CLASS TRACK MEET

1916 Defeats 1918 by Overwhelming Score of 48 to 13.

Last Wednesday afternoon in a class track meet 1916 decisively defeated 1918 by the score of 48 to 13. The Seniors won first and second places in every event, except the high jump, which was won by Heyden '18 with a jump of 5 ft. 2 in. The shotput and high jump were held in the gym, while the other events were run off on the board track. The turnout was very poor, the Lower Middlers being represented by only four men, and it is hoped that in the coming meets the fellows will come out and show a little class spirit. The best event was the mile run, Dudley crossing the line less than a foot in front of Miner.

High jump—Won by Heyden '18; second, Pollock '18; third, Bricken '18. Height 5 ft. 6 in.

Shotput—Won by F. G. Minor '16; second, J. S. Bailey '18. Distance 31 ft. 6 in.

330-yd. dash—Won by Charlton '16; second, Francis '16; third, Brown '16. Time 37 sec.

50-yd. dash—Won by Jones '16; second, English '16; third, Keith '16. Time 5.4 sec.

660-yd. dash—Won by Charlton '16; second, Dudley '16; third, Bailey '18. Time 1 min. 24 sec.

60-yd. hurdles—Tie for first place between G. English and Jones; third, Keith. Time 8.2 sec.

Mile run—Won by Dudley '16; second, Miner '16. Time, 5 min. 4 sec.

Point summary:

Historical Exhibition

Beginning this afternoon and continuing for two weeks there will be shown in the library, material illustrating American History. The exhibition will consist mainly of pictures, books and maps, but there will also be an interesting collection of fire-arms loaned by Singleton Moorehead, '18.

For this exhibition Mr. Edward Brooks of Andover has loaned some framed engravings of much historical value. Mr. Brooks also has most generously presented to the library Church's "Indian Wars" which contains a portrait of Col. Church engraved by Paul Revere.

The exhibition will be open to the whole school and it is hoped that it will prove interesting, not only to those who are studying American History but to the other students as well.

Chapel Speaker

To-morrow in chapel President Frost of Berea College, Kentucky, will speak at the morning service. Mr. Stearns was unable to speak this Sunday but will probably be the speaker next week.

HOCKEY GAME TODAY

The Andover-Exeter Teams Will Meet Today at 2.30 at Exeter. Close Contest Expected

This afternoon the hockey team will journey to Exeter to play the Crimson in the big game of the season. The team has been greatly strengthened by the return of Captain Crane and Waters to the lineup, and a fast game is expected. During the preliminary seasons both teams have been greatly handicapped by the lack of ice, and the majority of the games had to be canceled.

Andover has played only five games out of the scheduled nine. In the first game of the season, January 12, the Blue, greatly weakened by the loss of some of the stars through conditions, was defeated by Lowell Textile, 4 to 3, and the following Saturday met defeat at the hands of the Merrimack Valley Country Club by the score of 2 to 0. The next two games, with Wakefield and Yale Fresh, resulted in victories for Andover. Then followed a long list of postponements. Then the team was beaten last Saturday by the Harvard Freshmen in the Boston Arena by the score of 4 to 1.

Exeter has been even more handicapped, being able to play only two games. The Crimson easily defeated Cambridge High, 9 to 0, and Somerville High, 8 to 0. The remaining games, however, were canceled.

Although Exeter is slightly the favorite, if past scores be considered, nevertheless the Blue is hopeful for a victory.

The teams will line up as follows:

ANDOVER	EXETER
Allen, r.w.	W. Nute
Wanamaker, r.	S. Martin
Gowans, c.	Hutchinson
Crane, l.w.	r.w., Coll
Thurlow, c.p.	c.p., White
Hubbard, p.	p., Davis
Waters, g.	g., Nichols

CLASS SWIMMING MEET

1917 Defeats 1916, 46-23, and 1918 Wins From 1919, 58-11

Last Wednesday afternoon in two class swimming meets, 1917 defeated 1916, 46 to 23, and 1918 was victorious over 1919 by the score of 58 to 11. The meets were much more exciting than the preceding ones and faster time was made. Gould '16, proved to be the individual star, capturing first place in the dive and second in the 50-yd. dash. He also put up a plucky fight in the relay, although far behind his opponent when he started.

A rule has been made whereby all entries in the coming meets must be in the hands of the manager by 2 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, and no man will be allowed to enter more than two events. However, one may take part in two events besides the relay and dive.

