Andover, o; Holy Cross, o.

Andover tied with Holy Cross on Saturday in the most interesting and closely contested game of the season, neither side scoring. In the first half, Andover, after carrying the ball by steady rushes to Holy Cross's five-yard line, was prevented from scoring through a loss of ten yards for violation of the coaching rule. The continual fumbling was Andover's greatest fault, and lost her the ball many times after making long gains and at critical points in the game. Holy Cross worked several trick plays to good advantage but was unable to gain through Andover's line, which was stronger both in defensive and offensive play. The ball changed hands constantly in both halves on exchange of punts, in which Stoddard had the better of it over his opponent. With the exception of end runs, Andover's work was better in all respects. In the line, Botchford and Weeks played an aggressive game, breaking through the line and tackling well. Collins and Botchford did good work for Andover.

In the first half, Andover was given the ball after Holy Cross had kicked twice out of bounds. Holy Cross advanced the ball 15 yards on Kinney's kick-off. After a short gain, Baldwin made a 10-yard run around Matthew's end. Coonley broke through on the next play, Reed then punted 20 yards to Collins, who fumbled the ball, Stoddard regained it and ran 10. Andover failed to gain and Stoddard kicked to Holy Cross's 40-yard line. After fumbling and regaining the ball, Holy Cross made 10 yards. Andover then secured the ball on a forward pass in a trick play. Stoddard kicked 50 yards, both sides fumbled, Holy Cross's ball. A centre and tackle play and offside by Weeks netted Holy Cross 20 yards. Andover's line held well and secured the ball on the third down on the 30-yard line. From here the backs carried the ball to their 5-yard line. Holy Cross regained the ball after a loss of 10 yards for violation of the coaching rule and a fumble by Reeves. Reed then punted 30 yards to Collins. A number of line plays netted Andover 20 yards. Holy Cross lost ball on a fumble. An exchange of punts followed, neither side gaining. After gaining 20 yards by tackle plays, Holy Cross kicked poorly to Kinney. Collins and Levine then carried the ball to Holy Cross's 85-yard line. Here Holy Cross regained the ball, after blocking Stoddard's trial for a goal from the field. Following a 30-yard run around left end by Baldwin, time was called with the ball on the 30-yard line.

Dowd, Woon and Chail were played by Holy Cross in the second half. Kinney's kick-off to Chail on the 25-yard line was returned 30 yards to Stoddard, who ran 10. Woon blocked Stoddard's kick and fell on the ball. Gaining only slightly in a number of tackle and end plays, Holy Cross attempted a goal from the field on a place kick, Collins ran it back 15 yards and Stoddard punted 35. Dowd then ran 30 yards around Burke's end, Botchford tackling. An exchange of punts, in which Andover gained considerable, followed. Time was called with Holy Cross in possession of the ball on their 45-yard line. Score, 0—0.

Entrance Conditions at Yale.

The following are the rules governing the removal of entrance conditions at Yale:

By maintaining a satisfactory stand during the first term, deficiencies in Caesar and Nepos, Latin Grammar, Anabasis, Greek History, and Geometry A may be removed. Latin Comp. and Roman History in the same manner during the second term.

Conditions in Cicero, Geometry B or Algebra A may be cancelled by good class room work in the second term. Likewise, Greek Grammar, Greek Comp and Greek at Sight during the second and third terms can be removed. In the third term Virgil, Ovid, Algebra A or B may be removed by acceptable work. English may be worked off when the class takes English.

If a man has read Homer he can pass it off by a high stand in Greek in first term. If he has not he must pass an examination. French and German can only be removed by passing an examination.

Means and Draper Prizes.

The Means Prizes for Original Declamations were founded by the late W. G. Means of Boston, and are open to any member of the school. The first prize is of twenty dollars, the second of twelve, and the third of eight. The compositions must be handed in before March 1, 1901, the subjects being:

1. The Heroism of Daily Life.
2. The Orator and the Human Will.
3. The Dangers of a Free Press.
4. Partisan and Patriot.
5. The Scholar, the Leader of the Nation.
6. A Day at the Paris Exposition.
7. Social Equality in America—is it Disappearing?
8. The Use and Misuse of Popular Music.
9. A Plea for the Preservation of Our Forests.
10. The Speech of Achilles to the Envoys of Agamemnon. (A metrical translation of Iliad, Book IX, lines 308-426.)

