WINS FROM BROWN SECOND

Academy Team Plays Up-hill game with Brown Team, winning by Score of 4-0

Andover sent the Brown Second team down to defeat last Saturday in a game which was marked by several individual star-plays, by one of which Murchie won the game for Andover on a drop-kick from the 10-yard line, making the only points in the game, the score being 4-0. This drop-kick was made immediately after Aechtler had caught a forward-pass by the Brown team and made a remarkable run of seventy yards down the field from Andover's 20-yard line at a critical point in the game. Other men who did well for Andover were Peirce, Murchie and Hamilton. For Brown, McKay was the star. In weight the Brown team far exceeded the Academy eleven.

The game in detail:—

Andover won the toss and chose the west goal. At 3.15 McKay kicked off to Murchie on Andover's 5-yard line. Murchie advanced the ball 15 yards and, after Porter had gone through the line for a yard, kicked. Brown tried an end run, but the ball was fumbled on Aechtler's tackling the runner, Andover securing it. A forward-pass was then tried for 25 yards, Waterman catching the ball. Murchie failed to gain and punted 30 yards to Winslow. Brown returned the punt, but lost five yards on the exchange. Dunn netted three yards on an end run, and then Murchie punted again, this time for 40 yards. McKay gained 15 yards through the line, after which he punted outside. After the ball was returned to the field Andover was penalized 15 yards for holding. The home team fumbled and Brown, after two tries at the line, punted. Murchie made a pretty run back for 20 yards. Andover then lost the ball on a forward-pass, which Young caught for Brown.

At this point Brown showed her superiority in weight and made gains through the line for 5 and 10 yards, McKay and Young carrying the ball. In this fashion Brown went down the field for 35 yards, and a touchdown seemed certain, but they tried a forward-pass, which Aechtler, jumping high in the air, caught, and made his sensational 70-yard run. He was then put through for 10 yards on a cross-buck. Brown, however, held the home team on the 10-yard line and Murchie was forced to try a goal from the field. The ball sailed between the bars after fifteen minutes of play. Andover, 4; Brown Second, 0.

ACADEMY TRUSTEES MEET

Trustees of Phillips Academy meet in Boston Tuesday. Officers for Next Year Elected

The first annual meeting of the Trustees of Phillips Academy was held in Boston, Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 15. The following members of the board were present: Pres. George Harris of Amherst College, Rev. Alexander McKenzie of Cambridge, Mr. George B. Knapp of Boston, Prof. James Hardy Ropes and Prof. Clifford Moore of Cambridge, Prof. Clarence Morgan of McGill University, Toronto, Canada, U. S. District Attorney Henry L. Stimson of New York City, Mr. Alfred Ripley of Andover, Mr. Elias B. Bishop of Newton, and Principal Alfred E. Stearns, and Treasurer James C. Sawyer of the Academy.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, George Harris; treasurer, James C. Sawyer; clerk, Alfred E. Stearns. The following men were elected to constitute the executive committee for the year: Messrs. Alfred L. Ripley, George B. Knapp, James Hardy Ropes, Clifford Moore, James C. Sawyer, Elias B. Bishop, and Alfred E. Stearns.

The Calendar This Year.

At a meeting of the Athletic Advisory Board last night, J. S. Reilly's bid for the school calendar was accepted.

This year's calendar will excel those of all previous years in interest and will be a souvenir well worth keeping. It will contain a half-tone portrait of Principal Stearns, suitable for framing, and pictures of the three victorious athletic teams of last year, together with the 1907 eleven, with cuts of the captains and managers, the undergraduate treasurer, Dr. Page, the athletic director, the Borden Gymnasium, the society houses, Mr. McCurdy and Prof. Graves, the two oldest instructors in the school, the musical clubs, cheering staff, the school picture, J. C. Sawyer, the school treasurer, the school buildings, Mr. Bancroft, the registrar, the faculty, men on publications, the police force, Chapel, the basket-ball and hockey teams, and Trainer "Sid" Peet.

Dramatic Club Trials.

The trials for the Dramatic Club were held last evening in the Archaeology Building. About thirty candidates reported. The men were given parts from "Mr. Rob" to read. Mr. Phillips was in charge of the candidates. The names of the successful-men will appear in Saturday's issue.

CALENDAR AND NOTICES

TODAY.

1.30—Make-up track classes in Borden Gymnasium.

1.30—Gun Club shoot.

7.00—Philo in Society Hall.

7.15—Forum in Archaeology Building.

Inquiry Gives Reception.

