

SWIMMING TRIALS HELD

Much Promising Material Shows Up

There was evidence of some very promising material at the tryouts for the varsity swimming squad which took place last Saturday afternoon. Coach Sutherland, who was well pleased with the showing made by all the candidates, declared that a team of high calibre can be developed.

In the first race of the 50-yard dash, Fullerton, Woods, and Taylor, who finished in the order named, were chosen for the squad. As the result of two more races over the same distance, Phillips, Tilton, Neville, and Moorehead were also picked. The relay team will be made up of the best of these seven swimmers.

H. Clark easily led the field in the 100-yard dash, being followed by Truman, with Fish and Lunt in a tie for third place.

The fancy diving contest was very close, but finally all but S. Gould and Crane were eliminated. M. Gould and Kingsbury, who were away at Rogers Hall with the musical clubs, will also represent the school in this event.

As there were no trials in the breast stroke, the 50-yard back stroke was the last race scheduled. H. Clark emerged victorious, making excellent time for so early in the season. He was hard pushed, however, by Tilton, who landed second place.

There will be practice for those who made the squad, every day at 3 o'clock, and at 12 o'clock for those who have no recitations at that time. Those who failed to be chosen, but who are taking swimming as their sport, will report on Monday, Thursday and Friday at 2.30 as usual. The first regular meet of the coming season will be with M. I. T. Varsity on the afternoon of Wednesday, January 12, 1916.

The results of the tryouts follow, all fellows whose names are below being on the Varsity squad:

50-YD. DASH

First race—Won by Fullerton; second, Woods; third, Taylor.

Second race—Won by Phillips; second, Tilton; third, Neville.

Third race—Won by Moorehead.

100-YD. DASH

Won by H. Clark; second, Truman; tie for third between Fish and Lunt.

FANCY DIVING

Won by S. Gould; second, Crane.

50-YD. BACK STROKE

Won by H. Clark; second, Tilton.

Dramatic Club Trials

The preliminary trials for the Dramatic Club will be held next Saturday afternoon at one o'clock, in Pearson Hall. As there are not many members of last year's cast now in school, a splendid opportunity is offered to new men to make the club. As Mr. Stott, who has charge of the work, desires to select the cast as soon as possible, in order that a play suitable to the needs of the club may be secured in time to start rehearsals at the beginning of the winter term, every one who desires to try out should be on hand promptly and not wait until after the holidays to begin.

MUSICAL CLUBS GIVE GOOD CONCERT

The annual concert given by the combined musical clubs of Andover at Rogers Hall, last Saturday afternoon, proved to be very successful. As was expected, the feature of the program was the "White Star March" which was presented by the united mandolin clubs of Rogers Hall and Andover.

The fellows who were members of the clubs, with the specially invited guests, took a private car leaving the hill at three o'clock Saturday afternoon. After the concert, which was given in the late afternoon, the men joined their partners, to whom they had been introduced soon after their arrival, and proceeded to dinner in the main dining hall of the school. During the evening an informal dance was held in the gymnasium, which ended in time for the visitors to leave there at 10.35, arriving at Andover about 12 o'clock. The trip, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all who went, will be remembered as one of the most successful in the club's history.

The program, which was very interesting, was as follows:

- To Arms Glee Club
(Bend Low, O Dusky Night)
- Stars and Stripes Forever Mandolin Club
(Oshkosh Chief)
- Somewhere a Voice Is Calling Quartet
- Vendome Galop Banjo Club
- Solo Selection C. W. Gleason
- Lady Dainty Mandolin Club
(Diamond City)
- Honey, I Wants Yer Now Glee Club
- Old P. A. Combined Clubs
Special Feature—
White Star March
Rogers Hall Mandolin Club
P. A. Mandolin Club

The list of men who went on the trip follows:

Glee Club—A. H. Walsh, leader; L. B. Scheide, W. P. Miner, Pickering, Hubbard, L. S. Martin, Montgomery, H. Walker, Abercrombie, Dowd, Faherty, Schelling, Flint, Wilder, Burke, Blauvelt, Bartlett, Dresser, Andrews, Thomas, Whipp, Knight, C. W. Gleason, S. Y. Hord.

