HAMPTON SCHOLARSHIP

Quartet Here Tomorrow

Last year in this school money was raised to maintain a scholarship in Hampton Institute at Hampton, Virginia, and the school was entertained one evening by a quartet of colored boys representing the Institute. A branch of the Armstrong League was organized in Phillips Academy, officers were elected, and plans made to keep in touch with the Institute and its work. The Armstrong League, by the way, is an association which aims to keep Hampton in touch with the schools and colleges which are supporting scholarships there.

A quartet is coming to Andover tomorrow and a stereopticon lecture will be given in place of the usual meeting of the Society of Inquiry in the chapel.

The good work done by this Institute is marvelous. It began forty-five years ago when General Armstrong and two teachers instructed fifteen negro boys and girls in some old plantation buildings at Hampton. Since then it has grown to 150 buildings and a thousand acres of land. Hampton now offers fifteen trades and it gives 800 men and women the training for leadership and home-making that was the aim of its founder.

Eight thousand graduates of Hampton are now taking their part in helping the negroes in the south. Each has done his or her share in decreasing the illiteracy from almost 100 to 30.4 per cent.

Hampton today is the headquarters of an army of uplift. The class which graduates this year will take positions at strategic points in leading the effort for better schools, better farming and industrial training.

Reserve Rooms

Rooms for next year should be reserved as soon as possible, so that the applicants may get their choice. Until May 1st, rooms may be reserved by the present occupants. After that time rooms not reserved will be allotted in the following order: first choice, present occupants of the dormitory in order of application; second choice, occupants of other dormitories or houses in order of application; third choice, new boys. Fellows should file these applications with the Registrar.

Andover vs. Merrimack C. C. at Hockey

The Andover hockey team will line-up against the Merrimack Valley Country Club team this afternoon on the Rabbit's pond rink in their third game of the season. The Merrimack Valley aggregation is composed of old Harvard players for the most part and is one of the strongest clubs in this part of the country.

Several changes have been made in the line-up which will start the game. Captain Ashley will be unable to play. The line-up, subject to change, as announced, will be:

MEETING OF PHILO

On Wednesday evening, Philo held its regular weekly meeting. Nearly twenty fellows, including several who have just joined, were present and the meeting proved most interesting. George E. Cook gave a most excellent synopsis of the events of the past week, telling briefly of the notable events in this country, and describing more in detail the progress of the European war. This was followed by a select reading by Flint Brayton, who chose one of Dickens's sketches as his selection.

The debate which followed was upon the question: Resolved, That the suffrage should be taken from the negroes in the southern states. The decision on the merits of the arguments was won by the affirmative, N. Boynton, Jr., leader, and C. V. Fish, assistant, by a vote of 6 to 2. During the three minutes' intermission between the debate round and the rebuttal round, A. Sheldon delivered an extempore and after the debate L. W. Beilenson, one of the Philo debating team, who comes from Arkansas, and hence is perfectly familiar with all the phases and conditions of the negro problem, briefly described existing conditions in the South.

President Sewar, upon the adoption of a motion by Knox to that effect, appointed Bielsonson, Knox, Boynton, and Murdoch to act with him on a committee to consider the advisability of bringing a prominent speaker to Andover to address the school. S. S. Sheffield, '15, was unanimously elected to the society, and the names of Hull, J. H. Sharpe and Ruml proposed to membership. Philo has been growing rapidly since the beginning of the term, new members being added each meeting and the attendance has nearly doubled. A new system proposed by R. T. Bushnell, the secretary, will doubtless add to the interest. Members now hand in their preference as to debating, speaking on topics of the week, or reading a selection on a piece of paper, and the assignments are made according to the preference indicated.

Anyone wishing to join Philo should see one of the members about having his name proposed.

Assignments for the next meeting, to be held on Wednesday, February 3, at seven o'clock, in the lecture room of the Archaeology building, are as follows:

Topics of the week—G. F. Jewett

Select reading—G. L. Harris.
Topic for debate: Resolved, That our present income tax is a desirable form of taxation. Affirmative—F. D. Warren, Jr., leader, and W. D. Washburn, assistant; negative—B. Y. Brewster, leader, and G. R. Murdoch, assistant.

