CROSS COUNTRY RACE

Andover Cross Country Team to Run Against Worcester Here Saturday Afternoon.

Next Saturday, Andover will meet Worcester in a dual cross-country race. This is the first time that such an event has been attempted and a very good contest is assured. Worcester Academy has a very strong team and recently defeated Worcester Tech. in a dual meet. The Andover team will be greatly strengthened by Gould and McCulloch who were unable to run at Philadelphia on account of the age limit. The race will be twice around the regular course, which will make the run about three miles long. The finish will be on Brothers' Field as heretofore. The following are the teams:

Andover—Hayes (capt.), Gould, McCulloch, Lucey, E. H. Williams, J. I. Kennedy, Day, Leslie, Keech, Sheffield, and P. Stuart.

Worcester—Warner (capt.), Allen, Anderson, Hodgden, Coffin, Clegg, Wells, Elgen, Blanchard, MacGreggor.

The following are asked to officiate:

Judges at finish—Mr. Poynter, Mr. Stackpole, and Sturgeon.

Timers—Dr. Page, J. D. Thompson.

Starter—Sid Peet.

Judges of course—Hopwood, Coates, Burdett, Shuman, Redman, Decker, M. Stuart, Dowling, G. A. Wilson, Hubbard, F. Hall, Elliot.

Hockey Manager Election

The election of the assistant manager of the hockey team will be held Friday morning after chapel, and only old men are allowed to vote. The candidates for the position are D. W. Holden, Stanwood Miller, and J. S. Kennedy.

Collection To-morrow

This evening the Society of Inquiry will take a collection of old clothes, shoes, and magazines, which will be sent to Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell in Labrador, to help his work there among the poor. Fellows are requested to have their articles ready for the collectors, as it will save a great deal of time. The Society will have two wagons and expects to canvass the entire school on this date.

ARCHAEOLOGY LECTURE

Dr. Peabody Delivers Lecture on "The White Races" Last Evening to a Large Audience.

Dr. Peabody gave a very interesting talk on the "White Races" last evening in the Archaeology Building. The lecture was illustrated by slides showing the various parts of the human being's skull; the various portions of Europe in which men of the several racial characteristics live, and pictures of distinct types of the races. Among his many interesting points, Dr. Peabody said that the proportions of a man's head, i. e., whether it is long or broad, or whether the forehead is receding or not, makes no difference in the abilities of the man. In like manner, men of low statures, round heads, and dark skins are mentally equal to the members of northern race which is distinctive for its high stature and fair skins.

Among some interesting statistics is the average height of men and women of the world, 5 feet 4 in. Dr. Peabody also showed that all the nations of Europe sprang from Africa from where they gradually spread over the Continent. They were then overcome by the hordes of barbarians from Western Asia, from whom they acquired their languages.

Thus the foundations of the Romance, Teutonic, Arabian and Sanscrit languages had a common origin, and much of the folklore of the several nations traces its beginning to the same source.

Philo

The Philomathean Society will meet as usual on Friday evening in Pearson Hall, at quarter after seven. There will be no literary program rendered as there is a great deal of business to be transacted. Officers for the winter term will be elected at this meeting. All members who have not as yet paid their dues are requested to do so as soon as possible in order that the present administration may close its accounts promptly.

Inquiry

The Society of Inquiry met as usual last Sunday evening in the lecture room of the Archaeology Building. The meeting was an "open" one, the subject for discussion being the "Brotherhood of Man". After the opening hymn, scripture reading, and prayer, Thwing commenced the discussion. Ogden, W. L. Nute, Fletcher, Webster, and Gemmer also spoke. The service closed with a hymn. The attendance was unusually poor.

GYMNASIUM CLASSES

Fellows are asked to remember that after the Christmas vacation the regular gymnasium uniform must be worn in all classes. Men not having the uniform will receive cuts. The uniforms are on sale at Chase's.

POT POURRI

For the last few issues of the Phillipian, notices have been published regarding the pictures of the seniors and non-returning middlers for the Class Book. Only a few men, however, have handed in their pictures and it is imperative that the pictures be in at the earliest possible time. Those who have their pictures should give them to R. E. Burch at once, while

FACULTY ALMA MATERS

Yale Leads the List With a Representation of Nine.

