Andover Wins the Annual Base Ball Game on the Exeter Field this Afternoon by a Score of 3-2

Andover, Mass., Saturday, June 8, 1907. Price, 10 Cents

GREAT VICTORY FOR THE BLUE

"Twas ideal weather that greeted the thousands of supporters of the blue and red who gathered at Exeter this afternoon to witness the supremacy in base ball. Andover's contingency, about six hundred strong, left Andover at 1:15 p.m., on a special train. Arriving at Exeter the Andover boys formed a line of march to the field.

Both teams practiced well and the applause was hearty for snappy play. The Andover contingent massed along third base line, while Exeter guarded the first base rank. From both sections arose cheers for the rival academy and salvos of rapid Rah's greeted the individual members of each team as they took their places in the field.

There was a cloudy sky through which the sun shone in rivets, and there was a slight wind making splendid weather.

Statistics of Andover Players

CAPTAIN REILLY
Bernard Eugene Reilly has captained the team for two years, and this is his fourth year on the lineup. Last year he played second base, but this year his position is short-stop. While he was captain last year the team defeated Yale, Harvard, Dartmouth, Williams, and Amherst. Reilly is 22 years old, weighs 154 pounds, and is 5 feet, 11 inches tall. He intends to enter Yale.

WILLIAM FRANCIS WASHBURN comes from Brockett, Mass., and is a candidate for the infield. He has been on the squad for three years. Washburn is 20 years of age, weighs 140 pounds, and is 5'11 feet in height. Amherst.

JAMES ARTHUR SHANNON comes from Seattle, Wash., and has been playing first base for a majority of the games on the schedule.

He is 18 years old, 5 feet, 11 inches tall, and weighs 155 pounds. He will enter Yale.

SEWARD CHASE HAWKES

substitute outfielder. He is 17 years of age, 5 feet, 10½ inches tall, and weighs 132 pounds. He will go to Yale.

CHARLES Clifton Clough, '06, has had charge of coaching the team this year. His thorough knowledge of the game and his ability as a baseball player have made him an ideal coach. He captained Andover's baseball nine for the years '04 and '05, and was assistant coach last year.
