YALE FRESH DEFEATED

A Batting Rally in Ninth Inning Wins Game For Andover.

Andover defeated the Yale freshmen yesterday afternoon 4-3 in one of the most interesting and exciting games played here this season. The freshmen showed unexpected strength and up to the ninth inning the score was three to two in their favor. Drisco pitched a very strong game, striking out ten men and keeping the hits well scattered. He received fine support, the team making only one error.

Hall opened the game for Andover but was replaced by R. W. Brown in the fourth inning. The freshmen could do nothing with Brown's delivery and secured but one hit. Brown struck out nine men in the six innings in which he played.

Andover's work in fielding and base running was very good, but the team shows exceptional weakness at the bat. The men seem to be timid and do not take a firm stand with the determination to hit the ball every time up, no matter how the game may be going. There must be a great improvement in this line before next Saturday.

The visitors scored their runs in the third inning. Emerick was safe on a fumble by Reilly, and Knox beat out his sacrifice. Drisco struck out and Ford sacrificed, bringing Emerick and Knox to second and third. Emerick scored on Behr's scratch hit to short, and Camp's hit to center brought in Knox and Behr. Church flied out in this inning. Andover also scored in this inning. Hall flied out to short and Schildmiller was out at first. Clough singled to right field, reached third on Kinney's hit and scored on a fumble by the third baseman. Murphy struck out. In the sixth inning Andover scored her second run. Kinney hit through short and came home on Murphy's hit to left. Andover took a decided brace in the ninth inning and scored the two runs needed to win the game. Dillon walked and Reilly hit to center. R. W. Brown followed with a hot one to third but the throw to the home plate was missed by the

THE ANDOVER PRESS

Saturday, June 4, 1904.

One week from today Andover plays her championship game with Exeter. The team has played in rather hard luck the entire season and has lost six games from its schedule through bad weather. Besides, it has not received the support from the school that it deserved and it has suffered more from this than most of us realize. Every man on the team, however, has worked hard and consistently, and the team as it stands today, is playing a fast and snappy game. They have done their part and done it well and it is not yet too late for the school to respond with the backing and support that is needed to close the season with a victory.

Next week is the last chance that the school will have of showing the team that it appreciates the work which it has done this spring, and the outcome of the Exeter game will depend largely on the support which the team receives from now on. Forced enthusiasm will do no good. The cheers have got to be given freely and heartily to accomplish the purposes for which they are intended. It is certainly disheartening to a player to think that the cheers given for the team are being literally forced from the men, and that the school as a whole takes no genuine interest in his work.

Let every fellow in school make it a point to attend the practices next week and let the team realize the true feeling which the school has towards it. It is not much to ask when the end to be gained is considered, and the school should deem this opportunity of aiding the team a pleasure and a privilege rather than a duty and an obligation.

The Porter Prizes.

The Porter prizes given by J. C. Porter of the class of ninety, in honor of his father and brother, are to be competed for this year for the first time at the commencement exercises. The following men have been chosen to compete: Eaton, Friszel, Holiday, Hollister, Knapp, Naething and J. W. Williams. Two of these men will be chosen by the English department to receive the first and second prizes of $30 and $20 respectively.
