SOCCER SEASON
Brookline Gym Easfly Defeated

The Andover soccer team defeated Brookline 8 to 0, in the first game of the season last Saturday afternoon. Andover easily outplayed their opponents in every position. The team work of the Andover forwards in passing and playing together was especially noticeable. Andover kept the ball in Brookline's territory most of the time, and it was seldom that the Brookline forwards advanced it to Andover's territory. Even when they did, the ball was swiftly turned by the strong defensive play of the Andover backs.

Young and Shumway, r. and Mackinlay l. will fill the positions in that position, while Lee, Mackinlay and Thompson starred on the line. For Brookline, Ferguson and Meade played well at their respective positions and the rest of the game was never in doubt.

The lineups were as follows:

Andover: E. Carey, r.; B. Bales, r.; H. Gouin, m.; T. Wheeler, l.; H. M. Baldrige, l.

Brookline: E. Bales, r.; B. V. Thompson, l.; H. Hoye, m.; W. McFarland, l.; J. D. C. A. Dickerman, l.

EXETER GAME EAGERLY AWAITED

The hard practice of the Andover team is now at an end, as Coach Lillard will give the team rest for the remaining two days before the game. Nielson has recovered from his injuries, and Skillingham is now free from condition, thus greatly strengthening the team.

The selection of the officials for the game was referred to the Intercollegiate Referee Committee, and the following men were selected: A. Z. Whiting, referee; H. M. Wheeler, umpire; R. W. Maxwell, head linesman.

A special train will leave Boston at 14:40 Saturday to accommodate the crowd coming from Boston and vicinity stations to the game. This train will stop at Melrose and Wakefield only. It will return immediately after the game.

No automobiles will be allowed on the field this year. A space will be provided for them on the Salem Street Campus in front of the gymnasium, where they may be left in the custody of a watchman, who will see that no one molests them.

More fellows are urged to see Hema. Those wishing to get on the bus will be provided at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday. All tickets on both the Andover and Exeter teams are sold out.

Mass Meeting Friday Night

Big Mass Meeting before the Exeter game will be held in the Gym., at 7:15. Bob Fisher of Harvard, Eddie Mahan, and other prominent speakers will be there. Every fellow is expected to be there.

Entertaining Review of Academy's History

Mr. Scalapino gave a very entertaining address to the Society of Inquiry last Sunday evening on the early history of Phillips Academy. He showed the development of the Academy's work and lore was profusely illustrated with imperfection slides of the old houses and the first school buildings, adding greatly to the interest of the talk.

Andover sters first settled in 1750 on a tract of land purchased for twenty dollars. The oldest structure standing is the plaque house at the foot of Central street, which was built in 1700 and has come down through the ages.

Mr. Scalapino, founder of the school, went to Dunmore Academy in 1897, and graduated in the class of 1877. While in Harvard he was a leader, both as a scholar and speaker. The Retrospective was then brewing and the Boston Mascon occurred before he had graduated. He was one of the foremost, however, in passing resolutions such as not to drink tea or wear imported garments on account of the unjust taxes on the Tea Act. After graduation, he was returned to Andover and began

This is the largest single collection the Department ever secured in New England and is a valued addition to the Library.

Archaeology Notes

The Department recently purchased a large collection of New England specimens from W. H. Wheeler of Concord, Mass. The collection contained many specimens fifty years ago in the Concord river valley and gave them to Harvard University. Mr. Wheeler, since Thorne's time has been active in measuring the fields along the historic Concord transect and accumulated over 4000 stone artifacts, and the "Millers Mill" site.

The resinations on Saturday will be shortened the same as last Saturday so that all students may be divided into the proper teams.

The following probably will be the lineups in the Saturday Statistics of the age, weight, height, etc., are given after each player's name.

Class Soccer

Tuesday afternoon '43 won from '42 in a well-played game, by a score of 2 to 1. Contrary to the playing in the past, this game was exceptionally clean, due to the fact that the referee was Reilly, a former coach, who is now coaching the varsity. Before this the referee had been done by assistant managers and consequently the general playing has been rugged. This is the first time that the rowdies have been turned out, and they seem to be enjoying the game.

The lineups in yesterday's game:

Andover: E. Bales, r.; B. V. Thompson, l.; H. Hoye, m.; W. McFarland, l.; J. D. C. A. Dickerman, l.

Andover won from Exeter by a score of 2 to 1. The score was the result of more chances, as in the mode which followed a corner kick, the ball rounded from a.5 player through for a.5 player, and was fouled at the 1.15, which has yet been played in the series. Captain Kelley of the Exeter varsity, took 15, and the score was later retracted.

The lineups follow:

Andover: E. Bales, r.; B. V. Thompson, l.; H. Hoye, m.; W. McFarland, l.; J. D. C. A. Dickerman, l.

The Basketball Situation

The last two of the Phillipian announcements were made by Mr. Chase, representing Chase & Co. at Chell's. He was a successful athlete, and he mentioned Andover on the days mentioned.

The Phillipian Press

Today, basketball is one of sym- pathetic interest; but sympathy is have been issued in pamphlet form. the afternoons the team has been quite willing to share the expense, of the students lacking.

"May be said in this connec- tion that the major sports seem to be far from self-supporting, that the major sports are not made to hold the interest of undergraduates and alumni, but basketball seems to be the game that has received the greatest amount of criticism, whether merited or not. The game calls for a large amount of room, for only ten men can play at once, and while they are in action other students are compelled to remain near the walls, or retire, as the ball is so often out of bounds. The site of the Yale court is sixty-three by sixty-six feet; deduct this from the available space on the main floor, and we have but little working room because the court occupies the centre of the field. The Gymnasium has been opened nights to accommodate the basket- ball men, but the cost of help, light, heat, and the use of three floors causes the authorities to ask whether they should carry this expense which appears to be large for the return. It is true that all members of the University who wish to exercise during the evenings are invited to take advantage of the "open nights," but the prospects of the team is so small that many of the members who are present.

"The Basketball Team has been quite willing to share the expenses, but they have been unable to do this on account of the small amount of money in their treasury. During the afternoon the team has been handicapped by being compelled to play during brief periods, for there are five or six other teams which play at this time and space, besides the large number of men who come general exercise. It will be seen that the Director of the Gymnasium has difficulty in satisfying all.

"Is Yale the only University that faces these problems? No. Harvard has finally dropped the game entirely; Princeton seriously considering withdrawing from the intercollegiate Association because their team faced an annual deficit of from $5000 to $10000, but Dr. McKeon brought new interest to the game; a number of other colleges continually struggle with this sport. Pennsylavnia is pre- pared and allows a credit balance of about $20 per annum, while last year the profits were much higher than this sum. I am informed by Mr. Peet, the Graduate Manager, that basketball is one of the few minor sports that are run without losses. Interest at Columbia is keen and the sport pays well, but at New York University it is possible that the social attractions may help to attract the audience.

"The Advisory Committee of the Yale Men's Union and the Gymnastic authorities are more ready than willing to do all in their power to bring basketball, or any other minor sport, into line with the four major sports. All the ask them sport with sympathetic backing from the G.A.R. Evening, the game itself is a good one, calling for courage, skill, endurance, self-control, and based on much upon the ethics of "Fair play" as any other sport."
