BASKETBALL

Boston Y. M. C. A. Defeated in a Good Game by the Score of 23 to 15.

Andover defeated the Boston Y. M. C. A. basketball team in a well played game at the gymnasium last Saturday afternoon by the score of 23 to 15. Andover did very well considering that four substitutes were used, but Boston also used two substitutes, which weakened them somewhat. The one feature which marred an almost perfect game was the number of fouls which were made, and both teams are to blame for this fault. Clough and Kinney played the best game for Andover, while Goggin and Blake excelled for Boston.

FIRST HALF.

Blake started the scoring for Boston by throwing a goal on a foul. Then after five minutes of hard fighting, Kinney threw a goal from the field. A few minutes after play was resumed Murphy threw a basket. Goggin followed in short order with another. Some good playing was in evidence for the next three or four minutes, at the end of which time Blake threw a goal from the field. Here Forbes retired from the game and J. H. Murphy went in at right forward. Blake added a point a minute later, by throwing a goal from a foul. Andover then tied the score and went ahead by two goals thrown in quick succession by Kinney. Goggin tied the score with a pretty goal from the field and Kinney again put Andover in the lead by throwing a basket. Marshall threw a goal, and Goggin threw another in quick succession. Marshall closed the half by a pretty goal from the field.

Score: Andover 14; Boston Y. M. C. A. 10.

SECOND HALF.

In the second half Andover started off with a rush. F. H. and J. W. Murphy scoring goals in quick succession, Blake following with a goal on a foul. Kinney and Casper followed with baskets. Then a double foul was made and Kinney scored a goal from a free shot, Blake failing to do so. After a few minutes of hard struggling, Clough shot a basket, and then, by excellent team work, Jacobs secured another. Blake closed the game by an unsuccessful attempt at goal from a foul, leaving the final score Andover 23; Boston Y. M. C. A. 15.

Philo.

The first regular meeting of Philo for this term was held last Saturday evening in Society hall. After the usual opening came the roll-call and reading of the minutes. Under miscellaneous business French was voted in as a member of the society. A motion was made and carried that the president appoint a committee to make preparations for the annual banquet to be held at the Phillips Inn.

The literary program then followed: Declamation, Price; select reading, McCurdy; Topics of the Week, Olmstead.

The debate followed: Resolved, "That further annexation of territory is not for the best interests of the American people." Affirmative, Messerly, Evans and Kitchel; negative, Kaiser, Reynolds and McSterling. Olmstead spoke on the affirmative from the house. The vote before the debate stood: affirmative 2, negative 3; after the debate, affirmative 5, negative 0. The chair cast his decision with the affirmative.

Kitchel then introduced a resolution concerning S. H. Carter's death, which was unanimously adopted.

The president then announced that the trials for the Philo team which will represent Philo in the Philo-Forum debate would be held on Friday evening, Jan. 22, at 7 o'clock. The subject is to be: Resolved, "That the Senate of the United States be elected by the people." Fenderson, Garabedian and Richards were proposed for membership. Kitchel closed with a critique.

Forum.

A meeting of Forum was held last Saturday night in the Archaeology building. The meeting was opened by repeating the Lord's Prayer, which was followed by a declamation by Hamilton, entitled "Napoleon Bonaparte and Toussant, l'Ouverture."

The next number on the program was "Topics of the Week," by Burch, and Goldsmith followed this with an excellent extemporaneous talk on "Shakespeare and Milton compared." In the period then set aside for miscellaneous business Goldsmith was elected treasurer in place of Meixell, resigned.

The question for debate was, Resolved, "That wars have done more harm than good to the world." Hamilton assisted by Moore upheld the affirmative, and Monahan and Bardwell spoke for the negative. The vote was unanimous for the negative both before the debate, on the merits of the question, and after, on the merits of the arguments presented. The chair placed his decision with the affirmative. Frost gave an able critique and the meeting adjourned.

Business meeting of Inquiry in Society hall at 6.45 this evening for election of officers for the last half-year. All members urged to be present.

Inquiry.

A very successful meeting of Inquiry was held last Sunday night in Society Hall. Mr. Alan Fox, P. A. '99, Yale '03, addressed the meeting. His topic was the three great evils of school life, namely; drinking, licentiousness, and cribbing. He said that a fellow's main object at school was not to make the athletic team or the school paper but to fit himself for future life and that to make a grand success of life, a man must have clean morals. The greatest men in history have been total abstainers because they realized that drinking would weaken their chances for success. Although a fellow may be sure of his own power not to acquire the habit, he may by his example lead some weaker fellow to drink, and this alone ought to deter him. Licentiousness, the speaker said, had lost many a college victory, and he gave the example of a captain who, having broken training the night before a great race, had gone entirely to pieces and lost the race. Finally, the greatest athlete is the one whose record has been free from all dissipation. Concerning cribbing, Mr. Fox said that it was a notable fact that all cribbers had low marks. The most successful men are those whose reputations for integrity are unstained, and in after life men would hesitate to give business requiring integrity to a classmate who had been a confirmed cribber in school. He ended his address by an appeal to the fellows to resist these temptations and keep pure and clean.

