DARTMOUTH WINS 11 TO 4

Change in Andover's Infield Works Well. The Outfield Seems to Be the Weak Spot

In a game full of hard hitting and brilliant fielding, Dartmouth defeated Andover, 11 to 4, Wednesday afternoon. The game was fast from the start, and in the first inning Andover started the scoring with two runs, which Reilly drove in with a beautiful three-base hit. Some changes were made in the line-up of the team and the new infield worked very smoothly. With J. C. Dougherty on first, Captain Burdett on second, and Boles at shortstop, a good combination seems to have been discovered. Boles' work was especially good and he handled cleanly a number of difficult chances. Captain Burdett played a good game at second and secured two nice singles at bat. Reilly's three-base hit was the feature of the game and was a line drive to deep center field.

C. Gile started in the box for Andover, and during the six innings he played, pitched good ball, for the visitors were able to secure but seven hits off his delivery.

The outfield was a trifle weak and the men had some little trouble in deciding what territory to cover, and on one occasion an easy fly dropped between Middlebrook and Wells.

Mitchell played the best game for Dartmouth, both in pitching and batting, as he held Andover to six hits and made four of Dartmouth's hits. Captain Norton also played a good game at second base and Daly in center field fielded well and made one sensational catch. Brady at first base was slightly injured in the seventh inning, and was forced to give way to Steen. Orr, an old Exeter man, covered third base for the visitors and although his fielding was not very brilliant, his batting helped swell Dartmouth's score.

Andover scored two runs in the first inning. Boles reached first on Conroy's error. Burdett fouled out. Dougherty singled to right, Boles going to third. Wright sacrificed Dougherty to second, and Reilly scored both men with his smashing triple. Wells was out, Orr to Brady.

Dartmouth made their first run in the second inning. Daly was safe on Gile's error. Emerson sacrificed and Mitchell singled, scoring Daly.

Andover made one more in the second on a base on balls, a sacrifice and a wild throw. Dartmouth scored in the fourth on a base on balls, a sacrifice and a

CLASS BASEBALL STARTS

Seniors Win from Juniors, While Junior Middlers Defeat Middlers

Yesterday afternoon in the first class game of the series, the Middlers lost to 1912, by the score of 5 to 0. The game was well played by both teams, considering that this was the opening game. Sternberger pitched the whole game for the winners. He pitched a good game, passing only three men and striking out six. The Middlers could not make hits off him at the time they were needed and so were unable to score. Brown was hit very hard at the right time, although he struck out twelve of his opponents. The feature of the game was a catch made by C. White. The ball, which was hit by Mann, looked good for a home run, but White, after a long run and jump into the air, succeeded in getting it. The score:

Summary: Struck out, by Brown 12, Sternberger 6; bases on balls, off Brown 3; off Sternberger 3; passed balls, Smith; double plays, Harlow (unassisted), Shannon to Harlow; umpires, French and McIntosh. Time, 2h 25m.

The Juniors were defeated by the Seniors yesterday afternoon in a very slow and listless game, by the score of 10 to 1. The game only lasted five innings, on account of the delay in starting. The field was very wet and slippery, and consequently many errors were made on both sides. The playing on both teams was ragged, especially the playing of the Juniors. Foster started the game for the Seniors pitching fairly well, striking out four men and giving but one base on balls. Freyfogle was put in in the last inning and struck out two men. Eyre started in the box

SENIOR CLASS MEETING

Smoking on Senior Fence Discussed. Class Day Officers Elected

At a meeting of the Senior Class on Thursday morning, Mr. Stearns announced that the faculty had granted the Seniors permission to smoke on the Senior fence. Mr. Stearns said that this had been done after much consideration on the part of the different members. The main object is to make the campus a more general gathering place for the fellows after dinner. He said that he hoped the school would, in a way, carry out the same custom that Princeton has, that of gathering on the campus and singing. The fellows are obliged to smoke on the fence and nowhere else. No fellows, except those registered as seniors in the catalogue, are allowed to use the fence. It is up to the Seniors to enforce this rule, and if they do not, the faculty will have to take the matter into their own hands.