Prom. Notice

Carriages for the Prom may be secured from "Jim" Ryley at the Grill. Fellows wishing to get girls for the Prom from Abbot must see Ralph P. Hanes, No. 22 Phillips Hall, before Wednesday night, February 3. He will explain the arrangements which have been made with the authorities at Abbot Academy to them. This is very important to those who wish to get girls in this way.

SWIMMING TEAM LOSES

Harvard Wins by Three Points

Wednesday afternoon, in the Brookline Gymnasium tank, before a large crowd, Harvard Varsity defeated the Andover swimming team by three points.

The meet started off with the relay which Harvard won by a hand's breadth; the first defeat our relay team has had in two years. Fitzgerald mistook some steps near the end of the pool for the finish, and before he discovered his mistake, the Harvard man had passed him and won the race. In the next event, the plunge, Bradley and Peters won first and second places, scoring eight points for Andover. The fifty yard race looked like a tie but was given to Harvard, Fitzgerald coming in second and Mayer a close third. The result of the diving was very close, but after considerable discussion, the first place was given to Harvard and the second and third places to Gould and Kingsbury. Fullerton of Harvard won the 200 yard race, with Searle second, and Peters fourth. The meet ended by a victory in the 100 yard event for Captain Fitzgerald, and Crane obtained the third place.

Fitzgerald won the greatest number of points for Andover with a score of eight, Bradley coming in second with five.

Although Harvard won a close victory last Wednesday, the team is planning revenge for their return meet on March 10 in the Andover pool.

Mr. Lillard, Coach Sutherland, Captain Fitzgerald, Bradley, Peters, F. Kingsbury, M. S. Gould, Crane, Mayer, Scranton and Tilton took the trip.

The summary:

100 Yard—Won by Fitzgerald, Andover; Wentworth, Harvard, second; and Crane, Andover, third. Time, 1 minute, 4-5 seconds.

50 Yard—Won by Wentworth, Harvard; Fitzgerald, Andover, second; and Mayer, Andover, third. Time, 27 1-5 secs.

220 Yard—Won by Fullerton, Harvard; Searle, Andover, second; Seymour, Harvard, third. Time, 2 min. 56 1-5 sec.

Relay—Won by Harvard (Fullerton, Wentworth, Seymour and Jenney); Andover team (Bradley, Scranton, Mayer, and Fitzgerald). Time, 2 min. 12 sec.

Plunge—Won by Bradley, Andover; Peters, Andover, second; Dixon, Harvard, third. Distance, 57 feet.

Fancy Diving—Won by Jackson, Harvard; F. Kingsbury, Andover, second; M. S. Gould, Andover, third.

Total points—72.

Andover Historical Society Give

Series of Tableaux

The Historical Society of Andover gave a series of tableaux, entitled "The Wax Works," Thursday night at the Town hall. This performance was given for the benefit of the Society in order to build a new home for it. The tableaux represented groups of characters of different periods in history. The figures were supposed to be from the wax works of Mrs. Jarley, the famous character from Dickens, who travelled from town to town exhibiting her wax figures. For this reason the actions of the figures were mechanical, just as if they were run by machinery. To make this more realistic, Mr. Crawford, as a janitor, "wound up" each figure before it acted.

In place of the original Mrs. Jarley, Prof. Forbes presented the figures, and read a poem about each, keeping up a continual line of clever comments and poems. He was extremely entertaining, and recited some very amusing poems about famous characters of the past and of the present day.

After Mr. Forbes introduced a character, it being wound up, the figure would make gestures representing the character for which he stood. The gestures were very amusing, made in a stiff, jerky manner. Among the best were Barbara Frietchie, The Giggler, Uncle Sam, Simple Simon, Cat and the Fiddle, and Mr. J. D. Rockefeller. The best verse of the evening was the one about Rockefeller. "An oily tongue makes a good bank teller, But an oily can makes a Rockefeller."

Of the faculty, Mr. Crawford was the Janitor, Mr. Pifer was the Czar, and Mr. Leonard, President Wilson. Also Mrs. Stackpole and Mrs. Stott acted. The school orchestra furnished the music and played very well, especially the lighter pieces.

