ENJOYABLE SMOKER

Very Enthusiastic Meeting Held Last Night by the Dartmouth Club

Over seventy-five fellows were present at the meeting of the Dartmouth club last night. It was a success in every way, and was enjoyed by all.

The meeting opened with the Dartmouth yell, which was followed by college songs. Then the Andover fellows sang the Andover songs, and finished up with the Andover cheer.

The first speaker of the evening was Mr. McCurdy, who talked about athletics at college when he was there. He said that football was unknown, and that baseball had just begun. The "Red Stocking" nine was one of the first in the country, and only Tufts and Amherst had teams which played it. Boating started, but did not last very long because of the burning of the boat house, and all the shells. He also spoke about the custom of singing, and said he wished there was more of it at Andover. He concluded his talk by quoting Daniel Webster, who said, "Dartmouth is a small college but there are a great many who love her, and now it is large, and a great many love her still."

The second speaker was J. M. Palmer, who is president of the Andover Club at Dartmouth, who said that this new organization would be glad to do as much as possible for the fellows intending to go there.

The third speaker was the coach of the Freshman team. He spoke particularly about the spirit at Hanover. He said that the college had the best alumni of any in the country, who always stuck behind the team whether it won or lost. He said that Dartmouth needs strong, clean men and wants nothing but the best.

The fourth speaker, Mr. Lillard, welcomed the Freshman team, and also talked about the wonderful college spirit. He spoke especially of the burning of Dartmouth Hall a few years ago and of the new buildings which have recently been built. He said that the location was superior to any other college location in the country. In conclusion he said, "Dartmouth doesn't need you, but you need Dartmouth."

The last speaker was Mr. Hodgkins. He paid a glowing tribute to the college spirit shown by Mr. McCurdy and said he was one of the most kind-hearted of the alumni in America.

At the close of the speaking, refreshments were served, and more college songs were sung.

Philo

The regular meeting of Philo was held in Graves 3 Friday evening, October 18, at 7.15. The Topics of the Week were given by Wallace and the select reading by Comstock. The question for debate was: "Resolved, That state judges should be subject to the recall." The affirmative was given by Brophy and Roosevelt, and the negative by Tetley and Fuller. The vote on the merits of the question was 17 for the affirmative and 5 for the negative, while the vote on the merits of the argument presented was 22 to 1 in favor of the affirmative. Mr. Allen rendered a very interesting critique. President Stockwell presided at the meeting.

1915 defeated 1913 on Brothers Field yesterday afternoon, the score being 9 to 7. The game was very close, although there was much loose playing. Lindsay played an exceptionally good game for '15, while Cooke and Sheldon played well for '13. The game in detail is as follows:

1915 2d played 1916 Wednesday afternoon on the Old Campus. Although '15 2d won by the score of 33 to 0, '16 put up a snappy fight and deserve much credit. The touchdowns were made by Williams, 2, and Sayle, 3. Sayle and Williams played well for '15 and Gallagher for '16. The game in detail is as follows:

FIRST QUARTER

Williams scored the first touchdown in the first two minutes. '16 kicked off and Ashley ran it back 15 yards. Forty yards were gained by plunges through the line. End of first quarter. Score: '15 2d, 6; '16, 0.

SECOND QUARTER

The ball was put in play on '16's 20-yard line. A forward pass netted 10 yards. Williams plunged through the line for the second touchdown. '15 kicked off and the ball rolled behind the goal so was put in play on the 20-yard line. '16

FIRST FOOTBALL GAME

Dartmouth '16 will Play the 'Varsity Team on Brothers Field this afternoon at 3.00 o'clock

Ken Douglas, P. A. '12, is regularly playing center.

In spite of the short time that the Andover team has been playing together, it is doing well, and great progress has been shown since last Saturday's scrimmage. The lineup for this afternoon will probably be as follows:

ANDOVER		DARTMOUTH

Sheldon, Cole, lt.		lt. Boutlin
Hogg, Farrar, lg.		lg. York

Varsity Soccer Squad

The soccer squad for 1912 will be composed of ten men from 1913, nine from 1914, two from 1915, and one from 1916. The fellows on the squad will be expected to keep themselves in the best physical condition. The squad is as follows:

The funeral of Mr. William Ladd Ropes took place at the Academy chapel last Thursday morning. Mr. Ropes was a highly respected resident of Andover for many years, and had been connected for a long time with the Theological Seminary, which moved to Cambridge a few years ago. He graduated from Harvard in 1846. In 1866 he was appointed librarian of the library of the Seminary and served in that position until 1905. Since then he has been librarian emeritus. He is survived by his son, Mr. James H. Ropes, P. A. 1885, a member of the present board of trustees.

