COLLEGE EXAMINATIONS

Some New Changes in Yale Entrance Exams

There have been some very radical changes made in the entrance requirements of Yale College the past year. In Latin especially the conditions of admission have been materially changed. The Latin Grammar examination is to be divided into two parts, as before: (a) Questions on forms and, (b) Questions on syntax; but in addition the candidate will be presumed to have read the required amount of Cicero, upon the text of which the questions will be based.

The Latin Composition examination will be a connected passage of English prose to be translated into Latin. The passage will be based on Cicero's speeches for Archias and on the Manilian Law, and will require careful study of the same.

In Caesar and Nepos the candidate must now be formally certified by his instructors as having read an amount of Caesar and Nepos, no restrictions, equivalent to the first four books of "Caesar's Gallic War." These passages will be chiefly at sight.

Cicero-Sallust, too, requires the candidate to be formally certified by his instructors as having read an amount of Cicero-Sallust equivalent to all four of Cicero's orations against Cataline, for Archias and on the Manilian Law. The reading may be done anywhere within the following range: Cicero's speeches, letters and De Senectute, and Sallust's Cataline Jugurthine War. The only portions prescribed for minute examination are Cicero's speeches for Archias and on the Manilian Law, and passages are set for sight translation.

In Vergil-Ovid, the same condition of certification now applies—the student must be formally certified as having read an amount of Vergil-Ovid equivalent to the first six books of the Aeneid. The reading may be done anywhere within the following range: Vergil's Bucolics, Georgics, and Aeneid, and Ovid's Metamorphoses Fasti and Tristie. The only portions of the reading subscribed for minute examination are Aeneid, I, II, and either IV or VI, and passages are set for translation at sight. Questions on prosody and on the scansion of dactylic hexameter asked.

Below is a list of the requirements for entrance to Yale College as they now stand. From this list it will be observed that it is only necessary to offer one mod-

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT

Tennis

The tennis doubles matches in each class have been finished, and the winning teams are:

1911—Sperry and Gross.

1913—Gaines and Sherman.

1913—Walworth and O'Neil.

1914—Page and Dickinson.

The finals of these should be played off as soon as possible.

The Academy Team Meets the Strong Harvard Freshmen This Afternoon

Andover meets the Harvard Freshmen at three o'clock today on Brothers Field. This is one of the hardest and most important games on the schedule this year and is bound to be very interesting. Last year Andover was beaten by the Crimson Freshmen, 5 to 0, but hopes this year to reverse the score. The Freshmen have an exceedingly strong team, having won a number of important victories already this year, defeating both St. Mark's and Groton. Last Wednesday they played a 0 to 0 game with Exeter, so a great deal depends upon the outcome of the contest this afternoon. It will also give the coaches an opportunity to compare the teams of the rival Phillips Academies. The team will be somewhat handicapped owing to the fact that a number of the men were conditioned at the last rating; it is doubly important, therefore that every man in school be on hand this afternoon and give his most earnest support to the team. The cheering has its part in our victories every time, and so it is earnestly hoped that every fellow will do his best to make it successful this afternoon. The probable lineup will be as follows:

Van Brocklin, lc.
York, Gile, lt.
Moore, Lahr, lg.
Hay, c.
Randall, rg.
R. Jones, rt.
Harlow, re.
H. Jones, French, qb.
Rogers, lhb.
Mahan, Martin, fb.
Sawyer, rhb.

Forum

At the regular meeting of Forum held last night the select reading was rendered by George P. Wyer. The Topics of the Week were given by R. P. Palmer, and the extempore by Wm. E. Gould. The subject of the debate was, "Resolved, That a Republican victory in the next presidential election would be for the best interests of the United States." The vote on the merits of the question resulted in a victory for the affirmative. The leader of the affirmative was Wm. H. Wiley, assistant, E. C. Owang. Leader of the negative, F. W. Smith; assistant, A. D. Sturtevant. Mr. Crawford was the critic at the meeting.

NEW SCHOOL SONG

A new school song has just been written by Heywood J. Jones of Bangor, Me., and has been adopted by the Advisory Board as one of the regular school songs. The title of this song is "Andover's Way." The trouble with the songs at present is that they are only appropriate at the football games against Exeter. The new song does away with this trouble, for it may be sung at a baseball game or a track meet as well as at a football game. There is only one place where the name "Exeter" appears, and it comes in such a way that any other name may be substituted to suit the occasion. "Andover's Way" will undoubtedly be a great addition to the Andover songs. The song has gone to the publishers and will probably be out within a week, when it will be on sale by Robert N. Jones, Clement 12, at twenty-five cents a copy.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

October 22, 1910

The Exeter football game is not far away, now, and the school should be making preparations to meet its rival. It is absolutely necessary for the fellows to learn the cheers and songs before the game comes off. The singing and cheering have always a conspicuous part in Andover-Exeter games, and this game will probably be as much a contest in cheering as in football.

