THE MEANS PRIZE ESSAYS

The Competition this Year Offers Great Variety of Subjects.

The competition for the Means Prizes, which is open to the whole school, promises to be sharply contested this year. The subjects are varied and interesting, and those intending to try for the prizes will find little difficulty in selecting a suitable subject from the list.

The list, which may be found in the catalogue, is as follows:

1. Phillips Academy in War Times.
2. Should Ideals or Interests control a Government?
3. Prospecting for Gold.
4. Ambassadors at the Court of St. James.
5. The Hawaiian Islands under American Control.
6. Emerson and Poe—a Contrast.
7. Canoeing in the Vicinity of Andover.
8. What should be the Attitude of the United States toward China?
9. The Art of a Nation as Measured by its Monuments to the Dead.
10. The Moravian Mission in Ohio.

The essays are to be handed in on March 1, and from those submitted ten are chosen to be presented in a public contest for the prizes, the contest coming in May.

It is important if one is to be successful in trying for the Means, that one should be thinking and reading on his subject in plenty of time so as to produce a well considered essay. Those who are interested in the matter should consult the catalogue for further details.

A College Census.

Official statistics show the college enrollment for the current year as follows, taking in order the fifteen universities that head the list in point of numerical importance: Harvard, 6,013, Columbia, 4,557, Chicago, 4,147, Northwestern, 4,007, Michigan, 3,726, California, 3,690, Illinois, 3,661, Minnesota, 3,550, Cornell, 3,438, Wisconsin, 3,221, Yale, 2,990, Pennsylvania, 2,664, Syracuse, 2,207, Princeton, 1,883, Leland Stanford, Jr., 1,370; total, 50,624.

The summary of students in the four academic classes at Yale shows an increase of two students over last year. The figures for these years are as follows:

	1904	1903
Seniors	286	289
Juniors	286	283
Sophomores	334	267
Freshmen	345	430
	1251	1249

Twenty-two men of the class of 1905 have already received B. A. degrees from other colleges.

R. L. Patterson, P. A. '03, Y. S. '06, has been enrolled a member of the Yale Military Company.

Intercollegiate Hockey.

The Intercollegiate Hockey association met last Tuesday in New York and elected the following officers: President, T. B. Souther, Harvard 1904; secretary and treasurer, C. T. Ganert, Columbia 1906. Representatives were present from Yale, Harvard, Columbia, Princeton and Brown. It was decided not to hold the final game between the two contestants having the highest percentage for the championship, as has hitherto been done. If the series result in a tie only one game will be played for the championship. The schedule is as follows:

Sat. Jan. 7—Princeton vs. Columbia.

Wed. Jan. 11—Princeton vs. Brown.

Sat. Jan. 14—Columbia vs. Harvard.

Sat. Jan. 21—Princeton vs. Harvard.

Tues. Jan. 24—Yale vs. Columbia.

Sat. Jan. 28—Yale vs. Brown.

Sat. Feb. 4—Columbia vs. Brown.

Sat. Feb. 11—Yale vs. Princeton.

Sat. Feb. 11—Harvard vs. Brown at Cambridge.

Sat. Feb. 18—Yale vs. Harvard.

These games will be played at the St. Nicholas Rink in New York, except the one between Harvard and Brown on Feb. 11, which will be played at Cambridge. In case of a tie the championship game will be played on Saturday, February 25th.

The team winning the series for three years will obtain permanent possession of the cup offered by J. M. Ceballos. Harvard at present holds the cup and in case she wins this year will gain permanent possession of it.

It has been practically decided to hold the Intercollegiate track meet at Soldiers' Field, Cambridge, next Spring. This will give the smaller New England colleges a chance to increase the number of their entries. However the fact that the meet at Philadelphia last Spring netted over twice as much as any in New York, may prove an inducement towards holding it once more in the same place.

Although Yale will lose a number of men from her football team by graduation, her prospects are bright for next year. The following men will leave this year: Capt. Hogan and Bloomer, tackles, Neal, end, and Kinney, guard, and Bloomer, centre. Behind the line, Owsley and Leavenworth will graduate. But the following and a number of "subs" will return: Shevlin, Tripp, Cates, Hoyt, Morse and Veeder. Capt. Hogan will probably coach the team next year.

The following Andover men have reported for hockey at Yale: L. de V. Dousman, 1906, J. B. Waterworth, 1908, W. M. Andrews, 1908, G. M. Hecksher, 1907, C. B. Stuart, 1907 S., G. H. Townsend, 1908.

FOOTBALL CAPTAIN.

