MERCERSBURG DEFEATED

Andover Plays an Errorless Game and Wins by a Score of 3 to 2.

Mercersburg was forced to meet defeat Monday in the game on Brothers' Field, by the score of 3-0. Mercersburg had been defeated by Exeter the previous Saturday by a score of 5-4, so the game was watched with particular interest. Andover displayed some excellent playing throughout the entire game. Although it seemed rather cold for baseball, the game went along in very good time. The game was called off after Mercersburg came to the bat in the eighth inning, so that the fellows could get to four o'clock recitations.

Brown's playing during the whole game was a feature. His batting was exceptional, for he managed to get a hit each time he came to the bat. Sherman's batting was also very good. Thompson played very good ball especially in fielding and his throws from center field were excellent. In general, the game showed that the team was improving in many ways, and particularly in batting which has been the weak point in the teams of the past few years.

For the visitors, Fager pitched a very good game, and Yingling did very good work in left field.

The game in detail:

Robinson, Mercersburg's first man up reached first on a single to right field. He got to second on Raferty's sacrifice hit, and reached third on the next play. This left Robinson on third with two out. Brown struck out the next man which retired the side. In the second half of this inning, L. Burdett got to first and second on two errors, reached third on Sherman's hit to right field, but as E. Burdett and Thompson both flied out to second he was left there with three out.

During the second inning there was no chance for scoring, but in the first half of the third, Yingling sent out a fly far over the center-fielder's head. It was a safe three bagger but Yingling tried for a home run, and was put out at the plate, Thompson and E. Burdett to Snell.

Till the sixth inning there was little hope of either side scoring. In the second half of this inning Thompson was passed to first, stole second, went to third on a passed ball, and got home on Brown's hit to center. Reynolds was also passed to first, stole second, and got home on the same hit of Brown's. Brown got to second on Daly's er-

BOSTON COLLEGE SHUT OUT

Andover Defeats Opponents 3 to 0. Team Shows Much Improvement.

Andover defeated the Boston College team last Saturday on Brothers' Field by the score of 3 to 0. The home team outplayed the visitors at every point of the game, and considering the fact that the home team has had no practice since the Colby game, the work was especially good.

Brown started in the box for Andover but was replaced by Thompson at the close of the second inning. Both of these men pitched well, only one hit being allowed during the game. Andover succeeded in bunching her hits at times but twice was unable to score when the bases were full.

Sherman's batting was a feature; for his two hits were very opportune, his second one bringing in a run. The team showed a marked improvement in fielding, as well as in batting, since but one error was credited to the list. Captain Burdett played a very good game accepting all his chances at first base.

Although none of the runs were earned runs, Andover showed her ability to take advantage of passed balls and wild throws. Besides the change of pitchers, there were two other shifts made in Andover's lineup,—Keeler relieving Bennett at second at the first of the sixth, and Sherman taking Swihart's place at right field at the same time.

For the visitors, Lowe played very well at second and McDonald at third, especially in the latter's double play, McDonald to McMah-

The game in detail:

Andover started things going in her half of the first inning, when L. Burdette secured his base on McDonald's poor throw to first. Snell walked and soon afterward, L. Burdett took second on a wild pitch. A passed ball then allowed each man a base and Reynolds single brought in L. Burdett. Brown secured a base on balls, but Thompson fanned, and ended the inning.

The visitors were unable to get a man past first until the sixth inning when O'Kane who had secured his base on balls, managed to get there on account of good base running. He was unable to score, however, as there was one out and the next two men struck out. Andover succeeded in filling the bases in her half of the sixth inning, but was unable to score.