The songs will probably be practiced during this afternoon's game. Tonight will be held the first mass meeting of the season. It will start at about seven o'clock in the gymnasium. Leader Norman Williams of the Glee Club will be present to lead the songs, and Dr. Page has arranged to have the orchestra on hand to accompany the fellows in singing, and to furnish music for the stag dance which will be held after the mass meeting. Every fellow in the school should be present at this meeting, and make it a success.

Later on, mass meetings will be held at which speeches will be made by members of the football team and of the faculty.

At a meeting of the old men held after chapel yesterday morning, Norman Williams of Woodstock, Vermont, was elected manager of hockey for this year. The position was left open because Ottley, who was elected last year, did not return to school.

Philo

The regular meeting of Philo was held last night, and a large number of new men were admitted to the society. The topics of the week were rendered by Butler, and Martinez read a selection from Dickens' "Pickwick Papers." The subject of the debate was "Resolved, That the amount of property transferable by inheritance should be limited by statute." The open vote before the debate was 12 to 2 in favor of the negative, and the vote after the debate was 14 to 2 in favor of the affirmative. President Tompkins voted with the majority. The leader of the affirmative was Chutter, assistant, Rogers; leader of the negative, Platt, assistant, Sugarman. Mr. Tower, the critic, gave the society several helps towards the development of good debating.

The program for the next meeting of Philo will be as follows: Select Reading, Bruce; Topics of the Week, Dupont; Debate, "Resolved, That the best way for a nation to promote peace is to be constantly prepared for war."

Affirmative, leader, Dryden; assistant, Shepardson. Negative, leader, Dyke; assistant, Wilson.

Middlers Defeat Juniors

The Middlers defeated the Junior Middlers in a closely contested soccer game Wednesday afternoon, by a score of 2 to 0. The game was fast throughout. Captain Kwan and Tripp excelled for 1912, scoring a goal apiece, while Boles and Dunscombe played a good game for the lower classmen. The lineup:

Repeating Shotguns

USED IN THE U. S. ARMY.

The U. S. Army authorities know a gun; that is why, when they decided to equip some troops with repeating shotguns, they selected the Winchester in preference to all other makes. The experts of the U. S. Ordnance Board also know a gun; that's why, after submitting a Winchester Repeating Shotgun to all sorts of tests, they pronounced it safe, sure, strong and simple. If you want a shotgun—buy the one whose strength and reliability led the U. S. Army authorities to select it and the U. S. Ordnance Board to endorse it—that's the Winchester.

CLASS GAMES

Last Wednesday on the Old Campus 1911 scored its first victory over 1914 by a score of 5 to 0. Throughout the first two periods the ball changed hands several times; although 1911 seemed to have the advantage. The only touchdown was made by Captain Wright, whose line-plunging seldom failed to break through '14. Champlin punted out, but the goal was missed. Ripley played an exceptionally good game at end. Although '14 was outplayed and from the first proved too weak, they put up a plucky fight and did very well to hold '11 down for only one touchdown.

The lineup was as follows:

1911		1914
Nute, lc.	lc. Dougherty, Page
Hudner, lt.	lt. Roberts
Butts, lg.	lg. Cole, Durfee
Walradt, c.	c. Vandergrift
Champlin rg.	rg. Sutton
Dougherty, rt.	rt. Cobb, Spaulding
Donaldson, qb.	qb. Johnson
Ripley, re.	re. Lindsay
Wright, captain lhb.	lhb. Oliphant
Meador, rhb.	rhb. Dougherty, Hennessey
Thompson, Frye, fb.	fb. Gibbons, Tenney

Between the halves of the 1911-1914 game on Wednesday, 1912 defeated 1913 in another close game by the same score as the 1911-1914 game, 6 to 0. The game was a hard contest from beginning to end, and good, plucky playing was shown throughout. The touchdown was made in the second period by Bordeaux, who recovered the ball on a fumble, and ran with it the entire length of the field. The only other feature of the game was a long run by Bowman just before time was called. The lineup:

1913		1912
Eyre, captain, lc.	lc. Darling
Finn, lt.	lt. Graff
Shaver, Van Meider, lg.	lg. Gridley
Poole, Wiley, c.	c. Dupont
Watson, Durfee, rg.	rg. Perez, Barney
Dickerman, rt.	rt. Hooker, capt.
Theobald, Emerson, Sheldon, re.	re. Kneen, S. Brady
Bowman, qb.	qb. Reed
O'Neil, Myer, lhb.	lhb. Tilton
Gardner, Rosenfield, rhb.	rhb. Washburn
Robinson, fb.	fb. Bordeaux

The Seniors defeated the Juniors Wednesday afternoon on the Old Campus, by a score of 6 to 0. Although the victory was not easily won, still things seemed to be in 1911's favor from the start. Reilly, Spry, Rose and Beedy excelled for the Seniors, while Captain Lee was 1914's star.

The lineup:

1911		1914
Goal keeper, Smeltzer, captain		goal keeper, Leonard
Hall, Mann, rfb.	rfb. Foster