The summary of the meet between 1916 and 1917 follows:

Relay—Won by 1917 (Fish, Eaton, Clark and Stearns).

Plunge—Won by Mills '17; second, Keith '16; third, Eaton '17. Distance 52½ ft.

50-yd. dash—Won by Clark '17; second, Gould '16; third, Eaton '17.

200-yd.—Won by Fish '17; second, Knight '16.

Breast stroke—Won by Atwater '17; second, Thomas '16; third, Harvey '17.

Back stroke—Won by Farley '16; second, Brayton '17.

Dive—Won by Gould '16; second, Stohn '17; third, Fish '17.

100-yd.—Won by Clark '17; second, Eaton '17; third, Knight '16.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

This issue is in charge of the Managing Editor.

We were all somewhat disturbed, to say the least, when in the last number of the Phillipian, we noticed an article from an out-of-town paper speaking of the noticeable falling off in attendance at recent Andover-Exeter contests, and on reading further, we saw that, according to this account, Worcester was fast usurping Andover's place as Exeter's great athletic rival.

While we did not, perhaps, agree with the second statement, the first is, nevertheless, a fact. One can hardly blame outsiders, however, for taking less interest than formerly in Andover-Exeter contests when, out of more than five hundred students here in Phillips Academy, less than a hundred take enough interest in the annual hockey game with our ancient rival to journey to Exeter and back up our team.

Why is this? Is the type of man now coming here to school changing? The fault certainly does not lie with the team, as we now have the best team in several years, and it is granted by all critics that Andover's chances for a victory are good. It is more likely that the students do not realize that it is their duty first, last, and all the time, to back our teams, and then to expect outsiders to do likewise.

Senior Reception

A week from Monday afternoon, in Peabody House, a reception will be given by the Senior class for the men and their partners who are going to the Junior Prom. Invitations will be sent out by the committee in charge and no man without a partner will be admitted. The affair will begin promptly at three o'clock and will continue until five, during which time there will probably be refreshments served and dancing. It is planned to use both floors, and to have Foss's Lawrence Orchestra supply the music. In order to defray the expenses, each member of the Senior class will be taxed seventy-five cents, and consequently the committee will visit each man Monday evening to collect the money. Every man is requested to have seventy-five cents ready to pay immediately, as the committee must have all the cash in hand as soon as possible, in order to start making the necessary arrangements.

Pot-Pourri Editor

At a meeting of the class of 1917 held yesterday morning after chapel, Elbridge Adams, 2nd of Williamstown, Mass., was elected managing editor of the Pot-Pourri for next year.

Attended Brown Alumni Reunion

Mr. Forbes of the faculty attended the forty-third annual reunion of the Brown Alumni in Boston last Wednesday night. The Hon. David Jayne Hill, ex-ambassador to Germany, Dr. W. H. P. Faunce, President of Brown, and Norman S. Taber, champion amateur mile runner, were some of the prominent speakers who were present. Wesley E. Mong, '96, the toastmaster, handed in his resignation as president of the alumni association.

Class Wrestling

Last Wednesday afternoon two class wrestling meets were held in the gym, 1919 defeating 1916, 12 10, and 1917 defeating 1918 by the score of 14 to 10. The summary of the meets follows:

1916-1919

- 119-lb. class—Quealy '19, threw Jenison '16.
- 129-lb. class—Ashley '16, threw Hale '19.

- 149-lb. class—Miller '19, threw Walsh '16.
- 159-lb. class—Hartley '16, threw Nicholson '19.
- Heavyweight—Rothchild '16, forfeited.

1917-1918

- 119-lb. class—Moore '17, threw Roberson '18.
- 129-lb. class—Warren '17, threw Sturgis '18.
- 139-lb. class—Huke '18, threw Carpenter '17.
- 149-lb. class—Horton '18, threw Bradley '17.
- 159-lb. class—Freeman '17, threw Horton '18.
- 175-lb. class—Robinson '17, forfeited.
- Heavyweight—Addis '18, forfeited.

Phillipiana

As president of the McClure Publishing Company, editor of the Ladies' World and of McClure's Magazine, author of What Happened to Mary and The Strange Case of Mary Page, Frederick L. Collins, P. A. '99, reflects credit on his native city. Mr. Collins was born in South Lawrence, thirty-three years ago, son of the late ex-Mayor Collins and Lavina E. Collins. As a boy Mr. Collins attended the Essex Grammar School and was editor-in-chief of the only grammar school paper ever published.

