CLASS FOOTBALL BEGINS

First Division to Play on Brothers Field at 2.15

This afternoon the new football system will be given its first try-out. The Seniors will line up against the first year men at 2.15 on Brothers Field for the first game. During the halves, the Middlers and Junior Middlers will meet each other. Both games will be watched with the greatest interest, as it will be from these teams that the varsity will be picked. No hard scrimmages have been given as yet on account of the hot weather. A number of substitutes will probably be used this afternoon.

The second division teams are to play on the Old Campus, the Seniors vs. the Juniors, and the Middlers vs. the Junior Middlers.

The officials for the first division are as follows: Dr. Page, referee; Mr. Keep, umpire; Mr. Stackpole, field judge; Clyde Timbie, linesman.

The following is a list of the class football coaches:

1912, Mr. Tower.
1913, Mr. Bryan.
1914, Mr. Clough.
1915, Mr. Poynter.

Inquiry

Mr. Crawford of the faculty will be the speaker at the weekly meeting of the Society of Inquiry on Sunday evening. Mr. Crawford graduated from this school in 1900, and was captain of the track team in his Senior year. He went to Williams and there won his letter in the middle distance run. As a member of the faculty he returned to Andover last year.

Term Bills

Bills for tuition, room rent, breakage, deposits, and athletic tax will be sent home. Students who wish to pay their own accounts will please call at the treasurer's at once. Class room privileges will be denied those whose accounts are not settled on or before October 2.

TREASURER.

THE WORK AT LAWRENCE

Mr. Clough Submits his Report.

Headquarters for Industrial Work at Lawrence

Andover, Mass, Sept. 20, 1911
To the Students of Phillips Academy:

As your director of the "Phillips Academy Educational Union," I beg to submit the following report of the summer work (June 9th to July 28th).

Conducting the school through the summer was a scheme which has not been usually followed. Considering the extreme heat, which made big classes impossible, the average attendance was quite satisfactory. Below is given the record of attendance:

Total number of Lithuanians enrolled	45
Total number of Syrians enrolled	30
Average attendance of Lithuanians	13
Average attendance of Syrian	6

Lawrence Work Notice

The work in Lawrence starts on Monday night. Four fellows are needed for Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings. Anyone who is interested in this work and who is willing and able to give up one evening a week to it should see Mr. Clough and talk it over with him.

Collection for Library

Last Wednesday morning a collection was taken in chapel for the support of the school library. The library is sustained entirely by the subscriptions of the fellows. This year's collection was about $130. If there are any who intend to give more, they should do so at once.

The plan for the classes was the same as that followed in the winter and spring terms. Reading, writing, spelling and conversational classes were held, and a chance was given the men to come to Andover and enjoy outdoor exercise, which many of them did.

The teaching was done by two Andover undergraduates, J. C. Campopiano and A. B. Bruce, who live in Lawrence, and by Frank K. Thresh, Dr. John M. Thomson, and George P. Boothman of Lawrence, who became interested in the work through the local Y. M. C. A.

To the able assistance of these men is due the success of the summer session.

I wish to thank the student body for its loyal support in carrying on the work.

Respectfully submitted,
CHARLES C. CLOUGH,
Director

Notice

The second trial for the Glee Club and Choir will be held Monday night at 6.45 in the lecture room of the Archaeology Building. All men who were unable to come out to the last trial are urged to come.

Signed,

Means Prize

The following list gives the subjects for the forty-fourth annual competition for the Means prizes. These prizes were founded in 1867 by William G. Means of Boston, and are awarded for selected declamations. The prizes are $20, $12 and $8 respectively. Students in any class may compete, and after the essays are handed in, ten are selected for the final competition by judges who later act as a committee of award. These ten then deliver their essays in the chapel at some date to be announced later, the prizes being awarded both on the merits of the composition and the delivery. Essays for the forty-fifth competition are due January 12, 1912. The subjects:

1. An Elizabethan Playhouse.
2. The Theatre and the Rising Generation.
3. The Nullification of Law in the Courts.
4. Mexico Under the Rule of Diaz.
5. Boston in 1915.