Football Schedule

For the benefit of those who did not receive a football schedule in chapel Wednesday, it is given below.

Oct. 19. Dartmouth Fresh.
Oct. 23. Cushing Academy.
Oct. 26. Worcester Academy.
Nov. 2. Yale Fresh at New Haven.
Nov. 9. Exeter at Andover.

Cheering at Today's Game

Head cheer-leader Dillon has asked that everyone be at Brothers Field at 2.30 in order to do a little practicing with the cheers.

Everyone with a megaphone should bring it, and those without them should get them at Chase's as soon as possible.

Forum

At the meeting of Forum held Friday evening in the lecture room of the Archaeology building, Hawley gave the select reading and Bevins the Topics of the Week.

Ferguson gave an extempore on Roosevelt.

The subject for debate was: "Resolved, That hazing should be abolished in all reputable institutions." The negative was led by Davison, with Brinkerhoff as assistant. Mr. Crawford gave a very helpful critique.

Beasley Wins Singles

The annual fall singles tennis tournament was concluded on Wednesday afternoon, when C. H. Beasley, 1916, defeated M. DeCamp, 1914, in the finals, by the score of 6—2, 6—3, 6—2.

The match was hard-fought throughout, with Beasley playing the steadier game of the two. DeCamp fought pluckily, and once in the third set, with the score at four love against him, he outplayed his opponent, taking the next two games in short order. His spurt, however, was too late to be of any material advantage.

College Notes

A glance at the leaders of the twenty-eight larger college teams shows that the position of halfback claims the greatest number of captains. Tackle, fullback, and quarterback come next, in the order given. Four captains play end.

The combined musical clubs of Harvard are planning to take a Southern trip during the Christmas vacation, in addition to the regular dual concerts with Dartmouth and Yale and various other concerts in the vicinity of Boston.

New additions to Plimpton playing fields at Exeter are rapidly approaching completion. They now have dressing rooms right on the field, hot and cold shower-baths, and in seasonable weather, facilities for swimming. There are also dressing rooms with baths adjoining for visiting athletic teams. Cots could be placed and stored for their entertainment over night when the occasion required it.

KEN DOUGLAS, P. A. '12
Playing center on Dartmouth Fresh team today.

Ken Douglas, P. A. '12, manager of last year's baseball team, is in town for the Dartmouth Fresh game this afternoon.

The many friends of F. Walton Hyde, Andover '07, Yale '11, will be interested to hear that he has obtained a position with a large iron plant in Ohio. "Fritz" was a universal favorite both at Andover and later at Yale, and his admirers will be glad to learn of this success.

Alexander B. Royce, Andover '11 spent a few hours here seeing his old friends, Sunday afternoon. He was on his way from Portland, Me., to Yale, where he is in the class of '15.

Alfred L. Ripley, P. A. '73, president of the board of trustees, has been elected vice-president of the Merchants National Bank of Boston.

J. M. Palmer, P. A. '10, is in town today. He is a Dartmouth man and came down for the meeting of the Dartmouth Club and the game. He is president of the Andover Club at Dartmouth.

At the meeting of the Yale Sheff Senior class, Clyde Martin, P. A. '10, was elected class secretary.

In the game between Yale 1916 and Pennsylvania Fresh, Malcom, P. A. '12, played quarterback; Shelton, P. A. '12, played left guard, and Roberts, P. A. '12, guard.

E. T. Eustis, P. A. '12, made a touchdown for Wesleyan 1916 in the game against Crosby School.

COLLEGE NOTES

Dr. Alexander Meiklejohn, former dean of Brown University, was inaugurated president of Amherst College Wednesday, in the presence of 1000 delegates and guests. The presidents of four other New England colleges, Abbott Lawrence Lowell of Harvard, Harry A. Garfield of Williams, William H. P. Faunce of Brown, and William DeWitt Hyde of Bowdoin, were present and assisted in the ceremonies.

Plans have been completed for a new Freshman dormitory at Harvard. It will be ready for occupancy in 1913 and all Freshmen will be required to room there.

An organized movement has been started among the students of Harvard University to raise funds for a new and modern gymnasium.