Mandolin Club—F. M. Kingsbury, leader; Heard, Hathaway, Miles, Katten, Helliwell, Lane, G. English, Whitworth, Hood, V. C. Heilner, Durant, W. Brown, Gamble, H. B. MacDonald, E. C. Scheide, Sprague, A. D. Clark.
Banjo Club—A. D. Clark leader; F. K. Kingsbury, Haughton, M. B. Ross, H. B. MacDonald, E. C. Scheide, G. English, Lane, Miles, Heilner.

Quartet—Abercrombie, first tenor; L. B. Scheide, second tenor; Wilder, first bass; A. Walsh, second bass.

Manager of combined clubs—L. B. Scheide.

Specially invited—H. P. Harrower, Ralph P. Hanes, P. Abbott, A. Smith, Wingate Bixby, W. Page, I. Bennett, H. C. Smith, R. Lindsey.

Notice

Although compulsory athletics have stopped for this term, the new men in school must report to Dr. Page in the gym, Thursday and Friday afternoons, at two o'clock sharp.

TRACK SQUAD PICKED

Good Times Made as Result of Varsity Trials

Last Friday afternoon the trials for those who are to make up the varsity track squad this winter were held on the board track on the Upper Campus. Six or seven men were picked for each event, comprising a squad numbering fifty-five candidates who will practice throughout the next term in preparation for the regular outdoor season.

Coach Blanchard was well pleased with the result of the tryouts, as there was some exceptionally promising material from which to choose, among whom were Capt. Swift, Charlton and A. Russell who have already won their "A's" in track. Besides these men there were several fellows who demonstrated their ability on their respective class teams last spring, together with some new students who have made a reputation on the cinder path as representatives of other schools.

Those who were chosen are as follows:

MILE: Dudley, Francis, Blair, Young, Miner, Crosby, Dyke, Montgomery, Talmage.

QUARTER-MILE: Swift, Symmes, Thompson, Upton, Brown, Barker, Charlton, Rowe.

HALF-MILE: Lumpkin, Germer, Boyle, Hardy, Bartlett.

FORTY-YARD-DASH: Morse, Swift, Converse, Thompson, Brown, Brennan, Eaton, English, Jones, Peacock.

HIGH-JUMP: Erwin, Pollock, Brickman, Burke, Robinson.

POLE-VAULT: Coffin A. Russell, C. Gould, T. Mann.

WEIGHTS: Beebe, Conroy, F. Dean, Hazard, Keith, Lindsey, Meyer, McCook, Miner, Mills, Sawyer, Thompson, Wolfe, Wilson.

There will be an important business meeting of Philo tonight at 7 o'clock in Peabody House. Ordinarily this meeting would be held on the last Wednesday of the term, but it was recently voted by the members of the society to hold it at an earlier date, in order that it should not interfere with examinations. A complete report of the finances of the organization will be given and officers will be elected for the coming term. It is desired that after carefully considering who most deserves the various offices, each member should cast his ballot accordingly, and not be influenced by whom others are voting for. It is especially important that the positions of president and secretary be filled by capable, hard-working men who have only the best interests of the society at heart. It has been the case in past years that the attendance at Philo has always been largest during the winter term, and so officers are needed who can see to it that interesting programs are offered that will attract every fellow in school.

The merger of the Medico-Chirurgical College with the University of Pennsylvania has been assured by the decision of the trustees to make satisfactory terms with the smaller institution. The Medico-Chirurgical College will become a post-graduate school of the university and the latter will gain control of the former's endowment.

REPORT OF ALUMNI FUND

The ninth annual report of the Board of Directors of the Phillips Academy Alumni Fund has recently been printed in a handy little book about six by four inches in size, copies of which have been sent to all the Alumni throughout the world. A new feature of this book is its cover, which is heavier, more durable and of a better quality than similar books that have been issued in previous years. Another innovation, which has been instituted by Mr. Quinby, the secretary, is the summary of the gifts and expenses since the formation of the Alumni Fund in 1906.

