ANDOVER HAS CHAMPION

Robert Abbe Gardner, P. A. '08, Champion of the United States. He earned this title recently at the National Championship in Chicago.

During his course here he was a pole vaulter on the track team and a first honor man in his studies. At present he has the highest scholarship standing of any Andover man in Yale. Gardner was undergraduate treasurer while at Andover.

EXETER 32, BREWSTER o

Exeter won the first game of the season on the new playing fields by defeating Brewster Academy 32-0. The game was one-sided in the first half. Glaze sent in his strongest men in the first half and Brewster only had the ball twice in the entire period. Many substitutes were-Brewster was more formidable in the last half, only 12 points being scored against 20 inn the first half. Exeter used end runs and old fashioned line-bucking almost exclusively with the exception, one or two onside kicks. Captain Dowing played his usual strong, persistent game. Exeter's goal was never in danger.

The summary:

Score Exeter 32; Brewster o. Touchdown, Cornell, Pearson, Holbrook, Terknile andCh andler. Goals from touchdown, Downing, 4. Goal from field, Downing, Linesmen. Radford and Kenney. Referee Stevenson, Field. Judge, Perkins. Umpire, McKendrick. Time: Fifteen minute halves.

ANDOVER LOSES FIRST GAME

Yale, '12, is the Amateur Golf Cushing Academy Wins Foot Ball Victory by Close Score of 6-0—Call of Time Prevents Andover from Scoring

> Cushing Academy defeated Andover last Saturday by the score of 6 to o. The team work of both teams was crude throughout the ago. contest, although from time to time both elevens did some sensational rushing. The Andover line showed great power, and time and time again ripped up Cushing's line in great style, affording lots of chances for Porter and Reynolds to gain their distances. Cushing had a great secondary defense through which Andover never penetrated.

Gallagher and Lowney were unable to gain consistently around have undoubtedly scored a touch-Van Brocklin and Paine, but sev- down. eral times they made their distance, and once Lowney scored the only touchdown when, after circling Andover's right end, he scored on a beautiful 50 yards run. On this play the Cushing team showed more football sense than at any other stage of the game, for so cleverly did they guard their runner, that not a single Andover man even touched him.

In one of the most exciting years. He follows the ball better games ever witnessed in Andover, than most college centers, and his entire game reminds the spectator of "Pat" Grant, Harvard's light All-American center of two years

Paine and Van Brocklin played well. The latter showed up especially well at his new position, often throwing his opponents for losses. Porter and Reynolds were Andover's only consistent ground gainers, although MacDonald made several clever quarterback runs. Andover was tearing up the Cushing line at will during the last 2 minutes of play, and had the time allowed 2 more plays, she would

The game in detail:

Cushing kicked off to MacDonald who advanced the ball 10 yards. Porter plowed through left tackle for 5 yards and Reynolds made 4 on the other side. Porter took 3 more at right guard. Large fell on Reynold's onside kick for 10 yards. MacDonald made 2 yards. Lowney intercepted MacDonald's pass for Cushing. Lowney was Andover's line was individually nailed on attempting to buck. INQUIRY

There were a large number of men present at the meeting of the Society of Inquiry on Sunday night The meeting was opened by singing

The following resolution was passed, and ordered printed and sent to the parents of Justus Fletcher:

"We, the members of the Society of Inquiry, deeply grieved at the loss of our friend and Vicepresident, Justus Fletcher, desire to express our appreciation of the work he has done and the ennobling influence his sterling character, his great energy and his unbending conscience has had upon us. He was quiet, manly and always ready when needed. His life was a proof that a true, clean, quiet Christian life can be a true school-boy's life. Men like Justus Fletcher put new meaning into the life of a great school like Andover. We need more men of such fidelity to ideals and we can ill afford his loss."

The topic chosen for discussion was "Faith". Pres. Nute first gave a short talk on this subject, after pressed their views.

Tompkins then gave a very interesting speech on the necessity of Inquiry men not standing apart from the rest of the school, but mixing with the fellows and trying to influence them in better directions. Mr. Bardroellan an alumnus of Andover then spoke, after which a hymn was sung, and the meeting adjourned.

MUSICAL CLUBS START

The Andover Musical Clubs are now getting under way. Mr. Manning, who has coached the Glee Club for the last two successful seasons, will again have the direction of this organization. Mr. Handley, director of the Mandolin and Banjo Clubs, is again with them and their success is assured.

ORCHESTRA TRIALS

The trials for the Academy orchestra will be held this evening in the archaeology building at 7.00. All men who have had any experience with orchestra instruments are urged to come out. A good pianist is also needed.

DEBATING UNION

On Friday evening, at 7.45 o'clock, the Phillips Academy Debating Union, composed of the Philomathean and Forum debating societies, will tender its annual reception to the school. This meeting s held to arouse interest in the work of the two societies, and also to give the new men and the old men of the school an opportunity to meet each other on an informal social basis. Speeches will be made by members of the faculty and by the officers of Philo and Forum. After the speeches, refreshments will be served.

The speakers with thier topics are:

Principal Stearns—"History of the Two Societies."

Mr. Stackpole—"Philo and Forum;" Their Prejaration for Public Life."

Mr. Fuess—"The Art of Argumentation."

Mr. Hinman—"Debating at Andover."

GLEE CLUB TRIALS

The trials for the Glee Club will be held on Thursday evening in the Lecture Room of the Archaeology Building. Tenors are asked to report promptly at 6. 45 and the basses at 7. The men that sang on last year's club need not report at the trials. The list of the men that make the club will be printed in Saturday's issue of the Phillipian. Second trials will be given in October, affording another opportunity for those that do not make the club the first time.

The first regular rehearsal will be held Monday evening at 6.45 sharp. The old members of the club must report with the new at this time.