At a meeting of the Intercollegiate Basketball Association last Saturday night at the Hotel Imperial, New York, Yale officially resigned from the league. This was not entirely unexpected, although it was thought that the New Haven quintet would be in the league through the coming season. R. B. Hyatt, the Yale representative, explained that the readjustment of the minor sports at Yale necessitated their dropping out of the league. Although no longer in the league, attempts will be made to schedule games with the other teams in the league, Princeton, Columbia, Cornell, Dartmouth, and Pennsylvania.

At Amherst, hereafter, those who carry heavy parts in dramatics will be given one semester's credit toward a degree.

The new Hitchcock athletic field at Amherst is now in the course of construction. The field will include thirty-six tennis courts, six basketball courts, a quarter-mile oval track, and a mile cross-country course, as well as football and baseball facilities.

At Hotchkiss there is a custom that whenever some important prize is won by a graduate, the school has a holiday.

Mr. Bryan's New Book

A book of peculiar interest to Phillips Academy boys, just issued by the Gorham Press of Boston, is a work of fiction written by Julian S. Bryan, the English instructor, which is entitled "The Garden of Luzon." The book, which is on sale at the Bookstore, is delightful in the fact that it deals with a new land hitherto unexplored in fiction, having to do with times and customs doubly interesting to the reader because they are so little known.

The book is a story of the Philippine Islands at the period before American rule began, and when the outrages perpetrated by the Spanish government, and the general oppression and indignities heaped upon the natives were so marked. It portrays the native characters in a very interesting manner, and the pictures of the country and life of the people make vivid reading.

Especially pleasing are the accounts given of the sports of the natives at that time, chief among which was horse-racing.

The price of the book attractively bound is $1.00.

ANDOVER SONGS AND CHEERS

The Phillipian March

Here comes the team, let's cheer them on,
Show them our hearts are true.
Might always gains but courage wins.
So will our boys in blue.
We're here to win again,
And bound again to gain.
We'll guard, protect and bear on high
Old Andover's fair name.
Chorus:
Cheer, cheer, boys, cheer, cheer,
For the game is surely ours.
We're winning every point,
We're heaping up the score.
Our foemen trembie,
For they cannot long prevail.
With old Andover's grit and sand
A team can never fail.

Andover Victory Song

Come, ye sons of old Andover,
Send the ball a-plunging over,—
Play with might and main,
Ten more yards to gain;
Send the Crimson back to cover
While around the goal we hover
A—N—D—O—V—E—R
Show them who we are!
CHORUS
Andover's it to-day,
Get out and watch us play,
See our heroes go
Smashing through the foe;
Onward, now, everyone,
Fight till the game is won,
Hats off and cheer them, poor Exeter fears them,
P. A. and victory! (Rah! Rah! Rah!)
See our score is growing, growing.
All up now and make a showing,—
Loyal to the Blue,
We are ever true;
Hear the grandstand shouting madly,
Exeter is beaten badly,—
A—N—D—O—V—E—R
They know who we are.

Old P. A.

(Printed by permission.)

We're here with the team once again, boys,
Two hundred strong, to cheer them on.
So hand out old Andover's name, boys,
Across the field, and never yield!
There's no hope today for poor Ex'ter,
For they are true, those boys in blue.
Oh, Andover'll land, she's got the sand,
Give a cheer for old P. A.
CHORUS
Fighting for old P. A., boys,
Fighting with heart and soul.
Tearing our way on to victory,
Nearing the crimson goal.
See how old Ex'ter trembles,
Andover wins today!
Stand by the blue, we're always true
To you and old P. A.

Malcolm K. Fletcher, class of 1904

Andover Rah!

It's the same old Andover,
We are here to win today,
See poor Ex'ter fly to cover
When the blue gets in the fray.
(Get out of our way)
First down,—Oh, this is easy,
That goal is just before;
Smash them through,—and make a touchdown
For this is where we score.
CHORUS
All hail to old Andover,
Victor crowned on many a field;
Our crimson foemen tremble
And before the blue must yield;
On your feet, now altogether,
Give a cheer for An-do-ver, Rah! Rah! Rah!
Lift your voices on high,
Let your cheers rend the sky
For old Andover wins today.

Oh the boys from New Hampshire
Will learn a thing or two
When they meet with Captain Gault
And the team that wears the blue.
(To them we are true).
Now the Ex'ter stands are silent
And the crimson banners fall,
While the blue sweeps on to victory,
Let us cheer them one and all.

School Cheers
