Yale Interscholastic Games.

The rules governing the Yale University Interscholastic games have been published in pamphlet form this year for the first time.

The games are to be held annually under the auspices and management of the Yale Athletic association. Competition shall be open to students of any school. The students must be under twenty-one years of age, must be amateurs and of good scholarship standing. A cup, valued at $500, offered by Yale Alumni and known as the Yale interscholastic cup, shall be competed for until won four times by some one school, when it shall become the property of that school. The cup shall be held in the custody of the school which shall be champion from one meeting to the next. That school shall be champion which shall score a plurality of points. Points are counted as follows: first place, five points; second place, three points; third place, two points; fourth place, one point. A banner worth $25.00 shall be annually awarded to the champion school of the year. In any event, a gold medal shall be awarded to firsts, a silver medal to seconds and a bronze medal to third.

The Laws of Athletics are the same as those of the I. C. A. A. A. and of the A. A. U.

The Yale Interscholastic records are: 100 yards dash, H. Davis, Hill school, 10 1-5 sec., May 17, 1902; 200 yards dash, H. Davis, Hill school, 22 2-5 sec., May 17, 1902; 440 yards yards run, J. F. Doyle, Worcester academy, 51 3-5 sec., May 17, 1902; 880 yards run, H. S. Edwards, Andover, 2 min. 05 4-5 sec., May 17, 1902; 1 mile run, A. Mackenzie, jr., Dwight school, 4 min. 37 4-5 sec., May 17, 1902; 120 yards hurdle, E. S. Amsler, Mercersburg academy, 17 1-5 sec. May 17, 1902; 2 mile run, J. T. Elingwood, Dwight school, 10 min. 41 2-5 sec. May 17, 1902; 220 yards hurdle, C. Fry, Andover, and E. S. Amsler, Mercersburg academy, 26 1-5 sec., May 17, 1902; Running high jump, J. D. Phillips, Worcester academy, M. P. Johnston, Williston, and H. P. Hubbard, Concord high school, 5 ft. 8 1-2 in. May 17, 1902; Running broad jump, H. P. Hubbard, Concord high school, 22 ft. 4 3-4 in. May 17, 1902.

Remodelling of the Academy Building.

The plans for the remodelling of the Academy building have been drawn by Mr. Guy Lowell, a well known architect of Boston, and were accepted at the last meeting of the trustees.

The contract has been awarded to Hardy & Cole of Andover. Work was begun this week, Thursday, and the building will be ready when school opens next fall.

TRACK—The following men will report on the 12.11 train for Boston: Sumner, Mahoney, Thornton, Dillon, Bullock, Marshal, Du Puy, Hasbrock, Brewer, Oll, Love, Smith, Lerche, Thompson and Andrews.

Archaeology News.

Although recitations have been held for some time in the Archaeology building, all the work has not yet been completed. It is proposed to hold a reception about the last of March and thus formally open the building.

Immediately thereafter, Professor Peabody and Mr. Moorehead will go to the Ozark mountains to explore some caves and rock-shelters in which ancient remains have been found. It is thought that these are different, if not older, than the ordinary Indian specimens common throughout the country. At any rate, they merit a thorough investigation. After their return, Mr. Moorehead and Professor Peabody will publish a book covering the results of the investigations.

The caves were brought to the notice of the Archeology department by a travelling fruit-man, who, contrary to his class, seems to be an intelligent man. He has also secured permission from the authorities of the department to investigate and excavate at different points.

Mr. Moorehead said that will take up several weeks as he and Professor Peabody expect to examine sites in Arkansas and Missouri, and possibly in Kentucky also. Owing to this long absence, the classes in Archaeology will probably not meet again until about the middle of May.

Base Ball

Squad will report on the big campus this afternoon at 2 o'clock, dressed for practice.

Yesterday afternoon the squad was given batting practice and considering that the men have had no practice as yet, they showed up in good form.