The Society is very lucky in having such a man as Mr. Fox to speak to them and it is their only regret that the whole school could not have heard him.

Gymnasium Leaders.

The following men have been selected as leaders of squads in the gymnasium for January.

A. Tyler, Reed, Hollet, Angell, Jordan, Porteous.

B. Hall, Raymond, Clough, Blair, Montgomery, Shirk.

C. Martin, Naething, Perrin, Peters, Dunlap, Kissam.

G. D'Arcy, Orr, Hager, Bartholomew, Holiday, Peacock.

Leaders will be entitled to two cuts a month, one of which must be taken before and one after the 15th. The classes have all been organized into teams and will begin their athletic games and tournaments this week.

Concert.

A concert was given last night in the Town hall by the Cecilia String Quartet and Miss Maude Fowler, reader. The concert was very good and was attended by a large number of the townspeople and students, the showing being very gratifying to the management.

The quartet was composed of Miss Blanche Percival, 1st violin; Miss May Waldo, 2nd violin; Miss Laura Wheeler, viola; Miss Grace Bullock, cello; assisted by Miss Maude Fowler, reader.

Next Friday evening at 7 o'clock, Philo will hold a mock Faculty meeting in Society hall. As this is an entirely new feature, an enjoyable time is looked forward to and all the fellows are invited.

The faculty will consist of the following: Richardson, Bishop, Holliday, Fairbanks, Kitchel, Van Brunt, and Brush, while Kennedy and Seligman will appear before the Faculty as delinquent students.

Battery Practice.

The candidates for battery positions on next spring's baseball team reported at the gym last Saturday afternoon. There were thirteen who reported, as follows: Pitchers, R. W. Brown, Cummings, Bennett, Fels; catchers, R. C. Brown, Veeder, Dodge, Garver, Daly, Perrin and Monahan.

Until further notice practice will be from one till two o'clock on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Foil—1st prize, a pair of duelling swords; 2nd prize, a pair of fork.

Sabre (broad sword)—1st prize, a pair of sabres; 2nd prize, a sabre mask.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

Wednesday, January 13, 1904.

The plan of the middle class to give a dance in the near future is a most worthy one and certainly should receive the earnest support of the two upper classes. In the past few years Andover has been very slow socially, and it has been said a great many times that the school lacked a great deal in events such as the proposed one.

Sociality, we have been told, is one of the greatest purposes of school life, and as we have done nothing in this line, let every upper classman who possibly can, give his support to this project.

SIDNEY HOBART CARTER.

Inasmuch as it has pleased God in his infinite wisdom to take from this life our former President, Sydney Hobart Carter, P. S. '02, therefore be it

Resolved: That we, members of the Philomathean society, as a token of our appreciation of his earnestness and the interest shown by him in the society, extend to his family our deep and heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement, and be it further

Resolved: That this testimonial of our respect and esteem be published in the PHILLIPIAN and a copy sent to his family.

Newstand.

Owing to the fact that a number of fellows were thrown out of employment at the Dining Hall at the first of the term, it has been decided to build a stand under the stairs in the Dining Hall, where newspapers, periodicals and candy will be on sale. This will give employment to three fellows and has the sanction of the faculty. The stand will be opened next week.

'05 Dance.

At a meeting of P. A. and P. S. '05 held yesterday noon it was decided to give a dance some time in February if the Faculty will permit. This dance would correspond to the Yale Junior "Prom" and would be distinctly an upper class affair for the senior and middle classes only.

It was voted that the president appoint a committee of five to take charge of the dance and see that all necessary arrangements are made. The appointments will be announced later.

On the afternoon of December 18, 1903, Miss Marion Welch of New Haven, was married to Professor Henry S. Graves, director of the School of Forestry at Yale University. Mr. Graves is the son of Professor William B. Graves of Phillips Andover Academy. Miss Welch was attended by her sister, Miss Hilda Welch, as maid of honor, and the best man was Dr. William P. Graves of Boston, a brother of the bridegroom. Part of the wedding journey was spent at the home of the bridegroom's parents on Salem street, Andover.

Archaeological Notes.

During the past two months many additions have been made to the Department's collections. Chief among these is the exhibit sent by Mr. Stephen Van Ren of New Jersey, comprising some hundreds of prehistoric articles. These specimens are very welcome for now the exhibit from New Jersey is more complete than formerly.

From Idaho, Mr. D. Holland sent some small delicately worked points of jasper, comelian and obsidian. Some of them are remarkable for the fine workmanship evinced in their manufacture.

Studies in the natural history of types were received from Ohio and Indiana. They comprise unfinished tools and effigies, and exhibit every stage or step in the process of manufacture. They are very important, showing as they do, how primitive man made his implements and ornaments at that time.

The library has been enriched by twelve volumes from the Ohio State Archaeological and Historical society and by numerous books and pamphlets.
