JUNIOR PROM

To be Held on Wednesday, February 21. Thirty Dances. Tickets $3.50 a couple.

The annual Junior Prom will be held this year on Wednesday evening, February 21, in Borden gymnasium. As has always been the custom, the Thursday morning classes will not meet, recitations beginning at 4 p.m., that afternoon.

Arrangements have been made with the authorities at Abbot Academy whereby those who have been unable to secure partners may do this by handing their name to one of the following committee: J. K. Converse, H. Buckley, C. E. Bailey, P. Shurtleff and R. Woolley. However, men without partners will be allowed at the dance as formerly. No alumni will be admitted.

Williams Hall will be used to aid in accommodating the young ladies and their chaperons and any men wishing to secure rooms there for their partners, should see members of the committee as soon as possible.

Tickets are $3.50 per couple and chaperon and may be obtained from any of the committee. These should be purchased at once, as no tickets will be sold at the door.

An orchestra has not been definitely engaged as yet, but arrangements are now being made. During the dance refreshments will be served either in the Dining Hall or in the gymnasium.

Football Diplomas Awarded

Diplomas for the men who won their football "A's" this fall were awarded last Tuesday morning at chapel. The following received their diplomas:—Capt. W. W. Russell, A. P. Davis, Boltwood, A. H. Russell, Stover, Talmage, Wilson, Dresser, Munger, Herr, Larkin, Noyes, Flynn, Warren, Crane, Avery, Lamberton, Jones, Braden, and Manager Hord.

READING IN CHAPEL

In place of the regular meeting of the Philomathean Society, Wilfred Gibson, the noted English poet, read several of his best selections to a large audience in the Stone Chapel, last Thursday evening.

Dr. Stearns introduced him as a famous author making his first public appearance in America. To give the audience an idea of his style, Mr. Gibson first read the Prelude to Daily Bread. The second poem was from Fires, dealing with a mythical adventure with seals in the Hebrides. He then read several short poems: The Old Cow, Ring, The Ghost, His Father, Victory, and The Mythical. These dealt with incidents in the war.

The next long poem was Flannan Island Light. The story, he explained, was told him by a fisherman. It concerned three men who had disappeared from that light-house and were never found again.

Next came The Black Pit. In this pit two brothers are at work when it caves in. They die, dreaming of their schooldays.

The last poem was entitled Between the Lines. It concerned a man who had been wounded and was lying on a battlefield surrounded by dead. As he lies there, he sees shells bursting overhead.

After this poem Mr. Gibson was heartily encored, but declined to read any more.

Hampton Quartet Here To-morrow

Sunday evening at 8 o'clock the annual illustrated lecture on Hampton Institute will be given in co-operation with the Hampton quartet. The lecture will be held in the Stone Chapel and will take the place of the usual Society of Inquiry meeting.

The good work done by this Institute is marvelous. It began forty-five years ago, when General Armstrong and two teachers instructed fifteen negro boys and girls in some old plantation building at Hampton. Since then it has grown to one hundred fifty buildings and a thousand acres of land. Hampton now offers fifteen trades and it gives eight hundred men and women the training for leadership and homemaking that was the aim of its founder.

Eight thousand graduates of Hampton are now taking their part in helping the negroes in the South. Each has done his or her share in decreasing the illiteracy from almost 100 to 30.4 per cent. Hampton to-day is the headquarters of an army of uplift. The class which graduates this year will take positions at strategic points in leading the effort for better schools, better farming and industrial training.

This school supports a $100 scholarship at Hampton.

Dr. Crothers of Cambridge to Address Phillips Club

On the evening of Friday, January 19, at eight o'clock, in the Peabody House, Dr. Samuel McCord Crothers of Cambridge will address the members of the Phillips Club.

R. C. Cooke, P. A. '14, Harvard '18, has been elected captain of the association football team for next year.

HOCKEY GAME

Andover Plays Merrimack Valley Country Club this Afternoon at 2.30.

This afternoon the hockey team will face the Merrimack Valley Country Club on the rink at Rabbits Pond and a very close game is looked for. Although the ice has been poor and the team has had very little practice in the rink, Mr. Keith and Captain Allen have worked the team hard so as to make an excellent showing in their first entire game.

The Merrimack Valley Country Club is composed of old Harvard players, for the most part, and is one of the strongest clubs in this part of the country.

