A SOCCER VICTORY

The Andover Team Overcomes Harvard Freshmen in a Poorly played Game

The Andover Soccer team won its first victory of the season by defeating the Harvard Freshmen last Saturday 2 to 1. Owing to a wet and muddy field, good team work and fast playing was extremely difficult. The Andover forwards were unable to keep the ball long, and their poor shooting lost several easy points. The Freshman forwards were quicker on their feet, but only succeeded in carrying the ball to within striking distance of Andover's goal a few times. Greene and Lawless were Harvard's best line men, and Baldwin, P. A., '09 made a strong back.

Kwan and Reilly were Andover's steadiest players, breaking up their opponent's attacks and aiding the forwards in their attacks.

The game was called at 3.15. Andover rushed the ball on the kick off directly before Harvard's goal, but failed to score. Several times the ball was advanced into the enemies' territory, but each time the strong Freshman backs kicked it out of danger.

Throughout the half, Andover kept the ball in the visitor's territory, though occasionally the opponents succeeded in invading her territory. About the middle of the half, a corner kick brought the ball between Harvard's goal post. In the ensuing scrimmage, Price kicked the ball over the line.

Score, Andover 1, Freshmen 0.

Shortly after this, the Freshmen forced the ball into Andover's penalty area, where the latter fouled. On the penalty kick, Green made an easy goal. No further score was made in the period.

Score, Andover 1, Freshmen 1.

Change in Exams.

An important change has been made in the date of the Harvard entrance examinations of June 10, 1910. These examinations have been transferred from the Harvard commencement week to the week immediately preceding; that is, they will begin on June 20, and end on June 25. This change will be of great benefit to all preparatory school students, who would otherwise have to wait for them a long time after their regular school session was over.

SWIMMING POOL REPORT

The Swimming Pool committee wishes to acknowledge the receipt of the following contribution:
R. Keeline, 1912, $100.00

This amount brings the total sum to date to $1960. $1960 may seem a small amount, but when the number of fellows who have given money is considered, it will be seen that some have very generously helped. However, it will take the co-operation of all of the fellows to make this pool a possibility by next year. Now and during the Christmas vacation is the time to climb on the band wagon and boost, and boost hard. What most of the lukewarm fellows who have not even tried to get money need, is a little eye-opener to show them how they are only spiting themselves, as they are only putting off an affair that is bound to succeed in spite of their seeming lack of interest. All we ask of you is to make an attempt to get some cash for the fund; whether the amount is large or small. Try first your family and relatives, then your friends and friends of the school. If you do this and do it honestly, and fail, then—try someone else. We have got to have every fellow doing all he can to raise money in order to have the pool by next fall. Otherwise it will be left for the school next year to raise the balance, instead of their having the pleasure of its actual use.

One thing that has raised some adverse criticism is the lack of small contributions on the fund list. The fund itself is indeed small, and the list is made up of very few names. That shows one thing plainly. The large majority of the fellows have been content to stand by and twiddle their thumbs. They agree that it will be a nice thing to have the pool, and won't it be fine to take a swim instead of gym, and then they forget about it. It is to these fellows that the committee makes an appeal to get busy. If you can get $10 or $5, why bring it to any one of the committee and don't wait until the committee has to come to you. Let us see if we can't have more of the fellows show that they have the interest of the school at heart, and prove that Andover spirit is as wealthy in its love for the welfare of the school as it is in athletics. All out and boost the pool fund!

Second Team Reports

The picture of the second football team will be taken this afternoon at 2.15 in Sherman's studio. All members should be on hand promptly. (Signed) MANAGER

SCHOOL CALENDAR

Calendars Will Be Distributed from Archaeology Building Early Next Week

The Phillips Andover Calendar for 1910 is at present at press, and will be ready for distribution in about a week. The calendar is on similar lines to the ones issued in the past and which have been so successful. There will be pictures of the different teams and buildings, and a group picture of the whole school. All the cuts are new, and the prints should be especially good on that account.

All who have not yet paid their subscriptions are asked to see M. J. or P. Hayes at once. The calendars will be distributed from the basement of the Archaeology building in exchange for the receipts that have been given out by the collectors. Further notices will be given out in chapel.

