The annual Spring track meet held on the upper campus Saturday afternoon was won by '03. Levine threw the hammer 135 feet, breaking Sol Metzger's record of 134 feet 10 inches. In the pole vault McLanahan established a new record clearing the bar at 10 feet 2 1-2 inches and Schick tied his record of 10 seconds in the hundred yard dash. The most closely contested event was the broad jump in which Fallows and Cates tied for first at 20 feet 6 inches. Botchford only jumped 20 feet 3 inches in competition, but afterwards did 20 feet 6 inches.

Means Prize Speaking.

The thirty-fourth annual contest for the Means prizes took place last evening in the school chapel before a large audience. There were only nine contestants this year, as A. T. Gould was obliged to leave school, and the standard of work was unusually high. Dr. Bancroft presided. The judges were Mr. A. K. Whitcomb, superintendent of schools, Mr. Irish, master of the high school, and Mr. Batcheller, master of the Green grammar school, all of Lowell. The prizes were awarded as follows: first to Charles Tripp Ryder '01 of Andover; second to Edward Elmer Beals '02, of Lawrence; and third to Richard Park of Plymouth, N. H.

After a few opening remarks in regard to the founding of the Means prizes, Dr. Bancroft introduced as the first speaker of the evening, Sydney Hobart Carter '02, whose subject was, "The Use and Misuse of Popular Music." The speaker was not quite at ease and lacked animation but his essay was well written and very interesting.

The second speaker, Charles Tripp Ryder '01, who gave "A Metrical Translation of Iliad, IX, 308-426" deserves much credit for the excellence of his work. The translation was very literal and his composition excelled that of his competitors. His delivery was not very good but the essay was difficult to render.

Harold Simpson Deming '01, the next speaker, gave a "Plea for the Preservation of Our Forests." His voice seemed a little strained as he was suffering from a cold, and he showed lack of spirit but he was easy in manner and his essay was pleasing.

Alexander William Bannwart spoke on "The Heroism of Daily Life" and made a strong plea for moral heroism. He was a little stiff and there was a lack of variety in his manner.

"The Orator and the Human Will," was exceptionally well given by Frederick Sewall Bale. His manners were easy and the range and quality of his voice unusually good. The judges pronounced his delivery superior to that of the other speakers.

The sixth speaker Charles Samuel Fallows rendered "The Heroism of Daily Life" in a strong, distinct voice, but with not quite enough spirit. His essay followed somewhat the same line of thought as the previous one on the same subject and was very well written.

"A Plea for the Preservation of our Forests" by Richard Park was clearly enunciated and showed very careful preparation.

Edward Elmer Beals' delivery of "The Orator and the Human Will," was full of spirit but lacked variety. His composition, however, showed careful work.

The last speaker, Suagan Stephen Azhderian in giving "A Plea for the Preservation of our Forests" had a difficult piece to handle. He had plenty of spirit but there was not much chance for strong speaking or variety.

While the judges were making their decision the Banjo club gave some pleasing selections. Then Mr. A. K. Whitcomb after a few words commending each man who had taken part, awarded the prizes to the satisfaction of all, counting two-thirds on the essay itself and only one-third on the delivery.

Yale Wins Dual Meet.

Last Saturday at New Haven, Yale defeated Harvard in the annual dual track meet by a score of 57 points to Harvard's 47.

In the first seven events Harvard led Yale in points, winning by a good margin. In the eighth event Yale tied the score. For the next events the score varied. Then Harvard lost the hammer throw and Yale went two points ahead with only the pole vault left. In this Yale won all three places and made the final score 57 to 47. As this was the first contest for the new trophy cup given to Yale and Harvard by their graduates Yale's name will be the first inscribed upon it.

Two Yale records were tied, in the 120-yard hurdles and the 100-yard dash. Five Yale records were broken, the shot put, the hammer throw, the two-mile run, the 220-yard hurdles and the 220-yard dash.

E. B. Boynton, P. A. '99, won second place for Harvard in the half-mile run and S. G. Ellis, P. A. '98, won second place for Harvard in the running high jump.

Game Tomorrow.

There will be a game with Wesleyan tomorrow afternoon at 4 p. m., on the campus.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

Wednesday, May, 15 1901.

We wish to congratulate most heartily the men who won the Means Prizes last evening and also the men who, though not successful in gaining a prize, have done much for the school and themselves by their faithful work. To Mr. Stearns also is due the thanks of the school for his able efforts in training the speakers and so aiding largely in the success of the evening.

That Andover scored two runs to Yale's three last Wednesday is no sign that we shall beat the Freshman.

The game this afternoon promises to be just as close and exciting as the game with the 'varsity. So far this year the games have been fairly well attended but it is beginning to look as though we should have to contend with the same difficulties as last year.

The fellows have had all the winter term to go to Boston and now when the baseball season opens, including games such as those with Yale and Harvard 'varsities, it ought to be entirely unnecessary to say anything about attending the games. If that class which goes in to Boston to the theatre so regularly is not interested in the success of the team on the diamond they ought to feel it their duty to come to the games.

We must win the game this afternoon but to do this the whole school must turn out in a body and give the team the best support they have had this season.

The results of the annual spring track meet last Saturday were very satisfactory indeed and in behalf of the school the PHILLIPIAN wishes to thank the whole squad, both those who did and who did not secure places, for their hard and conscientious work all the year. To Trainer Peet and Capt. Schick also is due great praise and credit for turning out so successful a squad. With the remaining two weeks of hard practice there is no reason why we should not inflict a lasting defeat on Exeter this Spring.

Former P. A. Man Missing.

Last Sunday morning about one-fourth of the school under the leadership of Mr. Stearns and Mr. Allen started on a hunt for Starbuck who disappeared last Thursday. Starbuck, who has been accustomed to go in to Cambridge by trolley every day, attended his recitations Thursday afternoon but has not been seen since. He graduated from the academy in '99 and entered the class of '03 at Harvard. He was a very studious fellow and stood high in his lessons.

The searchers started a little after eight in a line nearly a mile long and scoured the woods around Poms Pond and the country between the Shawsheen and the Reading road. No trace of him was found and the party returned about 12 o'clock.

He has been a pioneer in institutional church work in this country. During the winter he has been supplying the pulpit of the Congregational church of Sacramento, California.

President Franklin Carter, Ph.D., LL.D., P. A. '55, Williams '62, has resigned the presidency of Williams, which he has held for twenty years. He was valedictorian here, and entered Yale, but on account of ill-health he finished his course at Williams. He was professor at Yale, and at Williams previous to his presidency. He has been trustee at Andover since 1881.

Charles A. Sheldon, P. A. '86, Yale '90, has had a phenomenal success as a railroad man. Beginning on the Lake Shore at Chicago, he soon became assistant manager of the Michigan Division, afterwards superintendent, and later vice-president and treasurer of a car heating company, and is now general manager of the Chihuahua and Pacific Railroad in Mexico, in full charge of the building and operation of the line. He took the Cobden medal at Yale.

It was announced in New York yesterday that Comptroller Bird S. Coler, a graduate of Phillips Andover academy, would retire from politics at the end of his present term of office to become the head of an important trust company, at a salary said to be $40,000 a year. When seen, Mr. Coler declined to either confirm or deny the report of his retirement from the political field. From other sources it was learned that the negotiations were practically settled.