All men wishing to try for the position of pianist are asked to report Monday evening at 6.45 also.

(Signed) Leader.

TUITION NOW DUE

Tuition bills are now due, and should be paid at once. Any student who desires to have his bill sent home must call at the Treasurers office, and there make arrangements.

James C. Sawyer, Treasurer.

MUSICAL CLUB TRIALS

Owing to an unfortunate misunderstanding about the date of the Mandolin and Banjo club trials on Thursday last, not so many fellows came out as were expected. In view of this fact, trials will be held again for both clubs on Thursday evening at 6.45 in the basement of the Archaeology Building. Those who did not pass the trials last time will thus have an opportunity to try again. Those men, however, who passed the first time need not report again.

(Signed) Handley.

ANDOVER MEETS LOWELL TEXTILE SCHOOL.

Andover meets Lowell Textile School this afternoon on Brother's Field. It will be Lowell's first game. The Andover team will line up much as it did last Saturday except that Buehler will start left guard instead of Potter, Fletcher will take Owen's place at tackle and Rogers will probably start in place of Dunn. It is probable that other men will be given a try out during the game.

Lowell has always sent over a very good team for so early in the season, and this year's team bids fair to be even better than her teams of past years. The weather since the game of Saturday has been very unsatisfactory, but in spite of this fact the men have been working every day and their team-work has greatly improved.

Andover will probably line up with:—Van Brocklin 1. e., Jones 1. t., Buehler 1. g., Large c, York r. g., Fletcher r. t., Paine r. e., MacDonald g. b., Reynolds 1.h. b., Rogers r. h. b., Porter f. b.

On Thursday, Sept 16th, Abbot Academy opened with about the usual number of girls. Principal Means has been granted a year's leave of absence by the trustees, and Miss Katherine R. Kelsey has been appointed Acting-Principal. Miss Means will spend the greater part of her vacation in Europe.

Yale has won the intercollegaite Golf Association team championship for the fifth successive years.

A welcome innovation at Yale is the new football room which has been added to the gym. The room is in the space formerly devoted to the turkish baths and the swimming pool.

DOWNING LEADS EXETER

Addis Howard Downing '10 of Moylan, Pa. is Captain of the Exeter football team this fall. This is his fourth year at Exeter, and he has played center on the team for three years. Last year he was field captain in many of the games, and showed himself to be an able leader. Captain Downing is 20 years old weighs 184 pounds, and is 6 feet tall. He expects to enter the university of Pennsylvania next fall.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATIONS

All men who have nat yet had their physical examinations should call at the gymnasium afternoons between two and four to make their appointments with Dr. Page.

THE SOCIETY OF INQUIRY RE-CEPTION

The reception of the Society of Inquiry was held in the Archaeology Building on Saturday evening. The attendance was quite large. Pres. Nute opened the proceedings by making a short speech on the society's history and work. He then introduced Mr. Stackpole who spoke on the high moral standard which the society promotes. Pres. Nute then introduced Mr. Hinman. The latter spoke very well, encouraging the men to do their best to set a high moral standard for the school, and concluded by inviting everyone to join the society. Refreshments were then served, after which the meeting adjourned.

COLLEGE NOTES

Williams College opened Sept 16 with a total registration of 500, the largest in its history. There are 200 new men.

A game was recently played at Madison, Ind., which was remarkable in that neither the short-stop nor third baseman of the winning team had a fielding chance of any description. This is believed to be a world's record.

As neither C. H. Black, Jr. leader of the Banjo Club, nor F. S. Meacham leader of the Mandolin Club, returned to Andover this fall, B. H. Fonda of St. Albans, Vt. was elected leader of the latter, while H. C. Black of Seattle, Wash. has elected leader of the latter, while Fonda has played two years as first Mandolin and Black played guitar on the Banjo, and the flute on the Mandolin club last year.

ANDOVER'S SONGS

The words of the school songs are printed below for the convenience of the new men who have not yet learned them. The fellows should know them perfectly befor the Exeter game:

Old P. A.

We're here with the team once again,

Five hundred strong, to cheer them

So hand out old Andover's name, boys Across the field, and never yield! There's no hope today for poor Ex'ter,

For they are true, those boys in

Oh, Andover'll land, she's got the sand,

Give a cheer for old P. A. Chorus:

Fighting for old P. A., boys, Fighting with heart and soul. Tearing our way on to victory, Nearing the crimson goal. See how poor Ex'ter trembles, Andover wins today! Stand by the blue, we're always true To you and old P. A.

Andover Rah!

It's the same old Andover, We are here to win today! See poor Ex'ter fly to cover When the blue get in the fray, First down, Oh, this is easy, That goal is just before; Smash them through and make a touchdown

For this is where we score. Chorus:

All hail to old Andover, Victor crowned on many o field; Our crimson foeman tremble, And before the Blue must yield; On your feet, now all together, Give a cheer for Andover (Shouted Rah, Rah, Rah).

Lift your voices on high, Let your cheers rend the sky, For old Andover wins today. Oh, the boyss from old New Hampshire

Will learn a thing or two, When they meet with captain Large And the team that wears the Blue; Now the Ex'ter stands are silent, And the crimson banners fall, While the Blue sweeps on to victory, Let us cheer them one and all.

Chorus:

The Phillipian March Here comes the team, let's cheer them on,

Show them our hearts are true. Might always gains but courage wins, So will our boys in blue. We're here to win again,

And bound again to gain. We'll guard, protect and bear on high Old Andover's fair name.

Chorus:

Cheer, cheer, boys, cheer, cheer, For the game is surely ours. We're winning every point, We're heaping up the score. Our foemen tremble, For they cannot long prevail. With old Andover's grit and sand A team can never fail. c(k.h'pv.Oeg.uH b.- xaiesfvbgkqbg
