Musical Clubs Concert.

The Glee, Banjo and Mandolin Clubs held their annual concert in the Town Hall last night. The audience was not as large as was expected but in every other way the concert was a decided success. All three clubs did exceedingly well and received much applause and many encores.

The Programme was opened with the Rose Tree March by the Banjo club which was rendered exceedingly well.

Rosalie by the Glee Club followed and was sung by them in a faultless manner.

In the rendering of the Boston Tea Party by the Mandolin Club they seemed to lack confidence but in their following productions more than redeemed themselves.

The coon Medley, arranged by G. E. Leonard '99 and Weston 1900, was sung extremely well by the Glee club.

The Belle of the Cake Walk played by the Banjo club, was a great success and received much applause.

The Mandolin Club's rendering of Andalusia was splendid and was greatly appreciated and applauded.

The Topical song followed and was well sung by T. Howard. The music and words were exceedingly well arranged.

The Banjo Club played the Dickey Dance very well, and although they showed a tendency now and then to become careless, the piece was very rendered.

Away to the Woods, sung by the Glee Club was a very pretty song and received a hearty encore.

The Mandolin Club rendered At a Georgia Camp Meeting extremely well but here as in the case of the Banjo Club they were apt to become careless over the more familiar parts.

Old Phillips was sung by the Glee Club in splendid manner. This song, written by Pride '96 is very good for a Glee Club but it brings home forcibly the lack of any Old Phillips song which would become popular among the fellows at large.

The Glee, Mandolin and Banjo clubs combined in the rendering of the Charlatan March and all three clubs did themselves credit in the production.

The concert as a whole showed hard conscientious work on the part of the different clubs and great credit is due them. It is greatly to the discredit of the school at large that more fellows did not attend the concert.

Indoor Interscholastic Games.

The annual indoor interscholastic championship games at Mechanic's Hall, Boston, last Saturday afternoon proved one of the most successful of any that have been held. Worcester Academy carried off the championship easily with a total of 36 1-2 points, to 12 for Worcester High School, their nearest rivals. Besides securing the most points their representatives broke three records of the association and equalled another. Duffey, Scheuber and Gardner scored 26 of Worcester's points and were the stars of the meet. One of the features of the games was W. W. Coe's put in the 16 lb. shot event of 41 feet 9 inches, breaking the old record by more than three feet. W. M. Moran of Worcester High ran an exceptionally pretty race in the 600 yard event, equalling T. E. Burke's record of 1 m. 20 2-5 sec. for this distance.

Eleven Andover men competed and secured a second and two third places, a total of 5 points. W. A. Schick '02 was third in the final of the 40 yard dash. He won the eighth heat in 5 sec., and the third heat of the semi-final in 5 1-5 sec., beating out W. A. Hersey of Exeter. In the final he secured third place right at the tape by a fine burst of speed. Duffey won the event handily in record time, 4 2-5 sec. E. C. Ostby '99 ran second in the ninth heat.

In the 600 yard run H. L. Petit '01 was forced to start in the rear row of four lines of men. He was last man for some distance but then pulled up considerably and finished in fourth place. H. F. Farnham '00 finished third in the mile run after being last man for over half way. He ran through a big field in fine shape and finished strongly.

T. Howard '99 secured second place in the 45 yard hurdle and showed improved form over anything he has done hitherto. He won the fifth heat of this event easily in 6 1-6 sec., but in the second round ran second to Scheuber of Worcester in 5 1-5 sec. Scheuber again led him in the semi-final round but in the final Howard turned the tables. Duffey however proved too fast for either of them, although the race was a very close one.

Of the team races, that in which Worcester Academy defeated Worcester High was the fastest and most exciting. Exeter's race with Cambridge High and Latin School was a close one all the way with Exeter in the lead to the finish.

The Philo Dinner.

The annual Philo Dinner was held at the Mansion House, Saturday evening. An excellent repast was served and an enjoyable evening spent.

Toasts were responded to by Charles Grilk P. A. '94, Harvard '98, E. B. Boynton P. A. '98, H. '02, F. J. O'Connor, president of Forum, and M. F. Hawkes, vice president of Philo. Extemporaneous speeches were made by N. C. Hull, W. C. Matthews, E. M. Nicholas, C. B. Yardley, W. S. Katzenbach, R. G. Burkam, M. C. Fitch, R. L. Black, Alan Fox, J. E. Sweet, H. R. Robertson and G. S. Arnold. R. W. Merrill sang a song and H. R. Robertson, Sloan and Danenhower delivered declamations. A very interesting letter was read from Albert Moore '00, a former secretary of the Society, who is now in Caracas, Venezuela. The president of Philo, F. A. Lucas, was toastmaster.