The lineup will probably be as follows:

E. Davis, g.
Wanamaker, r.
Capt. Allen, c.
Weatherston, Loftus, r.w.
Ingraham, Adams, Thomas, l.w.
Evers, Green, Barnes, p.
Field, Frost, c.p.

Hockey Game With Lowell Textile Called on Account of Accident

A hockey game between the varsity and the Lowell Textile School team was started at 2.30 p.m. last Wednesday on Rabbits Pond; but, due to an injury to one of the members of the opposing team and the extremely poor condition of the ice, it was called, after about fifteen minutes of play, neither side having scored. Winn, playing center for Lowell Textile, was struck by the puck and received a bad cut over his right eye.

The game was very close and well played, although the soft ice proved to be a great handicap. Both teams made several rushes, but neither goal was greatly endangered, except once, when Andover almost succeeded in making a goal. Field, Andover's point, played an exceptionally good game, being chiefly responsible for several of the rushes. Captain Allen and Evers also played a good game for Andover, as did Anderson for Lowell.

The lineup:

ANDOVER LOWELL TEXTILE
E. Davis, g. g. Goldman
Wanamaker, r. p. Plaisted
Captain Allen, c. c.p. R.C. Hadley
Weatherston, r.w. l.w. R.F. Hadley
Field, p. c. Winn
Evers, c.p. r.w. Anderson

Elections

As a result of the Senior elections Thursday morning, A. P. Davis of Waterbury, Conn., was elected secretary and treasurer of the class for the winter term.

As a result of the Upper Middle elections held at the same time, John K. Converse of Andover, Mass., was elected president for the winter term.

Roger Woolley was elected vice-president of the Upper Middle class as a result of the election held Friday morning.

Dartmouth Club

There will be a meeting of the Dartmouth Club in the Peabody House at 7 p.m. Monday, January 15. All men who intend to enter Dartmouth are requested to attend.

Scranton, P. A. '15, is swimming the fifty and relay on the M. I. T. swimming team.

PEABODY DANCE, JANUARY 20

As was announced in chapel Thursday, the first of the Saturday afternoon dances will be given on the second floor of the Peabody House, one week from to-day, January 20.

Only those with partners will be admitted. In order that those who wish to take girls may secure partners, the system that was used last year will be followed. Men can hand their names to Elbridge Adams, chairman of the dance committee, and this list will then be taken to Abbot Academy. The men will then meet their partners on the Friday preceding the first dance.

As the expenses are quite large, it is hoped that a big number will attend. Tickets admitting the bearer to one dance will go on sale at the grill the first part of the coming week for one dollar.

The first dance will begin at three o'clock and will continue till six. An orchestra has been engaged from Lawrence. Refreshments will be served by Mr. Harrington. Mrs. Fuess, Mrs. Keep and Miss Bailey will be the patronesses for the first dance.

The full committee is as follows:

Elbridge Adams, chairman; Clayton E. Bailey, John E. Brennan, Stephen Y. Hord, William W. Russell, Harold R. Buckley, Robert H. Warren, Herman C. Wilson.

Fire Meeting

On last Wednesday evening, the newly organized Fire Department held its first meeting of the year.

Captain Russell opened the meeting by calling the roll and reading the duties of the various officers as printed in a recent issue of the Phillipian.

Dr. Page then explained several points which were necessary for the officers to know. He outlined a short set of rules which are very valuable in case of fire. They are as follows:

1. Telephone to Fire Department at once and send man to ring alarm.
2. Get all extinguishers to fire; Fire Police go on duty.
3. Captains get squads together and report to chief.
4. Make certain that all fellows are out of burning building.

If these rules be observed, Andover need never fear in case of fire.

Robert Bushnell to Coach Dramatic Club and Means Speakers

Robert Bushnell, P. A. '15, has consented to come up to Andover from Harvard to coach the Dramatic Club and the Means Speakers. Mr. Bushnell was very well known as an actor while at Andover, his work on the stage being some of the best ever seen in school. He also won first prize in the Means speaking contest for 1915 and was on the debating team which defeated Exeter for the first time in a number of years. The school is very fortunate to secure the services of Mr. Bushnell. The exact date of the Means Speaking contest is not definitely known as yet, but will probably be some time in March. The Dramatic Club will probably present its play in May. Further notice about the trials will appear later.