The following men were selected for the Class Day offices: Scott H. Paradise of West Medford was elected Class Orator; R. S. F. Randolph of Morristown, N. J., Class Poet; Quentin Reynolds of Montclair, N. J., Prophet; and Harold C. Stearns of Punkirk, N. Y., Historian.

Debating Team

The following instructors are coaching the Academy debating team for the debate with Exeter: Mr. Allen on the arguments, Mr. Fuess on the delivery, and Mr. Hinman will coach the alternates. If anyone has any information on the question, it will be greatly appreciated if he would give it to either Baxter or one of the coaches. It is essential that everyone that can, will help the team in any way possible, in order that the record of victories for Exeter may be wiped out.

Assistant Baseball Manager Elected

At a school election held after chapel this morning, Kenneth Douglas of New York, N. Y., was elected assistant baseball manager for the coming year. The complete 2.00—Baseball game. Andover returns were as follows:

K. Douglass	126
J. M. Dupont	46
J. H. Gridley	100
N. Williams	101

Banjo Club Leader Elected

David Alled Reed, Jr., of Springfield, Mass., has been elected leader of the Banjo club for the coming year.

NEW HAMPSHIRE TODAY

New Pitcher Will Probably Be Tried Out

The baseball game this afternoon is with the strong New Hampshire College team. This is one of the strongest of the New England colleges, and Andover will have to play fast ball to win. The new infield that was tried out in the Dartmouth game will be used again today, and the combination should prove a strong one. Carl will probably start in the box for Andover, with Gile in reserve. Some changes have also been made in the outfield that should help the fielding of the team.

The team will probably line-up as follows.

Boles ss	-----
Burdett (Capt.) 2b	-----
Dougherty 1b	-----
Wright c	-----
Reilly 3b	-----
Beedy, Kresser lf	-----
Thompson, H. Middlebrook rf	-----

Golf Team

All fellows who intend to go out for the golf team please meet on the 1.30 car for Lawrence this afternoon.

Musical Club Picture

The pictures of all the different musical clubs will be taken Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock sharp at Mr. Sherman's studio. All the fellows please be prompt.

Signed MANAGER

Philo

The regular meeting of the Philomathean society was held Friday night in the society's room. Quinn gave the topics of the week, and the select reading was rendered by Butler, who chose for his subject, "That Old Sweetheart of Mine," by James Whitcomb Riley. The question for debate read: "Resolved, That the Philipinos should be immediately granted their independence." The affirmative was upheld by Lawrason and Bruce, while Randolph and Phillips took the negative. The vote of the house on the merits of the question was 16 to 5, in favor of the negative. The vote on the argument was 13 to 5, in favor of the negative. After a discussion of the question from the floor, and some miscellaneous business, Mr. Stackpole gave a very interesting critique. The meeting was then adjourned.

April 23, 1910

The speaker at both services of Chapel to-morrow will be Mr. Stackpole.

The Society of Inquiry will hold its regular weekly meeting to-morrow evening at 7.00 p. m. This will be an open meeting under the leadership of Hobson.

A few of the trials for the Harvard Freshman track meet were held Thursday afternoon and the following men qualified:

440 yard dash—Parker, 1st; Davis, 2nd; Wilcox, 3rd; Jackson, 4th.

880 yards run—Hayes, 1st; Kennedy, 2nd; Butts, 3rd; Dyer, 4th.

ADVISORY BOARD ACTION

At a meeting of the Advisory Board held last night, the following motion in regard to track athletics was made: Directly after the Exeter meet, a class meet will be held in which numerals will be given to the members of the winning class teams. No "A" men or AAA men will be allowed to compete. A man winning a first, second or third place is considered to have made his class team.

The following resolution was adopted at the meeting of the Advisory Board: The names of all men who have not paid their subscriptions in football, track and baseball by May 1, will be published in the Phillipian of the following Wednesday.

Abbot Recital

The recital in honor of the service and memory of Professor Samuel Morse Downes, teacher in Abbot Academy from 1861 to 1907, was given by Mr. Ernest Perabo, pianist, assisted by Mr. Fred T. Mahn, violinist, and Mr. Carl Barth, cellist, in Davis Hall last Thursday afternoon. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, and many people from Bradford were in attendance.