A list of the Academy faculty, their honors, fraternities, and colleges, is printed below. It is of interest to note that out of the thirty-five members of the faculty, seventeen are $\Phi. B. K.$ men. $\Phi. B. K.$ is the honorary high scholarship society, and there are probably few schools that have so large a representation from that society on their faculties. The list follows:

Principal Alfred E. Stearns, Andover '90, Amherst '94. $\Psi. Y.$

Prof. William B. Graves, Lawrence Academy (Groton) '58, Amherst '62. $\Delta. K. E.$

Prof. Charles H. Forbes, University Grammar School (Providence, R. I.) '86, Brown '90. $\Delta. K. E.$ and $\Phi. B. K.$

WITH THE COLLEGES

J. B. Taylor, the former champion quarter-mile runner of the University of Pennsylvania, died at his home, December 2nd, from typhoid pneumonia. Taylor was considered one of the best quarter-mile runners in the world, having negotiated the distance in 48 4-5 seconds. For three years he was the intercollegiate champion and record holder and was the first colored man ever picked to carry the American flag on his breast in Olympic championship, figuring in the much discussed 400 metre run which was awarded to Great Britain, the American team being disqualified on account of a claim of fouling.

The Michigan baseball team will probably go south in the spring.

The Russell Sage Freshman dormitory is soon to be built at Princeton. It will cost $250,000, and will accommodate one hundred men.

The new athletic field at Ohio was christened "Ohio Field" in the name of clean athletics and manly sports.

Albert C. Miller, the substitute quarter-back, has been elected captain of the University of Pennsylvania for next year. In the Cornell game, Miller played a sensational game.

Wesleyan's team will be captained next year by Arthur Moore, who has been playing right tackle on this year's team.

The Williams' team has elected Belvidere Brooke, the left tackle for the past two seasons, captain for next year.

The alumni at Michigan will build a $300,000 dormitory on the campus.

Some of the students at Syracuse are involved in a law suit over the destruction of property at the recent freshmen banquet.

The intercollegiate regatta will be held at Poughkeepsie on June 26, 1909.

Statistics compiled by Mr. G. Everett Eldred, of Yale University, show that thirteen hundred and thirty-one men have won their "Y" in the four major sports. This is the total number that have ever won their "Y", except those who have won their letter this fall.

A noted football critic has selected this combination for an all star Yale eleven: le., Hinkey, '94; lt., Hogan, '04; lg., Heffelfinger, '91; c., Holt, '02; rg., Brown, '00; rt., Bigelow, '07; re., Shevlin, '05; qb., Rockwell, '07; lhb., Chadwick, '02; rhb., McClung, '91; fb., Butterworth, '04.

Jerome Schever won the fall tennis tournament at Technology last Thursday by defeating H. P. Farrington.

Worcester Academy recently secured possession of an eleven-acre tract for an athletic field from the Willard F. Pond estate. The grounds will be used for all athletic contests in the future.

"Dave" Allerdice has been chosen captain of the University of Michigan football team for next year. Allerdice, who comes from Indianapolis, was the man who played through nearly the whole Michigan-Penn. game with a broken collar-bone.

"Hurry-up" Yost who has coached Michigan so successfully for the past five years may coach Princeton next fall.

'Varsity Baseball at Tech.

The Massachusetts Institute of Technology may have a varsity base-ball team next year. The game has not been played at Technology, except among the class teams, for ten years. William J. Kelly '09, who was captain of the 1909 team last season, is the instigator of the movement. At a mass meeting Friday afternoon Kelly called for candidates both for the team and for the positions of manager and assistant manager. Various members of the class teams have been talking varsity baseball for some weeks, and the matter culminated last week in the presentation by Kelly of a petition for a team, to the athletic association, signed by nearly five hundred students.

The athletic association, though granting the possibility of a varsity team, has refused to support it because of the financial stringency under which it has labored for the past year. Enthusiasm is so great in some quarters, however, that the ball has been kept rolling just the same, with the feeling that a baseball team will be supported by subscription among the undergraduates. One of the faculty interested in the movement has started the subscription list with a large contribution, and it is rumored that some of the wealthier students will lend the movement their support.

There are several men studying at the institute who have played excellent ball on preparatory school and club teams and the team will not lack candidates.

P. A. Man Elected Mayor

Enos K. Sawyer, who has just been elected mayor of Franklin, N. H. is a former Phillips student. Mr. Sawyer is but 29 years old and is the youngest mayor in New Hampshire.