SWIMMING MEET

Season Opens Against Harvard Freshmen at 3.30 in the Pool

This afternoon at 3.30 in the pool Andover opens the swimming season in a meet with Harvard Freshmen. The Blue has a good team this year, several new men showing up well. The relay team is the fastest since 1914, and the 50-yard men are speedy and dependable. Captain Bolton and Hall in the 100 have done well this season, while Townsend and Neville should prove winners in the 200. The plungers and divers come up to the usual standards, which always have been very high.

There are two old Andover men on Harvard's team: Tilton, their captain, and Watkins. Tilton was on the team here three years, swimming in the relay and hundred. Watkins was the mainstay in the plunge last year, although he competed in only a few meets, his ability being discovered late in the season. There are also some other good men on Harvard's team.

The following is the list of swimmers and their events:

ANDOVER ENTRIES

Relay team—Fullerton, Wood, Penfield, and Perry; substitute, Prendergast.

50-yard dash—Hall and Wood; substitute, H. Stearns.

100-yard swim—Captain Bolton and Hall.

200-yard swim—Townsend and Neville.

Plunge—Morse and Stillwell.

Dive—Crane and Ferguson.

HARVARD ENTRIES

Relay team—Tilton, Worcester, Hadley, Workum.

50-yard dash—Worcester, Tilton.

100-yard swim—Ashton, Stone.

200-yard swim—Tippitt, Thomas

Plunge—Hadley, Thomas, Watkins.

Dive—Helm, Workum.

NOTICES

RESERVE ROOMS

Rooms for next year should be reserved as soon as possible, so that the applicants may get their choice. Until May 1st, rooms may be reserved by the present occupants. After that time rooms not reserved will be allotted in the following order of application; first choice, present occupants of the dormitory in order of application; second choice, occupants of other dormitories or houses in order of application; third choice, new boys. Fellows should file these applications with the Registrar.

BASEBALL MEETING

All those who intend to go out for school or class teams in baseball should report at the gymnasium at 1.45 p.m. next Monday. Mr. Quinby will speak for about fifteen minutes. Uniforms will not be necessary.

Correction

The first Peabody Dance will be held on January 20, and not on January 13, as was announced in the last issue of the Phillipian.

Due to an agreement between the Trustees and the Student Council at the time when the Grill was opened by consent of the Trustees, the Student Council has unanimously voted to prohibit those in the two lower classes from smoking in the Grill. By this agreement, the Student Council promised to diminish the smoking habit, especially among the younger fellows in school. In past years this acquiescence has been seriously violated and allowed to slide. The Student Council, since it felt the necessity of holding good the former promise, finally took the affair into consideration and came to the conclusion stated.

Certainly all of us can appreciate the steps of the Student Council in regard to smoking, when we consider the obligation and pressure under which the Council has been. Who of us would like to see the Grill closed? This would probably be the result of permitting the smoking in the lower classes to go on, as it has recently, because the Trustees are getting to the point where they will not endure it any longer. Inasmuch as they were being cheated out of the agreement, they were perfectly justified in assuming this viewpoint.

There is also an opportunity for "getting around" the rules and regulations—this time a mere exchange of pins—to which, unfortunately, a few of us must yield.

However, anyone who attempts this will sooner or later, be found out, for the Student Council will take pains to investigate. Upon second thought, surely, we will all decide to wear the correct sort of pin and follow the rules which are set down, after careful consideration and with perfect justice to everyone.

Communication

To the Editor of the Phillipian:—Recently the Student Council, acting with the Faculty, issued an order limiting the privilege of smoking in the Grill to the two upper classes. If this rule accomplished all that it was intended to, there would be a great deal of good done, in the opinion of the writer, but the distinction of classes still allows many fellows in the upper classes, who are still too immature to be granted the privilege, the free use of the Grill.

In the two lower classes there are many fellows who are old enough to be allowed to smoke, and who have their parents' full consent to do so, yet who, through the provisions of this rule, are forced either to go down town, or to smoke in their rooms.

The only possible remedy, in the opinion of members of all the classes, seems to be that of adding an age limit clause to the present rule. Of course this would throw more work on the already overburdened shoulders of the Student Council in recalling the blue buttons from some members of the upper classes and in the issuing of the privilege to lower classmen, but it seems only fair to all that this change should be made.

