ANDOVER WINS

Defeats the Brown University Nine in the Best Played Game of the Season.

Last Wednesday, in Providence, Andover defeated Brown by the score of 2 to 1 in the best played game put up so far this season. The team has taken a big brace and the result of the game was most encouraging in every way. Both teams played well in the field but at the bat Andover did the heavier hitting—making seven hits to Brown's three.

In the box, for Andover, Baker pitched the best game of the season, and although he was apt to be wild at times, he was steady at the critical points. His headwork was especially good. Hatch, for Brown, was at first too much for Andover, particularly on account of his peculiar delivery and cross fire, but after the first few innings he was hit pretty well.

O'Brien put up the best game at the bat and in the field. Beach caught in unusually good form and his throwing to second was of the best. The Brown team realized this and after making an unsuccessful attempt to steal second, gave it up. Huiskamp also did good work at third.

The feature of the game was made by Clough in catching a fly ball which would have been a hit. Andover's hitting was timely, especially Baker's hit in the eighth inning which brought in the winning run. The two bunts in the last part of the game was as pretty as any of the season, and the base running was noticeably improved. The change in the batting order of the team seemed to work rather better.

The team left Andover on the 11-10 train, Wednesday morning, and took dinner at the South station in Boston. Arriving in Providence at about two o'clock, they were taken immediately to the field and commenced practice at three o'clock.

The game was called at 3.30. O'Brien for Andover was first at bat and singled to right field, reaching second on a passed ball. Scribner's fly to short gave him third but the next two men were retired in succession. In the second half it looked as though Brown would score. Baker allowed Foulder and Woodsum to walk. Abbott fouled out to Beach and Metcalf was allowed first when Woodsum was caught at second. Capt. Paine was next up, but Andover successfully closed a pretty dangerous inning when Baker threw him out at first.

Both sides were retired in order in the second inning. In the third Andover had a good chance to score when Baker walked to first, and Barry muffed Hodge's fly, but Baker was run off and Hodge declared out for running out of line. O'Brien died at first on a grounder to Woodsum. In the second half, Hatch opened for Brown with a hit to centre field and was sacrificed to second by Foulder. Another hit to the same place by Woodsum brought home Hatch, scoring Brown's only run.

Andover made her first run in the fourth inning. With one out Huiskamp singled to center field, went to second on a passed ball and reached third when Beach was out at first. A hit by Clough over second base scored him.

In the next three innings both teams were retired in short order. Andover scored the winning run in the eighth. Gilchrist was first at bat and reached second on Woodsum's overthrow to first, making third on Carter's out. Baker's hit to centre field brought him home.

In the last inning Andover's strong batters were up and started out well. O'Brien and Scribner in succession beat out bunts. Huiskamp tried to follow suit, but fouled out. Beach made a scratch hit to second base but no one could score and Clough closed the inning with a fly to Paine.

Mirror Contents.

The contents for the June Mirror, which will come out in about two weeks, is as follows:—"The Freshman's Rival," by F. L. Collins, P. A. '00; "Shylock, A Character Study," by L. J. Perrin; "Francis Bacon," by A. W. Bannwart; "Why do we Honor the Puritan?" by R. L. Clark; Mirage; "A Forest Fire," by W. Richardson; Editorials, Book Reviews, and Leaves from Phillips Ivy.

Yale Senior Elections.

The annual elections to the Yale senior societies took place Thursday afternoon. The following old Andover men received elections:

Skull and Bones—F. W. Wilhelm, J. M. Dreisbach, H. M. Wallace, H. C. Holt.

Scroll and Keys—C. W. Littlefield, O. J. Willis.

Wolf's Head—W. B. Tyler.

EXETER WINS GOLF.

Outclasses Andover, Winning by the Score of 26 to 6.

The golf match between Andover and Exeter was played last Wednesday afternoon on the links of the Merrimack Country Club at Lawrence, which had been very kindly tendered by the club for the contest. The game was easily won by Exeter, 20 holes up. The detailed score was as follows:

EXETER		ANDOVER
Andrus	6	Simmons, (capt)	0
Draper	5	Paine	0
Elmer	4	Stuart	0
Newbury	0	Gurley	2
Maxon	0	Robertson	4
Horsford,
(capt.)	11	Perrin	0
Total	26		6

The next match will take place this afternoon at Newton Centre, with the Newton Centre Golf club team.

✓ New Athletic Advisory Rules.

At a recent meeting of the Athletic Advisory Board, the following regulations, with regard to the letters, monograms and suits given by the various athletic organizations of the school were decided upon.

FOOTBALL:—Blue sweater with large white A, jersey with small stripe on the sleeves, blue stockings and monogram on cap, same as last year.

BASEBALL:—Blue sweater with small white A, jersey with plain sleeves, blue stockings and monogram on cap, same as last year.