Last Saturday night at eight o'clock the Society of Inquiry gave a reception in the Archaeology Building, mainly for the purpose of giving the new men in the society and in the school an opportunity to meet Mr. and Mrs. Stearns and Mr. and Mrs. Stackpole. A great many profited by the occasion and the room was crowded.

Refreshments were served later in the evening.

Among those present from the faculty were Mr. and Mrs. Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. Stackpole, Mr. and Mrs. Scheffy, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Hinman, Dr. and Mrs. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Lynde, Mr. and Mrs. McCurdy, Mr. and Mrs. Moorehead, Mr. and Mrs. Gillard, Mr. Parmelee, Mr. Poynter, and Prof. Benner.

Forum Program.

The regular meeting of Forum will be held Friday evening at 7.15 in Forum Hall of the Archaeology Building.

The program is as follows:

Topics of the Week—Hunt.

Select Reading—Webster.

Declamation—Hamilton.

The subject for debate will be: Resolved, "That the Philippines should be retained at any cost."

Affirmative—Barbour, Chell.

Negative—Woolverton, Hoffman.

Office Hours of School Minister.

Mr. Stackpole will be at the old Registrar's Office in the Main Building during the first period Wednesday and Saturday mornings, and at his house, 16 Abbot Street (off School Street), from 7 to 8 on Monday and Thursday evenings; also usually on Tuesday evenings and from 1 to 2 Wednesday afternoons.

ANDOVER vs FRESHMEN

Complete Line-ups of Both Blue Teams in Game To-day on Brothers Field. P. A. Men on Line-up

This afternoon the Academy eleven will line up against the Yale Freshmen on Brothers' Field. The game will be especially interesting as there are several of last year's graduates from Andover, who are on the freshmen team. The Yale team is a strong one this year and the game will undoubtedly be the best played thus far.

Following are the line-ups of both teams:

ANDOVER	YALE FRESHMEN
Dunn, lc	re, Davidson
Rosendale, lt	rt, Mercereau
Peirce, lg	rg, Greenough
Large, c	c, Hyde
O'Connor, rg	lg, Fuller
Jackson, rt	lt, Swan
Brooks, re	le, Haines
Merritt, qb	qb, Hopkins
Aechtler, rhb	lhb, Kilpatrick
Morrison, fb	fb, Knight
Ely, lhb	rhb, Vincent

Of the Yale team Greenough, Hyde, Hopkins, Kilpatrick, and Haines were P. A. men, Greenough, Kilpatrick, and Haines playing on the eleven while here, and Hyde and Hopkins on the second team.

The following will also play in the game for Andover:

Murchie, lhb; Waterman, rhb; Porter, fb; Hamilton, qb; Bradley, rg; Palmer, re; Coates, lc.

Inquiry Meeting.

The Society of Inquiry held an important meeting last Sunday evening in the Archaeology Building. About fifty members were present. Both Principal Stearns and Mr. Stackpole spoke.

After leading the prayer, Mr. Stearns spoke of the importance of realizing that "life" was with us here, now. That this was not merely a preparation for the future, but that what we did to-day, and what attitude we took on questions here, were just as important as what we did or said ten years from now.

Mr. Stackpole then spoke. After thanking the society for the reception on Saturday evening, he explained the plan for the future meetings, saying that they were intended to be very informal, and urging all fellows not to be afraid to ask questions.

Several questions were then brought up by the members; among others, the subject of studying on Sunday.

After the meeting F. B. Thwing was elected treasurer by last year's members.

TRAINING TABLE.

The football training table will begin next Thursday.

THE OUTSIDE WORLD

Vast loans, which the Standard Oil officials could not explain, are supposed to cover the purchase of possible rivals of the trust.

A loss of $500,000 was incurred by the burning of the 14th Street car barns of the New York City Railway Co.

It is announced that Miss Gladys Vanderbilt and Count Szechenyi are to be married soon in Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt's residence in New York.

Heinrich Conrad, director of the Metropolitan Opera House, returned from Europe in much better health.

Robert Bacon, assistant secretary of State, leaped from a launch into the Charles River and saved the lives of two Harvard students who were unable to swim.

Charles Griswold, a Yale student, was fatally injured in diving into the swimming tank.

Governor Post, of Porto Rico, is said to have attacked the American school teachers there, calling them a lot of Pharisees.

Philo.

The regular meeting of Philo was held Friday evening in Society Hall. After several new men had been proposed for membership, Tolles gave a select reading from "The House of the Seven Gables". A. Wilson and Williams were appointed by the chair to make arrangements for a mock faculty meeting to be held within a month; the committee to report at the next meeting of the society.