On graduating from the Essex school he came to Phillips Academy, where he was editor of the Mirror. Entering Harvard in 1900, he served on the Harvard Advocate as one of the editors. Mr. Collins completed his course at Harvard in three years and in 1904 went to New York where he became associated with the Outing Magazine. His rise has been rapid in the publishing business and his success as an author is marked.

Mr. Collins' stories and picture plays appear under the name of Frederick Lewis.

Henry S. Sturgis '11, formerly with the Perry, Coffin & Burr Co., is now with the Victoria Oil Co., 30 Church St., New York City.

Class Basketball

The third series of class basketball games, played at the gymnasium last Wednesday afternoon, resulted in 1917 defeating 1916 by the score of 18 to 12, and 1919 winning from 1918 by the close score of 14 to 12. The Upper Middlers displayed a good passing game which completely bewildered the Seniors, and were leading 12 to 4 at the end of the first half. The game was fast throughout and the teams showed great improvement over last week's form. Munger and Davis together scored 15 of 1917's points, while Captain Faherty, with four field goals to his credit, was the best individual point-winner for the losers.

The lineups were as follows:

- |                    |                      |
|--------------------|----------------------|
| 1917               | 1916                 |
| Warren, f.         | f., Faherty          |
| Weber, f.          | f., Flynn            |
| Munger, c.         | c., Hazard (Preston) |
| Dresser (Crane) g. | g., Keith            |
| Davis, g.          | g., Conroy (Martin)  |
- The summary: field goals—Munger 2, Faherty 4, Davis 3, Flynn, Preston. Foul goals—Warren 2, Weber, Davis. Referee—Mr. Tower. Umpire—Peck. Timer—Talcott. Scorer—Stevens.

The 1918-1919 game was an exciting contest from start to finish. Each team had the lead several times during the first half, which ended with the Juniors leading, 9 to 8. The playing was inclined to be a little rough and sixteen fouls were called during the contest. Field starred for the winners, caging four field goals and one foul while West, although not figuring importantly in the actual scoring, was by far the most versatile player for 1918.

The lineup were as follows:

- |              |                    |
|--------------|--------------------|
| 1919         | 1918               |
| Bailey, f.   | f., Serven         |
| Thornton, f. | f., Gowans         |
| West, c.     | c., Field          |
| Burnham, g.  | g., Braden (Doyle) |
| Case, g.     | g., Nicholson      |
- The summary: Field goals—Field 4, Serven 2, Bailey 2, Thornton 3. Foul goals—Doyle, Field Case, West. Referee—Talcott. Umpire—Mr. Tower. Timer—Peck. Scorer—Stevens.

Only one second-team game was played and it resulted in a 6-4 victory for 1916 over 1917. There were just enough fellows present to make up the teams, and Mr. Tower states that if more interest is not shown in the near future, the second team games will be discontinued. The goals were made by the following men: for 1916—Preston, Williams, Hochschild; for 1917—Case.

The standing of the teams in the interclass series is as follows:

	Won	Lost	P.C.
1917	3	0	1.000
1916	1	1	.500
1919	1	2	.330
1918	0	2	.000

BARNARD BUILDING

Pi Eta Coming

On Saturday evening, March 18, in the town hall, Pi Eta, the famous Harvard theatrical organization, will give a three-act musical comedy entitled "The Maiden Decides". In 1913 Pi Eta played "The Stymie" at Andover and in 1914 "The Bug in the Rug". Last year, however, it was unable to come.

J. S. Pfaffmann, P. A. '12, Harvard '16, will play the leading masculine part, and R. C. Cooke and E. A. Chapin, both P. A. '14, Harvard '18, will be in the chorus. W. L. Munro, Jr., manager of Pi Eta, will be seen in the leading feminine part, while J. W. D. Seymour, president of the Harvard Dramatic Club, will play the part of the "villain". The musical numbers have been contributed by J. B. Burnham '17, W. H. Shaw '16, W. Faulkner and O. Gundlack. The lyrics are being taken care of by P. S. Davidson '16, and W. G. Wellington '17.

The first act is laid in Central Park, New York City, during the summer of the year 2016, at which future date the ladies will be in control, creating humorous situations and grotesque costume effects.