TRACK:—White sweater with medium sized A, jersey with wide stripes on sleeves, and cap with German script A.

HOCKEY:—White sweater with A. H. T. and crossed hockey sticks. Same, as monogram, on blue cap.

GOLF:—Caps with A. G. T. and blue coats with same monogram on pocket.

BASKET BALL:—Monogram but not yet decided upon. It will be in the same class as hockey.

TENNIS:—This year, small A on white sweater, and blue caps with white A. Next year, A. T. T. on both cap and sweater.

The managers of the different teams, as in former years, will receive the same monogram or letters as their respective teams.

New Class Game Rules.

The annual class baseball game between the two middle classes of the school will take place on the large campus next Wednesday afternoon.

The management of the game has decided to abolish, this year, certain former customs. No eggs are to be thrown, or decayed fruit, and there is to be no painting of numerals on buildings, fences, etc.

It is also hoped that there will be less cutting this year and that the players will not be kidnapped. With the exception of these changes the game will be played as usual, with rushes between innings etc.

Obituary.

JOHN HOPKINS P. A. '58

Judge John Hopkins P. A. '58, died at his home in Millbury May 19, from cancer of the stomach. He was born at Leonard Stanley, Gloucestershire, England in 1840. When three years old he was brought to this country and in 1857 came to Andover, which he left the following year to attend Dartmouth. After graduating from that college he studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1864. In 1865 he was married to Miss Mary C. Salsbury.

He was prominent in the town affairs of Millbury, having been a member of the board of selectmen, at one time chairman; assessor, trustee of the town library 25 years, chairman of the school committee 12 years, trustee of the Millbury Savings Bank, treasurer of the Episcopal mission, and was chairman of the executive committee of the Worcester County Bar Association.

In 1882 he was a Democratic candidate for Congress, and for two years was Democratic candidate for state auditor. He had been his party's candidate for district attorney several times, and was a member of the House of Representatives in 1882 and 1883, during both years being chairman of the joint committee on woman suffrage. He was chairman of the standing committee on probate and chancery in 1883 and in 1884, was a delegate to the national Democratic convention at Chicago, and was one of the supporters of Grover Cleveland.

Mr. Hopkins was appointed to the bench by Gov. Russell in 1891, continuing actively until stricken by severe illness while sitting in Worcester in March of this year. He leaves a widow, a daughter, Mrs. Grace Magowan of Savannah, Ga., and two sons, Herbert S., and Perman P., of Millbury.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

The victory over Brown last Wednesday was a fair showing of the team's abilities when in their best form and ought to be a great encouragement to the school as well as the nine. The slightest over-confidence, however, will be fatal. Exeter has been working hard with steady improvement while our season has been erratic. For a successful climax it is necessary that the whole school keep up the same spirit and give the team the same support as was shown by the delegation which met them at the station last Wednesday.

Northfield Conference.

The seventeenth annual Northfield Student Conference will be held this year at East Northfield, Mass., on the grounds of the Northfield Seminary, from June 27 to July 7. This conference is under the auspices of the student department of the international committee of the Young Men's Christian Association, and its object is to train students for leadership in various departments of the organized christian work of their institutions. The attendance and strength of these meetings have materially increased from year to year, and all indications give assurance that the conference this year will be as largely attended and as successful as those of recent years.

Over six hundred students representing one hundred schools, colleges and universities in Canada and the east will be present. Among the speakers already announced are Rev. G. C. Morgan, Mr. R. E. Speer, P. A. '86, Rev. John Kelman, of Edinburgh, Rev. C. W. Sanborn, of Winnipeg and possibly Bishop Lawrence. The fact that John R. Mott, of the World's Christian Student Federation, will preside at and direct the conference, argues well for its success.

The primary and avowed purpose of the conference is of course spiritual. For this reason there are meetings and conferences during the forenoons for those who wish to specialize in some form of religious activity, as, for instance: mission work, a bible study course, and so on. At eleven o'clock there is a general "platform meeting," at which an address is made by some speaker of national reputation and real power. In the evening at sunset there takes place the "Round Top" meeting, at which the college student's greatest problem—his life work—is discussed. After this comes the delegation meeting, the assembling together separately of the students from each college or school, to discuss the problems of their own institutions.

The whole afternoon is given up to recreation. During the conference a series of baseball games is held between the different colleges, a track meet, a tennis tournament, and there are also abundant facilities for swimming and mountain climbing. On the Fourth of July there is a celebration, in which all the institutions compete for the best exhibition.

The price for board and room for the ten days, during which the conference lasts, is $12.00. All delegates are expected to pay in addition a registration fee of $5.00, to cover the general expenses of the conference.

Last year Andover had a small delegation but this year it is hoped a large number of men will be able to attend. Inquiry, as last year, will send one man as a delegate with his expenses paid.