The debate was then held on the question, "Resolved, That labor unions do more harm than good." In order to give the new members a chance to speak, the debate was made general, Wilson leading the affirmative and Allen the negative. After a lively discussion the decision was rendered by the chair for the negative.

The critique was then given.

GOOD RESULTS IN MEET

Fall Track Meet Brings Out Many Good Men. — 1909 Wins Class Relay by Good Margin

The annual fall inter-class track meet was held last Saturday afternoon on the upper campus. The features of the meet were the Class Relay races which 1909 won for the second consecutive year with a team composed of Butler, Eames, Beale, and West. Results of other events showed that there are many promising candidates for the coming year. The shot-put and hammer-throw were left out of the program of events.

Following is the list of events, and place-winners. First place men received cups, second, gold-lettered ribbons, and third, silver-lettered ribbons. The winning class relay team are awarded their numerals.

The order of events:

McKay kicked off to Porter, who made a good run back for 25 yards. Andover fumbled, but Brown could not gain and McKay punted to Murchie. Murchie made 15 yards on a cross-buck, but Andover was penalized 5 yards for starting before the ball was put into play. Waterman made 20 yards on a forward pass before time was called for the half.

SECOND HALF.

In the second half Coates took Dunn's place and Palmer went in for Waterman. Brown's line-up remained unchanged.

Murchie kicked off to Young, who caught the ball on the 7-yard line and advanced 19 yards. McKay and Rankin gained 14 yards on line-plunges, but McKay was unable to gain on an end run. McKay then punted to Hamilton, who advanced the ball one yard. Aechtler fumbled on a cross-buck and Brown got the ball. Young could not gain; so McKay kicked to Porter, who ran up 20 yards. Hamilton, however, was unable to gain on a run around right end. Here Curtis went in for Barker at end, and O'Connor replaced Aechtler at half-back.

Murchie tried a forward-pass, but McKay got the ball for Brown and then cross-bucked for 5 yards. Rankin could not gain; so McKay tried a forward-pass, but Brown was penalized 15 yards, because no one touched the ball. McKay gained nothing on an end run and punted to Murchie, who was tackled as he caught the ball. Andover lost 10 yards for moving before the ball was put in play. Murchie failed on a cross-buck and then O'Connor kicked to McKay, who was tackled by Hamilton on Andover's 15-yard line. Rankin could not gain; so McKay tried a forward-pass, but Hamilton fell on the ball on the 10-yard line. Murchie punted to Winslow, who advanced five yards. Peirce prevented McKay from gaining on an end run, but Andover lost 15 yards for off-side play. Then McKay tried a drop-kick from the 40-yard line, but failed. Murchie got the ball and ran it back to the 40-yard line. Time was taken out for McKay, but he pluckily returned to the game.

O'Connor could not gain on a cross-buck and Andover was penalized 10 yards. Porter lost three yards through guard and Murchie punted to Winslow. Young made 5 yards, but Smith could not gain. McKay punted to Murchie on the 5-yard line, who advanced it 10 yards. Neither O'Connor nor McKay could gain on line-plunges; so the latter punted to McKay, who was tackled by Hamilton on the 25-yard line. Rankin went through guard for nine yards, but Brown lost 15 yards for hurdling. McKay made a poor drop-kick, Hamilton dropping on the ball on the 10-yard line. O'Connor lost a fair catch, but Rankin failed to kick the goal. Murchie punted out from the 25-yard line to Young, who advanced 8 yards. McKay kicked to Hamilton, and O'Connor made three yards. Murchie punted to Winslow, but McKay could not gain in the next play. Brown was penalized 5 yards. McKay tried an end run without gain and then Palmer blocked his punt and ran 15 yards with the ball to Brown's 25-yard line. Griffin here replaced Palmer at end. Murchie made five yards and soon after the game ended with the ball in Andover's possession on the 12-yard line.

The line-up:—

ANDOVER	BROWN 2nd.
Dunn, Coates, l.e.	r.e., Barker, Curtis
Rosendale, l.t.	r.t., Corp

THE ANDOVER PRESS

Wednesday, Oct. 16, 1907

The Yale Freshmen game this afternoon will no doubt be the hardest contest of the year, with the exception of the Exeter game. Many old Andover men will accompany the Yale team, on which seven are players: namely, Kilpatrick, last year's half-back; Greenough, centre; Haines and Mason, ends on last year's eleven; Hyde, centre; Langdon, end; and Hopkins, quarter-back on the second team of 1906. It is very important that every man in school be present at the game today, to give the old Andover men a hearty welcome. The cheering is expected to be the best of any game before the struggle with Exeter. Everyone who has a megaphone is asked to bring it. All men are asked to fill the middle bleachers first and keep as close together as possible.

