor, P.A. 1900.

THE MEANS PRIZES.

These prizes were founded by the late Wm. G. Means of Boston, and are for "Original Declamations." The subjects for the competition and the rules governing them have already been published. The prizes of award are: first prize $20, second prize $12, and third prize $8. The first prize last year was won by Edward Levi Skinner, P. A. '98.

THE HARVARD-ANDOVER PRIZES.

The Harvard-Andover prizes are sustained by the Harvard-Andover Club. Two prizes are offered, one of $15, and one of $10, for excellence in Elementary Rhetoric and English Composition. The competition is open to members of the Senior and Middle classes of both departments.

Last year no first prize was awarded and the second prize was given to Arthur Stanley Wheeler, P.A. '98.

THE ROBINSON PRIZES.

This prize is sustained by Mr. H. S. Robinson of Andover, and is for the best arguments presented in a debate, open to members of the two debating societies, Philo and Forum. All those wishing to compete for this prize debate in a trial before their respective societies, after which each society elects two men. The first prize is of $12, the second of $8. Last year Joseph Winthrop Holley, P. A. 1900, was awarded first prize. Mr. Holley was a Forum man.

THE JOSEPH COOK PRIZES.

The Joseph Cook prizes were founded by Dr. Joseph Cook, class of 1857, of Ticonderoga, N. Y. The prizes are $15, $10, and $5 respectively. The special topics included in the twentieth competition, May, 1899, will be:

Saturday, December 3, 1898.

Among the many school officers there is one whose work is not appreciated or in any way rewarded. The under graduate treasurer probably has more work to do than anyone connected with our athletics. Moreover his work is of the very hardest and dullest sort. His responsibility is great; for through his hands passes every cent of the money,—thousands received and expended each year for the four teams, and on him depends very largely the success of all our athletics. But for all his work and responsibility he receives absolutely no recompense not even honor, but does all his disagreeable work simply out of school spirit. The managers of the teams who have less to do get a great deal more honor and are given "A" caps. Why can not the school show its appreciation of the work of the undergraduate treasurer by giving to him also the privilege of wearing an "A" cap?

We suggest that this matter be put before the school at the next school meeting; for it lies with the school and not with the athletic committee, to grant this "A."

SCHOOL PRIZES.

1. Translations at sight from Homer with questions suggested by the text.

2. Translation at sight from English into Greek.

3. Greek literature and antiquities.

The winner last year was Arthur Stanley Pease, P. A. '98.

THE CRANE PRIZE.

It is presented by the late Rev. Oliver Crane, D.D., LL.D., for excellence in Virgil. The prize is open to Seniors and Middlers, and consists of copies of his translation of Virgil. Alan Fox, P. A. '99, and Hugh Satterlee, P. A. '98, received this honor last year.

The Dove Prizes, founded by Mr. George W. W. Dove, class of 1853, of Andover. The prizes of $20, $15 and $10 are awarded for excellence in Latin, and are open to Seniors in the Classical Department. The first prize last year was won by Arthur Stanley Pease, P. A. '98.

The Converse Mathematical Prizes were founded by E. B. Converse, Esq., class of 1857, of Englewood, N. J. Three prizes of $20, $12 and $8 are awarded for excellence in the Mathematics of the Classical Department, to be determined by an examination in May of the Senior year. Last year Thomas Parker Hubbard, P. A. '98, carried off first place.

The Foster Classical Prizes, sustained by Mr. H. B. Foster of the class of 1892.

1. A prize of $15 for excellence in Latin Composition. This prize is open to member of the Senior, Middle and Junior Middle Classical, and the Senior and Middle Scientific classes.

2. A prize of $8 for excellence in Greek Geography. This prize is open to members of the Senior and Middle Classical classes only.

Arthur Stanley Pease was awarded first prize in Latin Composition, and Percy Barton Bruce in Greek Geography.

The Valpey Classical Prizes, founded by the late Rev. Thomas G. Valpey of the class of 1854. Two prizes of $10 each are awarded, one for excellence in Latin Competition, one for excellence in Greek Composition. The competition is open to members of the Middle Class. Last year the prize for Latin Composition and Roman History was awarded to Alan Fox. Greek Composition and Greek History to Charles Edward Starbuck and John Joseph Mahoney.

Sunday, Dec. 4.

12.00 M. Bible Study Class in Society Hall.
6.30 P. M. Inquiry in Society Hall.

At a meeting of the Athletic Advisory Committee, L. H. Arnold was appointed as was requested by the Dramatic Club, to look after the moneys of the Dramatic Club.

The amount of money offered yearly to the students of the Chicago University in prizes for debate, amounts to $1300.

There are this year in the Harvard Graduate School, 77 graduates of Yale, 49 of Brown, 37 of Amherst, 23 of Bowdoin, 21 of Princeton, 21 of Dartmouth, and 4 of Pennsylvania.

The Lawrenceville trip cost the management $650.

There is a picture of Hillebrand P. A. '95, in this month's Outing.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Palmer of New Haven to Arthur Foote, P. A. '92.

Andover is represented by the following men on the three Harvard musical clubs: H. G. Parchen, P. A. '96, H. U. 1900, F. W. Alfred, P. A. '96, H. U. 1900, and A. H. Wadsworth, P. A. '97, H. U. 1901, have made the Glee Club. W. D. Smith, P. A. '95, H. U. '99, C. S. Edgell, P. A. '95, H. U. '99, W. L. Cropley, P. A. '97, H. U. 1901, and Arthur Drinkwater, P. A. '96, H. U. 1900 have made the Banjo Club. C. S. Edgell, P. A. '95, H. U. '99, and W. S. Cropley, P. A. '97, H. U. 1901, have made the Mandolin Club.

E. Lewis, P. A. '95, Yale '99, W. T. Charles, P. S. '97, Yale 1900 S. and L. A. Cook, P. A. '96, Yale 1900, have entered the handball tournament at Yale.

A memorial gate costing $50,000 will be erected by the University of Pennsylvania in honor of students who enlisted in the late war with Spain. No names will be inscribed on the gate, but the corner-stone will contain the names of all who enlisted.

The following Andover men are holders of scholarships at Harvard for the present year: W. G. Bale, '96, S. H. E. Freund '97, and M. A. Sullivan '97.

There are four basket ball teams at Abbot Academy. The first team squad is composed of the following players: Misses Mercer Mason (captain), Lucy Hagerman, Margaret Reed, Annie Reed, Ann Mason, Grace Fleek, Beula Field, Leslie Crawford, Barbara French, and Constance Gutterson. Arrangements are being made for a contest with a team representing Bradford Academy.

There will be a school meeting Monday to elect a manager of the Skating Association.

Walter B. Smith, P. A. '95, Yale '99, won at golf during the summer, the Fourth of July cup at Lake Forest, four out of six team matches with the Chicago and Milwaukee golf clubs, and was runner up in the championship amateur tournament of the United States. Also in October he won the championship of Yale University, making, at the same time, a new record for the course. A short time ago he, in company with John Reid, jr., won the United States four-some championship.