Hobbs, this Year's Tackle Receives a Unanimous Election.

Last Wednesday Henry Homer Hobbs, '06, of Palmer, Mass., was unanimously elected captain of the Phillips Academy football team for next year.

Hobbs played tackle for two years on his high school team and he has also made a brilliant record here, having made his "A" in the Lawrenceville game in 1903, and having played in both the Exeter and Lawrenceville games this year. He weighs 170 pounds, is 5 feet, 11 inches tall, and is 18 years old.

Baseball Election.

At the school meeting held Thursday Boetius Henry Sullivan of Chicago, Ill., was elected manager of the baseball team for this year.

✓ Andover-Exeter Hockey.

A cup has been offered by the New England Hockey Association for a series of games in hockey between Andover and Exeter to be played every year for five years, the school having the larger number of series to its credit at the end of that time to take the cup. Also cups are to be offered each year to each one of the winning teams. Captain Howard and Manager Smith both express themselves as highly in favor of such a series.

Exeter has never had a hockey team, as they have no pond on which to practice, but only a river over which the ice is frozen at rare intervals only. However, if such a series could be arranged, Exeter could probably find some means of securing a good rink.

The committee on Yale entrance examinations has just completed a plan to bring Yale into closer touch with the preparatory schools. Each school will be notified of defects or strong points disclosed in the examinations of its students, and there will also be consultations with the masters to clear up any misunderstandings. The result of the new step, it is believed, will be an increase in the proportion of candidates passing the examinations. A circular bearing on the subject will be sent to the schools. The defects in preparation for entrance examinations are suggested by the latest statistics, which show that out of 431 students admitted last year, 207 were conditionally admitted and 224 had conditions in various studies, particularly in modern languages as about one half of the candidates in French and one third in German failed entirely in their first examination.

Francis O. Winslow, P. A. '63, of Norwood, Mass., will speak at the Vesper service on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Winslow has been for many years closely identified with the work of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Inquiry.

Alan Fox, P. A. '99, Y. '03, will address the regular meeting of the Society of Inquiry next Sunday evening at 7.00 o'clock in Society hall. Mr. Fox was a very prominent man, both here and in college. He was manager of the Yale Football team in his Senior year and was one of the most influential men of his class. Mr. Fox gave a talk last year to the society and a large crowd heard him. All fellows are invited to be present who can possibly do so.

Forum.

Forum held its regular meeting last Friday evening. A great deal of interest is now being shown as the debating teams have all been paired off for the trials which come on December 16th. The debate: Resolved, "That immigration into the United States should be prohibited," was won by the affirmative 5-3.

Philo.

The regular meeting of Philo was held last evening in Society hall. After the usual program had been rendered, Dr. Day addressed the society on the social settlements in our cities.

The list of the men who are excused from the regular gymnasium work for hockey is printed below: T. W. Reed, W. Beinecko, J. Bennett, Fels, La Mountain, J. R. Hyde, F. Daly, Lanigan, Hincks, Chalifoux, Eldridge, M. Clough, Johnson, R. Merritt, K. Merritt.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

Saturday, Dec. 3, 1904.

Last Thursday the annual Sheffield Scientific School catalogue was published. With the exception of being somewhat fuller in details than last year, it is practically the same. The summary of students is as follows:

Graduates	95
Seniors	160
Juniors	273
Freshmen	331
Special students	15

874

Students from other departments 169

Total 1043

The above shows a gain of 101 students over last year.

Those who listened to the lecture delivered by Mr. Charles W. Seymour in the Chapel last Tuesday night will be glad to know that there is a prospect of securing Mr. Seymour for a course of three lectures early next term.

Dr. Booker T. Washington will lecture at Abbot Academy in the new McKeen Memorial building on the evening of Tuesday, December 6.

The Yale-Princeton debate will take place at New Haven on December 9. The subject is, Resolved, "That a determination not to hold territory permanently, unless with the purpose that it shall ultimately enjoy statehood, should be the policy of the United States." Princeton has the choice of sides.

A new mechanical laboratory is being erected at Syracuse at a cost of $100,000.

At the Oxford Freshmen sports two American Rhodes scholars won events: W. E. Schutt of Cornell was first in the half mile run, time 2 min. 4 3-4 sec.; T. M. Young of South Dakota captured the high jump with 5 feet, 5 inches. Young also won in the preliminary heat for the 100 yard dash.

Charles Francis Emerson, P. S. '83, died in Titusville, Pa., of heart disease, September 5, 1904.

James A. Gould, P. S. '99, has moved from Buxton, N. D., to Minneapolis, Minn.
