ANDOVER VS CUSHING ACADEMY

Close Game Expected To-day at 3 o'clock

This afternoon at three o'clock the Andover team will meet the eleven from Cushing Academy. So far Cushing has had a very successful season, and there is no doubt but that they will try hard for victory. They were defeated by the Dartmouth Freshmen in a close contest two weeks ago and last Saturday beat the Springfield Training School second team. Clarn, at end, is a real star, and Vanderlick at fullback has shown up well as a line-plunger.

Andover's team will go into the game with considerably more experience than they had before last Saturday's contest, and the results will, in all probability, be far different. There is a chance that Murray will be in once more, and with him in the backfield Andover's chances will certainly be greatly increased. Every fellow should report at the field with a megaphone before 2.30 at the latest, as the cheering is a most important factor in the success of the team.

The probable lineup will be as follows:

CUSHING ANDOVER Trumbull, le. re. Macrae Motron, It. - rt. Baldrige Colby, lg. rg. Avery McMahon, c. c. Callahan O William, rg. . lg. Cabot W. William, rt. It. Newton Hickey, re. le. Taylor Vanderdick, fb. fb. Likins Fuller, rhb. lhb. Sands Champlin, lhb. Thb. Clarkson Cunningham, qb. qb. Eadie

Exeter defeated the Yale Freshmen, 6 to 3, Saturday, in one of the most furiously fought games ever played at New Haven. The academy eleven outplayed the Eli yearlings at every point and led from the beginning of the second period when Enright lifted a goal over the crossbar from the Yale 20-yard line. There was no more scoring in the second period but in the third, after Easton of Yale had narrowly missed a field goal Enright of Exeter lifted another placement goal over the bar. Bunker, who replaced Easton of Yale, kicked a field goal in this period.

There was no scoring in the final period; Exeter forced Yale and had the ball at the Eli 5-yard line when the game closed.

SWIMMING POOL REPORT

The Swimming Pool Committee has decided to throw open the pool to the entire school as soon as $3000 in cash has been collected. It is hoped that this amount will be raised by the end of this week. Until noon yesterday the cash on hand totaled $2637.77, and the outstanding pledges amount of $916. This would bring the total up to $3553.77. There are at present 229 men in school who have contributed nothing toward the swimming pool in any way. A special effort will be made by the committee to see these men this week, and it is hoped that some, at least, will contribute toward the fund. It seems hardly fair that only about two thirds of the whole school should pay money in order that the rest may have the opportunity to swim for nothing. Everyone should pay whatever is possible.

For the benefit of those who have contributed small amounts, a plan has been devised whereby these men can use the pool at once. All men who have given $5 are entitled to a regular term ticket, and this ticket is now on file in the pool. For all men who have subscribed any sum below $5, individual swimming tickets, ten for every dollar subscribed, can be obtained. These tickets can be obtained at the Advisory Board Room in the gymnasium every afternoon between 1.45 and 2 o'clock.

FOOTBALL GAMES YESTERDAY

1914 Second and 1916 Second Win

Yesterday afternoon on Brothers Field the 1914 Seconds defeated the 1915 Seconds 6 to 0, and 1916 Second beat 1917 Second 13 to o.

In the first game the Seniors were very slightly superior to the Middlers, and during the first half neither side had any perceptible advantage. The playing was decidedly crude on both teams. In the fourth quarter, however, 1914 started down the field, sweeping the Middlers off their feet, and pushing the ball across for a touchdown. The goal was not kicked. The Senior line seemed to outplay the Middlers, and on nearly every play the 1914 back got entirely through the line, only to be stopped by the secondary defense.

In the second game the Junior Middlers won through their ability to work forward passes successfully. Time after time an end, entirely free, received a pass and started down the field. The Junior line successfully staved off any attack in that direction, but 1916 made some long end runs. 1917 was unable to gain consistently at any time and played entirely on the defensive.

New Exeter Boat House

A new boat-house has been erected on the Swamscot river near the gashouse, and is spacious enough to house two shells of the Phillips-Exeter boat crews, being 65 feet long and to feet wide. The racing will, for the most part, be on this river instead of Fresh river, and practice work is thus handier. The race for November I with the Massachusetts Institute of Technology four is still undecided, but there will be races next spring with Middlesex and Groton Schools on this river.

