VICTORY AGAIN

Andover won her fourth game of the season on Saturday afternoon by defeating the Yale freshmen team by the score of 17-5. Though the home team made seventeen points, she had to fight for every inch of ground and altogether it was the hardest game Andover has had so far this year. Yale made her touchdown in the latter part of the game, when a kick was blocked and Olcott fell on the ball behind the goal posts.

This was the first score against Andover this year, and the first time in three years that Yale Freshmen have scored upon the home team.

The weather conditions were poor for a gruelling contest, the heat being oppressive to both teams alike.

Many faults of our team came to light that were not seen in the easier games which have been played this year. There was not enough pulling of the man with the ball. The line was slow, and did very little effective work.

The Yale team played their usual Andover game, being full of fight and playing for all there was in them.

Rose received Andover's kick-off, but fumbled, and as he regained the ball, was tackled by Pierce and pushed over his own goal line. This gave Andover two points. Yale then kicked out from her twenty-five yard line, and after an exchange of punts, Andover secured the ball on a fumble. Aided by a 22 yard run by Lynn, Andover soon pushed McKay over for a touchdown, after three and one-half minutes of play. Bartholomew kicked goal. Score: Andover, 8; Yale '09, 0.

Andover kicked off and the ball was brought back 10 yards. Yale punted to Bartholomew, who ran it up ten yards before he stepped out of bounds. Daly lost a yard on a fumble and in the next play he failed at a try for drop kick. Yale then punted to H. Merritt, who ran back 20 yards. Daly made 15 around left end, Fisher added 3 and McKay 5. After losing 5 yards for offside play, Andover went steadily down the field aided by Daly's 25 yard run and by line bucking by Bartholomew, Hobbs and McKay. On Yale's 12 yard line, Daly made a drop kick for goal. Score: Andover, 12; Yale '09, 0.

Yale ran back the kick-off, 15 yards, and on the next three rushes made about 10 yards, but here, Andover held and took the ball on downs. Daly dropped back for a punt, but the kick was blocked.

Yale secured the ball but failed to gain and Austin blocked their punt. An exchange of kicks followed and time was called soon after.

SECOND HALF

Andover started this half with the same team, but Yale substituted Olcott for Lobdell at right half.

Hobbs received the kick-off and ran 85 yards assisted by good interference. On the next play, Hobbs ploughed through for a touchdown. The try for goal failed. Score: Andover, 17; Yale '09, 0.

Witherough was here substituted for Leggett on the Yale team, and for Andover, Bowler took Austin's place.

Yale kicked off to Merritt, who returned the ball 5 yards. Hobbs went around left end for 23 yards. Reagan was substituted for Daly. Bartholomew failed to gain and McKay kicked. Gunning and K. Merritt replaced Lynn and Bartholomew. Yale made a few small gains and then Andover held and blocked the kick. Andover secured the ball but lost 10 yards for holding. The ball was now very near Andover's goal. McKay and Reagan made 5 yards between them. Here McKay tried to kick from behind the goal, but the punt was blocked and Olcott fell on the ball for Yale, making her only score. No goal was kicked. Score: Andover, 17; Yale '09, 5.

Andover kicked off. Yale lost 10 yards for holding and then time was called. The teams lined up as follows:

ANDOVER	YALE FRESHMEN
Pierce l e	r e Burch
Hobbs, Avery l t	r t Pierce

Communication.

In the football schedules, on the page containing the Andover-Exeter scores, a mistake is made in summing up the points won by Exeter. The number should be 272 instead of 242 as stated.

Golf Notice.

The golf trials for the fall term will be held on the Andover links this afternoon. All those who wish to qualify must report on the first tee at 2 o'clock. The match will be 18 holes and the five lowest men will compose the team.

There have been quite a number of games scheduled for this fall and every fellow who has played golf at all is urged to come out and try.

Training Table.

The training table for the football squad began Saturday evening on the upper floor of the Academy Dining hall. The following men were taken on: Captain Hobbs, coach O'Connor, trainer Peet, manager Smith, Bartholomew, Fisher, Daly, Lynn, Austin, Jackson, Andrus, Avery, Bowler, Gunning, Henry Merritt, Pierce, Greenough, Kilpatrick, MacKay, Regan.

Inquiry

Last Sunday evening's meeting of the Society of Inquiry was led by S. S. Day, who took for his subject, "Am I Simply an Onlooker and a Critic?" An appeal was made by the leader and by several other members of the society for more enthusiasm in the work of Inquiry. As a large number of fellows took part, an unusually good meeting resulted.

Bible Classes.

The Bible classes will meet tonight in the different parts of the school precincts, as published heretofore in the PHILLIPIAN.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

Wednesday, October 18.

