Philo.

The meeting of Philo last night was opened by repeating the Lord's prayer. Then, the roll was called and the minutes of the previous meeting were read.

The name of A. McCurdy was proposed and accepted for membership. Different bids on the printing of copies of the constitution were heard, and were referred to a committee consisting of Deming, Derbyshire and Crippen. They were authorized to revise the constitution and proceed with the printing. To cover the expense of printing an assessment of about thirty-five cents was levied on each member. A committee consisting of Moore, chairman, Gallyon and Gerry, was appointed for the Philo dinner, the date of which was set for February 2.

Derbyshire then delivered a declamation. After him Crippen gave an address on "The Presidents of the United States." Chase gave a select reading and Moore read the topics of the week. The subject of the debate was then announced and was, "Resolved: 'That the Burleigh bill is for the best interests of the country.'" Whitney lead the affirmative assisted by Richardson and Gerry, Sullivan lead the negative assisted by Dorgan and O'Brien. Brooks, Derbyshire and Woods spoke from the house. Before the debate the vote stood, affirmative 11, negative 10. After the debate the vote stood, affirmative 9, negative 9. The president cast his vote with the affirmative.

Professor Forbes then gave a very interesting critique and after a vote of thanks had been voted him the meeting adjourned.

The program for next week will be:
Critique, Mann.

Declamation, Browning.

Address, Babcock.

Select Reading, Stetson.

Topics of the week, O'Brien.

Debate, Resolved: "That the young man of today has better opportunities for financial success than the young man of 100 years ago. The affirmative will be supported by Gallyon and Gerry, the negative by Speyer.

Class Election.

At a meeting of P. S. 1902, held at noon Thursday the following officers were elected for this term:

President, C. D. Coonley.

Vice President, C. H. Dewey.

Sec'y and Treas. J. I. Simmons.

Communications

[The Editors of the PHILLIPIAN invite all members of the school to express their sentiments in these columns but do not hold themselves responsible for what is said.]

Editors of the Phillipian:

There is very little going on now in the school and there is very much time on the fellows' hands. Would it not be a good idea to organize a basket ball team? The equipment necessary would be very inexpensive and a great deal of good might be obtained from it. The "gym" would be a suitable place for practice and many fellows would get exercise and be able to get into condition for the spring sports. The "gym" is used very little just now and it is all ready for basketball except for hanging baskets. All the large colleges and schools have teams now and there is no reason why Andover should not have one. If this sport could be placed on a firm basis games might be arranged with other schools and some colleges. Is not this question worth agitating now so that a firmly established team and association may be ready when the new "gym" is completed.

ONE INTERESTED.

To the Editors of the Phillipian:

In reply to the editorial in the last issue of the PHILLIPIAN in regard to subscribing to athletics, it might be well to state the other side of the case. That the managers should be treated courteously and that the fellows should be as generous as possible is not denied, but also the managers should take into consideration the feelings of the fellows, who as a rule are very generous in such matters and rarely if ever, is a team hindered by lack of funds. But some of the managers seem to think that, unless a fellow gives a few dollars more than he can well afford, he is a "tight-wad" But there are many ways of spending money in Andover, and it is hoped that the managers will look at this matter in the right light and remember that there are other managers after money besides themselves.

Hockey

The game which was to be played this afternoon with M. I. T. has been canceled, also the game with Dorchester A. A. scheduled for next Wednesday. Saturday, January 25, the team plays Harvard Varsity at Cambridge.

Forum

The regular meeting of Forum Friday evening was called to order by president McEwan, prayer was then offered by Beals. After some miscellaneous business, the society proceeded with the literary program of the evening. J. A. Bartlett gave a declamation, entitled "Puritan Principle and Puritan Pluck." Welch read a humorous selection, which was received very well. An interesting extempore was given by Mourad who told a little of his school life in Armenia. Park gave the topics of the week instead of M. Rutter who was sick.

The debate was then begun. The subject for discussion was Resolved: "That the American system of municipal government is inferior to the English system." Davis spoke as leader for the affirmative, with Bawart as second. Beals lead for the negative, and Kellogg seconded him. Cates, Park and Welch spoke from the house for the affirmative and Winslow for the negative.

Before the debate, the opinion of the house was in favor of the affirmative, by a majority of nine votes; and after the debate by a majority of eight. Bale gave the critique instead of Latimer who was absent.

J. A. Bartlett was appointed on the record committee in place of Welch who resigned.

After more miscellaneous business the meeting was adjourned.

The program for next week is as follows:

Declamation, E. H. Leonard.

Topics of the week, Butterfield.

Select Reading, C. H. Harriman.

Extempore, G. F. Moore.

Address, J. R. Lewis.

Subject for debate: Resolved "That the canteen in the U. S. army should be continued." Speakers on the affirmative F. S. Beals, R. M. H. Wilcox; on the negative, C. T. Ryder, and S. W. Beals.

The first meeting of the William Andover club this year was held in Alumni Hall, Jan. 15th, 1901 at 1.20 p. m. The following officers were elected: President, F. Simmons '02; vice president, H. P. Erskine '02; treasurer, A. C. Bacon '04; secretary, W. C. Kitchell '04. A dinner committee was appointed by the president, consisting of H. P. Erskine, J. A. Hatch, '03, and D. G. Crawford '04. The secretary was instructed to make out a list of all Andover alumni in college and hand it to the Gul. board, also to write a letter of condolence to the family of E. L. Holt, P. A. ex-'00, who recently died in Lawrence, Mass. It was voted that the minutes of this meeting be submitted to the editors of the PHILLIPIAN at Andover, Mass., for publication. The meeting was adjourned upon a motion by Barsamian '04.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

Saturday, January 19, 1901

In a previous issue mention was made of the annual B. A. A. meet which will be held at Mechanic's Hall in Boston, on Feb. 16. The PHILLIPIAN takes this opportunity to urge those fellows who have not come out, to do so, and get the benefit of the training this winter and, above all, the experience acquired in open competition which must be gained by competing in a meet like the above mentioned. Every year we are handicapped by not having sufficiently strong entries in the field events, such as the shot put, hammer, pole vault and the jumps. This year we have several large men in school, who by good training, would supply this lack admirably. The Track captains never have to encourage to a great extent, small men to come out, they are always on hand trying to do something. But the larger men, who are solely necessary for the shot and hammer, are noticeably reluctant in giving their aid to the Track team.

We must remind such men that this is a decidedly unpatriotic attitude to take toward Track athletics, since it is just as distinct a school organization as football or baseball. Why talk of establishing a crew or basket ball team when the proper support is not given to the organizations we have established? If we are going to be represented in Track athletics let us be represented by such teams as will be worthy of Andover. Last year the representation at the Boston Meets was quite worthy of the school's good name. Let us hope that such will be the case this year.

The value of uniformity in appearance is shown by athletic clubs, boat crews, military companies and other organizations all of which wear some distinctive costume. Why should not the graduating classes be uniformed at commencement time.

The wearing of caps and gowns has passed from the stage of a fad and come to be recognized as an important feature of academic life. The custom has been in vogue at Yale, Harvard, Princeton, University of Pennsylvania, and in fact all the colleges, and now some of the more progressive preparatory schools are taking it up.

Why should it not be taken up here? Surely Andover should take the lead in this as she always has done in elevating the preparatory school to the standard of the college. The cap and gown itself does not signify any degree but it identifies the wearer with the great body of students of all times, and lends a tone of solemnity to any occasion upon which it is used. The custom must be started here sometime, why not start it this year?

The attention of the school must be called to the small number of candidates for the school publications and especially to the fact that most of those trying are seniors and will not
