Junior Promenade Notice

Chairman Hord of the Junior Prom Committee announces that this evening a canvass of the school will be made by the members of the committee to sell tickets for the Prom, which will take place on Monday evening, February 21. It is absolutely imperative that every fellow should know whether or not he is going, and also that he should have the money for his ticket, which will cost $3.40, ready to pay immediately. It is hoped that a good many of the fellows intend going, as the more tickets that are sold, the better the Prom will be. This year, as in previous years, there will be no recitations Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning, which will enable the fellows to meet their partners, to attend teas, and to do other things for which there would not be time otherwise.

MERRIMACK C. C. WINS

Last Saturday afternoon the hockey team went down to defeat before the Merrimack Valley Country Club, by the score of 2 to 0. There was a marked improvement in the playing since the last game. Teamwork was more evident, and the shooting had visibly improved. The teams were very evenly matched, although the Andover players were outweighed by the Club men.

The game started about 2.50, with Andover defending the east goal. Both teams started off with a lot of snap and the puck saw-sawed back and forth from one end of the rink to the other. The Andover players made some close shots at the goal, but scoring was prevented by the fine work of Humphries, the Club goal tender. The first score came in the second half, when Sweeney, who played point for the Merrimack team, made a spectacular dash down the rink and drove the puck into the net. The teams had hardly lined up when D. Stevens repeated the performance. This was the end of the scoring, however, as Andover settled down, and kept the play at her opponent's end of the rink for the rest of the game.

Wanamaker played a fine game for Andover, while Humphries and Sweeney starred for the visitors.

"Charlie" Lanigan, P. A. '06, who was a former Harvard baseball captain; A. Sweeney, who was captain of the P. A. '06 golf team, and T. Sagar, P. A. '13, played for the Merrimack Club.

The lineup was as follows:

ANDOVER	M. V. C. C.
Boltwood, g.	g., Humphries
Rounds, c.p.	c.p., Lanigan
Hubbard, p.	p., Sweeney
Wanamaker, r.	r., Howe
Ingraham, l.w.	l.w., D. Stevens
Shedden, c.	c., Sagar
Mitchel, r.w.	r.w. McDonald
Referee, Waters.	Time keeper, P. Abbott.
Time by half, two 8-minute halves.	Goals by M. V. C. C., Sweeney 1; Stevens 1.

Music Note

Beginning this afternoon, the students will be given the opportunity of hearing the preludes and motifs of all the greater Wagnerian operas. This afternoon's program will consist of the overture to Rienzi, piano and organ; Rienzi's Prayer, organ; and the overture to The Flying Dutchman, piano and organ. Mrs. J. C. Angus will be at the piano and Mr. Pfatteicher at the organ.

BASKETBALL

Last Saturday afternoon about fifty fellows responded to the first call since 1914 for basketball. Two teams were picked from each class and games of 5-minute halves were played, so that the coaches might get a line on the men's ability. Of the four classes, 1916 made the best showing, their players being heavier and more experienced than the others. The future plans depend largely upon the showing made Saturday. If there seem to be enough good players in school, class teams will probably be organized and a schedule made for the term.

The schedule for to-day's practice is as follows:

Seniors—4 o'clock
Upper Middlers—4.30
Lower Middlers—5.00
Juniors—5.30.

Kreisler's Recital

"Fritz" Kreisler the world's famous violinist will give a recital at the Lawrence Opera House on Thursday, February 3. This entertainment is given under the auspices of the Chadwick club and tickets may be secured at the Broadway Savings Bank of Lawrence.

School Elections

After chapel on Thursday last the election for president of 1918 was held which resulted in the choice of John K. Converse. Converse has been in the school since 1913 and was a member of the track team last year.

On Saturday morning Douglas Walker of Duluth, Minn., was elected vice-president.

At the same election, E. S. English of Narberth, Pa., who has been a member of the school since the fall of 1913, was elected secretary-treasurer of the 1918 class.