There is one institution in school which is totally neglected by most fellows and that is the Society of Inquiry. This society was founded in 1833 to promote the religious welfare of the whole school, but in the last decade it has been abandoned to a few, who, while not claiming to be paragons of virtue, are good, clean fellows, who are looked up to and respected by all. At the Northfield Conference this summer, we had as many men present as any other prep school, but when we had to tell of the average attendance at the meetings and the number of fellows taking Bible Study, we were outclassed two or three to one by every school. Now, fellows, this is a state of affairs that ought not to exist in a school like this. A man's education cannot be called complete until he is familiar with the Bible. You meet ten quotations from it when you see one classical reference. It's all right in a way for a fellow to read his Bible alone, but it certainly won't be as clear to him as if he went to Inquiry and there discussed the subject thoroughly. Now, let's all get together and give the society a boom which will put it far ahead of any of the prep school societies.

All pictures for the Pot-Pourri and Class book must be in November 20, as the book is to be published earlier than usual this year. These pictures must be taken of Purdy by all seniors and non-returning middlers.

Secret Practice Today.

For the first time this year secret practice will be held on Brothers field. Gates will be closed from 3 o'clock until 4. The police force will report at the gymnasium at 2.45. The force is now composed of Eames, (CHIEF), Wallace, Cross, Ferguson, Holden and Blake.

Student Council.

At a meeting of the Student Council held last evening in the Archaeological building, the following officers were elected: Henry H. Hobbs of Palmer for president, Albertus Y. Bartholomew of Peoria for vice-president, Edwin W. Smith of Westfield for secretary.

Crocker of Exeter Improving.

It may interest the fellows to know that Walter G. Crocker, Exeter '07, who was seriously injured at football practice on September 30th, is improving steadily and unless some unforeseen trouble arises, he is considered out of danger.

Crocker was practising with the football squad and while catching punts was tackled hard by an end who was running down under a kick. He quickly got up but had a slight pain in the abdominal region. About 5.45 the pain increased and a doctor was called. He at once ordered Crocker to be sent to the Cottage Hospital. On the way to the hospital symptoms of a ruptured kidney were noted. On Sunday noon his condition became alarming, and an operation was performed soon after by Dr. John C. Monro, who removed the ruptured kidney and also performed an operation made necessary by a severe contusion of the bowels, which was the most serious of Crocker's injuries.

This is the third accident of its kind in the history of football at Exeter, but both the other victims fully recovered.

Dr. Page is president of the corporation which publishes The American Gymnasia, which is recognized as an authority on physical training.

Mr. Moorehead, the curator of the Archaeological department, left Monday to attend the Lake Mohawk conference in the Catskill mountains. This conference has been held for many years, on the invitation of Mr. Sinily to consider the welfare of the Indians, to provide better legislation for them and to educate public opinion concerning their needs. The conference is attended by prominent men from all over the United States.

Division Football.

The first division football games were played Saturday afternoon at 1.30, on the old campus. All four of the teams took part and both games ended with no score, principally on account of the frequent fumbling.

The officials were as follows:
Umpire—Dr. Page. Referee—Mr. Agard. Timekeeper—Mr. Poynter. Linesmen—D. Waite and J. A. Austin.

Football Notes.

Jack Cates has reported for football at New Haven. He has been engaged with his track candidates up to the past week. He is out for the end opposite Captain Shelvin's.

Quarter-back Quimby of the '96-98 teams was in town Tuesday. During the afternoon, he coached the backs during football practice.

Although the football men have not been worked hard this year, there have been many accidents. Andrus, Kilpatrick, Bates, Jackson, Captain Hobbs and McKay have been hurt, so that the progress of the team has been considerably checked. Yesterday, the men were given a walk to Prospect hill as some of them seemed over-trained.

Gym Notes.

The division football teams will play today at 2 o'clock. The Saxons will play the Gauls, and the Romans the Greeks. Fifteen minute halves are to be played. After the first teams have finished the second teams will play ten minute halves, the Saxons v. s. the Romans, and the Gauls v. s. the Greeks.

There will be no track work on Thursday afternoon. On Friday afternoon, no Gym classes will report on account of the fall track meet which takes place at 4.15 p.m.

On Monday afternoon, all who are desirous of doing any cross country running, should see Dr. Page and re-arrange their gymnasium class schedules. Runs will be held every Monday and Thursday afternoon.

HE GOT IT.

When Richard Olney was Secretary of State he frequently gave expression to the opinion that appointees to the consular service should speak the languages of the countries to which they were respectively accredited. It is said that when a certain breezy and enterprising Western politician who was desirous of serving the Cleveland administration in the capacity of consul at one of the Chinese ports presented his papers to Mr. Olney, the Secretary remarked: "Are you aware, Mr. Blank, that I never recommend to the President the appointment of a consul unless he speaks the language of the country to which he desires to go? Now, I suppose, you do not speak Chinese." Where-upon the Westerner grinned broadly. "If, Mr. Secretary, I should be asked a question in Chinese, I shall be happy to answer it." He got the appointment.

"PRIDE GOETH BEFORE A FALL."