Mr. Downes was an instructor in Bradford Academy from 1869 to 1908. Mr. Perabo, the life-long friend of Mr. Downes, was the chief soloist on the program. Mr. Mahn is one of the first violinists in the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and Mr. Barth is likewise a member of the Symphony Orchestra, in addition to playing in the Hoffman String Quartet.

The following program was rendered:

- Sonata in D minor, op. 31, No. 2 Beethoven
- 1. Largo-Allegro
- 2. Adagio
- 3. Allegretto

Mr. Perabo

- Sonata for piano and cello, Op. 183 Raff
- 2. Scherzo
- 3. Andante
- 4. Finale

Mr. Perabo and Mr. Barth.

- Elegy for violin and piano, Op. 10 Ernst
- With an introduction by Spohr
- Mr. Mahn and Mr. Perabo
- Trio in B flat, Op. 99 Schubert
- 1. Allegro Moderato
- 2. Andante
- 3. Scherzo
- 4. Finale

Messrs. Mahn, Barth, and Perabo

Change in Schedule

On account of the baseball game on Tuesday afternoon with Colby College, all of the gym, track and tennis classes will be omitted. The 4.07 and 5.07 recitations will begin at 4.37 and 5.37 respectively.

for the Juniors, but was hit freely, so Johnson went in in the third and pitched fairly well. The feature of the game was Burnham's home run in the second. The Seniors made five hits, while the Juniors were held to one. 1910 made five errors and 1913 eight. The Seniors scored five runs in the first inning.

Hardy up first doubled to left field and stole third. Arnold received a pass and stole second. Burnham struck out. Hardy scored on Martin's grounder. Look safe on McCormick's error, Arnold scoring. Paine safe when Wood fumbled, Martin scoring. Dougherty received a base on balls. Torrey received a pass, scoring. Look Foster flied to McCormick, who touched second, putting out Torrey. Four runs. 1910 scored four more runs in the second, on a home run, five passes and a single. Two more runs were scored by 1910 in the third inning on a hit and two errors. The Juniors' only run was made in the fourth. Thompson received a pass, went to third on a wild throw, and scored when Burnham threw over Torrey's head. Johnson flied out to Look, Robinson out, Martin to Paine. Wood singled, but was run down between first and second. One run.

After two were down in the fifth Norton doubled to center. Daly drew a pass. Wright motioned to throw to third and the ball slipped from his hand. On recovering the ball he threw to Burdett to catch the runner off second, and Burdett threw the ball to Reilly. When Norton tried to score from third Reilly threw to Wright, but the ball hit the runner and both Norton and Daly scored when the ball rolled to the grandstand. Andover scored her last run in the fifth. Captain Burdett singled to left. Dougherty flied out. Wright was safe on a fielder's choice. Wells bunted to Mitchell and Burdett scored on the put-out to first. Middlebrook grounded out.

Dartmouth scored two in the sixth on three hits, and in the seventh made the game certain by scoring five more.

Daly opened the seventh with a triple and scored on Emerson's single. Mitchell hit safely. Norton flied to Ripley. Chadbourne drew a pass. Conroy singled, scoring Emerson and Mitchell. Orr scored Conroy with a single. This ended the scoring of the game, with the final score, Dartmouth 11, Andover 4.

NOTES OF THE GAME

One good feature of the game was the hitting ability shown by the Andover team. Mitchell last year shut out Andover without a single hit.

Reilly has been hitting the ball hard and so far holds the record for extra base hits.

Orr, the Dartmouth third baseman, played on the Exeter baseball team in 1908.

Emerson made an exceedingly difficult catch in center field when he caught a long drive a few inches from the ground.

Brady, the Dartmouth first baseman, in addition to being a good baseball player, is Dartmouth's main stay in basketball.

Choral Service

At the choral service a week from to-morrow, Parker's "The Lord Is My Light," Macfarlane's "God Is Our Refuge," and Waring's "The Lord Is My Shepherd," will be sung. The final rehearsal will be held in the chapel at seven o'clock sharp Monday evening.