Bible Classes

Last Sunday the Bible and discussion groups met for the first time and enjoyed a very interesting forty-five minutes. It is hoped that the fellows will come regularly through the term as the leaders have planned some very interesting courses.

Mr. Hinman's group will meet next Sunday at 11.45, immediately after Chapel. Miss Frost has reserved books at the library and anyone interested in studying the topic may secure the book from her. The following are the subjects to be taken up:

Jan. 23—St. Augustine
Jan. 30—St. Francis
Feb. 6—Thomas a Kempis
Feb. 13—Savonarola
Feb. 20—Wyclif
Feb. 27—Luther
Mar. 5—Calvin
Mar. 12—Knox
Mar. 18—Coligny

Annual Meeting of Inquiry

On January 30 the annual business meeting of the Society of Inquiry will be held for the purpose of electing officers for the second half of the year. The following men have been chosen for the nominating committee: Paul Doolin, Gordon Bartlett, H. P. Harrower.

COLLEGE MEN AT INQUIRY

Last Sunday evening there was a very interesting meeting of the Society of Inquiry, at which there was a very good attendance. According to the usual form of the meetings it was opened by singing a hymn. After this, Malcolm Baldrige, P. A. '14, Y. '18, led the fellows in prayer. Then Speer read a passage from the Scripture.

Speer then introduced "Mac" Baldrige, who began his talk by saying that every one had heard a very great deal about preparedness and that soon the crisis would come to this country, whether it should rise or fall, so if we were prepared for it we would come through with flying colors. He then told the fellows that they were coming to a time when they would have to choose between the right and the wrong, for when a fellow goes to college he leaves behind all his restrictions, and it is at that time that he is most tempted. He then went on to say that if the fellow is prepared, he will choose the right.

"But, he said, to be prepared, one must be physically, mentally and morally prepared; for if one takes no exercise he becomes loggy; secondly, mentally prepared, for that is really what one goes to college for, not just to be popular, and here also he added that most of the big men in the Senior class down at Yale were students. He then gave an example of mental unpreparedness. Two years ago there was a fine Freshman football team, and when it came to real playing on the Varsity team only two were eligible. Then he showed how great an effect it had on these men when everyone else decided to leave them alone; so he said that if here in Andover, all the other fellows would not speak to a fellow who was down in his lessons, there would be a decided change in him. And lastly, morally prepared, which is the most important of all, for if you are not, he continued, you lose your health, and your mind goes back on you.

Then he went on to say that you want to be so morally prepared that you can say "No" to some one who is tempting you to do something that you know is wrong. He then brought up that when some one like Dr. Stearns, Mr. Stackpole, or Mr. Campbell is trying to help us, we should meet them halfway; in reference to this he said that on the battle front the men are being killed when they haven't even seen the enemy, and haven't had a fighting chance; but here we all have a chance, and so should meet Mr. Campbell halfway.

Speer then introduced Charles Campbell, Yale '09, as the next speaker. He started out by saying that there were three reasons why we should follow Christ. First, because we need His help, for it is hard to fight the battles against temptation alone and choose the right without the Saviour's aid, and so we need more strength than we have in ourselves; he here alluded to a fellow he knew when in college, who after he left college started gambling, which led him to stealing, for which he spent twenty-two years of his life in prison.

The Phillipian takes great pleasure in announcing the election to its board of three new members: William H. Barber, '16, of Newton, Mass.; Harlan W. Cooley, '17, of Chicago, Ill.; and Flint Brayton, '16, of Fall River, Mass.

It is to be hoped that the men who were on the Varsity football squad last fall and who have not yet turned in the uniforms belonging to the Athletic Association, will do so at once. This matter has been dragging along for nearly two months, and although repeated requests have been made to them, several members have not turned in their uniforms. There is a rule of the Athletic Association which states that no letters will be awarded to the men on any team until all uniforms belonging to the Association have been turned in. Thus, several individuals are preventing all the men who played in the Exeter game from getting their letters, hats, and sweaters. It does not seem to be in accordance with the true Andover spirit, that four or five fellows, through their laziness and thoughtlessness, should prevent all the other men on the team from obtaining that which is one of the greatest honors a school or college athlete can receive. It would take only a few minutes for the above-mentioned men to gather up their uniforms and take them to the gym, and thus end this trouble.

