FRESHMEN WIN

Andover Defeated by Yale Freshmen
Saturday Afternoon—Score 11-0

Andover met defeat Saturday in the hardest and most stubbornly contested game of the season. The Yale freshmen, with a line that averaged 200 pounds from tackle to tackle—a perfect coterie of "prep" school stars—and a fast, shifty backfield, proved too much for their fighter opponents. Yale's first score was of a somewhat lucky nature. Andover took the field in the second half with a determination to score, and by straight football the backs took the ball to the freshmen's 4 yard line, only to lose it on downs. If Andover could only have scored at that time she would have surely won the game, for Yale's second touchdown would hardly have been scored. But the freshmen line proved too strong and heavy, and Yale took the ball, quickly punting it out of danger. The freshmen's second score was fairly earned. Andrus, K. Merritt and Moorehead were all cheered when Yale took the field and responded by playing a fine game against their former teammates. Capt. Daly wrenched his knee in the second half, renewing an injury which has bothered him for two seasons and which will probably keep him out of the game for two weeks.

FIRST HALF.

Capt Coy of the freshmen team won the toss and chose the west goal, taking advantage of a slight breeze blowing from that direction. Andover received the kick-off, Coy sending the ball to Merritt on the ten yard line. Merritt ran it back 8 yards, and Andover started the kicking game. Favorite immediately punting to Moorehead, who was downed by Burnham. Yale was offside, and the ball was called back. Favorite kicked again out of bounds in the middle of the field.

K. Merritt and Moorehead worked the forward pass, the former advancing 8 yards till Daly tackled him. Coy plunged for first down. Wheaton bucked for 3 yards, and on the next play Moorehead sprinted around the end for 5 yards. Coy again made it first down, but Yale was offside and was penalized 5 yards. Moorehead and Wheaton got mixed up on the next play, and Daly fell on the ball. Merritt made a pretty forward pass to Daly which gained 5 yards. Favorite punted to Yale's 10 yard line. Coy punted back again, and Merritt, who took the punt, was tackled out of bounds at the 45-yard line.

Andrus blocked Favorite's punt, and a Yale line man recovered the ball for the freshmen on the 40 yard line. Time was taken for Moorehead. Andrus, running from his position, could only make 2 yards, but the ball was called back. R. McKay intercepted Moorehead's forward pass, and it was Andover's ball. Baker was unable to gain, but on a second attempt to circle Platt ran 2 yards. Favorite punted to Moorehead out of bounds on the 40 yard line.

Wheaton made 5 yards. On the next play Haines tackled Moorehead for a big loss. Time was taken out for Moorehead, who was hurt in the tackle. A quarter back kick went to Merritt, who ran it back out of bounds.

H. Merritt tried a quarter-back kick. The ball struck the ground and bounded straight into the arms of Wheaton, who started for Andover's goal. Merritt and Rosendale both dived for him, but eluding them, he ran 45 yards for a touchdown. Coy missed the goal. Score: Andover 0, Freshmen 5.

Coy kicked off to Richmond, who was stopped by Brown. Time was taken out for Yale. Favorite's punt was blocked and rolled out of bounds at the 25 yard line, where Andrus fell on it.

It looked like another score for Yale, but Daly threw Moorehead for a big loss. Coy bucked for one yard more and then tried a drop kick, which went wide of the posts, and Favorite kicked out from the 25 yard line, out of bounds in the middle of the field.

Platt made one yard around Richmond, and Coy was forced to punt. Merritt caught the ball, and, dodging Logan, ran back 6 yards before he was downed.

Favorite made 3 yards around tackle. H. Merritt's quick kick fell to a freshman. K. Merritt circled the end for a fifteen yard run. Daly again caught Moorehead back of the line for a loss and on the next play picked up Coy's blocked kick and ran 10 yards with it before he was downed.

Favorite made a yard through Brainard and then punted to Moorehead, who was downed heavily by Richmond. Time was taken out for the freshmen.

Coy kicked to H. Merritt. Favorite punted back to K. Merritt, who was stopped by Fisher. Coy again punted, Daly fumbling the ball but recovering it just as time was called.