Although the past year has been one of stress throughout the world, and it was hardly expected that any great growth would be maintained in the Alumni Fund, it is pleasing to note that the number of contributors to this fund during the year ending June 30, 1915 has been larger than ever before and the sum received the third largest. Those who have given comprise 11% of the living graduates, a number which is higher than it has ever been before. It is certain, however, that if the other 89% really knew how necessary this fund is to the proper growth and up-keep of the school, in order that the teaching force and fixed charges be properly maintained, they would come forward and join the at present great minority. All former members of the school doubtless know that there has always been difficulty in making income meet expenses, due to the slim endowment, and this Alumni Fund has been a great aid, in fact, a dire necessity, in maintaining the annual income on a par with the continually growing expense account.

Figures show that while in the past few years the school's funds have increased about 60%, the annual expense account has grown approximately 100%. The tuition charge does not cover the cost of instruction given, but the school authorities are unwilling to increase this tuition charge in view of the great rise in prices, so that the possibility of an annual deficit constantly faces the Academy, and there is no one to turn to but the former students to meet this

First Rifle Practice

The first rifle practice of the season was held on the Frye Village range last Saturday. The range used was 200 yards and the five highest men were as follows:

- Mr. W. H. Lillard 47 out of possible 50.
- Playford Boyle 46.
- Mr. Quinby 41.
- P. Fischer 36.
- Doron 36.

On Wednesday, December 8, there will be a final chance for all members who are experienced with a high-power rifle to go to the Frye Village range. Those who wish to go, meet in the Gym at 1.15 p.m. or else go over to the range as soon after this as possible. All dues, which are not paid before December 15, must be paid immediately after the vacation. No one will be permitted to shoot after vacation until his dues are paid up.

INQUIRY HOLDS MEETING

Students' Assembly Very Successful

The second students' meeting of the year, which was held last Sunday evening under the auspices of the Society of Inquiry in the Archaeology building, proved very successful. It was indeed encouraging to see the way both the old and new students turned out and did their best to make the evening a profitable one.

Following the opening hymn, Speer announced the subject for discussion as: "What Has Most Impressed Me This Term at Andover?" or "What Has Been Most Beneficial to Me at Andover?" He then stated that he desired to hear from the new fellows first and urged them to express their opinions in regard to the above topics. As these meetings are entirely for the benefit of the students, he continued, each individual present should do his part. Since every fellow must necessarily have been helped or impressed by something at Andover, he stated that there was no excuse for anyone's not saying a few words at least.

Following a second hymn and a reading from the Psalms by Lewis, who read an appropriate poem which urged every fellow to do his share in making the school life of his alma mater all that is upright and honorable, Peck spoke of the advantage which is derived from being able to make such a great number of friends here whom one will continually run across both in college and in business.

Doolin then brought out the fact that besides a good education and the possession of many worth-while friends to mark an Andover man, he has the Andover stamp, a thing which it takes four years here to develop in the highest degree. One never sees, he emphasized, a true Andover man who scoffs at Christ or is ashamed to lead a clean, good Christian life. In addition to this, he pointed out the great spirit of democracy which this institution stands for. This is the only preparatory school in the country, except, perhaps, Exeter, he continued, where men are allowed to work their way through to such a great extent, and are given much encouragement and help by the school authorities in doing so. In conclusion, Doolin asserted that after a person has been at Andover for even so short a time as two years, his most valuable asset is his feeling of democracy.

After R. Weber had praised the kindly attitude which the old fellows have shown toward the "preps", G. English pointed out the fact that besides the athletic and scholastic training which an Andover student received, there is an added advantage in the increased love he has for his home after he has been absent from it for a long time. When he returns for the holidays he more fully appreciates the care and tenderness which his parents have for him, after having been away from home for two or three months.

Following English, Bartlett maintained that every boy who comes to this school falls right in with the true Andover spirit, and because of this is better able to be

This issue in charge of G. M. English, '16.

As the term draws to its close, and we look back over the days so full of duties and pleasures, our hearts cannot help but swell with love for those people—our parents—who are responsible for sending us up here to school. The father and mother of each one of us has undergone some sacrifice that we might come here—if not in actual money, at least in the loneliness which they feel when we are away.

We can appreciate somewhat from our own longing to be home, just what they feel, except that our desire is inestimably small compared to that of our parents—a fact which is quite natural.

