ANDOVER VICTOR

Defeats Yale Freshman in Exciting Contest With a Score of 8-1.

Andover defeated the Yale Freshmen last Saturday on Brother's Field by the score of 8 to 1. The game had a special significance because of the fact that on the day before the Freshmen had overwhelmed Exeter by the score of 6 to 3. On the Freshman team were several old Andover men. Merritt, acting captain, has been a very prominent figure in Andover's athletic contests during the past three years. Dunn, Murchie, and Murphy also played with the visitors, Murchie doing the box work while Dunn and Murphy played in the field.

Andover's batting order was strengthened considerably by the return to the game of several men who have hitherto had conditions. Capt. Burdett put up a fine game at first, and showed himself fully able to take care of that position. E. U. Burdett took his regular position at short, accepting four chances without an error, while J. S. Reilly and Keeler alternated at third. G. Thompson was tried out in center field, and gave a fine exhibition of ball playing.

Murchie proved rather easy for the Andover batsmen, twelve hits being made off his delivery. Brown, on the other hand, held the Freshmen down to three well scattered hits, only one of which resulted in a run. Andover's batting was much superior to that of the last game, and the men displayed ability to bunch their hits, four of the eight runs being earned runs.

Last year the Freshmen defeated us by the score of 1 to 0 in a ten inning game, and Andover was consequently all the more anxious to win this year. Merritt and Murchie played well for the visitors, while L. Burdette and Bennett excelled for Andover. The whole Andover team showed marked improvement over the game of the previous week, only one error being recorded against them. In six out of the nine innings Yale went out in order, and only three times did she place a man on third.

Andover started the scoring in the first inning. With one down, L. Burdett singled to center, and took third on Snell's double to center. Reynolds now came to the bat and hit to right for one base, scoring Burdett and Snell. Reynolds stole second. E. Burdett singled to center, scoring Reynolds, stole second, went to third on Swihart's hit to center, but was caught

ANNUAL COMMONS STAG

Dance in Gym Brilliant Affair Lasting Until 11.30 P.M.

The annual Commons Stag Dance was held last Saturday night at the Borden Gymnasium. The affair was a great success from every standpoint. All enjoyed a very pleasant evening. There were about seventy-five present.

The gymnasium was decorated with numerous Andover banners, together with pennants and flags of other leading schools and colleges of the country. "A" and "2nd" sweaters were hung up on the walls.

The dance opened with a promenade around the running track, after which the fellows went down to the main floor and had the Grand March, led by Hubbard and Dr. Page. During the march, a few pillows found their way into the middle of the floor, just to liven things up a little, though it is doubtful whether an instigation was needed to rouse the fellows to have a good time, for there was not a dull moment during the evening. The dance was of a very informal sort, for shirt sleeves seemed to be more popular than the more cumbersome coat and vest.

There were fifteen dances in all; the supper dance which was scheduled to be the tenth was changed to the ninth to allow those men who could not stay late to partake of the refreshments. "A" Hinton served ice cream and cake, both of which were to be had in profusion.

Great credit is due to the committees in charge for their excellent management.

The dance order was as follows: Grand March "A La Commons" at 8.00

1. Two-step "Andover Scollage"
2. Waltz "Chateau de Draper"
3. Two-Step "Fuess"-er" Moore"
4. Barn Dance "Cap" "Stack"-pole
5. Two-step "Clement Reservoir"
6. Waltz "Doc" Mierow
7. Two-step Commons Ally, "A"
8. Waltz "Eight-straight, poor Exeter"
9. Two-step "Rough House Brick House" To the Preps.
10. Waltz "Inhale Doc"
11. Barn Dance "On your mark" Sid
12. Two-step "On your mark" Sid
13. Waltz Father Hinman
14. Barn Dance "Beef! "What'll you have?"
15. Two-step I. Sawyer Jimmie, March 1st

CROSS COUNTRY TRAMP RESUMED

The cross-country tramps under the leadership of Mr. Stackpole will be resumed on Thursday, April 22. The start will be from the gymnasium at 2.15. These tramps will be held once a week on either Thursdays or Fridays during the months of April and May, and not longer than one hour. Those who go on these walks will be excused from gymnasium, track or tennis classes for that day.

