COLONEL SHIELDS SPEECH

Giving Interesting Lecture with Aid of Stills

On Thursday evening a large assembly assembled in the Chapel to hear a most interesting and entertaining lecture on Animal Bird and Animal Life, by the President of the American Sportsman’s Association, Col. Shields.

Col. Shields, in the course of his life in studying wild life and consequently was able to deliver a very comprehensive up summarizing of the subject. He showed some truly remarkable pictures taken by himself and other nature lovers.

Before commencing on the stereopticon slides, the speaker told some plain facts about the slaughter of song-birds in America, some facts which made everyone ready to see Time was up at the time.

The subject under debate was, Resolved, that women should have the right for the vote and the ballot. Mr. Stott, in his talk, gave it as his opinion that women have the right to vote and against were nearly even.

When the debate was over, Mr. Stott gave a brief outline of the arguments, which should be of profit to the speaker. He closed his address with an arguement on the way in which they were presented. He pointed out the advantages of a success, and is that is to be expected. Its a repetition of a may.

CURRENT EVENTS
Our government has sent a note to Huerta, suggesting the resignation of President of Mexico. This is the chief news of the week in the Mexican situation. The note also said that President must not leave as his sucessor any lieutenant of his who would be merely a mask for hisself. An impartial, nonpartisan temporary government must be set up, and the people should be free to elect a new government.
This demand was called by the newspapers an “ultimatum.” It is really an ultimatum, because it leaves the door open for further talk.
An ultimatum is the be-the United States. They think our country will not do it, and if it should dare, Mexico would have an easy victory. For in that country there is very little

A resolution to pay no taxes under an Irish Home Rule Parliam ent, and to make government under its rule impossible by uni-finching and continuous obstruction of the law, was adopted recently at a demonstration of 6000 Ulster business men, including representatives of leading firms with an aggregate capital of $650,000,- 000.

The entire Unionist party in Great Britain—what there is left of it—will support Ulster, even to the extent of forcible resistance to Home Rule. This pledge was given by the Opposition leader in the House of Commons. He contended that before "plunging the country in a civil war," the Liberal Ministry was bound to appeal to the country in a general election on the Home Rule question, as if that had not been done several times already.