One way in which we can in some small measure requite that sacrifice lies in telling them what a wonderful place Andover is and how much we have enjoyed every day that we have passed here. Then, undoubtedly, they will rejoice in the fact that the time has been spent so profitably, and some of the regret brought about by the parting for our return here, will be lessened by the knowledge that we are going to a place where we are really happy.

This certainly seems like a very small thing, but we can be sure that in doing it we will bring a great deal of pleasure to those people at home whom we all love so much.

Tickets for the dance to be held next Saturday in the Peabody House may be obtained from any member of the dance committee, which is listed below. No tickets will be sold at the door, and it is absolutely necessary that they be obtained beforehand.

Fellows are again warned that no one will be admitted without a partner.

The dance committee: M. S. Gould chairman; H. P. Harrower, P. Abbott, R. P. Hanes, C. W. Gleason, C. Drake, C. L. Faherty

The final makeup of the Yale Glee Club has been announced recently in the Yale News. There are four old Andover men on the club this year: E. W. Baker '14, C. Hathaway '14, J. H. Slocum '15, and D. Armour '14.

Communication

To the Managing Editor—

Several weeks ago, there was published in the Phillipian an anonymous communication suggesting a series of dances to be held in the hall of the Peabody House. And now that it has been decided to hold such a group of dances, it seems as if the student body should support the enterprise in a satisfactory manner.

A committee has been chosen to take charge, and the men who compose it have worked hard, so that we have facing us next Saturday the first of these informal affairs. However, there is now a question as to whether the student body will take hold of the new plan. It has been announced that no fellow will be present without a partner; this was done, of course, in order that there might not be a larger assembly of boys than young ladies. Possibly many fellows will say that since they are unacquainted with any girls hereabouts, it is impossible for them to attend. But to provide for this contingency, special arrangements have been made with Abbot Academy, whereby fellows may meet the girls in time to take them to the first dance.

It is hoped that the fellows will take hold of this new plan, and help to make it a fixture in the school.

Respectfully

Dining Hall Notice

In order to permit students who have either no twelve o'clock or no five o'clock classes to secure their meals earlier in the day, a new schedule of meals at the Dining Hall will go into effect at the beginning of the winter term.

On Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, luncheon will be served from 12:30 to 1:30, while one may secure dinner from 5:30 to 6:30. On Wednesday and Saturday the Dining Hall will be open for luncheon from 11:30 to 12:30, while dinner will be at 5:45 as heretofore.

Dartmouth Club Meets

The Dartmouth Club held its first meeting of the year last Monday night in Peabody House, with Secretary-Treasurer Shurtleff presiding. The first matter to be taken up was the election of a president and a vice-president for the coming term. Bartlett was chosen for the former office and Moore was elected vice-president.

Shurtleff then stated that the dues of the club would be one dollar and that as many smokers as possible would be held during the year with the money taken in by the treasurer. A banquet will be given some time in February, he continued, at which a prominent Dartmouth man will speak to the club on matters of interest pertaining to the college. Shurtleff then urged all the men present to try and persuade other prospective Dartmouth students to join the club and to be present at the smoker, which will take place soon after the Christmas holidays.

The list of members who have already signed up is as follows:

- G. Bartlett, Bancroft 7
- R. H. Moore, Bancroft 9
- W. P. Shurtleff, Bancroft 3
- C. F. Bartholomew, Farrar 4
- R. W. Howe, Pemberton 5
- H. M. Hardy, Andover, Mass.
- W. P. Graves, Draper 6
- W. E. Tracy, Draper 5
- D. F. Anderson, Draper 5
- S. C. Wood, Phillips 20
- B. W. Jaffron, Tucker

loyal to his college and to his country, and in this way he becomes a more worthy member of his community.

Williams, who next took the floor, expressed himself as greatly impressed with the standards of clean living and pure thinking which are prevalent here on the Hill. Everyone is always busily engaged in some useful work, and does not have time to spend in loafing. In this way valuable habits of conscientiousness and punctuality are cultivated, which will be of immense value in the business world.