SECOND HALF.

The second half opened with Kilpatrick in Baker's place at left half. McKay kicked off to Moorehead, who dropped the ball. K. Merritt recovered it and ran it back a yard.

On a fake kick K. Merritt was

OCTOBER MIRROR

First Issue of Mirror Published Next
Saturday—New Features

The October number of the Mirror will be issued next Saturday. It is a very good opening number, and is a good example of what the literary standard and the uniform size of the paper will be this year, excepting, of course, the special numbers at Christmas and Easter. The contributors to be can get an idea of what is needed most.

A new and important feature this year is the color-cover by R. C. Hallowell, P. A. '06, H. '10. The subject of the drawing is a girl's head in profile. It is very well done, and is equal to any of his former work.

Another new feature are the jokes, short skits, and verse that are placed in the spaces left beneath the stories, somewhat after the plan of several of the larger magazines.

The issue opens with a story, entitled, "It Happened in Ausgart." The plot is fairly well worked out, and has to do with a young reporter, who is sent to Europe for a "story." His subsequent adventures, in which love plays the principal part, form the story.

Following is a clever bit of verse, under the title, "You came at Morning."

"The New Rules," by Dr. John S. O'Connor, who coached the eleven that shut out Exeter last year, and who is coaching this year's team, is an excellent article on how the game is played this year. It is very timely, and will help a great deal in understanding the new rulings of the board. The article is illustrated with a full page cut of Dr. O'Connor, and a full-page snap-shot of a play in the Yale-Fresh game of last Saturday.

"It isn't always thus," is a poem, rather longer than the one preceding. It is fairly well written.

"Too Late," is a title of a short story, which is rather weak in plot. It is more an incident than a story, but is well told. It deals with a letter that came too late.

The alumni notes under the heading of "Leaves from Phillips Ivy" follow and the issue closes with the Editorial pages.

The regular meeting of the Society of Inquiry in Society Hall, was led by Gillis. He took for his theme "Honesty."

After his address the meeting was thrown open and a number of men, both old and new, taking part, made the meeting especially interesting.

- Select reading—Averill.
- Topics of the week—M. C. Palmer.

The question for debate is: Resolved, that the new football rules are no improvement. The affirmative will be upheld by H. W. Bradley and S. P. Skinner. Williams and Shartenberg will support the negative.

Chell is to deliver the critique.

Forum

In place of the regular debate, Forum will hold a "Debating Bee" next Friday evening; that is, two leaders, H. Gemmer and E. J. Webster, have been appointed who will choose their assistants from the society after the meeting opens, thus giving each one present an opportunity to speak.

The subject will be: Resolved, that strikes are productive of more harm than good to the working classes. The leaders will each be allowed three minutes to present their arguments, and the assistants will speak two minutes.

All members of the society are urged to be present, and to come prepared to take part on either side. It is also hoped that any other fellows interested in debating will be present.

A very handsome "Forum" banner, in the school colors, has been presented to the society, for use in decorating the hall during the meetings, and adds greatly to the appearance of the room.

Today at 1.30 will be held the trials for the class relay teams. There is no entrance fee. Every body is urged to come out.

Football Souvenirs

The annual football souvenirs of the Andover-Exeter game will be published this year by Capt. Daly and B. Reilly, whose bid has been accepted by the Advisory Board. These souvenirs will contain a score card and the line-up of each team; and the pictures of the captains, managers, and coaches, with a short sketch of each man.

Principal Stearns' picture will be a special feature of this year's issue. These score cards make handsome souvenirs to remember the game by, and are very appropriate for a scrap-book. Every fellow will want one when they are distributed before the game.

: Senior Football Practice

All 1907 men are urged to come out for class football. The Senior practice this year has been delayed for over two weeks, which makes a large turnout all the more necessary if 1907 is to have a winning team. Head coach, Kilpatrick, will be on hand to put the squad through preliminary practice and to give each man a fair chance.

Practice at 2.00 sharp, on the old campus.