Basketball at Harvard

Basketball practice has been started at Harvard. The Varsity team will be picked from the class teams, and as sixty-one candidates have reported, an excellent team will doubtless be chosen. The men on last year's team have not as yet started practice, because regular work for the University team will not start until January 4th. The first game will be played on January 12th. A scrub series open to all men of the University will also begin about that time.

Communication

To the Editors of the Phillipian:

It seems to me, that something ought to be said in regard to the awarding of class numerals in Phillips Academy. I realize that the numeral is valuable to the physical department of the school in as much as it stimulates men to more zeal in the athletic routine. Have the authorities considered the fact, however, that the more numerals are distributed, the less honor it is to receive them, and that in consequence they lose their stimulating effect? The ambitious athlete does not care to work a whole term at class football, merely to attain practically the same honor as other men are receiving for minor sports.

I grant that it is hard to draw the line, but why if basketball and tennis deserve numerals, do not soccer and hockey as well? Personally I believe that only the sports which win straight "A's" for the varsity, should win straight numerals for the class teams. In other words the winning class football, base-ball and relay teams, and also the men who win first and second places in the fall meet, should be awarded numerals in my opinion, but I do not believe in throwing numerals around among cross-country, basketball, soccer and tennis heroes.

One may say that some men work just as hard to win cross-country, basketball, soccer, hockey and tennis honors, as others do to achieve success in the other branches of sport, and I grant it, but the line must be drawn somewhere and I believe that this is the best line to draw.

Another person will tell me that at New Haven the basketball and hockey teams get their letters if they win the championship. I admit it and say that they also give straight letters to a number of other sports, but one must remember that the enrollment of Yale University is so much higher than that of Phillips Academy, that the percentage of studentst with letters is, much smaller.

I do believe that the men partaking in the minor class sports should receive something for their work. The basketball men could be awarded their numerals, B. B., the cross-country men their numeral C. C. T., soccer men, their numeral S. F. T., the hockey men their H. T., and the tennis men their numeral T. T.

Would not this be a fair way to draw the line, and lay more emphasis on the major sports of the schools and colleges?

Debating Union

At the meeting of the Andover Debating Union held Monday afternoon in the Archaeology building, the following officers were elected to serve for the year: President, F. T. Bnnett of Philo; Secretary, H. E. Pickett of Forum. The other members of the Union are Q. Reynolds and C. B. Rockwell of Philo, and E. J. Webster and H. A. Colver of Forum. The Debating Union transacts all business relative to the Andover-Exeter debate, which will probably take place in Andover some time in the Spring term. Andover will choose the subject this year.

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE AT SEA

The total number of deaths at sea, during the terrific storm that raged for three whole days toward the end of last week, has been estimated at fifty persons, exclusive of passengers. Undoubtedly many more deaths could be added to this list, who have not been reported. One of the strangest accidents which occurred in this storm, was the loss of a steel whaleback, which sunk off the Nova Scotia coast. The barge was in tow of a tug boat, and seemed to be weathering the gale with great ease, and the captain of the tug felt no anxiety on her behalf. Early on Tuesday morning, however, an unusually heavy strain was felt on the tow-line, and simultaneously with this, the barge disappeared from the sight of the lookout. Capt. Evans took in the situation at a glance, and had the line cut immediately. No trace of the boat could be found, so they returned to port.

Another gale, which blew across New England at a seventy-mile pace, Monday and Tuesday, also did great damage. Not a vessel left Boston while the storm was at its height, and several vessels which were out of port were driven ashore and wrecked. The highest tide that has been known in years flooded the wharfs. Communication was interrupted everywhere.

CANAL DISPUTE BEFORE HOUSE

Congressman Rainey of Illinois, has prepared a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee for the investigation of the Panama Canal trouble. The charge was recently made, that $40,000,000 which was to have been paid to the French company, formerly in charge of the construction of a canal at Panama, has been misappropriated. The charge implicates Mr. Taft's brother-in-law, Charles P. Taft. A committee of Congressmen will probably be appointed to investigate the matter. President Roosevelt, in reply to the charge, wrote a most scathing letter which was published in the Boston Herald, and denounced the originator of the charge as a liar.

The completion of the canal will mean a tremendous increase in the commerce of the southern states, according to Mr. Wright, Secretary of War. A large portion of the trade now going to the middle West will be diverted to the South.