The following men will report today: Hodge, Allwerth, Schmuck, T. A. Cushman, Cox, Dillon, Hayes, P. A. Lerch, Dewitt, Dodge, Dods, J. Kinney jr., H. A. Hobbs, A. M. Shoemaker, F. H. Thompson, Schildmiller, Veeder, F. A. Beach, Sullivan, R. W. Brown, R. C. Brown, Baker, DuPuy, Pratt, L. Hall, C. C. Clough, G. E. Anderson, Cook, Blodgett.

Basket Ball.

Owing to the shortage in the treasury of the basket ball association, the team will play a few more games. These games will probably be arranged for within the next week. The attendance this year has not been all that could be desired and as the association does not call on the fellows for subscriptions in any other way, it is hoped that all who can will come to the last games of the season. The team surely deserves all the support that can be given to it.

Gym Notice

All men who have heretofore been excused from gym classes on account of base ball, but who have been dropped from the base ball squad, will report as usual for their classes in the gymnasium.

Philo.

The Philomathean Society held its regular weekly meeting last night in room two of the Science building. Although the attendance was much below the average, the meeting was an extremely interesting one. After the roll-call and minutes had been read, under miscellaneous business, it was voted to hold next week's meeting of the society on Thursday night instead of on Friday night, so as not to conflict with the Musical club's concert.

The debate was then held, subject: Resolved, that "The United States should establish courts for the adjustment of disputes between employees and private corporations possessing franchises of a public nature."

Heminway, assisted by Bishop and Davis, upheld the affirmative, while Fairbanks, assisted by Eaton and Shaffer, supported the negative. The president awarded the debate to the affirmative.

Kelley continued the program with a very amusing select reading.

The meeting was adjourned after a very witty and helpful critique by Mr. Poynter.

Forum

The regular meeting Forum was held last evening in room 7 of the Science building. After the preliminary exercises had been carried out the regular program was taken up. Mott rendered a declamation entitled "Only a Soldier," and Cates gave a very interesting address on, "The Military and Naval Weakness of the United States as Compared With Germany."

After a very much appreciated talk on "Reminiscences of Andover," by T. P. Hubbard, P. S. '98, the meeting was adjourned.

Inquiry.

For the first time this year, the Society of Inquiry will hold an open meeting at its regular weekly meeting in the Science building, tomorrow evening, at 7 o'clock. As this is the first time such a meeting has been held this year, and, as it is one of the most interesting and helpful forms of worship, everybody is urged to attend. Members of the school who do not belong to Inquiry are cordially invited to attend.

Chess Club.

There will be an important business meeting of the Chess club in addition to the regular meeting, this evening, at 7 o'clock, in the chess room in the Archaeology building. The object of this meeting is to elect a president to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of the former president. As this is a most important meeting, all are earnestly requested to attend.

The fund for the furnishing of the chess room has now reached sixty dollars and it is hoped that this amount will be increased. Any contributions may be given to W. Richardson or to G. Hellett.

Communications.

(The Editors of the Phillipian invite all members of the school to express their sentiment in these columns, but do not hold themselves responsible for what is said.)

To the Editor of the Phillipian:

A communication published in your issue of last Wednesday stated that the hockey captain for next year had not yet been elected and that no reason for this could be discovered. In the first place, one of the men on the team is not now in school. When only seven votes are cast for election, the absence or addition of one vote may change the whole election. As soon as the absent member is heard from the captain will be chosen.

PAUL R. REED.

Editor of the Phillipian:

While the manliness and vigor of Dr. Greenfel's work in Labrador is still fresh in the minds of all, we wish to call attention to the collection to be taken for him. Last term a collection of old clothes and periodicals was taken for the benefit of the sailors in the Seamen's Home in Boston, and the fellows gave very liberally. Dr. Grenfel said he could not use the literature so well as the old clothes; especially sweaters, heavy suits and underwear could be put to a very profitable use. There will be no collection for the seamen of Boston this term, but, instead, the first week of next term, a collection of this sort of clothing will be taken and sent to Dr. Grenfel. This notice is given now so that the fellows can save their winter clothing for him, and it is hoped that they will respond as well as they did last term.

SOCIETY OF INQUIRY.

Gym News.