CHAPEL SPEAKER

The Chapel speaker for next Sunday will be Rev. Willis H. Butler, D. D., of Northampton. He will speak at both the morning and evening services, and at the Society of Inquiry in the evening. Mr. Butler, who is a graduate of Princeton and the Union Theological Seminary, was formerly pastor at Williamstown. From there he went to Northampton where he has been, during the last three or four years, pastor of the important Edward's church.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editors of the Phillipian—

In regard to the communications in your last issue concerning the management of the cheering staff, I would like to say that the criticisms are both foolish and groundless. Some fellows, in their excitement, don't think to clap their hands, while others do. Thus, to have everybody clap together, it is necessary for the cheer leaders to suggest it, as they have always been doing.

In one of the articles the writer says that college cheer leaders do not yell, "give um a hand". If he would compare the much greater size of a college cheering section to that of ours he would easily see that if half of a college cheering section clapped, there would be enough noise to prevent it from sounding foolish. But if only a half of Andover's cheering section was to clap it would sound ridiculous. Therefore, to avoid this it is absolutely necessary for the leaders to say "give um a hand".

In the other communication, the writer criticises interference of the manager with the cheering staff. I agree with him that the staff should be able to manage its own department, but the staff was new at their work and needed suggestions such as the manager gave. I have talked with several members of the cheering staff, and they did not seem to feel that the manager was overstepping his place. So I think if there is any kick coming, it should come from one of the staff with whom the manager interferes.

The school as a whole does not appreciate the spirit of the manager. Everything he does is done with the idea of benefitting the school and not with the intention of putting himself forward. He is no doubt the best manager Andover has had for a long time, and just because he puts himself out to do something which the staff neglected to do, his actions should be appreciated instead of criticised. As a rule, those who make these kind of criticisms are those who do nothing for the school. I think it would be a great deal better for Andover if she had more fellows who showed as fine a school spirit as Manager Hamilton does.

INQUIRY

The regular meeting of the Society of Inquiry was held on Sunday evening in the Archaeology Building. It was an open meeting conducted by J. F. Fletcher. The subject chosen was "prayers." Fletcher said a few words on the subject, and defined what he understood prayer to be, stating that it is man's desire expressed to God for help to make his life better and purer. He also added that he thought that secret prayer was more valuable than public, because in public one was liable to think too much of form. The question was next taken up by other members. The first one said that all life was a constant struggle, and that man, alone, is unable to overcome this struggle. He then said that prayer was not mere talk, but an absolute communion with God. The life the most victorious over struggle is one of prayer. Next followed a talk on the relative merits of public and secret prayer. Public prayer tends to unison, but is beneficial only to the extent which one puts his heart into it. Then there were some examples given of men in history who had been praying men. Mr. Washington, Lincoln, McKinley and Speer were spoken of. One opinion of prayer was given as a "keeping in tune with God."

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED

The Exonian, the Exeter school paper, observed the beginning of its thirty-first year last Wednesday by an issue three times the regular size, finely illustrated, and full of interesting articles.

The Exonian was started by the Rev. Ernest H. Mariett, '78, E. B. Balch, '79, and W. M. Meedles, Jr., '80. The paper was one of the first preparatory school papers, and now is among the foremost in the country. In 1889 it was changed from a weekly to a semi-weekly paper.

The editorial board for the year now closing was composed of George B. Cortelyou, Jr., '09, Washington, managing editor; Samuel B. Morison, '09, Minneapolis, assistant; Charles H. Weston '09, Pennsylvania, secretary; D. J. P. Wingate, Winchester, Mass., Morgan P. Noyes, '10 Pennsylvania; Fred L. Goss, '10 Massachusetts; James A. Henderson, '10 Pennsylvania; H. Converse Wilder, '10, New York. William S. Bacon, '10, of Illinois, has been the business manager.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

Wednesday, April 21, 1909

This issue is in charge of L. Bradford.

How long, O Burch, will your impassioned appeals fill up our columns! For the twenty-second time we print your well known Pot-Pourri notice. Is it not almost time that the school respond? Or are the fellows so void of wit that they cannot think up a few grinds or jokes. When the Pot-Pourri Editor fails to make a success of his publication, he is severely roasted. Possibly the fellows, not he, are to blame.

In this issue, and in the one preceding it, communications have appeared criticising outside interference with the Cheer Leaders. All of the articles, however, agree on this point: the cheering staff are, or ought to be, competent to manage their own department. If they resent any outside interference, it is their duty to put a stop to it. Why not let them do it?