AUSTRIA FORTIFIES FRONTIER

According to the latest cable dispatches from Austria, the relations between Austria and her neighbors to the south-east, are fast becoming most hostile and war-like. Austria has massed 1000,000 men on her frontier, to guard against any attack by the Servians or Montenegrans. The Hungarians are greatly depressed over this war-like measure, and a decided depression in political, financial, and commercial circles is felt. The trouble is due to the unfortunate political attitude of Baron von Aehrenthal, and as long as he remains Minister of Foreign Affairs, the Austrians must suffer for his actions. However, it is generally thought that he will resign his position in the near future.

HAYTI HAS NEW PRESIDENT

General Simon, leader of the revolution that has proved so successful in Hayti, has declared himself president of the republic. The dispute between himself and General Fouchard was short but bitter, and this was suddenly ended by General Fouchard relinquishing his claim, to prevent a civil war, which would have meant the intervention of United States authority. The people have accepted the new government quietly. The financial situation there is precarious, but the government is anxiously awaiting two million dollars in currency which was adopted by the former government.

English Shell for Harvard

A new eight-oared shell has just arrived for the Harvard Varsity crew from the shops of George Sims & Sons of Putney, England. The boat is built on the English style and is on the same plan as the one used by the varsity last June against Yale. The shell is the gift of W. C. Baylies, Harvard '84, and has been temporarily stored at the Newell boat-house. It is expected that the high water in the river will permit the boat being launched from the varsity quarters, when the crew will take a short row. The shell is built with the alternating seats and short out-riggers which are well liked by the Harvard oarsmen.

Navy Captain

George Ralph Meyer, of Hastings, Minn., has been chosen captain for next year's football team at Annapolis.

Meyer has played left guard for three years. He is a strong and aggressive player, though his work has been hindered by an injury to his knee.

Novel Plan for Yale Stadium

In reply to circulars sent out by the Yale Alumni Weekly, soliciting the opinions of graduates, upon the proposal to erect a stadium, to afford better seating facilities for the big football games, C. E. Julian of New Haven offers a proposition that is likely to meet with the hearty approval of a great many of the alumni. His reply to the Weekly is as follows:

Editor Yale Alumni Weekly:

Sir: May I, through your columns, make a suggestion concerning your proposal to erect a larger football stand, coliseum, stadium, or whatever be its final form?

The general and unsatisfied demand for tickets of admission, a demand that is growing annually and threatens to swamp the present ticket distribution agency and involve it in endless trouble, makes timely and pertinent consideration of the financial question.

It occurs to me that a bond issue to graduates of Yale would be likely to bring forth a big subscription if the money dividend features be eliminated. Graduates of the University would consider a benefit in convenience and freedom from the annual worry a larger dividend than a small check written in figures.

I beg leave to propose as a tentative working plan the following:

Offer to graduates of Yale subscription lists for bonds in denomination of $100, redeemable in five tickets for each home championship game for 10 years, a face value of $100. I believe that graduates subscribing to such a scheme would consider that the use of $100 from the first year to the 10th would amply be repaid in freedom from the recurring worry over the applications. Each coupon should properly be a mortgage, as it were, upon a certain block of five seats in the specified section of the stand as shown on the bond.

Assuming, for the purpose of mathematical demonstration, that 500 graduates subscribe $100, that would bring in $50,000 at once; were the number of subscribers 1000 persons, which is quite within bounds of reason, the sum realized would be $100,000, on which there would be no fixed interest charge, but merely the lien upon 5000 seats for 10 years. And what would reservation of 5000 seats amount to if the stands be built to accommodate 50,000 spectators?

Assuming again that the stands would cost $300,000, one-third of the cost of construction would thus be met at once; another sum of equal proportions could possibly be taken from the surplus already available from the University Athletic Association's account, and the remainder, $100,000, could readily be borrowed.

The interest charges on that sum (one-third of the total cost) would be so small that the first championship game would wipe out at least a fourth of the principal, plus the interest for the year, and in four or five years the big stands would stand free of all encumbrance, save the lien as to seats to bondholders.

I offer these suggestions merely as a possible starting point.