The plot centers around the awakening by a Hindu swain, of a man and girl who have been in a state of hypnotic sleep which has lasted for one hundred years, and which was superinduced by the swain's father, a wealthy Indian prince. The second act, taking place in a cabaret road-house near New York, describes the circumstances leading up to the tragic event and the event itself. The act is the dream of the man awakened in the first act. The third act, which takes place in the same surroundings as the second, portrays the man's awakening and brings to a pleasing termination the various love plots which at first seemed to be involved in a hopeless tangle.

As a conclusion of the evening's entertainment, a one-act farce by J. W. D. Seymour will be given, which portrays in a humorous manner the social situation in Boston to-day, or rather, the situation as many people like to consider it. Pi Eta is coming at the request of the Harvard Clubs of Phillips Academy.

College Notes

For the first time in its history, Harvard will have a Freshman wrestling team and much enthusiasm has been shown by the first-year students, with Sam Anderson instructing them in the fine points. Meets are now being arranged, the first to be on February 16 against the Huntington School.

Rudolph Norman Kissell, Jr., of Morristown, N. J., was yesterday elected captain of the Harvard Freshman hockey team. Kissell prepared for Harvard at the Taft School where he was also captain of the hockey team.

The report of the Athletic Association at Princeton for the year 1914-1915 shows that football was a source of substantially increased revenue, netting $33,000 more than all expenditures. The report shows a total profit of $15,129.72, a gain of $5000 over the revenue of the previous year.

College Notes

Harvard's relay team, the fastest quartet which has represented the Crimson in the last decade, will meet the University of Pennsylvania at Hartford, February 21. They will also run in the Pennsylvania games in April. Capt. Will Bingham is the Harvard anchor man. Eddie Teschner, the star in the 100 and 220-yd. dashes, is the sprinter of the outfit, Westmore Wilcox, one of the best all-round athletes at Harvard, runs Number 2, while Tom Penny-packer, the quarter-miler, is third. Ted Merideth is a member of the Pennsylvania team.

I. J. Cartright has been appointed coach of the football team at the University of Cincinnati for next season.

Dartmouth Carnival

Thursday night witnessed the raising of the curtain on the Dartmouth Winter Carnival, the unique out-of-door intercollegiate athletic meet of the winter.

Every year this snow carnival is becoming better known, and this year it promises to rival the great Montreal carnival in popularity. All day Thursday, guests poured into Hanover from all parts of the East. Eleven fraternity houses and the Hanover Inn are filled, and the west wing of the Hitchcock, the largest and newest dormitory, is turned into a hotel annex to accommodate the guests.

The carnival opens in a truly metropolitan fashion, with a big dinner-dance in the Commons for all guests and their escorts. The big dining-room has been turned into an elaborately decorated banquet hall, around the edge of which are tables for the guests and in the center a large open space for dancing.

At 8.15 the Dartmouth Dramatic Association staged "Kick In", a drama of the underworld. This play has had very successful runs in New York and Chicago, and is now on the London boards. The atmosphere of the slums and the underworld is so perfectly produced that it was found necessary to print on the programs a vocabulary giving the meanings of the slang terms used in the play.

After "Kick In", the guests went to the various halls in Hanover, where the different fraternities held short dances. Everything now points to a record-breaking carnival. Although far from perfect, the weather conditions are much improved over those of a few days ago, and this afternoon the inter-collegiate ski and snowshoe events will be held as planned, at the Hanover golf links, and a skating race on Faculty Pond nearby.

The snow has been largely cleared from the pond's surface and the visitors may thus enjoy skating throughout the carnival, a feature that is new this year. The skating race is also new to Hanover, and if the snow is in good condition, there will be a contest in proficiency and good form in doing ski stunts, an absolutely new kind of contest for New England colleges.

Yale-Harvard Hockey

Yale comes to Harvard tonight for the opening game of the Harvard Varsity hockey series, with one of the best teams that ever represented the Elis. Gus Honfeck, who coached the team early in the season and who had to leave Yale for business reasons, said it was the best material the college ever had, and Honfeck used to coach the Princeton team when Hobe Baker played there.

Yale has always had a sturdy aggregation. While the Elis have lost many series to Harvard, it is not once on record that the Crimson ever had an easy time with the Blue.

The Yale boys have been favored with plenty of practice and the team that takes the ice to-night at the Boston Arena will be in shape to put up a stubborn battle.

The question of officials has been discussed for weeks by both managements and the outcome finds Freddy Rocque, the Arena hockey coach, and Billy Russell of Providence, selected for the positions.

Frank W. Burns '12, Y. S. '15, has recently received a position in the Westinghouse Electric Co., Wilkesburg, Pa.
