ANDOVER VICTORIOUS

Blue Triumphs over the Red in Great Game by the Score of 5 to 4.
Large Crowd in Attendance.

The weather for the game was ideal, not a cloud being in sight in the sky. As early as 1.30 the crowds began to arrive, and the Exeter team was already in the field. A steady stream of automobiles flowed through the gates and the outfield fences were lined with machines bearing the colors of the two schools.

The Andover team appeared on the field shortly before two o'clock, and at the same time the Andover student body, headed by the band, could be heard approaching in the distance.

The Exeter student body entered the field first and took their seats in the south stands. They were followed shortly by the Andover men, who marched around the field, and were given a cheer by the Exeter men. Andover responded with a hearty cheer for Exeter, and followed with a cheer for Wingate, the Exeter captain.

At 2.45 Umpire Van Cleave announced the batteries: Andover, Ripley, pitcher; Wright, catcher. Exeter, Litchfield, pitcher; Donovan, catcher.

At the Theatres

Hollis—"The Prosecutor."
Shubert—"Goddess of Liberty,"

The Parade

The parade will start in front of Chap's at 7.30 p.m. All the fellows are urged to come dressed in night gowns and other negligee costumes. It is hoped that every fellow will stay in the line of march as celebrations in the past have been marred by the absence of many fellows who do not join in the parade, but keep on the sidewalk among the spectators. A new custom will be innovated in that the fellows will buy torches, which may be obtained for thirty-five cents apiece, from a fellow, at the beginning of the march. These torches will be filled with oil and will last during the whole parade and serve to keep it lighted up, which has been impossible before, because the fireworks did not last long enough.

Class Day Subscriptions

Those members of the Senior class who have not yet paid their Class Day subscription are urgently requested to do so at once. The committee as yet have not received half enough money to make the Class Day exercises a success. Every fellow owes it to the school and class to pay his share at once. The money may be handed to any fellow on the committee. Those on the committee are: C. Martin, chairman; R. M. Thompson, G. Champlin, W. Nute, K. Reynolds.

Signed CHAIRMAN

Commencement Speakers

The speakers at commencement this year will be: Principal Stearns, Dean F. S. Jones of Yale College, Edward S. Martin, P. A. '07, the well-known writer, and Dr. Jokicadi Takamine, a Japanese scientist.

Business Manager

The following are out for business manager of the Phillipian: J. R. Look, E. Lord, J. R. Selden, F. W. Smith, and P. Hayes.

Class Day Invitations

Seniors who have not obtained their Class Day invitations can get them any morning after chapel until Thursday, June 9.
