INQUIRY

Hampton Quartet at the Stone Chapel. Motion Pictures and Plantation Melodies

In place of the regular meeting of the Society of Inquiry last Sunday evening, the famous Hampton Quartet, gave its annual entertainment in the Stone Chapel.

After the quartet had sung a few folk songs, Mr. Whipple, a Yale graduate who is connected with Hampton Institute, said a few introductory words. Some of the Afro-American folk songs, he said, would be sung by the negroes and be followed by pictures illustrating the work at Hampton.

Before the war, he continued, the darkies had no literature, and their only resource for spending spare time was the Bible. This probably explains the reverent tone which is evident in so many of the old songs of the slaves. The Old Testament stories were put to tune and have been sung through all the years down to this day. Hampton is encouraging the negroes to take pride in these tunes which have been handed down to them and to teach the whites to appreciate them. Mr. Whipple explained the meanings of two songs, Steal Away and My Lord is Riding All the Time, which the quartet rendered. The slaves were accustomed to sing Steal Away at forbidden camp meetings or even when fleeing from their owners. My Lord is Riding All the Time got its origin from the fact that overseers rode in the cotton fields and ordered the slaves about. The negroes imagined the Lord to be some great man riding as an overseer.

The moving pictures represented a story of Hampton being told by a graduate who had returned to his home on the Island of St. Helena, a negro settlement of about 6000 inhabitants which was founded at the time of "Sherman's March to the Sea" when a great multitude of negro slaves followed the army and was sent to this island to keep from starving. The pictures illustrated the manual training courses for boys and the domestic science and chemistry for the girls. Trades, Sunday Inspection, and pictures of the Hampton buildings were shown. Extensive agriculture, a big factor at Hampton, was also pictured.

Several more songs were rendered during an intermission, and, in the second reel, Titustown of Virginia was shown. This is a negro settlement which was founded for the purpose of affording an opportunity to the negroes of living economically, yet decently. Cottages, which are taken on the darkies, are taken on the installment plan of paying three dollars a week.

Mr. Whipple gave a few words in description of the endeavors of the Institution. He said that Hampton had two main objects in view; one, to teach negroes the art of living decently; the other, to teach negroes the art of knowing how to earn a living economically. When four and a half million slaves were freed, they believed that they had completed their

BASKETBALL GAMES

Last Saturday evening in the gymnasium a basketball team led by Davis, defeated one led by Jones, 13 to 8. Next, West's team defeated Yawger's, 3 to 1; and after this, Munger's defeated Dresser's, 13 to 9. The playing began promptly at eight and lasted a little over an hour. There seems to be quite an abundance of good material and if a varsity five is made up, the prospects for a winning combination appear very good just now. Three of the teams played with but four men. Following are the lineups of the teams that played, and the number of points obtained by each man:

SWIMMING MEET

Andover Wins the First Meet of the Season by Defeating Harvard Fresh, 39 to 14

Andover opened the swimming season last Saturday by defeating the Harvard Freshmen, 39 to 14. Andover had the upper hand throughout the meet, especially in the swimming events and the diving.

The relay team proved to be very fast and easily defeated the Freshmen swimmers. In the next event, the 200-yard swim, Townsend and Neville of Andover won by a length. Crane and Ferguson easily took first and second place respectively in the dive.

Harvard won the fifty and the plunges, both events being exceptionally close. In the former, Tilton, P. A. '16, secured third place. The last event was the 100-yard dash; which Penfield and Captain Bolton won with ease.

The summary:

Philo Smoker

This evening in Peabody House Philo will hold a Smoker, at 7.00. This is to be an open meeting and all who are interested are asked to come. It is very seldom that Philo has an open meeting especially a smoker, and so this occasion affords a good opportunity for any one to express his views. As a very large number is expected, it is advisable for every one to come early in order to allow time for every one who wishes to speak.

Notices

Among the notices of interest to those who intend to go to the Prom, are the two following announcements: No flowers will be allowed on the floor, and all those wishing taxicabs should see George Allen in Day 28.

All men who wish to try out for class swimming, report at the pool at 4 o'clock, sharp. This is the last try-out, and if enough interest is shown, a new feature of class swimming may be developed.

INTERDORM RELAYS

The series of interdorm relay races opened, when Day Hall with little difficulty out-ran Adams Hall in four minutes and thirty seconds on the board track, Tuesday afternoon. The Cottages' team also won its race against Bartlet Hall with a big margin to spare. The time was 4.30.