Philo

At a meeting of Philo, called after chapel on last Monday morning, the election of a new secretary was brought before the meeting, since it was necessitated by the resignation of Hyde, the former secretary. Williamson was unanimously elected and will take up his duties as secretary immediately.

Letter Presented to Exeter

The trustees voted lately to present to the trustees of Phillips Exeter Academy a letter, dated 1835 from Benjamin Abbott, the secretary of the Board of Trustees of Phillips Exeter Academy, to Daniel Webster, notifying the latter of his election to the Board of Trustees of Phillips Exeter Academy.

When this man came out of prison, Mr. Campbell said, he started to follow Christ, the old sins went away, he got new strength and just lately was given back his citizenship by President Wilson. Here Mr. Campbell gave, another example, that of a fellow at a prep school who started in wrong; he did what the crowd did and was launched on a downward path. At this point in his career that fellow started to follow Christ, and upon him came a remarkable new life. Mr. Campbell then said that if a fellow wished, he could end up in the same place where that fellow did, just by following Christ now without going through the misery of a misguided life. Secondly he remarked that we should follow Christ, because those who do have a power and influence that others have not. Then, he continued, if you stand against temptation, as you can with the help of Christ, some other one noticing it will be influenced. Mr. Campbell then spoke of running across a man the other day who had been very strong and had played on the football team, but who had just let himself go all to pieces, and instead of being a good influence in the world he was carrying others down with him. As a contrast to this man he spoke of Lucius Bigelow, who was captain of the 1908 football team at Yale and an All-American tackle. He said that he had kept on following Christ, had added 100% to his influence, and is now doing a great work among the boys of New York City. Lucius Bigelow was also in the Glee Club. Mr. Campbell said that Bigelow never would have been what he is without following Christ. So, he rejoined, by following our Lord and Saviour, we become influential in this world.

Lastly, he brought out that we should follow Christ because it is hard, because it takes moral courage; it is easy to go with the crowd, but it takes strength to stand alone when the crowd is going the other way. He then said that a hard life, and the following of Christ, ought to appeal to everybody, for in the end it brings in the largest dividends. Here he once more spoke of Bigelow, saying that he used to go across to the room opposite his with his Bible and read with his friend. This, he said, took even more stamina than playing on the football team, for he might be sneered at by other fellows. But he went on to say that if the following of Christ is genuine none will sneer, and he urged everyone to do just what he thought right, reminding them that Christ stood alone against many.

After this he summed up his talk by saying that everyone should follow Christ for these three reasons; in the first place, because we need Christ to help us to win; in the second place, because we gain added influence and power; and lastly, because it takes more strength than the other life, and that those who want to be strong should take that life.

Mr. Campbell told the fellows that he would be here till Wednesday, asking any fellows who wished to come and see him, and saying that he would help anyone if he could. Then the meeting was closed with a word of prayer by Mr. Campbell.

Wrestling

Thursday at 2.15, trials for the class wrestling teams will be held. The teams are to be reorganized, and the tryouts are open to the whole school.

Peabody Dance

Last Saturday afternoon the second of the Peabody Assemblies was held in the Union and was even more successful than the first one. There were fifty-five couples present and the floor was rather crowded. Foss's orchestra of Lawrence furnished the music. There was dancing from 3 to 5 o'clock, when refreshments were served. After refreshments, dancing was again resumed and lasted until 6.30. The patronesses were Miss Bailey, Mrs. Fuess, and Mrs. Keep. It is planned for the next assembly to have dancing on both floors in order to give the dancers more room.

Recital Schedule

The following is the schedule of recitals to be held in the chapel this term:

Jan. 19—Wagner program, piano and organ, by Mrs. J. C. Angus and Mr. Pfattheicher. The Overture to Rienzi; Rienzi's Prayer; the Overture to The Flying Dutchman.