Before a large and appreciative audience of students and townspeople assembled in the Academy chapel Tuesday evening, Mr. Ellsworth, secretary of the Century Publishing Company, delivered the first of his illustrated lectures, the subject being "The Guns of Sumter."

The lecture was, as its title indicates, on the Civil War. Mr. Ellsworth began by giving a short sketch of the conditions that led to the war. He said that the North found the slaves unprofitable, while the South was almost entirely dependent on slave labor to cultivate their enormous fields of cotton, rice and sugar cane. This caused a natural feeling of bitterness between the two sections. Then Mr. Ellsworth told of the events that led to the outbreak of the war.

By the aid of maps and drawings he presented a most convincing picture of the great struggle, and told the story of its battles and leaders. Mr. Ellsworth exhibited an unusual and striking set of maps showing the steady retreat of the Confederates before a foe much stronger in numbers and better supplied with ammunition, food and clothing. He said that the South fought as well as the North, but was crushed by the large armies that were sent against her, while her own forces could not be repleted. Mr. Ellsworth closed his lecture with the story of Lincoln's assassination, by whose death the South lost her greatest friend.

One of the large number of striking pictures exhibited by Mr. Ellsworth was that of an issue of a Confederate paper, which was printed on the "blank" side of a piece of common wall paper.

Track Call

Captain Eames will issue a call for candidates for the track team, in a few days. The new men in particular are urged to come out, as much valuable material is looked for from that source. To develop a winning track team, it is essential that the work be started as early as possible, and to that end the winter track squad must be selected at once. It is scarcely necessary to urge the necessity of beginning early in the season. After Christmas, the squad will practice regularly on the board track.

Basketball Practice

Basketball practice will be held in the gymnasium this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Since the first practice, a large number of men have come out, and from a modest beginning, the prospects for a successful season have grown very bright. To insure keen competition for the places on the team, all men in school who have ever played basketball or who want to try the game here are urged to report this afternoon.

Glee Club Rehearsal

The last Glee Club rehearsal of the term will be held next Monday evening in the lecture room of the Archaeology building. Mr. Manning will be present and it is imperative that the entire club report at the final rehearsal.

The leader takes this opportunity to warn the men about their studies. To insure for the club a successful season, all the members must be free from term conditions. The men are urged to put in a week's hard work now, so as not to handicap the club by having to take make-ups at the beginning of the winter term.

Members should note that the rehearsal will be held in the Archaeology building and not in Pearson Hall. All must report promptly at 7.45.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

December 8, 1909

The Swimming Pool committee has labored unceasingly to arouse the interest of the student body in the proposition of building a swimming pool. So far their appeals have infused only a half-hearted enthusiasm into the fellows. Andover students have never before attempted a similar undertaking, and now that the first enterprise has been launched, it is the duty of every man to see it through. Many of us have not made one single effort. There is nothing to be lost by trying, and there is everything to gain. The Phillipian will print in the near future, copies of the plans of the buildings. This, it is hoped will aid the fellows in securing contributions.

It seems necessary to remind some men that magazines and newspapers are not to be taken from the reading room.

A Worcester Debate

A letter has recently been received from the secretary of the debating society of Worcester Academy suggesting that the winner of the Andover-Exeter debate have a debate with that institution. Such a contest, it is hoped, would stimulate a greater interest in inter-scholastic debating. This letter has been given to the Debating Union for consideration.

Pot Pourri Artists

More candidates for the position of artist on the Pot Pourri Board are needed. The success of this publication depends to a great extent on the quality of its drawings.

To insure keen competition, a greater number of candidates than have so far reported is necessary. New applicants may hand their names to C. W. Arnold, Bancroft 6.

Senior Basketball Squad

In response to the call made by Captain Coffin, the following men reported for the Senior basketball team:

Centers: Scudder, Tupper, and Hemingway; forwards; Ervick, Paterson, Phillips, and Bayne; guards; Champlain, Owen, Hoeftlich, and Dowling.

Every fellow who knows the least thing about the game should come out. With the exception of Captain Coffin; none of these men played on the team last year, and in order to develop a good team, there must be a large number of fellows to choose from.