The date for the finals in the gymnasium class in the athletic contests has been set for Friday, March 20. By Monday, all the preliminaries will be finished. The teams will be chosen as follows: the two best men from each team will be chosen and these will complete to decide who will represent the class. The two best men from each class will take part in the final meet. The relay races and the dashes will probably be run off on the board track instead of in the gymnasium.

The final games in basket-ball will be played Thursday, March 19. Since three teams will qualify for the finals, one team will not play in the semi-finals but will meet the winner of the other two teams. To determine which team will get the "by" lots will be drawn.

The result of the games played thus far are as follows:—

D-1 forfeited to C-2.

A-2 forfeited to B-1.

The teams from E and F have not yet played. The forfeitures were due to the non-appearance of the teams.

Chess Club—There will be an important business meeting of the Chess club in the Archaeology building, at 7 o'clock.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

Saturday, March 14, 1903

ALL the fellows who attend the Interscholastic meet this afternoon, ought to remember that although they do not represent the school by taking part in the contests, still they represent the school in regards to its spirit and support. Although Andover will not be represented by an exceedingly strong team, a little cheering by the fellows may do more good than we otherwise could hope for. Let every man do his share.

THE PHILLIPIAN wishes to bring to the attention of the school the very kind invitation of the Harvard-Andover Club, to attend the reception tonight at the Harvard Union, for all the Andover men who attend the Interscholastic meet.

Summer School.

The summer school of Mr. Bullinger and Mr. Poynter at Mettlak Lodge will be held in a cottage rented for the exclusive use of the school. In order to secure the freedom which this plan will give the contract must be signed within three weeks. All who contemplate attending must make definite arrangements with Mr. Bullinger or Mr. Poynter by April first.

While in the main, preference will be given to those who apply first, the right is reserved to overlook the order of application since a congenial crowd is desirable.

A set of pictures of the lakes and the surrounding country has been secured and may be seen in Bancroft cottage. Mr. Stearns, who knows the country and who will probably be there for a time at least, will answer any questions about the country and accommodations.

The members of the Harvard-Andover club have arranged to hold an informal reception for Andover men at the Harvard Union on the evening of March fourteenth. The club extends a cordial invitation to all Andover men who enter the Interscholastic meet, held in Boston that afternoon and also to all men who may come to Boston on that day. Music at the reception will be furnished by members of the variety clubs.

Excuses may be obtained from the Registrar to attend this reception in Cambridge and to return to Andover on the 11.15 p. m. train that night.

New Track Rules.

The Andover-Exeter Track meet this spring will be governed by a new set of rules: namely, those of the Interscholastic Association of Amateur Athletes in New England.

The object of the association is to protect the mutual interests of the schools comprising the association and to advance and improve amateur athletic sports. The membership of the association is limited to schools of good standing. The management of the association is intrusted to an executive committee consisting of eight members and one of these must be a manager of the Harvard track team. Two annual championships shall be held each year, one indoor and the other outdoor. The rules define an amateur as follows:

"An amateur is a person who has never competed in an open competition, or for money, or under a false name; or with a professional for a prize; or with a professional where gate money is charged; nor has ever at any time taught, pursued, or assisted at athletic exercises for money, or any valuable consideration. But nothing in this definition shall be construed to prohibit the competition between amateurs for medals, cups, or prizes other than money.

"Eligibility for competition: (1) No one shall represent any school or academy as a competitor who is not an amateur. (2) No one shall represent any school or academy as a competitor who has not been a member of that school or academy in good and regular standing for at least six months. (3) No one shall represent any school or academy as a competitor at the annual athletic meets unless he is taking work equivalent to ten hours per week.

Interscholastic Meet.

The following men will compete in the Interscholastic Meet in Mechanics Hall this afternoon:

40 yard dash—Sumner, Mahoney and Thornton.

45 yard hurdles—Dillon and Bullock.

High Jump—Marshal, Du Puy and Hasbrock.

600 yard run—Brewer, Off.

Mile run—Smith.

The relay will consist of four of the five following men: Lerch, Sumner, Thornton, Love and Brewer. The team will not be decided upon until just before the race.