Smith Raises $1,051,900

That Smith College's Million dollar fund is a fact, has been announced by President Marion Leroy Burton. All of the money will be devoted to raising the salaries of the teaching corps. In exact figures the fund now amounts to $1,051,900... The claim of Smith to supremacy as the largest women's college has been upheld by the entering class of this year which now numbers 508 students, the largest in its history.

HARVARD FRESHMEN WIN

Andover Defeated 9 to o Saturday

Last Saturday afternoon on Brothers Field, the speedy Harvard Freshman eleven defeated Andover in a hard-fought and well-played game. Harvard's experience, gained in the three or four games that they have already played, proved to be an invaluable asset. Their interference was much more organized than Andover's, and consequently their kicks were not blocked and the backs were enabled to make some good runs after catching punts. Time after time, when Baldrige or Gould was about to kick, three or four red-jerseyed players would be seen leaping in the air in front of him, while the Harvard backs had more than enough time to get their punts on account of the beautiful interference. In spite of such faults, which experience and practice will remedy, Andover played a hard and consistent defensive game, and was especially strong on the secondary defense. Time after time Perkins and Macrae nailed the Harvard backs without a gain, just as they were coming through the line. Baldrige also played a beautiful defensive game and the Crimson team soon learned that the right side of the line was not the place to gain ground. Macrae tore off some beautiful end runs, and Perkins' consistent line-plunging was instrumental in keeping the ball out of the danger zone. The Freshmen played a dashing game. Two beautiful forward passes were worked, and in lineplunging their backs were superior to those of Andover.

A large crowd turned out to see the game and the cheering was excellent. The team, the captain, Manager Duby, Thompson, last year's quarterback who was on the bench, Rogers, another former star, and Baldrige were all heartily cheered.

FIRST QUARTER

The Freshmen kicked off to Perkins, who ran back 15 yards to Andover's 30-yard line. After one ineffectual attempt at line-plunging, Gould punted to Boles who was thrown in his tracks. Harvard was unable to gain more than 3 yards in three attempts, and on the third down Hitchcock kicked to Eadie. Baldrige immediately returned the punt, and Boles was tackled for no gain. Great playing by Baldrige and beautiful secondary defense by Macrae held the Crimson without gain for three downs, but on the fourth a well-executed forward pass to Harte netted them '35 yards and placed the ball on Andover's 10-yard line. Four yards through the line and 4 more in the same place put the Freshmen in position to push it over on the next play. This they succeeded in doing, but the goal was not kicked.

Eadie was substituted for Ashley at quarter and Andover kicked off. Harvard, after gaining 3 yards through the line, was penalized 15 yards for holding, then punted, and Eadie was thrown without gain. Gould then tore off a beautiful 15yard end run, one of the best in the game. Three attempts through the line yielded only 5 yards, and Gould punted. At this point one of Andover's worst faults manifested itself; four men missed their tackles before the Harvard man running back the punt was finally downed. Harvard gained first down by straight line-plunging, but on the next play was penalized 5 yards for being offside. The quarter ended with a clever tackle by Baldrige when he nailed the Freshman back for a 2yard loss. SECOND QUARTER

Cole was substituted for Cabot at left guard. The Freshmen punted to Eadie. An exchange of kicks followed, on which Harvard gained slightly. After a loss on an attempted end run, Baldrige punted and the Crimson recovered in midfield. A forward pass netted the Freshmen

INQUIRY SUNDAY NIGHT

At the regular meeting of Inquiry last Sunday evening, the minister of the day, Rev. Mr. Edwards, P A. '96, gave a most excellent talk on the difference between the ways in which people observe promises made in business life, compared with those in religious life. Mr. Edwards likened these two spheres of life to the right and left hands of man. The right hand has always been the secular hand of man; with it, beginning with those prehistoric days when he used it as a spade, up to modern times of skyscrapers and aeroplanes, he has done the greatest part of his work. With it he has attained power which, when we stop to think of it, is almost beyond belief. Constantly this right hand has been developing and gaining in worldly power.