Inquiry

At the regular meeting of the Society of Inquiry, Sunday evening, Mr. David R. Porter, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. for preparatory schools, was the speaker. Mr. Porter gave a most interesting talk on the subject of "Will" and its influence on our daily problems and the religious sides of our lives. He also spoke about the coming crusade which will be directed against all forms of dishonesty and evil in our public institutions.

Mr. Porter began his talk by telling the fellows how by compelling themselves to do as well as they could some duty that was particularly disagreeable to them, they might develop their will power. He said that a great many fellows recognize what is right or wrong, but lack the will power to take a firm stand on the side of right. He closed his speech by giving a short, vivid sketch of the work of Peter the Hermit in behalf of the First Crusade. He compared that crusade with the present one that is being started and supported by some of the most prominent men in some of our colleges and preparatory schools. He said that the old Crusaders employed force and violence to punish the dispoilers of the Holy Land, but the new Crusaders, with Christ as their leader will seek to reform the private and national evils of North America by good example and vigorous but peaceful action.

Hygiene Lecture
This week Dr. Page will give two more lectures on hygiene. The classes of 1912 and 1913 will report at the chapel on Thursday and Friday at 2.15, and 1910 and 1911 on the same days at 3.00. Old men need not be present, but the attendance of all new men is required.

Gymnasium
All old men who have not taken their physical examinations or who have not completed their tests, should report at the gymnasium
on Thursday or Friday at 2.30.
New men should report this afternoon at five. Next Wednesday an opportunity will be given to all who desire to raise their gymnasium mark, to take one or more of the tests again.

Princeton Coach
Although Princeton will not lay any plans for next year's football season, or select many of the coaches until after the rules committee meets and determines just what will be added or eliminated from football, it was unofficially reported that William W. Roper,
'02, will again assume control as head coach.

Archaeology Notes
THE STONE AGE
Mr. Moorehead is now at work on "The Stone Age," with two stenographers, and hopes to have the manuscript in the hands of the printer early in the spring. The work will be published in two volumes of nearly a thousand pages and will have about eight hundred illustrations. Museum men and archaeologists all over the United States have contributed illustrations and many persons familiar with ancient life in America will write articles for the book. There is at present $49980 orders in for
"The Stone Age."

Andover Represented
The following wearers of the "Y" who are now in college have prepared at Andover:
Football: Andrus, Hobbs, Logan, Haines, Murphy, Kilpatrick, Daly.
Track: Andrus, Kilpatrick.
Baseball: Murphy, Logan.

Chapel Speaker
At the morning service next Sunday the speaker will be the Rev. James S. Williamson of Haverhill, Mass. According to the usual custom of the principal occupying the pulpit at one of the last Sundays of each term, Mr.
Stearns will speak at vespers.

Last night the society of Inquiry made its annual fall collection of articles for Dr. Grenfell and for the Seaman's Friend society of Boston. An unusually large number of articles were contributed, especially magazines. The society desires to thank contributors for this generous response to their appeal.

The Phillipian has undertaken the difficult task of picking an all-class team. The selection has been made in consultation with the captains and coaches of the different teams, and nearly all agree upon the following men. In many cases the choice for a position may waver between two or more men, but everyone must agree that it would be harder to pick a stronger aggregation than the one in print.

ALUMNI NOTES

John M. Cates, '03, was in Andover last Friday and Saturday as the guest of Mr. Stearns. Cates has just finished his third season as coach of the football team of the Naval Academy at Annapolis. After a short visit to his old home in Maine, Cates will return to Washington and then leave for Colorado where he has a position in connection with the forest reclamation service of the government.

The Senior class of the Yale Law School held its elections last Friday. Bernard Reilly, P. A. '07, was elected president of the class.

Captain Daly of the Yale team for 1911 has chosen Edward Coy, captain of this year's team, to be head coach next fall. Coy prepared at Hotchkiss, and during his Freshman year there he captained a championship class team.

Charles C. Clough, '07, for two years, captain of the school nine, and later its coach, spent a week in town recently as the guest of Principal Stearns. Mr. Clough will pass the winter in northern New Hampshire under advice of his physician and because of poor health. During the past year Mr. Clough has been connected with a Bond house in New York City.
