SENIOR DINNER

Annual Dinner to be Held To-night at 7.30 O'Clock in Dining Hall

The annual senior dinner will be held this evening at 7.30 o'clock in the upper room of the Dining hall. The committee, consisting of L. G. Hall, chairman; C. C. Clough, G. H. Lowe and Hobbs, have arranged an excellent menu, which will be served by Page of Lowell, and a successful and enjoyable evening is insured. L. G. Hall is toast-master and following are the different toasts:

- "Andover in the Past," M. S. McCurdy.
- "Athletics," H. H. Hobbs.
- "Fem Sems," L. M. Chapin.
- "School Spirit," F. P. Ferguson.
- "Faculty," H. Cross.
- "Andover in the Future," Prin. A. E. Stearns.

Communication.

To the Editor of the Phillipian:

The baseball season is nearly here and we all naturally wish to practice out-of-doors, when the weather permits. This is all right in the proper place, but there has been a tendency in former years, especially among the new fellows, who have not been cautioned against it, to make use of the new baseball field, before the ground has become thoroughly dry. Now a few days of this playing on the soggy field may so cut up the sod that it will remain rough during the entire season and be in no condition to be played on. This may seem to be stating it rather strongly but it is nevertheless a fact, the importance of which can only be realized by those who have played in former seasons.

Springfield Conference.

In accordance with a vote passed on October 28, 1905, "that a Committee be appointed to arrange for a general conference of the Classical teachers of New England, with a view to the formation of a New England Classical Association," arrangements have been completed to hold a conference at Springfield, Mass., on Friday evening, April 6, and Saturday morning and afternoon, April 7. It is expected that over three hundred teachers will attend and a large Association will be formed. Mr. Benner is on the invitation committee.

The program is a very interesting one since it includes a number of the prominent educators of the universities, colleges and schools of New England.

Prof. Forbes will speak Saturday morning, April 7, on "The Classical Teacher's Working Library."

Lecture by Dr. Brooks.

Last Thursday night, in the upper hall of the Dining hall. Dr. William R. Brooks, Sc. D., professor of astronomy at Hobart college, gave one of the most interesting lectures of the year on "Other Worlds than Ours". The hall was comfortably filled and all who went enjoyed his lecture very much. Dr. Brooks illustrated his remarks by lantern slides which made the subject doubly pleasant.

Dr. Brooks reviewed the theories concerning our solar system, including the Ptolemaic and the Copernican; the latter one being adopted today.

He threw on the screen a chart showing all the planets placed in reference to their distance from the sun which was in the center. The planet Mercury is the nearest to the sun, a distance of 36,000,000 miles, Venus, the earth, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, etc., following in the order of distance, and Neptune being the farthest away. Dr. Brooks caused the plate to revolve, showing the relation which the planets bear to one another at different times. In connection with this he said that on last Wednesday night Neptune was then five degrees north of Venus.

Mars is perhaps the most interesting planet which we know for we are enabled to study it with more care than any of the others, because of its close proximity. Dr. Brooks was unable to state as to its likelihood of being inhabited but admitted that it appears suitable for habitation. In order to show the relation the stars had to the planets, he said that granting a scale on which the distance of the earth from the sun was six feet, the nearest star was 240 miles from the sun on the same scale. The comets were the most interesting of all. He himself discovered a system of comets which is known to science as the "Brooks Multiple Comet." The next great comet, Dr. Brooks says, is expected in 1910.

Dr. Brooks concluded his remarks by inviting his hearers to his "celestial workshop", Smith Observatory, Geneva, New York.

Philo.

The elections for the spring term resulted as follows: President, Frank P. Ferguson; vice-president, Thayer A. Smith; secretary, Ansel W. Gillis; treasurer, J. Reed Kilpatrick.

E. C. Boynton, P. A. '03, has been elected editor of the "Andover Student" for next year. He was assistant managing editor of the PHILLIPIAN in 1903.

Boy's Summer Camp.

The boy's summer camp is to be conducted by Mr. Arthur F. Stearns, brother of Principal Stearns, assisted by Mr. Bullinger, this summer in the northern part of New Hampshire, at the headwaters of the Connecticut river. This is a very beautiful spot and a good opportunity is afforded for hunting, fishing and canoeing. A better description of the camp will be published next term. Mr. Bullinger is very anxious to get a large number of Andover fellows to go.

Gymnastic Championship Today.

It is hoped that there will be a large attendance at the annual championship and individual contest in wrestling, boxing, and gymnastics, to be held this afternoon in the gym. The meet was changed from this evening to this afternoon, commencing at two o'clock, on account of the senior dinner. Under the head of gymnastics are four events: the horizontal bar, the parallel bars, the trick rings, and the horse. The first, second and third place men will receive ribbons, and cups will be given to the best men.

E. P. Bagg, P. A. '03, has been elected editor of the Yale Record for next year.

BASEBALL CUT

Trial Cut in Baseball Squad Before the Team Goes Outdoors

The following will report in the gym at 1 o'clock: Baker, Ballou, Gunning, Benner, Branum, K. Merritt, McIntyre, Hobbs, Rainier, Fels, Murphy, Goldsmith, H. Merritt, Isett, Washburn, Daly, Shartenberg, Remmes, V. Murphy, L. G. Hall, Clinton, Lynch, Mc Morrow, Hawkes, Jones, Kirkpatrick, Hennessey, More, Littlefield, Morisson, Almy, Lawrence, Pierce, J. Reilly, Douglass, Light, Hemming, Eames, Lanigan, Merritt, Clow.

