HOCKEY.

Andover 6, M. I. T. 2.

Last Saturday afternoon the hockey team defeated M. I. T. by a score of 6 to 2. The dash of the Andover forwards was too much for their opponents and the team work displayed was much improved, showing the effects of hard practice. The men played their positions well, shooting oftener and stronger, but the passing although much improved, was still rather slow. The ends in playing their corners shot the puck out much quicker, which resulted in several goals. Heckscher at goal did good work and promises to be a valuable man for that position. On the whole the team made a very creditable showing, although weakened by the temporary loss of O'Brien, Hodge and Bird.

FIRST HALF

The game was called at 3.30 and at once Andover advanced the puck into M. I. T.'s territory, P. H. Reed scoring the first goal. The team work was excellent and P. H. Reed passed to Dousman who shot a goal and a few moments later, by pretty individual work, added another to the score. Soon after this Dousman again scored. P. L. Reed shot a pretty goal, and before time was called Dousman made the final goal from a mix-up.

Score Andover 6; M. I. T. 0.

Andover lined up for the second half without any changes while for M. I. T. Nickerson took Hastings' place at cover point. M. I. T. improved as the game advanced, and soon Bateman scored, Magnitsky following with a clean goal. Although Andover threatened their opponent's goal several times, no further scoring was done.

The final score stood Andover 6, M. I. T. 2.

Dousman, P. H. Reed and P. L. Reed played the best game for Andover and Magnitsky and Bateman excelled for the visitors.

Communication.

[The Editors of the PHILLIPIAN invite all members of the school to express their sentiments in these columns but do not hold themselves responsible for what is said.]

Editors of the Phillipian:

As a senior and one who has been a member of this school for four years, I should like to be allowed the privilege of asking a few questions in your columns, trusting that some one may see fit to answer them in your next issue. I should like to know why the whole school should not have a voice in the nomination of the three candidates for a managership. As it is now, the athletic advisory board is despotic in its power and, like a royal family, hands down to its friends the managerships from year to year. The argument can be raised of course that the present system saves trouble and secures the elections of the most able men. I do not say that the most able men for the positions are not elected every time, but nevertheless it is not fair to the school as a whole to leave the nomination of candidates to a few fellows. Andover is famous for its democracy, but is this in keeping with such a reputation? It is indeed surprising that we have put up with such a restriction for so long a time.

My plan would be to call a school meeting and allow any man to put up as many names as he might wish, and for these names to be recorded on a blackboard on the platform. After this, Mr. Freeman, or some other member of the faculty, could strike from the list any names which might be ineligible on account of low scholarship or for other reasons. Then a ballot could be taken and each member of the school allowed to write the three names which he might desire to have run for the position. Then three days later, the final election could be held in the usual way. This method would naturally take a little more time, but it would be far more fair to the school and more satisfactory to everyone.

Will you kindly state in your next issue the reasons against such a plan, if there are any, and to whom or before what body an amendment to the manner of electing managers should be put? I am voicing the sentiments of many by this communication and hope that a satisfactory answer can be given, or a change brought about.

SENIOR.

Inquiry.

The regular monthly open meeting of Inquiry was held last Sunday evening. Ferry presided and spoke on the subject of "Self Control." The following men spoke from the house: R. Gillis, Eaton, Kittredge, MacLanahan, H. Gillis, Park, Waterman, Kitchel, Williams, Richardson, Gurley, Gallyon, J. Bartlett, Wray and Caldwell.

Basket Ball.

The basket ball management has arranged a game with Harvard Freshmen on Feb. 15.

Chess Club.

The following men have been selected to represent the school in the tournament against Harvard chess club: Frothingham, Lindenberg, Loomis, Richardson and Beinecke. Any one of the team may be challenged by a member of the club, provided two days' notice is given and the games are played on or before the sixth of February. The tournament was to take place on February 8, at Cambridge, but the date may be changed on account of exams at Harvard on that day.

The results of the fall handicap tournament are as follows:

Beinecke—95 per cent
Stimson—80 per cent
Loomis—78 per cent
Smith—68 per cent
Adler—58 per cent
Bevier—33 per cent
O'Nasch—01 per cent
Richardson—01 per cent
Benbow—0

The first five were all scratch men.

Philo.

The trials for the Philo-Forum debate will be held Friday evening in Society hall at 7 o'clock. Any member of the society may compete, and has the privilege of choosing either side of the question. Of those who compete three men will be chosen by the following judges: Professors Benner, Eaton and Forbes. Those selected will represent Philo in the annual Philo-Forum debate. The subject for discussion is, Resolved: "That labor unions are a menace rather than an aid to the community as a whole."

The following conditions must be observed:

I. The order of the speaking will be determined by lot on Friday of debate.

II. Each speaker will not be allowed to hear the speakers preceding him.

III. Each speaker will be allowed to choose his side.

IV. Each speaker will be allowed only seven minutes.

Forum.

At a special meeting of Forum last night the following resolution was passed in regard to the union of Robinson and Philo-Forum debates: Resolved, "That Philo-Forum and the Robinson debates be united and that three debaters be chosen from Forum to represent one side of the question of the debate, under the consideration that Mr. Robinson donates $30 to the winning side, which if won by Forum, shall go toward establishing a library.

After some other discussions the meeting adjourned.

The trials for the Philo-Forum debate will take place Friday evening at 7 o'clock in Room 9. The same rules as those of Philo must be observed.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

Wednesday, January 22, 1902

It is with deep sorrow that we learn of the death last evening of Mr. Stearns' son and only child. Although death came after a lingering illness, it is no less a shock to both father and mother, especially as they have just returned from Springfield, where the funeral of Mr. Dean, the father of Mrs. Stearns, was held. In this time of sorrow and grief we wish to extend the heartfelt sympathy of the whole school both to Mr. Stearns, who has always had a place in the heart of every member of this school, and to Mrs. Stearns, who, in the short time that she has been with us, has won the esteem of everyone by her sweet disposition.

The steps which Forum has taken in accepting the proposal of Mr. Robinson are commendable, as the consolidation of the two debates will undoubtedly tend to increase the interest of the school in debating. If won by Forum, the prize money is to be spent for library purposes and the names of the winners engraved on the books. Philo would do well in adopting a similar plan.

Inquiry Reception.

The annual reception of the Society of Inquiry, which was to have been held next Saturday evening, has been postponed on account of the death of Mr. Stearns' child. The program will consist of selections by the musical clubs and addresses by Reid of Harvard and Mr. Stearns of the faculty. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

The following committees have the reception in charge:

Social—Ferry, chairman, A. Parker, L. J. Perrin, Kirkpatrick, Bliss, Schenck and Townsend.

Refreshment—Williams, chairman, J. A. Bartlett, G. H. Gillis, Waterman, Fernald and Wray.

Dramatic Club.

The following men reported last evening to try for the vacancies in the casts for the play which is to be held this term: Angel, Barton, Gallyon, Kittredge, W. Evans, McRobert, Moorehouse, Park, F. Taylor and Williams.

The judges were Mr. J. Phillips, J. A. Bartlett and F. Bartlett.