PHILO

The regular meeting of Philo will be held on Friday evening, April 23, in Room C, Pearson Hall. The subject of the debate will be: "Resolved, That the execution of Major André was justifiable."

Tompkins and Needham will uphold the affirmative, Thwing and Wells the negative. Mr. Hinman will render the critique. The select reading will be by Bradford and the topics of the week by Coffin. An amendment to the constitution will be voted upon, so all members are urged to be present. Representatives of the faculty and of the school are welcome.

HARVARD DEFEATS COLUMBIA

Harvard's eight-oared varsity crew beat Columbia by nearly six lengths in the race last Saturday. Harvard took the lead at the start, and kept it until the finish of the race. At the first half mile Harvard was already over a length ahead and slowly but surely, impelled by a powerful stroke, she increased her lead. Towards the end, the Columbia crew appeared to weaken, and at the finish several of her men collapsed. Harvard, on the contrary, appeared to be as fresh as when they started. Harvard's time, in spite of the fact that the men stopped rowing a few lengths from the finish, an account of their big lead, was 9 minutes, 54 seconds.

The record for the course is 9 minutes, 16 seconds, made by Columbia in 1907.

WITH THE COLLEGES

The Harvard University Athletic Club is said to have started negotiations toward securing a match with the winner of the Oxford-Cambridge crew race, provided Harvard again beats Yale on the Thames in New London.

Harry McNichol, center, has been elected captain of the Pennsylvania five for next year.

The Princeton Athletic Executive Committee has asked the editor of the Princetonian to attend its meetings as a representative of the student body. He will not have the voting power.

Statistics of the Yale academic class of 1909 show 175 men using intoxicants, while 115 do not, and 185 using tobacco, while 96 abstain. There are 201 republicans, 26 democrats, 16 independents, and one prohibitionist.

The Sheffield scientific class of 1888 has raised $3,010 toward a fund of $10,000 to aid needy students who are sons of members of the class.

The 40 spring elections from the sophomore class to the five fraternities include seven men of high scholarship and a much more evident scale of personal merit than in the autumn elections. Ten were taken from the campus dormitories, and 22 do not room in either of the two Hutchinson dormitories. Fifteen in freshman year roomed in the "democratic" Pierson dormitory.

The co-ed crew at Washington has made a demand for cold cream and talcum powder in their lockers. The coach has agreed to levy a tax of twenty-five cents to buy the articles, and has fitted the girls' dressing room with a fine mirror.

The staff of the Daily Princetonian will play the editors of the Yale News a baseball game at Princeton on May 7.

Coach Heffernan of Syracuse is criticising the student body for the spirit being manifested toward baseball. The squad is the smallest in years.

A representation of the Adventures of Theodore in Africa will be a part of the University circus at Wisconsin. The lion is having daily rehearsals.

A new club has just been formed at Missouri. Its object is to keep the pictures of its members out of the University annual.

The wearers of the "N" at Nebraska may organize a society. Its purposes will be to increase the distinction of winning the letter, and to discourage the promiscuous wearing of it.

at the plate, Hyde to Tierney. Swihart stole second, went to third on Burdett's out at the plate, but was left there, Thompson grounding out to Murchie.

Yale placed a man on third in the first of the second inning. Stevens hit the first ball pitched to right for a single, took second on Murphy's out at first, and went to third on L. Burdett's error. Stevens, however, was caught off base, and put out between home and third. Tierney reached third on this play, but was left there, as Dunn flied out to Reilly.

A double play by Hyde and Murphy was the feature of the third inning. Andover tallied three times more in the fourth inning after two men were out. With two down, Thompson drove the ball to left for a base, took third on Brown's single to right, Brown going to second on the throw in. Bennett now came to the bat, and doubled to left, scoring Thompson and Brown. Bennett scored on successive singles by L. Burdett, and Snell, but Burdett was caught at the plate, ending the inning.

The Freshmen scored their only run in the game in the sixth. Murchie, the first man up, drove the ball almost to the right field fence for three bases, and scored on the throw in of Merritt's fly to deep center. Not another Freshman reached second after this.

Andover scored her final two runs in the seventh. L. Burdett drew a pass, took second on Tierney's error, and went to third on Snell's grounder to Murchie. Snell reached first on a fielder's choice, and scored in the same manner. Pfau now came to the bat and scored both Burdett and Snell by a clean single to center. No more runs were scored however, for Keeler flied out to Stevens, and Thompson struck out. Yale and Andover went out in order in the eighth and ninth innings.