The list of the different tableaux is as follows:

Historical Chamber—Diogenes, Joan of Arc, Barbara Frietchie, Nero, Benjamin Franklin, Cleopatra.

Miscellaneous—The Giggler, Little Buttercup, The Vernon Castles, Maude Adams, Uncle Sam.

Miscellaneous—Mrs. Jarley, Simple Simon, Prima Donna, Bluebeard, Cat and the Fiddle, Maid of Athens.

Public Benefactors—Carnegie, Henry Ford, Susanna Cocroft, Rockefeller, Old Jim Sayles.

Hands Across the Sea—Bryan, Mrs. Pankhurst, Wilson, Dr. Anna Shaw.

FIRE CAPTAINS' MEETING

Increased Equipment Discussed

At a meeting held in Pearson Hall last night, the fire captains were given instructions for a systematic method of fire-fighting and prevention which will soon be started in the school.

At the instant a fire is discovered, the fire captain is to send someone to give in the downtown alarm and another to telephone to the steam plant and have the whistle blown for a general school alarm. Lieutenants have been appointed by the captains for every floor in the dormitories, who are to have individual charge of their floors. Their duties are to see that the fire equipment is not tampered with, and to take the roll call of their floor in time of fire. Every lieutenant is to report at the scene of the fire with his

Three main departments have been formed; the salvage, life-saving, and fire-fighting. There are to be three heads over the salvage and fire-fighting departments and one over the life-saving, and each is to have ten subordinates.

A general inspection of the equipment is to be taken, and at another meeting of the captains and lieutenants, recommendations will be submitted to the trustees for necessary additional equipment.

The list of floor lieutenants will be given in Wednesday's issue of the Phillipian.

New Hockey Rule

"No player can be checked who is not actually playing the puck." This additional rule of hockey was recently adopted at the meeting of the Executive Committee of the Amateur Hockey League.

The expression "not actually playing the puck" is defined as meaning that no player can be checked unless his stick is within reaching distance of the puck. This play usually is made on the side-boards of the rink, so that if a player carroms the puck off the boards he is free to follow his drive until such time as his stick comes within striking distance of the puck again.

Alfred Windors, the former Harvard player, who represented the Boston Athletic Association at the meeting, introduced the rule, which will eliminate much of the danger from the game.

Music Notes

The prelude at the service tomorrow will be a portion of Mendelssohn's Sonata on the choral "Vater unser im Himmelreich." The choir will sing the Sanctus from Gounod's Mass "Des Orpheonistes," the whole of which it expects to render at a future musical service.

The prelude at Vespers will be a number of Bach's "Partita Diversa" on the choral "O Gott du frommer Gott." The choir will sing Shelly's "Hark! Hark my soul."

The recital next Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock will consist of two Haydn Trios-violin, cello and piano (Trios 3 and 4, Edit. Peters) played by Miss Eaton, Mr. Scriven and Mr. Pfatfeicher. At the recital on February 10th, Mr. Pfatfeicher will play the 4th and 5th organ concertos of Handel.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

It goes without saying that every fellow who comes to Andover has ambitions, to some small degree at least, of making one of the school teams, squads, or class teams, and thus earn a name for himself, gain some much coveted Andover insignia, and help the school win victories in the various lines of athletic endeavor.

The Novice track system, which has just been started, affords those who are not engaged in another sport, the opportunity of helping themselves and the school at the same time. In the Novice class, they will not be outclassed by any of the big athletes of the school, and hence will have a chance to develop under most favorable conditions. Those in the senior or middle classes may be helped to make a college track squad several years hence, even if they do not round into good enough shape during the winter to make any teams next spring. But the system especially benefits the younger boys of the school, those in the junior-middle and junior classes. If they come out for track regularly during their four years here at Andover, it is certain that a large proportion will be on the track squad two or three years hence.

Many of the college track stars of the present day were unearthed from new, untried material. Many preparatory school athletes have come to light in the same manner. Report to Prescott now. You may be an athlete.