An Influential Life

James Louis Fiske graduated from Phillips in 1897, entered Yale at once and received his degree at New Haven in 1901. He entered the United States service as teacher in the Philippine Islands, and soon became division superintendent of the schools of Leyte. His work was successful and his influence was far reaching through the province. In February 1905 he was married to Miss Ethel P. Fiske of New Haven, Conn., and on July 21, 1906, he died at the Military Hospital, Camp Bumpus, Tacloban, Province of Leyte, P. I.

Old Phillipians know that to be dressed in good college form it is necessary to outfit at Shuman's.

The Shuman garments have that snap and quality peculiar to the well-dressed college man's clothing.

WELL SHIRTED

This phrase used to have an intellectual significance, as it referred to a particularly happy issue between a student and a classroom exercise. Sometimes the recitation itself was considered well shirted and sometimes the phrase had a more personal application. Applied more literally, the phrase still involves an intellectual occupation, for the choice of colors and designs and materials which are presented in such a stock as is offered in this store this year involves taste and discrimination and artistic judgment.

Philomathean Society

The Philomathean society was founded by Dr. Horatio B. Hackett of Rochester, Dr. Ray Palmer, Dr. John F. Stearns and Dr. Wm. Newell of New York. The first recorded meeting was held January 5, 1825. Previous to this meeting, a constitution had been adopted providing for the election of officers, and for meeting on Wednesday of each week.

It was voted at this meeting to circulate a subscription to get books for a library. The library started with 52 volumes, many of them standard works. It has now become the associate library of both societies, Philo and Inquiry, and numbers nearly a thousand volumes.

The semi-centennial of Philo was celebrated May 26, 1875. The membership was then one hundred and ten. The historical address was delivered by Hon. S. B. Noyes of Canton. After dinner had been served to a large number in a tent raised for the occasion, post prandial speeches were made by Oliver Wendell Holmes, Josiah Quincy, Joseph Cook, Ray Palmer, George B. Loring, Alexander McKenzie, J. Wesley Churchill and many other former members of the society.

From a crude sheet of a few pages, suggested by written essays read before the society, the "Mirror" first printed in 1837, steadily rose to the handsome illustrated magazine of later years, published termly. In 1892 the present literary "Mirror", published by the school, took its place, Philo agreeing to replace the old magazine which had reached the venerable age of fifty years, by a school annual, containing all the statistical, illustrated and lighter portion of the publication. The new annual first appeared under the title of "The Masque" in 1893.

In the fall of 1875, Society Hall was fitted up for the use of Philo and Inquiry, at a cost of something over two hundred and seventy-five dollars.

In recent years the society, outside of the programs of regular meetings has maintained a Senate, joint debates with Forum and an annual exhibition at the close of each school year, the prizes for this exhibition being presented through the kindness of Mr. H. S. Robinson.

The Constitution has been revised and reprinted in the years 1866, 1871, 1877, 1889, 1894 and now 1901, by a vote of the society, is again revised by a committee appointed by the society and printed in its present form.

Archaeology Notes

Thursday, the Department received an interesting Indian skull from Jamestown, R. I. The cranium is that of a New England Indian and its fine preservation is due to the fact that it was buried in gravel. Very few perfect skulls of New England Indians are in existence and the specimen is quite rare.

The head is unusually long, quite narrow between the temples, the forehead abnormally low. While this is true, the dome, base, and sides of the skull are symmetrical. Although the subject appears to have been forty or fifty years of age, the teeth are remarkably well preserved and sound. Not one is missing. This peculiarity of perfect teeth is noted in all American aborigines of ancient times. In this respect the Indians were more fortunate than white persons. It is exceedingly rare to find any decayed teeth among them.

The skull can be taken as typical of the Narragansetts, Pequods, or other New England tribes. It forms a valuable addition to the museum. It was presented by Mr. Ferdinand Ambrust of Jamestown, R. I.

P. A. Alumni at Yale

Phillips men have always maintained a high standing at Yale, but last year was an especially noticeable one.

The following is a complete list of those that gained honors at Yale last year.