A young girl came sauntering down the street the other day whose figure was divine. Every curve was perfect. And the young lady was quite conscious that the symmetry of the temple of her soul was a thing to be admired. She wore one of those up-to-date sweaters (instead of a coat) which button down the front. It was apparently quite new, and as she swung along she looked very jaunty and chic.

An old colored man was leaning against the sunny side of a wall, warming his rheumatic joints in old Sol's friendly rays. As the girl in the sweater approached he raised his tattered cap from his gray wool.

"Mornin', Miss Evelina," he said very graciously, bowing low. "Good morning, Henry," replied the girl, acknowledging the salutation. "Yoh lookin' mighty fine an' dandy this mornin', Miss Evelina."

"Thank you, Henry." "That's a mighty exquisite jumper yoh has on, Miss Evelina. I has noticed it two or three times lately—you certainly am a pixer in that jumper. It am a good, warm jumper, ain't it, Miss Evelina?"

"Yes, quite warm, Henry," replied the girl "only it isn't a jumper, it's a sweater," she answered, with a touch of pride.

"Yes, yes, yoh certainly am a pixer in that jumper," the old man went on, gazing at the sweater with appreciative eyes and quite ignoring the correction. "Yoh makes scenery when yoh walks down the street, Miss Evelina. My ole woman an' me was jes' sayin' 't' other evenin' that there wasn't a prettier girl in this yere town than Miss Evelina. Such a stylish walk! Such a lovely—er—er—hair! Such magnificent teeth! Such—"

"O, Henry, I shall have to be going," said the girl laughing and blushing. "You are getting to be an awful flatterer."

Henry started forward. "Why—er—Miss Evelina, befo' yoh go I'd like ter say that if yoh dean want that jumper, why, my ole woman is jes' yoh figger."—Lippincott's Magazine.

IT DIDN'T WORK.

"George," said the colonel to a colored man whom he met on the street. "I wish you would spread the news around among your people that I am going to set a spring gun in my hen-house and that if any of them are shot it won't be my fault."

"Yes, sah, I'll do so, sah, but I can't reckon it'll do any good."

"But why don't it?" "Bekase sah, as I understand de situation, dey dun cleaned your henhouse out last night and wont have any oocashun to go back dar!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

WHENCE ALL THE CHICKENS?

The endless poulet roti. Whenever I see this—and I have seen it a thousand times—on the menu, I remain silent in wonder. In hundreds upon hundreds of hotels abroad, this, with salad, is a sine qua non of a respectable dejeuner and table d'hote. Where do the chickens come from?

The question was once set to a celebrated wrangler, who to this day is still racking his brain to solve it.

Take Switzerland. Say there are 5000 hotels—there may be more or may be less. Say, then at each of these 5000 hotels, twice a day (as is comme il faut) they provide poulet roti, and on an average all the year round there are 20 people in each hotel (allowing for the overcrowding in the summer and the general emptiness in the winter), then we arrive at the following:

There would be 100,000 people every day in the hotels, for which 200,000 meals have to be provided; and suppose one chicken feeds eight people, the vast total of 25,000 fullgrown chickens are slaughtered each day for consumption, or 9,125,000 chickens a year; and this, mark you, in Switzerland alone!

Where do they all come from? Comprehension shudders at the thought of the number devoured all over the world. Add to this the number of eggs eaten, and the birth-rate of chickens must stagger humanity!—Chambers Journal.

Announcement

We rent every summer a large number of Pianos to wealthy cottagers at Newport, Beverly and Bar Harbor for a few months' use. These pianos are now being returned to Boston and will be sold at a liberal discount from last season's prices. Some of them were new when rented last June and the careful use they have had has not impaired their artistic musical value. Any scratches or signs of wear on the cases have been thoroughly removed so that they look like new. You will find these pianos on our floors for examination, or a printed list fully describing and pricing them will be mailed free to distant purchasers. Most attractive terms of payment for time buyers. Call or write.

THE ROOSEVELT BOY'S MOTHER-WIT.

Pastor Charles Wagner, the French clergyman-author, to whom President Roosevelt wrote, "I preach your books to my countrymen," tells of his visit at the White House in the October McClure's. Among the anecdotes that fill out his impressions of the Roosevelt household, is this of the mother-wit of the President's two youngest sons:

"We were at table four in all, including the President, Mrs. Roosevelt, and Mrs. Roosevelt—West of New York. It was to be a little friendly dinner."

"Where are boys?" asked the President.

"They are on their way to bed," some one answered.

"Never mind, let them come and say how do do?" to Mr. Wagner.

"And I see two young boys coming in, from nine to eleven years old, evidently tired out after a long run, their eyes foretelling sleep."

"I've a very important question to ask you," I said to one of them "Do you sleep with your hands open or shut?"

"I don't know," he replied, "as I'm asleep."

The President laughed heartily at this answer, which was of course the only good one to make, and the little fellows hurried off to bed."