The fact that one learns how to manage his own affairs and how to choose the right thing at all times during his stay at this school, was the pith of Patterson's talk. He was succeeded by Hatch, who affirmed that there are many types of men here who come from all parts of the United States, and each one has his own ideas about how to do things. They soon are molded into one unit, he went on to say, whatever selfishness and conceit they formerly possessed being removed in a large measure.

Neville then praised the way in which everyone goes out for something in an effort to support the various school activities to the best of his ability.

E. S. English, Fish, and Beardslee each said a few words in the same general tone, and then Swift thanked the new fellows for the way in which they had helped to make the meeting a success. He said that in all his three years' experience at Andover he never before saw such an interesting and energetic group, and that if the fellows continue to show the same kind of spirit, it is sure to be a banner year for inquiry.

Before closing the meeting Speer pointed out the opportunity to help those less fortunate than we are, which is presented to Andover students in the Lawrence Work. In addition to being greatly benefited themselves, those who take up this social service are giving valuable assistance to their country by helping these Lithuanians to become better American citizens.

The meeting closed with a final hymn, after a very profitable and well-spent hour had been enjoyed by everyone.

Class Swimming

Tuesday afternoon the trials for the class swimming teams were held. The teams which will be chosen from these trials will compete during the winter months for the interclass championship.

Although no times were taken in the various events, the performances were very good for class swimmers. The four classes seem to be very evenly matched, and it is expected that there will be great rivalry in the meets for numerals. The summaries of the trials are as follows:

Relay—Won by 1918 (Hibbard, Rosenberg, Gray, Scheide); 2nd, 1919 (Smith, Hibbert, Hall, Richmond); 3rd, 1917 (Harvey, Brayton, Howe, Stout); 4th, 1916 (Farley, Tenney, Gaffron, Knight).
50-yd. swim—Won by Spencer '18; 2nd, Richmond '19; 3rd, Garrigues '16.
100-yd. swim—Won by Knight '16; 2nd, Robinson '18; 3rd, Harvey '17.

25-yd. back stroke—Won by Stearns '18; 2nd, Brayton '17; 3rd, Allen '16.
50-yd. breast stroke—Won by Thomas '16; 2nd, Atwater '17; 3rd, Zork '18.

Diving—Won by Netcher '18; 2nd, Smith '18; 3rd, Richmond '19.

Harvard Entrance Examinations

In June, 1916, all examinations for admission to Harvard College will be conducted by the College Entrance Examination Board. For admission by the Old Plan, candidates will use those Board examinations which have been used heretofore as substitutes for Harvard papers. For admission by the New Plan, the Board will set new papers, to be known as "Comprehensive Examinations." These new papers, which will be like the Harvard New Plan papers used formerly, will be prepared by committees of five in each subject, including representatives of Harvard, Yale, Princeton, public high schools, and private secondary schools.

In September, examinations prepared by the committees mentioned above will be held in Cambridge only, as usual; but these examinations will be set in New Plan subjects only. Boys who have incomplete records by the Old Plan will be allowed to use these papers to complete their records. There will be no September examinations in Geography, Botany, Zoology, and Drawing.

In view of the fact that in June, 1916, candidates for admission to Harvard must register not with Harvard but with the Board, the College is issuing a new blank form of "Application for Admission after Examination." If these applications are filed now, it will be possible to give boys early advice about new regulations, to avoid misunderstandings, and to learn in time of any difficulty which we may not have foreseen in making this change in administrative machinery.

Attention is called to the following changes in the regulations for admission—

- (1) Spanish will be accepted in place of either German or French in the Old and New Plans of admission.
- (2) Two kinds of Advanced History will hereafter be accepted—that is, a candidate presenting Ancient or Mediaeval and Modern History as an Elementary subject may present both English and American History as Advanced subjects, each counting as one unit.
- (3) The Shopwork subjects and Civil Government disappear from the list of examination subjects.
- (4) Botany and Zoology will hereafter count either a half or a full unit each, according to the length and scope of a candidate's course of study, as shown by the Board examinations in Biology or by the separate examination in Botany and Zoology.