Honors in Studies of Junior Year, class of 1907—1st rank, Frank Hirsheal Schmidt; 3rd rank, Edward Barton Chapin, Seth Turner Crawford, Charles Pomeroy Otis, Livingston Platt.

Junior Appointments, class of 1908—High Orations, James Willard Williams; Orations, Andrew Linn Bostwick, Charles Whittemore Knapp; Dissertations, Hamilton Mabie Brush; 1st Disputes, Chauncey Brewster Garver, Lester William Perrin, Walter Richardson; 2nd. Disputes, Sidney Dodd Frissell; 1st. Colloquies, Jonathan Sawyer Bradley, Samuel Newton Holliday, 2nd., Burton Johnson Hollister, Sydney Rollins Overall, George Albert Pierce, James Carleton Thornton, William Ray Wallace; 2nd. Colloquies, LeRoy Merwyn Kellas, Charles Edward Messerly, jr., Archie McDaniels Sheldon; Honors in English Composition, Hamilton Mabie Brush, James Willard Williams.

Honors in Studies of Freshman, Class of 1909—1st rank, Charles Vanderveer Graham, Leonard Bacon Parks; 2nd. rank, John Bates Perrin; 3rd rank, Harold Ranson Edwards.

The following men now compose the Banjo club—S. Partridge, R. Kissam, Gomez, D. Goodrich, O. Mason and E. Kaiser. The guitars are R. Brooks, N. Foster and O. Dunn. Others will have an opportunity to join later.

Phillips Academy Library

One of the most noticeable needs of the Academy during its long history has been a library suitably equipped and managed to meet the wide range of demands of the student body. Until very recent years the Academy had practically nothing of this kind, though in their day the Taylor Memorial Library and a small library belonging to the Philomathean society supplied a limited demand. Both of these are now practically obsolete.

Several years ago Mr. Freeman of the History Department became interested in the project, and by his own personal efforts made a substantial beginning on a history library. Mr. Freeman has secured from time to time the interest and co-operation of others, and the library has steadily grown as a result, until today it contains a fair number of historical works of high standard.

Encouraged by the success attending Mr. Freeman's efforts, the English Department undertook to carry out a similar plan, and its efforts, too, have met with considerable success, though in both of these instances little more than a beginning has been made.

At an even earlier date than the dates referred to above the classical instructors in the school began to collect a library of classical works. This library today amounts to several hundred volumes, many of these exceedingly rare and of great classical value. This library, however, is chiefly valuable to the instructors, and supplies only a limited need among the students.

Through the generosity of Dr. Peabody and others a beginning has been made in collecting a fiction library, and it is needless to say that this effort is thoroughly appreciated by the boys, and that this department of the present library of the school is exceedingly popular.

The above brief summary gives a general view of the present condition of the Academy library. No one can fail to be impressed with the necessity for increasing facilities in this direction. To be sure the library of the Theological Seminary and of the town are available for Phillips Academy students, but it is only in the rarest cases that the books of the former are of real service to the boys, while except in the matter of fiction the books of the latter are very little in demand. Even in this department the distance and red-tape involved in securing books act as a serious obstacle to the free use of this literature. The Archaeological Building has supplied the school with excellent library facilities, though of limited capacity, and there is reason to believe that the increasing interest shown by alumni in the financial welfare of the Academy will make possible soon the enlargement of the present facilities and the increasing of the number of available books. In this connection the new plan recently adopted by the PHILLIPIAN meets with the heartiest approval on all sides. Realizing the great needs of the Academy in this respect, the students have voluntarily agreed to set aside a generous per cent. of the proceeds derived from the paper for the building up of the library. This should mean several hundred dollars a year to be devoted to this purchase. It is earnestly hoped that this generous example will be followed by interested alumni and others, and that in the near future the Academy may be able to boast of a library worthy of the traditions and large opportunities of the school.

Class Football

The first game in the tournament of class football games is scheduled to take place this week Saturday.

Besides the men already out for their class teams, all those on the 'varsity squad or second teams who do not make their "A"s or "2nd"s" will be allowed to play in these games. The series will extend beyond the date of the Exeter game, when "A"s and "2nd"s" are awarded; so the class of men named above may have a chance to come and try for a place on their class teams.