Just as the right hand is the symbol of worldly life, the left hand represents spiritual life of man. The question is, however, "Is the development of the spiritual hand keeping pace with the other, in these days?" It is not, for men who may be absolutely honest and trustworthy in the stock market or other places of business, think nothing of breaking their vows made when they joined the Church.

Mr. Edwards closed his talk by saying that we bsould not develop either of these two sides of life too much alone, for both need the other as a complement; that is, for us to get both practical and spiritual advancement in order to become the sort of men the world needs today.

RECEPTION IN THE GYW.

Last Night a Great Success

The ladies of the Academy Church gave a reception last night to the members of the church, the Society of Inquiry, members of the choir, and of Abbot Academy.

At 7.30 the school fellows inside the gym gave a cheer for Abbot and a few minutes later the fun began. The first thing on the program was a pumpkin puzzle. Each person had a card with a number on it. After the cards were distributed, the members of each group put together the different pieces, and after finding out the inscription (?) each group acted their verse with the aid of newspaper and pins for costumes.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake came next, and were followed by dancing. After a Virginia Reel, the Grand March closed the very enjoyable evening

Praise for Eddie Mahan

M. E. Webb, Jr., the Boston Globe's football expert, in this morning's edition had the following to say of Eddie Mahan, the former Phillips Andover academy star:

"Stars are rapidly coming to the ascendant at Cambridge nowadays. Last year it was Brickley and then Hardwick, and Saturday it was Eddie Mahan. The former Andover star, who as captain of last year's freshnan team at Harvard pulled his team together for victory after defeat seemed imminent, for the first time this fall showed the prowess that stamped him as a schoolboy wonder.

"Mahan has come along slowly this year. For a time he was tied at cuarter, in addition to playing halfback, but soon it was decided that, during his first season at least, it was too much to expect him to master two positions. With Brickley and Hardwick assured of places in the backfield and with the chance that Bradlee, after all, might be used as a running back instead of at quarter, Mahan has had enough on his mind to worry even as keen a player as he is. But Saturday Mahan turned loose his kicking and running game, demonstrating beyond all shadow of doubt that he is one of the greatest players in the game today."

Yale Will Play Again in Basketball League

Yale has definitely announced that it will become a member of the Intercollegiate Basketball League this season. This will necessitate an entire revision of the league's schedule and an increase by ten of the number of games to be played this winter. The schedule as changed will set the first game for some time in December, whereas formerly the season would not have opened until after the Christmas holidays.

It was very gratifying to note the large attendance both of students and outsiders, at the Harvard game. Such support, combined with the good cheering that was given, spurs any team on to better results than they would otherwise get. It is much to be hoped, however, that some new fellows, who evidently forgot themselves at the game enough to applaud when the other team was penalized, will remember the traditions of this school, and will hereafter uphold the standards of courtesy to the opponents which have always been in evidence at Andover.

The cheering and singing Saturdays was very good, but there is lots of; room for improvement. The school songs and cheers are again printed! today for the benefit of the new men: who must now realize how necessary it is to know them all exactly. If any, man is not sure of the words, let him bring the Phillipian along this afternoon. Everyone be at the field in ample time and be sure to bring MEGAPHONES.

Young was heresubstituted for Eadie. Macrae made 15 yards around left end, but on the next play was nailed for a 10-yard loss. Baldrige's punt was blocked and the Freshmen recovered it.

THIRD QUARTER Likins was substituted for Cullom at right end. Andover kicked off and the Freshman back advanced 20 yards before he was downed. The Crimson kicked to Eadie, who was thrown in midfield without gain. At this point Andover showed her real power, and advanced the ball down the field by a series of rushes. Macrae made 6 yards through tackle, and on the very next play reeled off 25 yards around left end. Perkins made 8 more through the line, and first down was gained on the next play. Andover had the ball on the Crimson's 25-yard line, and the outlook was good. Two downs netted 5 yards, but then a 2-yard loss and an incomplete forward pass gave Harvand the ball and snatched away Andover's brightest chance. The Freshmen kicked and, after a loss on a fumble, Gould returned it. A beautiful tackle by Macrae threw Minot without gain. Harvard punted to Eadie who ran it back 5 yards. Rushes by Macrae and Gould gave Andover a first down, but a 5-yard loss forced Gould to kick. The Crimson linemen, breaking through, forced him to run, and the ball went to Harvard on downs. Clarkson was here substituted for Gould. The Freshmen were unable to gain and

