BASKETBALL

Andover Defeats Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 35 to 17, in the Hardest Fought and Fastest Game of the Season.

Last Saturday afternoon, at the Borden gymnasium, Andover made good her reputation as having one of the best basket ball teams in New England by defeating M. I. T., 35 to 17. M. I. T. had previously defeated the leading teams of the state, including Holy Cross and Amherst, and as Holy Cross defeated both Harvard and Yale, M. I. T. made a claim for the championship of New England. All such aspirations were completely dispelled Saturday however, as Andover led from the start, and outclassed the visitors in every detail of the game. The home team swept the visitors off their feet, and had them under control at all times. The game was somewhat rough, made necessarily so by the unusually fast playing, and also by the fact every man was there to win. A large number of fouls were called, Tech being the gainer on the free tries as Blake had a good eye for the basket. Andover's team work was a feature and puzzled the visitors throughout the game; Andover also threw baskets more accurately. Blake played the best game for M. I. T., throwing four field goals and five fouls, thus scoring 13 of his team's 17 points. For Andover the entire team played a fine game; Schildmiller's work was the best; Humphreys and Kinney threw several difficult baskets, and Clough also played a good game.

FIRST HALF

Both teams started in to win, and M. I. T. scored first on a foul, soon followed by Ager who scored from the field. Andover then woke up and went one ahead on goals by Humphreys and Schildmiller. Clough and Blake each scored on fouls and soon after Humphreys caged the ball for two more points. Again Blake scored on a free try, but Schildmiller made it up by a pretty basket. After a goal by Humphreys, Blake won the applause of the entire audience by shooting an unusually long basket, the ball going through very cleanly. Then Thompson and Cushman scored, after which Blake threw another difficult goal. Just before time was called Thompson tallied again. The half ended with the score; Andover 18, M. I. T. 9.

SECOND HALF

The line-up of both teams remained unchanged. M. I. T. started the scoring again, Blake doing the trick, but Clough soon evened up matters with a throw. At this point Kinney took Humphreys' place at right forward. Clough scored again and then threw a basket from a foul; Blake also scored from a foul, while Clough scored from the field again. Baskets by Blake and Wiggins followed, after which Blake threw another foul; then Kinney and Clough scored three baskets between them;

Musical Clubs at Lowell.

The Glee, Mandolin and Banjo clubs took a trip to Lowell last Saturday afternoon, where a tea was given the members by the Roger's Hall school. Later the clubs gave a complimentary concert at the Highland club of Lowell, after which there was a dance.

The clubs arrived at Rogers Hall at about 4 o'clock, and after refreshments had been served a short musical program was rendered, consisting of two selections by each organization. All the fellows then joined in singing several school songs. The tea was given by the kindness of Mrs. Underhill, the principal, and it was gratifying to note that almost all of the members were present. There were thirty-four young ladies at the tea.

After supper at Page's Spa, the clubs rode out to the Highland club, where the evening's entertainment took place. As the Rogers Hall girls could not dance during Lent, the dance which followed the concert was given to the young ladies of Lowell. There were ten dances with encores, on the "Assembly" plan. All the clubs did very well, and the singing was much appreciated. The clubs reached Andover shortly after midnight, having enjoyed every minute of the trip. The program for the concert was as follows:

- 1 (a) Coontown Review
(b) Falstaff Galop
Banjo Club
- 2 (a) Selection—"Red Feather"
(b) Coontown Chimes
Mandolin Club
- 3 (a) My Lady Chloe
(b) The Cat with a Baritone Voice
Glee Club
- 4 (a) Medley
(b) Dreams of Darkeyland
Banjo Club
- 5 (a) Medley
(b) Lucky Duck
Mandolin Club
- 6 (a) Here's a Health to Good Old Phillips
(b) Domine Salvam Fac
Glee Club

Philo.

The last literary meeting of the term will be held this evening in Society hall at 7.30. The program will be as follows:

- Critique—Proctor.
Address—Starks.
Declamation—Ballou.
Select reading—Perrin.
Topics of the week—Averill.

Subject for debate—Resolved, "that the stand taken by the athletic committee of Brown University on Professionalism in athletics is not justifiable. Aff.—Charles Clough, Kitredge. Neg.—Dillon, Hincks.

Forum.

On account of the concert there will be no meeting this Friday. The election of officers will take place on Friday, March 25.

Notices.

- BASEBALL—Practice at 1 o'clock.
BATTERIES—Practice at 2 o'clock.
BASKETBALL—Andover vs. Brown and Nichols. Gym; 3.30.

Mirror Contents.

The winter number of the Mirror will appear within the next week. The cover design is the same as formerly and the whole magazine is of equal interest with last term's Mirror. There are about 48 pages. The contents in full are as follows: "Macaulay: was he a Poet?" a well written essay by G. R. S. "King Harold" by W. M. Ford. It is a quaint description of a Viking expedition with some story interwoven.