Harvard Club to Give Banquet

Next Saturday evening at 6.15 the Harvard Club of this school will hold a banquet in the Peabody House, for which the price of admission will be $1.50. It will be well worth the cost, however, for the food will be served by Harrington, whose culinary ability is already too well known to need comment. After the repast is over, speeches will be given by prominent members of the Harvard Senior class, concerning matters of interest to the prospective students at that university. There is a possibility that Captain Mahan of the football team may be prevailed upon to come up for the meeting. It is hoped that a large number of fellows will be on hand to make this gathering a success, and repay the speakers for their time and trouble in coming up here.

D. C. Elkins, '12, who is manager of crew at Yale, is in the cast of the Yale Dramatic Club which will make an extended tour during the Christmas vacation.

shortage. It is therefore hoped that each individual alumnus will personally feel the direct responsibility in the matter of helping out this year. It is desired that before long 25% of the former students will be enrolled on the lists.

The Fund is in two forms: (1) a current expense fund the use of which is unrestricted, and is spent annually as the school officials direct; (2) class or endowment funds, the income of which only is used. These two sources of revenue which now give an annual income of nearly $8,000, are of very great help to the school.

The following summary for the year will be of interest to many:

Suits for Young Men

We specialize more closely in this branch of the clothing business than anybody we know of in New England. A man buys for this one section alone, and only from firms who handle clothes especially designed for boys going into first long trousers and for some years thereafter.

Constitution of Phillips Academy

ARTICLE I

The objects of this Association are to obtain contributions to the Phillips Andover Alumni Fund; such fund to be applicable to any uses of the school, preferable for general purposes, the benefits to be shared by all the departments as distinguished from the particular purposes of any particular department, unless specifically otherwise directed by any contributor, and for the further purposes of increasing the resources and advancing the interests of Phillips Academy, Andover.

ARTICLE II

The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors, former members of the School, which shall have power to conduct and manage the collection of such contributions and also to determine when and how much of such fund shall be devoted by the school authorities for the general income purposes on the one hand or general investment purposes on the other, after providing for the expenses of management and collection to the fund. It shall have further power to appoint Committees to elect or appoint and authorize such officers and agents and auxiliary Committees as may be determined to be necessary or convenient by the Board, and to make By-Laws and change the same.

The first Board of Directors appointed by the Trustees of the school by resolution adopted on the —th day of November, 1905, shall hold office for a term expiring on Commencement Day in the year 1908. They shall have power to fill vacancies and to add to their number, such additional numbers, however, to hold office until such Commencement Day, 1908; and on Commencement Day, 1908, or as soon thereafter as may be, the Trustees of the school shall appoint a new Board of Directors, and such Board shall divide itself into three as nearly equal classes as possible, the term of office of each class to expire successively on the three Commencement Days succeeding, and the vacancies thus created to be filled by similar appointment; each class thereafter to hold office for three years. The number of Directors shall not exceed fifteen. - A quorum of the Board shall be four.

ARTICLE III

Membership in the Association shall be open to any person who has been a student in any department of the school, and such membership may be acquired by subscription or contribution to the fund. Such membership shall involve no pecuniary liability which cannot be terminated on notice.

ARTICLE IV

There shall be a general Committee, whose members shall be appointed by the Board of Directors for terms of office not less than one year nor more than three. The members of the Board of Directors shall also be members of the General Committee. The General Committee shall, subject to the Board of Directors, have charge of the collection of the fund, and, when called upon, shall advise with the Board of Directors as to the general conduct of the affairs of the association and the disposition of the funds collected.

ARTICLE V

This Constitution may be amended at any time by the written consent of not less than six Directors, but not so as to create or increase the liability of the members.

BY-LAWS

I

The officers of this Association must be, with the exception of the secretary, members of the Board of Directors. There shall be a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The Board may appoint to the office of Secretary a person not a Director.

II

The Board may, whenever it sees fit, elect an Executive Committee to exercise all of the powers of the Board while the Board is not in session.

III

The officers shall have the usual powers and duties of officers of similar character in voluntary associations.

IV

The meetings of the Board may be held upon the call of the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman, or the Secretary, upon reasonable notice. Meetings of the Board of Directors and of the Board of Trustees shall, as a rule, be held in the City of New York, but may be held elsewhere.

V

These By-Laws may be amended at any time by written consent of not less than six Directors.