Football Numerals

At the meeting of the Advisory Board held last Friday evening, the list of men who received their numerals for class football was revised. As there seems to have been some misunderstanding as to who is entitled to wear numerals, the revised list is printed below:

From 1909—Coates (coach), Burch, Bartlett, Creighton, Pickett, D. C. Dougherty, Brush, Robinson, Seeley, Lanius, Waterbury, West, Hunt, Hanna, Pittman, Klingbeil, and Blakeslee.

From 1910—Pierce (coach), N. C. Palmer, Stanley, W. P. Adams, Hoefflich, Champlin, F. M. Dougherty, Scribner, J. Thompson, Sherman, Eames, Pfau, Patterson, Picher, Pillsbury, and Harbison.

Pennsy's New Coach

Arrangements have been made to have David Fulz, the former Brown baseball and football star, and afterwards of the Philadelphia Athletic Association, coach the University of Pennsylvania baseball team next spring. Mr. Fulz has not played professionally for the last two years. He is at present engaged in practicing law, but he is willing to give up his practice temporarily in order to mould Pennsylvania's candidates into a winning team.

Schedule Completed

The Dartmouth baseball schedule for the season 1909 was published a few days ago. Contrary to the usual custom the team will not make a southern trip next spring. The schedule comprises nineteen games, eight of which will be played in Hanover.

The list is as follows:

April 28-29—Bowdoin at Hanover.

May 1—Holy Cross at Worcester.

May 4—Holy Cross at Hanover.

May 6—Tufts at Hanover.

May 10—University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia.

May 11—Princeton at Princeton.

May 12—West Point at West Point.

May 15—Vermont at Burlington.

May 19—Vermont at Hanover.

May 21—Williams at Hanover.

May 22—Amherst at Hanover.

May 28—Amherst at Amherst.

May 29—Williams at Williams-town.

May 31—Holy Cross at Worcester.

June 2—Massachusetts agricultural at Hanover.

June 5—Harvard at Cambridge.

June 7—University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia.

June 9—Yale at New Haven.

Stadium for New York

James E. Sullivan, president of the A. A. U. of New York, is strongly advocating the construction of a stadium in New York which will seat 60,000 spectators, and surrounding a field where all branches of field sport can be conducted.

As to the matter of cost, the promoter of the stadium idea says that if the city can afford to build and maintain a speedway costing $6,000,000 for the use of a few dozen light harness horsemen, it is not too much to ask similar attention for the athletes, who number thousands. Not that Mr. Sullivan is "knocking" anybody's game, but he wants the field enlarged. He thinks that there are enough public-spirited men in New York to take up the matter and wants a meeting called for the purpose of discussing the plans.

The necessity of a field of this kind will be more strongly emphasized when the big garden, where athletic meets have been held, is torn down to make room for business ventures. It is also not a remote possibility that the Olympic games may be held in New York within a few years, and there is no suitable place for such contests.

There is plenty of ground now to be had in the suburbs of New York well adapted for the purpose, or it is not impossible for the Park Commission to set aside a part of Cortland or Prospect parks for the purpose.

Army Basketball Schedule

The basketball season has started at West Point. Lieut. Stillwell, who captained the 1902 team, has been coaching the squad, and the practice games give evidence of a successful season. Last year the cadets won ten out of thirteen games, although handicapped by the loss of their captain and several star players, through the early graduation.

The schedule for the present season comprises eleven games which are as follows:

Dec. 5—Pratt Institute.

Dec. 12—Trinity.

Dec. 19—Fordham.

Jan. 9—Columbia.

Jan. 16—Wesleyan.

Jan. 23—New York University.

Feb. 6—Yale.

Feb. 13—University of Pennsylvania.

Feb. 20—Colgate.

Feb. 22—Pennsylvania State.

Feb. 27—Brooklyn Polytechnic.

Abbot Academy Piano Recitals

The Abbot Academy piano recitals will be given again this season under the direction of Professor Downs. This is the thirty-third season for these recitals and the programme for this year is one of the most interesting ever offered in the history of these concerts. The first in the course of three recitals will be given on December 11 by Miss Lilla Ormond, the distinguished contralto singer.

On January twenty-first, the famous Longy Club of Boston will appear. This is one of the finest musical attractions ever brought to Andover. The Longy Club comprises the players in the Wood Wind choir of the Boston Symphony orchestra and has ten members.

The date and pianist for the third recital is to be announced later.

The price of tickets for these recitals is two dollars for the course and one dollar for the individual recitals.