Mr. Grilk's toast was "Debating." In a very genial way he impressed upon all the great advantage a person who is able to debate and express himself well before an audience, has in business and social life. He also related many entertaining reminiscences of Philo.

E. B. Boynton gave a toast on "Pleasant Recollections." Having been a member of Philo five successive years Boynton said he felt fully qualified to give a few recollections. His remarks were witty and edifying and were enjoyed by all.

M. F. Hawks' toast was "School Politics."

F. J. O'Connor, president of the Forum, made an excellent toast on "Forum." O'Connor urged that the two societies continue to demand an Andover-Exeter debate.

All of the extemporaneous entertainment was very good. The dinner committee, R. L. Black chairman, Alan Fox and M. F. Hawks, deserve great credit for their successful arrangements.

Hockey Team Captain.

The members of the Hockey team met on Monday and elected F. N. Benedict '00, captain for next year. Benedict played point this year on the team and was first substitute forward last year.

Philo Elections.

At the meeting of Philo, Friday the election of officers for next term will take place. It is urged that all members be present.

The Andover Press.

Wednesday, March 22, 1899.

The enthusiasm and liberality the school displayed at the mass meeting this morning shows clearly that the old Andover spirit is neither dead nor sleeping. Any school that has members and faculty as loyal as was shown this morning, cannot help but rank foremost among the other schools.

The showing made by the few Andover men that were entered in the Interscholastic Indoor Meet, was very commendable. The men entered not as representatives of the school but as individuals, and did not have the opportunity to do the proper training for their events. Still they showed themselves superior to many who have trained all winter especially for this meet.

The death of Professor O. C. Marsh of Yale deprives the Academy of a famous alumnus, and the country a distinguished scientist. Professor Marsh, when at Andover, was one of Dr. Taylor's most promising students, and in after life he fulfilled his promise. When we see such alumni pass away—men who are the embodiment of the highest and best that the Academy represents—we wonder if the present members of the school are preparing to take their places. Surely they must be.

Mass Meeting

At a mass meeting after chapel this morning to raise money for the new athletic field, $1803 was subscribed.

Speeches were made by Mr. Stearns, J. O. Rodgers P. A. '94, and F. T. Murphy P. A. '93. Further subscriptions can be given to any of the Athletic Field Committee. The largest subscription was $100 made by Jesse Barker, captain of '96 eleven.

Lawrenceville Letter.

LAWRENCEVILLE, N. J.,
 MARCH 19, 1899.

Editors of the Phillipian:

On last Monday the base-ball candidates practised out doors for the first time, since then they have been out every day. The squad has been cut down again to 19, and the second team will not be called out for some time yet. Kafer and several other Princeton 'Varsity men were coaching the team on Monday, and we expect a good deal of help from them.

The Dramatic club has decided not to perform till the night of the senior prom., which will probably be sometime in May.

Mr. Raymond entertained the school delightfully last Saturday evening by his miscellaneous readings, and Dr. Durell gave a very interesting lecture on the moon, his pictures were well selected, and illustrated his points finely.

The base-ball team will not be kept during the Easter vacation this year, as it has been formerly.

THE LAWRENCE.

Death of Professor Marsh.

Dr. William Edwards Park of Gloversville, N. J. in the Mirror for February 1896 relates many incidents of the inner Philo history of over forty years ago.

In 1885 the Middle class formed a combination against the candidate of the Seniors for the presidency of Philo and by a majority of one elected Othneil Charles Marsh of their own class to that office.

Marsh was born at Lockport, N. Y., and was a member of Phillips four years, the first year in the Scientific course, then three years in the classical department, graduating in 1856 and from Yale in 1860. He was Berkley scholar at New Haven 1860-1862, spent three years in scientific study in Berlin, Heidelberg and Breslan. In 1866 he was appointed professor of Palaeontology and Curator of the Peabody Geological Museum of Yale University. He had been president of the National Academy of Science and was a nephew of George Peabody, the banker and was a voluminous writer of scientific subjects.

He died of pneumonia in New Haven, March 18, 1899.