The importance of interclass swimming is self-evident. It is a fine clean sport, and if it is entered with the proper spirit it will highly develop the muscles of the chest and arms. This year Andover has only two men on the team, Bradley and Fitzgerald, who were on last year's swimming team. The rest of the team, with one exception, were on class swimming teams last year and there got their training for the varsity squad. Those men are as follows: C. H. Peters, C. W. Scranton, G. Tilton, S. A. Searle, E. H. Bockius, M. S. Gould, R. B. Mayer. Crane, who entered school at Christmas time, is the only man who was not on a class swimming team last year. There will not be many of this year's team back next fall so it is hoped that more fellows will report for class swimming.

The remodeling of Bartlett Hall is now on at full sway under the work of E. W. Pitman, Company, the Lawrence contractors. Although a few modifications will be made, the building will be restored to practically its former condition. Not exactly fireproof, the dormitory will be what is called the slow-burning type, iron and brick being used wherever possible. It looks as if the building will be completed by the first of May.

School Making Best Showing in Harvard Entrance Examinations
To Be Rewarded

In an attempt to introduce a spirit of rivalry in studies as well as in athletics, a movement has been launched to provide a scholarship trophy to be offered to the school whose pupils make the best showing in the Harvard entrance examinations.

This trophy, which will be given in the name of the Phi Beta Kappa Society, is open for competition by any school which prepares boys for Harvard, the only requirements of eligibility being that the school prepare a minimum of five. The trophy will be held by the school which wins for a period of one year, and at the end of ten years will go to the school which has made the best showing in that time. Smaller individual trophies will be awarded to the fellows of the winning school who have passed their examinations with honors.

It is suggested that the school letter be awarded the members of the winning examination teams, just as it is awarded to the members of the athletic teams. The principal trophy will be in the form of a brass bas relief, showing the statue of John Harvard with a student approaching him, paper in hand, to seek instruction.

Philo-School Debate

Several mistakes were made in the announcement of the members of the debating teams representing Philo and the School. The correct list follows:

School team—J. B. Wilson (leader), Spencer H. Logan, Kimberly Stuart, R. H. Bassett (alternate).
Philo team—Robert T. Bushnell (leader), Elliott Speer, L. W. Beilenson, A. D. Harvey (alternate).

The question, as announced in Wednesday's Phillipian, is: Resolved, That the action of the California legislature in passing the Webb bill should be condemned. Philo will support the affirmative and the School defend the negative.

Gym Team

More fellows are urged to come out for the Gym team. This work is very much more interesting than the regular gym classes, and Dr. Page has arranged for a coach, so there will be an opportunity open for fellows to learn something further about gymnastics. The class meets in the gym at 2.15 on Tuesdays and Wednesdays and Saturdays at 4 o'clock. Anyone may join this class and practise with the team if he has not signed up yet.

The New Grill

Plans are now being completed by Guy Lowell, the Academy architect, for the new grill building on Phillips street. This will form one corner of a new quadrangle which will be located on the old campus.

The building will be of the Georgian style of architecture in harmony with the other new buildings. It is expected that the construction will be begun in the early spring.

Inquiry Speaker

Mr. F. B. Sayre of Williams College will be unable to speak at Inquiry on February 14. The Committee is fortunate, however, in being able to secure for that date one of the secretaries of the Massachusetts Red Cross organization, Miss Katharine P. Loring. Her address will deal with present Red Cross activities on the European battlefields. Miss Loring will try to secure some stereopticon slides.

The World's Baseball Authority

Spalding's Official Baseball Record has just made its eighth annual appearance, increased in size to 500 pages, making it the largest and most complete book of records published.

To the college man the RECORD this year is of exceptional interest, as it now contains a new section, devoted entirely to baseball in the college arena. It contains records of 1914, notes of the game in prominent colleges, schedules for 1915 names of captains and managers, dual series between prominent colleges, and other interesting information, while the pictures comprise nearly 100 institutions.

All the usual features are still there in more accurate and condensed form. Facts that are contained in this book are practically inaccessible without reference to innumerable volumes and months of research. Some of the features are the official records of the past year in Baseball, starting from the "Round-the-World-Tour" of the Giants and White Sox, in December, 1913; up to the end of the "All-Nationals and All-Americans" tour in December, 1914; the Baseball "Hall of Fame," a review of the last world's series, city series, official averages of all major and minor leagues, and the fascinating diagrams of the pennant races week by week in all organizations.