The team winning the largest number of games in the tournament will be awarded their numerals on sweaters and caps by the Advisory Board, and this honor should prove a great incentive to those who are going to come out. However, a man must hold his place on the championship team to get his numerals, and those unable to make their "A"s or "2nd"s" will not get their numerals unless they are on the championship team.

At a meeting of the class of 1909 last Monday morning, F. F. Patton was elected Captain, and W. F. Biddle, manager of the class track team.

Entries for the Fall Track Meet must be handed to R. T. Fisher, Draper 6, before Wednesday evening, Oct. 17. The entrance fee is twenty-five cents for first entry, and ten cents for additional.

At a meeting of the Class of 1907, the following officers were elected: Captain class football, E. A. More; manager class football, E. A. Stevens.

Archaeology Notes
Thursday, the Department received an interesting Indian skull from Jamesstown, R. I. The traditionary story of the skull is that it was buried in a grave in the year 1639. Very few perfect skulls of New England Indians are in existence and the specimen is quite rare.

The head is unusually long,
quite narrow between the temples,
the forehead abnormally low.
While this is true, the base, base
and sides of the skull are symmetrical. Although the subject appears to have been forty or fifty years of age, the teeth are remarkably good.

Philomathean men have always maintained a high standing at Yale, but last year was an especially noticeable one.
The following is a complete list of those who received honors in the studies of Junior Honors in Studies of Junior Class of 1907: Charles W. Brown,
Franklin B. Brown, Charles
Rankin, Edward Barton Chapin,
Seth Turner Crawford, Charles
Pomeroy Otis, Livingston Platt.

Junior Appointments: class of 1905: High Cross, Charles W. Brown, Linn Bostwick, Charles W. Brown,
more Knapp; Disasters: Hamilton, Marie Knapp; 1st Disasters:
Channery Brewster, Graver, Lester
son; 2nd Disasters: Sidney Dodd, Friswell; 1st Colloquies: Jonathan
Sawyer, Bradley, Samuel Newton
Hobbs, and William Johnson.

The following men now compose the Philomathean society:
Goehring, O. Mason and E.
Kaiser. The officers are R.
Hobbs, Z. Foster and O. Dunn.
Others will have an opportunity to join later.

Philomathean Library
One of the most noticeable needs of the Academy during its long history has been a library suitably equipped to meet the demands of the students. Until very recent years the Academy had practically no library of this kind, though in their early days the Taylor Memorial Library had a small library belonging to the Philomathean society, which supplied a limited demand.
Both of these are now practically obsolete.

Several years ago Mr. Freeman of the History Department became interested in the project, and by his own personal efforts made possible the purchase of a library of about 100 volumes. This library has been steadily growing, and now contains a fair number of historical works of high standard.

Through the generosity of Dr.
Frederick and others a beginning has been made in collecting a library of books, and it is needless to say that this effort is thoroughly appreciated by the boys, and that the library of the school is extending rapidly.

The above brief summary gives a general view of the present condition of the Academy library.
No one can fail to be impressed with the necessity for increasing facilities in this direction. To be able to do this, the Academy must have a larger building, and the present building is only a temporary one.

At a meeting of the class of 1907, the following officers were elected: Captain class football,
H. A. Moore, manager class football, H. A. Moore.

the Philippians meet with the heartiest approval on all sides.
Realizing the great needs of the Academy in this respect, the students have voluntarily agreed to contribute a generous per cent.
of the proceeds of the sale of the new building up of the library. This should mean several hundred dollars a year to be devoted to purchase. It is earnestly hoped that this generous example will be followed by interested alumni and others, and that in the near future the Academy
may be able to boast of a library worthy of the traditions and large opportunities of the school.

Class Football
The first game in the tournament
of class football games is scheduled to take place this week Saturday.
Besides the games already outlined for their class games, all those on the varsity and second teams who do not wish to play in these games. The series will extend beyond the date of the Exeter game, which is "A" and "B".
are awarded the class of men named above may have a chance to come and play for a place on their class team.