The Draper Prizes for Selected Declamations were founded by Mr. W. F. Draper. The competition is open to any member of the school, the prizes being: first, twenty dollars; second, twelve; and third, eight. The preliminary trials are held early in May and the finals at commencement.

Rowing at Harvard.

Fall rowing began at Harvard Oct. 1, with ten eight oared crews on the water. Besides these there were a number of singles and pair oars which brought the total number of men participating to over 100. The men are being coached by professionals in the fundamentals of the stroke.

Yale's Registration.

Registration in the different departments of Yale University, though not yet complete, shows that the average enrollment will probably be the same as last year. The present figures for the Academic Department show a loss of about 40 students from last year. The freshman class is 324 as against 338 last year. The other classes are: Sophomores, 315; Juniors, 292; Seniors, 216. In the Sheffield department there is at present a gain in the number of students from 559 last year to 607 this year.

Alumni Notes.

Arthur Sherburne Hardy, P. A. '65, United States Minister to Greece, has an article in the Independent, Oct. 4, on "The Passion Play of Ober Ammergau," and President Charles F. Thwing, P. A. '71 of Western Reserve University, one in the same number on, "The Debt owed to Smith College."

Marlborough Churchill P. A. '96, Harvard, '00, has been appointed instructor in English at Harvard.

Irving J. French, P. A. '97, is vice-president of the Republican Campaign Club at Dartmouth.

Of the eleven college preachers at Yale this fall, two are graduates of this Academy, and four of the Theological Seminary, Rev. A. D. McKenzie being a graduate of both.

W. P. Graves, M. D., P. A. '87, a graduate of Yale and Harvard Medical school, son of of Prof. Graves, was married Wednesday evening in the Arlington street church, Boston, to Miss Alice Myrick Chase. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Shippen. Prof. Henry S. Graves of the Forestry school of Yale was best man, and the ushers were classmates at Andover, Yale and Harvard. Dr. and Mrs. Graves intend going abroad.

Republican Club.

At the second meeting of the Republican Club, held in Chapel Thursday evening, definite action was taken on forming the battalion proposed at the former meeting. The report of the executive committee in regard to the same was: "That a battalion shall be formed composed of the members of the Republican Club, to be divided into four companies according to classes and that each class shall elect a captain, first, and second lieutenant."

The committee appointed R. W. E. Hazenwinkle, P. A. '01, to act as general of the battalion and to have as aids Col. Halpin and Col. Childs. These appointments were received with great enthusiasm. It is the intention of the committee to procure suits as soon as possible. Mr. Stearns and Gen. Hazenwinkle were called upon for a few remarks, after which the meeting adjourned. Sec. McEwan announced that the next meeting on Tuesday night will be addressed by Mr. Samuel Abbot, a member of the Republican National Committee of New York.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

Wednesday, October 17, 1900

Attention must be called once more in these columns to the lack of support of our football team on the part of the school and the ungentlemanly conduct displayed last Saturday towards the visiting team.

It was not the spirit which was lacking so much as numbers. The enthusiasm displayed by the few who attended the game was very much in evidence.

Many fellows, who certainly do not take the interests of the school at heart, seize the opportunity of going out of town on Wednesdays and Saturdays when teams which are considered to be among the best in the country are scheduled to play here.

It is to be hoped that everyone will avail himself of the opportunity to witness all of the remaining games and with his enthusiastic support cheer the team on to victory.

A word or two should be said regarding the treatment of visiting teams. One of the reasons why Andover is ahead of many other preparatory schools in the country is that we have established a reputation for courtesy towards the various teams with which we contend in athletics.

There has never been any spirit of derision shown towards the visiting teams until last Saturday, when a small minority began making disrespectful remarks to the opposing team after some close decision.

This action was probably started by outsiders, but it is the duty of every man in school to do what he can to stop it. Nothing will do us more injury and arouse more enmity towards us from the schools and colleges which we meet than taking part in this conduct.

In the future let everyone show the utmost respect towards our visitors

The value and importance of entering the Means Prize competition, (the subjects of which are given elsewhere in this issue), cannot be overestimated.

It is considered a great honor to be a Means speaker, and in addition to this, a benefit is derived not only in the practice of writing these, but the successful ten, selected on March 1st, from the compositions handed in receive the valuable training in delivery

SATISFACTION

A man recently resident in New Haven, but now of Berlin, Germany, has sent us his order for two hats—a black derby and a soft felt. There are plenty of good hats in Berlin, but he knew we had just the particular hats he wanted, and would send them. Our plan is to keep particular hats—and other particular things—for particular people.