These men must report at 10 o'clock, Monday morning, April 16, as no excuses will be accepted for tardiness. There will be one more cut which will come the first week in the term.

Potter Prize Speakers

Twenty-two men have been chosen by the committee to speak for the Andrew Potter Prize competition trials which will take place the first part of next term. The selections have been made at this time in order to give the men a chance to drill during vacation for the trials.

Those chosen are as follows: — J. A. Austin; Ballou, P. W. Blake, J. Brown, M. D. Cooper, W. H. Cooper, Deming, Farnworth, F. P. Ferguson, L. M. Ferguson, Garver, Gilbert, Haskell, Hutchins, A. R. Merritt, Proctor, Rowland, Salisbury, T. A. Smith, Southworth, Waller, Watzek.

Cornell's Football Captain Dropped.

Captain Ray Van Orman of the Cornell football team has been removed from the University for the rest of the year for cribbing in an examination. At a meeting of the Faculty committee on Student Organization last Saturday Van Orman was found guilty of fraud in an examination. Van Orman has played on the Cornell team for two years, and at the close of last season he defeated E. T. Gibson, the popular halfback, for captaincy in a close contest. Although Van Orman will be able to enter college next fall it is certain that he will never be allowed to act as captain of the football team.

Forum.

The elections for the spring term resulted as follows: President, Willard E. Brunson; vice-president, Gerald W. Hallowell; secretary, Joseph Brown; treasurer, Clayton C. Beers; assistant treasurer, Max B. Robinson.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

Saturday, March 31.

The PHILLIPIAN takes pleasure in announcing the election to the board of Abbot Stevens, '07, of North Andover; of Edward Llewelyn Roberts, '06, of Chicago Ill., of Richard Thomas Waters, '08, of Baltimore, Md., subject to the approval of the faculty. The heeling this term has been unusually good, but these men were especially good, and certainly deserve their places.

We also take pleasure in announcing that James Lewis Malcolm '07, of Catskill, N. Y., has been elected as managing editor for next year and that Allen Fletcher Marsh, '07, of Chicago, Ill., has been chosen as assistant business manager of the PHILLIPIAN. These selections were made with the entire approval of the board and we feel sure that they will be given the same response by the school.

With this issue the 1906 board retires from active work and gives way to the succeeding 1907 board. As we look back we see that this has been a year of failures and successes, but it has also been a year of innovations. An extra column was added to the size of the paper, and this term we have added an extra sheet. Thus we are giving our readers twice as much news as they had two years ago, and half as much again as last year's paper contained—and in this lies our greatest success of the year.

Since our coming to the board we have seen many things. Exeter has been beaten in baseball and football, both times by decisive scores; the student council has taken a higher stand in the respect of the student body; the senior fence has been built, and in every way, we feel that the general tone of the school has been raised, and so it is with a feeling of confidence that we turn the paper over to our successors, whom we feel will conduct it in a far better and abler way than their predecessors have done.

WELL SHIRTED

This phrase used to have an intellectual significance, as it referred to a particularly happy issue between a student and a classroom exercise. Sometimes the recitation itself was considered well shirted and sometimes the phrase had a more personal application. Applied more literally, the phrase still involves an intellectual occupation, for the choice of colors and designs and materials which are presented in such a stock as is offered in this store this year involves taste and discrimination and artistic judgment.

Archaeology Notes

Recently among some old books was found a copy of "Carver's Travels." This book was published in 1797 in Boston and describes travels throughout America during the period 1755-1790. The book is an original edition and well preserved. The work is a rare one and Phillips Academy is fortunate to have it. Carver spent many years among the Indian tribes. He speaks well of the natives. A study of his volume will show that the Indian was better off in those days than he is at the present time.

The Department has added several small collections to the exhibits on hand, but nothing of special interest.

Taylor, a former student in P. A., sent the Department some 2000 different specimens all of which he had found himself. He presented them, "in return for what P. A. did for me," he wrote. He is teaching school at Tiff City, Mo.

Some interesting lantern slides were recently received from near Memphis, Tenn. They portray the life of "shanty boat" people along the Mississippi. One of them shows a family living in a dug out—a mere hole in the ground underneath a big sycamore log. The shanty boat people are quite as primitive, and certainly as "tough" as any Indian tribe that ever lived.

The Samuel Stearns collection (Lawrence) comprises about 5 tons of natural-history objects. As the P. A. museum does not collect such material, the Curator is trying to persuade the School Board of Lawrence to buy the collection and preserve it in the High School building. The exhibit will be of special interest to nature students, being rich in birds, bugs, plants, kinds of wood, study of ravages of worms in wood, minerals, etc.

TO FILL
The ORIGINAL and ONLY GENUINE
CONKLIN'S
SELF-FILLING PEN

Simply dip in the ink, press with the thumb, and the CONKLIN PEN is filled and ready for instant use. It is simple, convenient, efficient, with no complex mechanism and nothing to get out of order.

The elastic ink reservoir is compressed by the presser bar under the thumb, and, when released, instantly draws in the ink through the feed channels at the point. The quickly adjusted locking prevents ink from being forced out again. Feeds regularly until the last drop of ink in reservoir is used. Always responds without kick or balk. Cleans itself as easily as it is filled. Fully guaranteed.

If your dealer does not handle the CONKLIN PEN, let us make you our special offer to obtain Pen Case. Full information, with illustrated catalogue, sent upon request. Sold by dealers everywhere.