Jan. 26—A flute recital—Mr. A. N. Alexander. Three Sonatas by Bach.

Feb. 2—Wagner program—Mrs. Philip Ripley and Mr. Pfattheicher. The Overture to Tannhauser; the Prelude to Lehergrin.

Feb. 9—Piano recital for four hands—Mrs. Ripley and Mr. Pfattheicher. Original Sonatas for four hands by Mozart.

Feb. 16—Wagner program—Mrs. Frank Paige and Mr. Pfattheicher. Motifs from The Ring; Sigfried Idyll; Prelude to The Meistersinger.

Feb. 23—Organ recital—Mr. Pfattheicher. Modern French (Debussy); Russian.

March 15—Compositions for two pianos: Cramer Etudes arranged by Henselt; Saint Saen's Variations on a theme by Beethoven.

March 22—A pupils' recital—piano and organ.

This schedule subject to change.

Hampton Coming

Next Sunday evening the representatives of Hampton Institute will give a concert and illustrated lecture in the chapel. Two years ago a branch of the Armstrong League was formed here, and since then the concert of the Hampton men has become an annual affair. The Armstrong League is an organization which keeps the schools and colleges which maintain scholarships at Hampton, in touch with the work there.

Hampton was founded by Gen. Armstrong forty-six years ago. At the close of the Civil War Gen. Armstrong saw the need that this country would have for such an institution as Hampton, and so it was that, with two teachers and fifteen pupils, he started the school in some old plantation buildings at Hampton, Va. Since those early days the school has grown tremendously. It now has over 150 buildings and more than 1000 acres of land. When a student enters Hampton to-day he is given his choice of fourteen different trades, including engineering. But the work of the Hampton graduates more than makes up for the opportunities offered them. From statistics presented last year it is seen that the illiteracy of the negroes has been reduced from 100% to 30.4%. Andover men should be particularly interested in the work at Hampton as the present head of the institution, Dr. Frissell, is an Andover graduate.

Give Interesting Talks

Last Saturday evening the faculty enjoyed a very interesting talk by Mr. Bingham, upon the subject "South American Traits." In his talk Mr. Bingham spoke of the attitude of South America toward the United States. He brought out the fact that South America had a wrong impression of the United States, for what they knew of us was only what they got from the newspapers, which printed only the murders and scandals, but not the real, vital news of the country. They also got a bad impression from the men whom we sent down to them, for we have not been sending representative men. South America being influenced very greatly by politeness, courtesy and etiquette became prejudiced against us. Mr. Bingham asserted that now South America was beginning to see the United States in a real, true light, and hopes that very soon that wrong view of the United States will die away entirely.

Dr. Stearns Talks on Current Events

Last Monday morning in Chapel, Dr. Stearns gave the first of a series of daily talks about current events. He touched briefly on the European war, Mexican situation and the actions of Congress, and explained to the fellows how essential it was that they should read the newspapers and be well posted on current events.

Brickley Barred at Trinity

Trinity College has adopted a new set of athletic eligibility rules, providing among other things that no student shall be allowed to represent the college in athletics who has been a member of a classified baseball league under the National Commission. This will bar George Brickley, a former professional baseball player whose presence on the football team last fall caused several colleges to drop Trinity from their schedule. This will be a big blow to Trinity's athletic teams, as Brickley is a star athlete.

Gym Team

It is desired that more fellows shall volunteer to go out for the gym team. There are now very few fellows out for it and there is a great chance for a fellow to make good and help the team along. If anyone thinks he is in any way fitted for the gym team or has any interest in it, he may take up his work with the team instead of whatever other form of athletics he is taking now. If enough fellows will come out and try there will be great chance of a very good team this year. The gym team practices on Tuesday at 3 o'clock, Wednesday at 3, and Saturday at 1.45.

Mr. Freeman to Speak

The first of these will be given to-night, at 7 o'clock, in the lecture room of the Archaeology building. "The Rise of Germany" will be the subject for to-night. The lectures are open to any fellows who may be interested.