Exeter Track and Hockey

The return of Captain Austin R. Williams to school will mean much to the track team as he will undoubtedly be chosen one of the members of the relay team to run against Andover at the B.A.A. Williams is one of the two left from last year's team, the other being Kimball Atha. Williams' late return was caused by his being in the service with the 2nd New York regiment on the Mexican border, and after being recalled, went to Cuba. He ran the half-mile at Exeter last year in 1:58, which is the nearest to Bill Bingham's record of 1 minute 57 2-5 seconds made in '11, made by any Exeter athlete since. He returns to Exeter to complete his preparation for Cornell.

Over fifty candidates have reported to the call of Trainer Connors. Trainer Connors will start at once to select his relay team, and trials will be held this week.

Prospects for a fast team are good, and it also looks bright for the interscholastic team for the B.A.A. meet late in February, although Capt. Williams, Dennis O'Connell, E. G. Van Hoesen and G. I. Dana are the only point winners present. The new material, however, looks good, although no high jumper of Whalen's class or hurdler to match Walker Smith are expected to be developed this winter. Torkelson, Speer, Shum, Corrigan, Fitzgerald, Watson, R. G. Smith and Chapman are track candidates who are expected to develop into point winners for the interscholastic meet.

The hockey candidates got a poor start as the rink has been covered with snow thus far, but Capt. White expects to get his players on the surface next week in preparation for the opening game with the Somerville High on January 20.

Captain Douglass L. Crane of the eleven has not returned to school, and it is doubtful if he does this year. Crane was one of the promising shot putters, and his loss means much to the track team.

What is Going on To-day

Hockey game—Merrimack Valley Country Club team, 2.30 p.m.

Swimming meet—Harvard Freshman team, 3.30 p.m.

Basketball games—Capt. West vs. Capt. Yawger, 7.45 p.m.; Capt. Davis vs. Capt. Jones, 8.15; Capt. Munger vs. Capt. Dresser, 8.45.

(Excuses will be required for the basketball games. Those on no-excuse list will not be excused for basketball.)

Wireless Club

An important meeting of the Wireless Club was held last Wednesday night at 6.45 in the club station in Graves Hall. The constitution which has just come up for adoption was read to those present. As the club will have no sending set next year, it was voted that each member contribute $3.00 to purchase one. The club has recently come into possession of a panel receiving set which, upon testing, worked very efficiently. The club also has a 1-kilowatt sending set which was loaned to it by one of the members, so that it now possesses a set it can well feel proud of. Upon the first working of the receiving set, Key West and Arlington came in very clearly, using the club's new audition. The club now has a membership of about twenty-five.

Richmond Straight Cut Cigarettes were already known, even in those early days, as "that fine old Virginia cigarette." "Horseless Carriages" have given way to "Gliding Palaces" but your grandfather would tell you that it would be almost a sacrilege to try to improve good old Richmond Straight Cuts.

Subtle in richness and delicate in aroma—their "bright" Virginia tobacco has an appealing, old-time taste which has never been equalled in any other cigarette. If you've never tried them—try them now.

Why Not?

At the risk of alluding to an unpopular institution, the writer would like to raise the question whether a custom in vogue at the German universities might not be feasible in a modified form even in our preparatory schools. It is of course, a well-known fact to many that it is the practice on the part of many of the German university professors to deliver, in addition to the lectures intended for students devoting themselves to their particular branch, an additional, more popular course of lectures consisting of perhaps but one hour a week and entitled "Für Mörer aller Fakultäten"—"for hearers from all faculties," i.e. for students in general whether they be specializing in law, medicine, theology, philology or what not. A philosopher will lecture popularly on Schopenhauer or Nietzsche, a historian on Bismarck etc. Why, especially in the absence of a regular lecture course, could not the various departments even in a preparatory school undertake, if not an actual course of lectures "Für Mörer aller Fakultäten," at least one or two lectures throughout the year? If each department would undertake even but one lecture the course would assume no insignificant proportion with the classics, history, English literature, the modern languages, the sciences, archaeology and the Bible represented. We have been told but recently that even a lecture on mathematics can be made genuinely fascinating. At present the music department is giving a series of about twelve recitals on Wednesday afternoons during the winter term. But why limit the "Für Mörer aller Fakultäten" activities to the music department? Why not have e. g. the first and third Friday evenings of the month devoted to such a series of departmental lectures. Attendance would of course be wholly optional and might not be large, but perhaps it is still true that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.