The Boston team was unable to place a man on first in the seventh

PHILLIPIAN BOARD BANQUET

The members of the Phillipian Board held their annual banquet last Saturday evening at the Hotel Lenox in Boston. The guest of the evening were Mr. Leonard, and Mr. George Bruce Cortelyou, Jr., of Exeter who is managing editor of the Exonian. E. W. Freeman acted as toastmaster and addresses were made by Mr. Leonard, Mr. Cortelyou, W. J. Bass, J. T. Ogden and D. G. Raymond. After the banquet the members of the Board attended the theatre, and spent a very enjoyable evening.

EXETER DEBATE

Exeter has announced her choice of sides for the annual Andover-Exeter debate for this year. They have chosen the affirmative of the question, "Resolved, That direct nomination by the party is superior to the present system of caucus and convention." The debate will be held in Andover, probably on the twenty-ninth of May. Mr. Hinman has consented to coach the Andover team, which consists of the following men: G. S. Torrey, leader; Pickett and Platt, with Woodward alternate.

COLLEGE EXAMS.

The following is a schedule of the various college entrance examinations for this spring. Many colleges who are not on this list have no examinations of their own, but use the College Board examinations. The list is as follows:

- Yale, June 30—July 3.
  - Harvard, June 28—July 3.
  - Princeton, June 17—19.
  - Amherst, June 22—25.
  - Massachusetts Institute of Technology, June 30—July 3.
  - College Board, June 14—19.
- All of the above examinations are held in Andover with the exception of those for the M. I. T., which are held in Boston.

ANDOVER MEN RECEIVE HONORS AT YALE

The following old Andover men received Freshmen honors in their studies for the first term and the first half of the second term: A. Blum '08, E. W. Freeman '08, R. A. Gardner '08, S. Gifford '08, E. H. Mead '08, T. H. Tweedy '08, and E. B. Twombly '08.

The provisional date for the Means Prize Speaking contest is set for the evening of Tuesday, May 11.

The trials for the Draper Prize contest will take place on Thursday evening, May 13. The final competition will take place on Monday evening, June 21.

Rapid progress on the new organ for the chapel is being made by the H. Hall Organ Company of New Haven with whom the contract for the instrument has been placed. In order to build the instrument so that it will be installed and ready for use by Commencement time all the men in the factory are working one hour extra each day. There is no question but that the organ will be ready at the expected time.

VIRGINIA PLAYING WELL

None of the college baseball teams have been able to keep pace with the University of Virginia this season. This southern institution has defeated all the leading northern colleges that she has played except Yale, who defeated Virginia when her crack little pitcher, Walker, was out of the game. This pitcher has made a record of which any college pitcher might well be proud, having won games from Amherst, Princeton, Pennsylvania and Fordham.

Harvard is the only one of the large universities that has yet to take its southern trip. She opens her season with Virginia today. The only game Harvard has played this year was a seven inning practice game with Bowdoin, in which Hicks held the Maine team down to no hits for the first six innings, and Davis allowed three in the seventh, Harvard winning 7-1. With Hartford, the left handed pitcher, Hicks, the Junior star, McKay, Andover '08, and Slater, who won from Andover last year, Harvard may win one of the two games with Virginia. If she cannot bat better than she did last year, however, Virginia will surely defeat her.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

Wednesday, April 28, 1909

This issue is in charge of J. H. Gridley.

Tomorrow afternoon the Academy Baseball team will play the Carlisle Indians. As this is one of the hardest games that Andover will play this year, the whole school should go out and give the team good support.

CUT IN TRACK SQUAD

The following men now compose the track squad: Hopwood, (capt.) Pittman, Spry, Rickard, Rose, Batchelder, Eames, Hamilton, Burch, N. C. Reed, West, K. Reynolds, N. Williams, Decker, Butler, O. H. ### SENIOR PROMENADE

The date for the Senior Promenade is now definitely set for Wednesday night, June 23. This time has been selected owing to the fact that the school work will have been completed by that time and so would not interfere with the dance.