"The River Temple" by R. G. Leeds, a lengthy story of an Indian image and the priests. "The Professor is Convinced," by A. M. W. The rather intricate plot is laid in Paris about the middle of the last century. It is a clever story of a professor who is writing a book on Physics and of a mysterious scientific man living in a rented room. The professor's attention is attracted by a red vapor which he sees issuing from the room; he pushes his inquiries and is initiated into the secrets of a self-heating fluid and various other marvellous inventions which induce him to tear up the book he had begun.

"In the Light of the Moon," a love story by B. F. D.

"Elcis and Arfus," an Indian legend in verse by G. R. S.

"Love for the Sea," by W. Richardson, last year's editor of the Mirror interesting both for its fine description and the story.

"Pipe Dreams" by S. T. Frissell—

"Mirage" consisting of "The Absent-Minded Man," by W. M. Ford and "Beans and a Courtship," by F. P. Ferguson. The former is a continuation of the tales begun in the last issue; and the latter is a humorous story of a family suddenly become rich, while the boy still prefers beans and cabbage. During the absence of the rest of the family he has procured these vegetables and set them to cook; when the bell rings, and a friend of his sister's appears. He of course entertains her and treats her to the savory dish with the result—

Editorials, Exchanges, Calendar and Leaves from Phillips Ivy complete the issue. It is worth the price in itself and furthermore should be supported as a school publication.

Bible Class.

The Bible Class held its regular meeting last Wednesday evening in Room 2 of the Academy building. Hollister led the meeting and his subject was: "Paul's second missionary journey to Galatia," including the epistle to the Galatians." The meeting was a very interesting one. There were thirteen fellows present.

Gillis will lead next Wednesday evening and his subject will be: "Paul's journey from Galatia through Phillippi."

P. A. 1904 will hold a class meeting tomorrow noon in S 7 for the election of officers.

Obituary.

R. J. DODD, P. A. '01.

R. J. Dodd, P. A. '01, committed suicide at his lodgings at 8 Allston street, Boston, Tuesday morning, March 8, 1904. While here in school Dodd was known and liked. He was the academy correspondent for the Boston Globe. He always took a prominent part in the literary life of the school, some of his contributions to the Mirror being of exceptional value; he also contributed to many magazines. A few weeks ago Dodd joined the staff of the Boston Traveller, and as a reporter had been doing very good work.

Communication.

Notice—The editors cordially welcome the expression of opinion in these columns but do not hold themselves responsible for any communication.

Editor of the Phillipian:

Through the PHILLIPIAN, I desire to announce that all clothes picked up around the gymnasium are deposited in a room adjoining the lavatory, and may be obtained on application to the janitor. It is hoped that this will do away with the numerous complaints from fellows whose clothing has disappeared.

Signed,
DR. PAGE.

Open Night.

The "open night" program which was to have been held last Saturday night, but was unavoidably postponed, will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the gymnasium. As usual the athletic contest comes first. This will comprise four events: the mile run, the standing high jump, the running high dive and the quarter mile potato race. Then the gym team will give an exhibition in tumbling, and the basket ball teams of classes E and G will play off the semi-final game. Also, during the course of the afternoon's events, the school basket ball team will play the strong Browne and Nichols preparatory school basket ball team of Cambridge.

Basketball Today.

This afternoon at 3.30 in the Borden gymnasium, Andover will play the strong Browne and Nichols team of Cambridge. A good game is expected. Andover's line-up will be: Forwards, Humphreys; Schildmiller and Kinney; centre, Thompson; guards, Clough and Cushman.

Dining Hall Notice.

All fellows who desire to wait on table at the dining hall during the Easter vacation, should see steward White at once.

Assistant Track Manager.

Last Saturday morning, at a school meeting in chapel, Trevor Arnold Cushman of Winchester, Mass., was elected assistant track manager.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

Wednesday, March 16, 1904.

From all reports the musical clubs acquitted themselves well last Saturday night at Lowell, when they gave a complimentary concert to the Rogers Hall school. Each club did its part well, and thus upheld Andover's reputation in the musical and social line. The school, and more especially the musical clubs, are very grateful for the treatment received at the hands of the hostesses, which was of the highest order. Such trips make the school all the more favorable in the public eye, besides affording the members of the various teams a vast amount of pleasure.

It is now time for the class baseball teams to elect their captains and managers for the coming year, and to arrange their schedules with the high school teams in the surrounding towns. This should be attended to at once, as the schedules will soon be filled if prompt action is not taken. Let every class, within the week, see that its baseball officers are elected and its schedule started.

Summer Camp.

Mr. N. W. Carlton of Delta, Col., college man, offers fine opportunities for a summer outing to any fellows in school who would wish to spend their vacation on a ranch. Mr. Carlton's summer camp is situated in the heart of the finest mountain and scenic region of Colorado. It affords fine hunting, mountain sheep, elk, deer, bear, and grouse. There is also "grange" riding, cattle round ups, branding, roping, etc. Saddle horses and all camp equipments will be furnished. For further particulars see the editor.

At the Theatres.

Boston—"The Merchant of Venice."