It was Andover's ball on the 20-yard line, and Baldrige's kick to Minot was run back 15 yards. Clarkson was substituted for Taylor at left tackle. Perkins recovered a fumble for Andover, and Baldrige kicked to Minot.. Harvard could not gain and an exchange of punts followed. Perkins' defensive work again held the Freshmen and Hitchcock kicked. Cullom went in for Likins. Harvard recovered a fumble on Andover's 30yard line, and after two unsuccessful tries at rushing and an unfinished last Saturday, against Lehigh. Convinced that this part of the Underwood tariff law does violate the t eaty rights of foreign nations, Plesident Wilson is taking steps for it quick repeal.

The Senate is willing; it never did favor that clause, but was forced by the House to consent to it. Now that it has been shown that the 5 per cent discount is sure to get us into no end of trouble with foreign nations, it is expected that the House will consent to cut it out of the law.

Two Russian government steamers. the Taimyr and the Waygatch, have arrived at St. Michael, Alaska, having come through the Arctic ocean north of Russia and Siberia. The captains report the discovery of a large body of land near where the existence of a continent, or very large island, had been suspected.

The two captains think that the newly discovered land is about as large as Greenland, judging from the portion of its coast which they explored. It extends beyond Latitude 8: North and Longitude 102 East.

The position of the discovered land is somewhat further west than Dr. Harris thought, but its eastern end has not been found. If Stefansson should discover land north of Alaska it would perhaps be a part of the same island or continent; and that would confirm the Harris theory exactly. The Russians do not seem to have followed the coast as far east as it extended; they had to come down to Alaska to get coal.

ANDOVER SONGS AND CHEERS

The Phillipian March

Here comes the team, let's cheer them on. Show them our hearts are true.

Might always gains but courage wins So will our boys in blue. We're here to win again, And bound again to gain. We'll guard, protect and bear on high

Old Andover's fair name.

Cheer, cheer, boys, cheer, cheer, For the game is surely ours. We're winning every point. We're heaping up the score. Our foemen tremble.

For they cannot long prevail, With old Andover's grit and sand A team can never fail.

Andover Rah! It's the same old Andover, We are here to win today. See poor Ex'ter fly to cover When the blue gets in the fray. (Get out of our way)
First down.—Oh, this is easy,
That goal is just before; Smash them through,-and make a touchdown

For this is where we score.
CHORUS
All hail to old Andover,

Victor crowned on many a field; Our crimson foemen tremble And before the blue must yield: On your feet, now altogether, Give a cheer for An-do-ver, Rah! Rah! Rah!

Lift your voices on high, Let your cheers rend the sky For old Andover wins today.

Oh the boys from New Hampshire Will learn a thing or two,
When they meet with Captain Murray And the team that wears the blue. (To them we are true). Now the Ex'ter stands are silent And the crimson banners fall. While the blue sweeps on to victory, Let us cheer them one and all.

Old P. A. (Printed by permission)
We're here with the team once again,

Five hundred strong to cheer them So hand out old Andover's name.

bovs Across the field, and never yield! There's no hope today for poor

For they are true, those boys in blue. land, she's got the sand.

CHORUS Fighting for old P. A., boys, Fighting with heart and soul.. Tearing our way on to victory, Nearing the crimson goal. See how old Ex'ter trembles, Andover wins today!

Stand by the blue, we're always true To you and old P. A. —Malcolm K. Fletcher, 1904

Andover Victory Song Come, ye sons of old Andover, Send the ball a-plunging over,-Play with might and main,

Ten more yards to gain; Send the Crimson back to cover While around the goal we hover A-N-D-O-V-E-R Show them who we are!

CHORUS Andover's it to-day, Get out and watch us play, See ou: heroes go Smashing through the foe; Onward, now, everyone, Fight till the game is won, Hats off and cheer them, poor Exeter fears them,

P. A. and victory! (Rah! Rah! Rah!) See our score is growing, growing. All up now and make a showing,--

Loyal to the Blue, We are ever true; Hear the grandstand shouting madly,

Exeter is beaten badly,-A-N-D-O-V-E-R They know who we are.