The pictorial section, printed on a much better paper than formerly, is most attractive, while the actual size of the page has been increased.

Spalding's Official Baseball Record is for sale by all A. G. Spalding & Bros. stores, by all newsdealers, or will be sent on receipt of price, 25 cents, by the publishers, the American Sports Publishing Co., 21 Warren Street, New York City.

TO ANDOVER BOYS:

A great many boys are unable to make progress in large classes. This is usually due to the lack of early training which prevents a proper understanding of each day's lesson or to absence from classes because of illness, etc.
For the above reasons, a number of boys are compelled to leave Phillips Andover Academy each year. To these boys we offer an opportunity to make up work in which they are deficient and return to Andover. By our methods of private tutoring and small class instruction, such boys can be advanced rapidly. We are well situated at Tarrytown on the Hudson, where we can accommodate twenty-five boys and fifteen masters.
A booklet of Blake Country School will be mailed upon request.

JANUARY MIRROR

The January Mirror was published yesterday and is for sale at the book store. The first story is by C. Norman Fitts, and is entitled "Tommy, Dimmy, and the Fairy." Omitting the title, it is the author's masterpiece for this year. The next story is "The Belated Banshee," a story of Irish superstition; interesting and well written. After this comes "The Library Shelf," a new, and purely experimental department. It is made up of the list of books recommended by the Librarian for fellows to read, and a few selected reviews. The usual Editorials and Exchange departments complete the number.

All material for the February number must be handed in before next Monday, February 1.

Archaeology Notes

Mr. Moorehead is at present on a reconnaissance trip in South Western Arkansas, Eastern Oklahoma, North Eastern Texas. He has sent back pottery, and flint implements from the work sites and cemeteries, and also a few skulls and fragments. He is expected to return about February sixth.

NOTICES

On a notice posted in the office the following men are eligible for the hockey team.

Bishop, Coxe, P. Crane, Joslyn, Neilly, W. S. Robinson, Sandiford, H. E. Sanford, Sayle, Snow, C. W. Williams, Brough, J. F. Ingraham, S. Thayer.

The Pi Eta show which has made the trip to Andover for the past two years, has decided not to come here this year but try some other town. It is expected that the Pi Eta show will come here again in 1916 if the conditions should at that time be more favorable than now.

A brief memorial service for Fan will be held at the Chapel at five o'clock this afternoon. The services will be conducted by Dr. Stearns and Mr. Stackpole. All those who wish are invited to attend.

The topic of Mr. Stackpole's discussion groups on Future Occupations will be the public service.

Reviewing Exeter Monthly

In reviewing the Phillips Exeter Monthly for January, we notice that it contains four stories, four poems, an editorial, and a special article. This is a decided contrast to the Mirror, which contains four stories and an editorial. Also the Phillips Exeter Monthly has fifteen pages of advertising, which are enough to make it a paying proposition. In general the stories in the Exeter Monthly are about the same as those in the Mirror, but in the latter magazine there are no poems or special articles, which are, in a way, the best features of the Exeter Monthly.

The question naturally arises, "Why is the Phillips Exeter Monthly better than the Mirror?" The answer is perfectly evident. More interest is taken in literary affairs at Exeter, and consequently more material is contributed to its publications. This is also the reason why Exeter has been winning steadily in debating. This year the interest in debating has increased and the interest in the Mirror ought to increase proportionally. There are undoubtedly many fellows in school, who can write articles which would be a credit to the Mirror, but, whoever they are, they have not enough interest to spend a little time and effort in writing articles for the Mirror, which is good now though it ought to be better.

Exeter has defeated us in athletics and in debating during the past year, and now seems to be superior to us in literary lines. Surely we do not want the latter condition to remain as it is, when it can be readily changed for the better. A school magazine can not stand without school interest and this interest can be best shown by additional subscriptions and contributions to the Mirror.

"Mac" Baldrige '14, is on Yale wrestling squad. C. Sheldon '14, has made this squad also.