The team winning the largest number of games in the tournament will be awarded their numberals on sweaters and caps by the Advisory Board, and this honor should prove a great incentive to those who are going to come out.
However, a man must hold his place on the championship team
to get his numberals, and those unable to make the "A's" or "B's" will not get their numberals unless they are on the championship team.

At a meeting of the class of 1907 last Monday morning, F. F.
Patterson was elected Captain, and W. F. Biddle, manager of the class track team.

At a meeting of the class of 1907, the following officers were
elected: Captain class football,
H. A. Moore, manager class foot-
ball, H. A. Moore.

The Preliminary Catalogue

The preliminary catalogue for the year, which is now in the hands of the printers and which will be issued within the next few days, shows a total enrollment to date of 467 men, an increase of twelve over the number contained in last year's preliminary list,
which was published one month later. Of these, 201 men are in the Classical Department and 266
in the Scientific Department,
divided as follows:

Classical Department—Seniors,
45; Middlers, 75; Junior Middlers,
45; Juniors, 36.

Scientific Department—Seniors,
49; Middlers, 98; Junior Middlers,
91; Juniors, 28.

The number of old men is 196, and of the newcomers, 272. The total enrollment has been equalled only once before in the school's history, while the number of new students is considerably larger than ever before.

The representation by countries
and states is as follows:

Massachusetts, 124; New York,
103; Pennsylvania, 28; Illinois, 23;
New Jersey, 23; Ohio, 19; Connecticut, 18; Washington, 15;
Maine, 11; Minnesota, 10; California, 8; Rhode Island, 8; Michigan, 7; District of Columbia, 6; Kentucky, 5; Montana, 5; New Hampshire, 5; Vermont, 5; Colorado, 4; Iowa, 4; Missouri, 4; Indiana, 3; Kansas, 3; Utah, 3; Wisconsin, 2; Florida, 1; Georgia, 1;
Indian Territory, 1; Maryland, 1;
Nebraska, 1; South Dakota, 1;
Tennessee, 1; China, 6; Canada, 3;
Cuba, 3; Costa Rica, 1; Porto Rica, 1.

It is especially interesting to note the comparatively heavy representation of the more distant states, there being twenty-eight men from Washington, California and Montana. In this connection it may be well to state that Exeter had an enrollment of four hundred men, at last reports.

tackled for a loss. Coy punted to H. Merritt, who made a pretty dodging run of 30 yards.

Favorite broke through tackle for 7 yards. Kilpatrick made 1 yard. Favorite went outside of tackle for first down. Kilpatrick cross-bucked for 4 yards. Daly bucked for another first down.
Favorite made 2 yards, and Daly bucked for 3 yards, bringing the ball to Yale's 6 yard line. Here
the freshmen line held like a stone wall, and the ball went over to Yale on downs on the 4 yard line.

Coy kicked from behind his own goal line to Kilpatrick in the middle of the field. Time was taken out for Andover.

Favorite cross-bucked 4 yards.
Yale fell on Merritt's quick kick.
Greenough went in for Burnam.
K. Merritt made 5 yards on a fake kick. Daly was replaced. Coy punted to Kilpatrick, who made 3 yards on the next play. Moorehead then fumbled Kilpatrick's punt, and Richmond fell on the ball.

Favorite dived through tackle for 5 yards. Donahue made one half yard through center. Kilpatrick kicked low into the line, and Andover recovered. Kilpatrick made a yard through center and then kicked to Moorehead, who was tackled by Favorite and Richmond.

Favorite threw K. Merritt for a loss, and Coy punted. H. Merritt heeled the ball on the 45 yard line. Kilpatrick tried a place kick but the ball fell on the goal line a little wide of the posts.

Coy punted out to Favorite who fumbled, and Yale got the ball.

K. Merritt fumbled, but Andrus recovered the ball.

Moorehead's short kick was recovered by a freshman on the 25 yard line. Coy could not gain and kicked into the line, a Yale back again falling on the ball. Lynn went in for Platt.

Andrus failed to gain, but on the next play the freshmen's right half circled Richmond, dodged Merritt, and brought the ball to