September 23, 1911

A call was made in these columns in the last issue for Business Manager of the Phillipian. As yet, but comparatively few fellows have responded. This affords a splendid opportunity for anyone to gain an excellent idea of business, besides numerous other benefits. This is not a hard position to secure, but it is one well worth while.

The fine work that Phillips Academy carried on last year in the city of Lawrence is worthy of a great deal of commendation. No other preparatory school, and but few colleges can boast of anything like it, and it is something that all loyal sons of Andover can well be proud of. The work will continue this year, but on a somewhat larger scale. A call has already been made for fellows to teach and it is to be hoped that the student body will volunteer for this, as willingly as it has volunteered its financial reports.

A Big School Opening

Andover is herself again. The entire school life of the town getting long sleep is ended, and young life is once more the dominating force not only in the streets, but in the most important workshops of the town. Probable no one of the town's important factories could be removed without causing a loss to the town fully as great as the loss of either of the town's important schools, but because they go on in the steady, plodding persistent way, we have become accustomed to consider them as parts of the town life never to be disturbed in any way whatever. Not so with the big private schools; the three vacation periods that come to them each year take the students away for a long enough time to impress upon the tradespeople and the citizens at large, what a factor they are in the ordinary business of the community.

They are more than a business factor, however, and should be considered from the more important position than the position of simple dollars and cents to the community in which they are located. They open this year with large numbers, with an equipment surpassed by no schools in the United States, and of such a character as to bring pride to not only people who are immediately interested in the schools, but to the entire town in which they are located.—From the Andover Townsman.

Notice

There will be a meeting of the cabinet of the Society of Inquiry Sunday morning after chapel, at Mr. Stackpole's.

Class Soccer

The first games of the inter-class soccer schedule will be played this afternoon. The Seniors will meet the Juniors on the Old Campus in the first game, and the Middlers will play the Junior Middlers.

The following men are on the 1913 lineup:

Boles, g.
Blanchard, Lynn, rf.
Weil, lf.
Lord, Hanna, rh.
Young, ch.
Porter, lh.
Palmer, ro.
Mainini, rt.
C. D. Hall, c.
Brown, lt.
George, ro.

Improvements at Exeter

Work on the excavation for the foundation of the new dormitory at Exeter is progressing rapidly. Work on the new Davis Library will soon begin. Further improvement is the enlargement of the chapel and the addition of several new recitation rooms to the main Academy building.

During the summer the new Tiffany drinking fountain, the gift of the class of 1911, was placed on the green in front of the tennis courts.

The society invites all the new men in school that are interested in debating to come out.

Corrections in Football Rules

Last night at a meeting of the football coaches and officials held under the direction of the central board of officials, at the Manhattan Hotel in New York, the following changes were made:

Page 80, rule 3, section 2—Insert in last sentence "or suspended" —(as well as disqualified).

Page 84, rule 6, section 5—"A fair catch may not be made on a kick when the ball had caromed off a player on the kicking side. The ball shall be declared dead at once."

Page 85, rule 6, section 6, paragraph "E"—Last lines to read "Before or after being touched by a player of either side."

Page 86, rule 6, section 8—Add to the definition, "A touchback shall result when the ball is touched by an attacking player when offside and when inside the 10-yard line."

Page 89, rule 6, section 17, paragraph "G"—Omit the words "either" and "rolling on the ground."

Page 106, penalty under rule 18—Omit the last lines, "If either side is in possession of the ball, same as free ball."

Page 108, rule 18, section 5, paragraph "B"—Insert after the words "in way hold opponents except," the following, "in a bona-fide attempt to get at the player carrying the ball." The same phrase is to be inserted at the end of paragraph "A" of section 5 of the same rule.

Page 111, rule 19 in penalty at top of page—Strike out words "where the foul occurred."

Page 111, rule 19—Strike out second penalty, altogether, and insert penalty under rule 19, section 5 on pages 110 and 111.

Page 111, rule 9, section 5, paragraph "B"—Add the words "until it has touched the ground; to paragraph "C" of the same section add the words "before it has touched the ground."

Page 111, rule 19, section 5—Strike out entire section, the new rule regarding forward passes hitting the ground before being touched having been made to prevent scrambles for the ball outside the side lines, as well as on the field of play.