INQUIRY

At the regular meeting of the Society of Inquiry last Sunday evening, Rev. Willis H. Butler spoke. He said in part:

"I am going to speak informally to you tonight. As you know there is nothing that will draw a crowd like a contest, or in plain English, a fight. No matter how busy a man may be, he is sure to stop and watch even a dog fight on the streets. It is usually understood that a fight is between two or more persons, but the hardest fight a man can have is with himself. St. Paul found it necessary to inflict bruises upon himself "to keep his body under," or control himself. He did this to get a better character; anything which tended to make him better was always done by St. Paul. St. Paul compared himself with a Greek athlete who deprived himself of pleasures, harmless in themselves, but which prevented him from clipping off a fraction of a minute from his time for running a race. All this training a Greek underwent merely to get a crown of leaves which faded almost-as soon as it was put on the victor's head. St. Paul was "in training" not for a crown of leaves, but an incorruptable crown, a crown of Heaven.

BAINES EXETER CAPTAIN

Harold A. Baines, '09, of Suffern, N. Y., has been elected captain of the Exeter nine as successor to Francis J. Gratton, '09, who has left school. Baines was the star pitcher of last year. He is first marshal-elect for class day, is a member of the athletic association, school council and Christian fraternity, and otherwise prominent in school life.

SPRING SEASON 1909

383 Washington Street,

Boston, Mass.

COLLEGE NOTES

Last week the Columbia "soccer" football team won the intercollegiate association football championship by tying with the Harvard team with a score of two-to-two. This is the last game of the series, in which Yale, Columbia, Harvard and several other colleges have participated.

The Tech students held their annual Junior Promenade on the evening of April 19th, and it was a success in every way. About 200 couples were present.

"That Pill Grimm", a show given by the students of the Institute of Technology, had called forth high commendation from all those who have seen it. There are at least fifty students in the cast, and the play was written by a Tech. man.

Minnesota medical students recently suspended a human cadaver over the platform during chapel exercises. When the specimen was lowered into view, having suspended by a rope around its neck, several students fainted.

Maudie Adams is as usual chosen the favorite actress by the Senior Class of Yale, with 116 votes against 19 for Ethel Barrymore.

The Senior class of Brown University recently held its second supper of the year. The plan of holding class suppers is a distinct innovation at Brown and bids fair to prove successful.

The prohibition wave hit the Yale Senior Class when 1909 Academic announced its vote for water as its favorite drink. Coffee was second and milk third. The class voted "Crossing the Bar" as its favorite poem.

Nine men have been suspended at Brown on account of copied themes.

When a DePauw runner went out into the rural districts in costume to limber up for a race, the farmers along the route thought he had escaped from an asylum. They called up the marshal who went out and captured the athlete.

More than two hundred colleges have sent in entries to the annual relay races to be held on April 24 at the University of Pennsylvania. Among the new entries are Harvard and Wisconsin.

Walter Prichard Eaton, P. A. '96, who was an editor of the Mirror at Andover, is the author, in collaboration with Miss Underhill, of New York, of "The Run-away Place", a novelette published this month by Henry Holt & Co. Mr. Eaton also published last autumn a volume of dramatic criticisms under the title of "The American Stage of Today".

Not Anybody's Tie

No matter how good a tie; but the tie which belongs to you and shows the fact when you put it on. Not any proper hat, which fits; but the hat which is a finish to your person. Not any choice shirt; but the shirt which harmonizes with your color and build. Through all the long list of the outfittings of a man, we try to find that which seems to be meant for you. Let us show you, if you have not formed the habit of coming to us.

inning, while Andover succeeded in scoring two runs. Thompson reached first on a fielder's choice, and stole second. Pfau secured a base on balls, and Thompson succeeded in reaching third. Reilly fled to Ryan and Thompson reached home after the ball was caught. Pfau advanced to third and was brought in by Sherman's infield hit. The inning closed with Sherman on base, as the next two men were put out.

The visitors went out in order in the next two innings while Andover succeeded in placing a man on third in the eighth but was unable to score.