Signed,
CHEER LEADER.

Philo Program.

Philo will hold its regular meeting Friday night at 7.15 in Society Hall. The subject of debate will be: "Resolved, That intercollegiate football promotes the best interests of colleges." Allen and Henze will speak on the affirmative side of the question, and Platt and Cone will uphold the negative.

Topics of the Week — McCulloch.

Musical Selections—Wilson and Wells.

Declamation—Torrey.

Mr. Stackpole will be present and give the critique.

The captains and managers of the class football teams are requested to meet at Dr. Page's residence at 7.30 tonight.

Mr Kramer representing Alfred Nelson & Co. Tailors, will be at Frenche's today.

EXETER II; HARVARD 2nd 0

In a battle hard fought from start to finish Exeter last Saturday defeated the Harvard Second team by the score of 11 to 0. Up to the latter part of the second half neither team had been able to cross the other's goal line, but finally the plunges of the academy backs proved too much for the defense of the collegians and a touchdown was credited for Exeter when Lewis broke through the Crimson line and ran half the length of the field for the second touchdown.

At 3.45 o'clock Downing kicked off to Gilder, who ran the ball back ten yards. After a futile attempt to gain through the Exeter line Gilder punted out of bounds, the ball thereby coming into Exeter's possession on Harvard's 25 yard line. Plunges by Smith and Mackey made a first down, followed by ten yards by Dunn on a straight and Smith on a cross buck. Then Sharon took the ball on a quarterback run and went fifteen yards around the Crimson right end for what looked like a touchdown, but the unlucky runner fumbled two or three inches from the goal line, a Harvard man failing on it. Harvard punted 35 yards to Sharon, who ran the kick back 20 yards. By a fumble it was the Crimson's ball on her own 10 yard line. Again Gilbert punted. Smith catching the ball made five yards before being downed. Not being able to gain readily Exeter tried a drop kick which, failing, gave Harvard the ball on her own 15 yard line. The Crimson punted 25 yards to Sharon but recovered the ball on the next play by getting an on-side kick. Then after two useless attempts to gain Harvard punted fifteen yards out of bounds, the ball going to Exeter on the Crimson's 25 yard line. On an exchange of punts Sharon made a fair catch but Downing's try for goal failed and Harvard kicked out from the 15 yard line, Dunn running the punt back 16 yards. An on-side kick gave Harvard the ball on her ten yard line, from which point Gilbert punted to Sharon who gained 15 yards. After an exchange of punts Harvard got the ball near the middle of the field and by several hard plunges and a successful forward pass worked the ball to Exeter's 30 yard line, where West tried without success for a goal from the field. Here Burns, Loftus, Ross, Lewis and Boynton, took the respective places of Smith, Sharon, Dunn, Mackey and Baker. On the next play Lewis punted 35 yards to Gallatti. Gilder made fifteen yards on a forward pass but Ross caught the next attempt of the same play. Lewis punted for 20 yards. Harvard tried a forward pass which Boylan caught. Time for the half was called as Lewis kicked the ball for fifty yards.

Harvard opened the second half by kicking to Lewis, who returned the kick to the Crimson in midfield. Exeter got the ball on downs and Lewis punted 40 yards to Gallatti, Ross and Burns tackling him as he caught the ball. Now the Exeter backs began their hammering of the Harvard line, which resulted in the first touchdown. Burns started by breaking through on a straight buck for a 15 yard gain. Lewis added seven more yards by going through guard and Burns five more on a straight buck. A quarterback run by Loftus brought the ball to Harvard's five yard line, from which Ross carried it for a score. Harvard kicked off to Lewis, who ran back the ball for 45 yards. From here the ball was quickly advanced 20 yards nearer the Crimson goal by a forward pass to Boylan. Lewis then tried a goal from the field which failed, thus giving Harvard the ball on her 25 yard line. After a failure to gain the Crimson punted 25 yards to Loftus. Here, on an exchange of punts, Lewis caught the ball in the middle of the field and ran to the opponent's goal for a touchdown. He made the total score by kicking the goal. Harvard kicked off to Exeter, who rushed the ball to Harvard's 15 yard line, when time was called.