Although full teams did not show up for Bancroft and the faculty houses, the race was held with four men on each team. Except for one man's dropping the baton, the race would have been close, but, as it was, the faculty houses easily won, the time being 2.25. The teams:

Class Elections

"Tom" Flynn of Fall River, Mass., was elected secretary and treasurer of the class of 1918, Tuesday morning. He entered Andover in 1913. Flynn played on the football team against Exeter last fall.

Allen Elected Captain of Hockey Team

At a meeting of the hockey squad last Monday, George Washington Allen of Saranac Lake, N. Y., was elected captain.

This is Allen's second year in school. Last year he played on the hockey team, starring at center. Allen also holds the international skating record for the 220-yard dash in the amateur class.

HOCKEY TEAM WINS

Blue Seven Defeats Merrimack Valley Country Club, 3 to 0

The Andover hockey team defeated the Merrimack Valley Country Club last Saturday by the score of 3 to 0. For Andover, Wanamaker was the outstanding star, although Captain Allen, and Ingraham played a strong game. Stevens and Lannigan did the best work for the visitors.

In the first half the puck saw-sawed back and forth, Andover getting slightly the better of it. There were a good many brilliant individual runs by the Andover forwards, but at first the team work was rather ragged. Towards the end of the period, however, it improved, and Wanamaker was able to shoot a goal.

Andover had decidedly the best of the second half. Star playing by Wanamaker and good team work scored the second goal, shortly after the whistle blew. The Country Club strove hard to cage the puck, but they could not get it past the Blue's defence. A pass from Captain Allen to Wanamaker scored the third goal. After this Merrimack's goal was continually threatened, but a series of clever stops, by Humphries prevented further score.

The Merrimack Valley team is composed of many former college athletes. Lannigan was baseball captain at Andover, and Harvard, Sagar played football at Andover, and Howe is a former Yale star. Curran, who played for the Country Club in the second half, was in school last year.

Hockey Game To-day

This afternoon the hockey team will face the Stone School on the rink at Rabbits Pond at 2.30. Due to the excellent showing made by the team against the Merrimack Country Club last Saturday, a good game is looked for.

Probably no changes in the line-up will be made at the beginning of the game. However, Coach Keith expects to run-in as many substitutes as possible, in order to afford an opportunity for every man on the squad to make a showing.

The team has been unfortunate thus far this season in regard to weather conditions and has, consequently, been able to do very little practicing.

The probable line-up:
E. Davis, g.
Wanamaker, r.
Captain Allen, c.
Weatherston, Loftus, Dodd, r.w.
Ingraham, Adams, l.w.
Evers, Green, Barnes, p.
Field, Frost, c.p.

It is hardly necessary to comment upon the cheering of the student body as a whole at hockey games, but there are a few new men in school who cannot seem to remember that they are not in high school any more, and to act accordingly. For the benefit of these, it may be said that misplays or fouls of the opponents, should not be jeered. In Saturday's hockey game, when one of Merrimack's men was put off the ice for a foul, comments and remarks were audible all around the rink. This shows very poor spirit and the excellent spirit evident through the football season should be maintained.

Forum

The general opinion of the student body seems to be that the Forum Debating society is no longer active. Such is not the case. Forum is active in its line, which is literary and not debating. Forum meets at Mr. Crawford's house every Saturday evening at half past seven. At these meetings one can make himself thoroughly at home, state his opinions on any intellectual matter, and derive benefit from the ideas of others on the same question. All those interested in literary matters can find out all about Forum by applying to F. H. Dowd.

Chapel Speaker

The preacher at both services next Sunday will be Professor Harry E. Fosdick of Union Theological Seminary, New York. Professor Fosdick is especially well-known as a preacher before schools and colleges and is frequently heard at Northfield and other student conferences. He is the author of several notable little books on religious subjects, among them being "The Meaning of Prayer," "The Manhood of the Master," and "The Assurance of Immortality." He is serving this year upon the Board of University Preachers at Harvard.

Meeting of Basketball Captains

A meeting of the captains of the various basketball teams was held last Saturday, in the room of Paul Crane, president of the Basketball Club. The purpose of the meeting was to make several decisions which had been omitted at the meeting of the entire club on the Wednesday before.

Harlan Cooley was chosen manager of the Club. The duty of the manager is to arrange a schedule of the games which are to be played off among the eight teams. The names of those who are going to take part in any game must be handed in to the manager at least by the night before that game.

The plan which will be followed out is to have a series of games in order that each team may play every other team in the league. It is probable that, after this series of games is played off, a varsity team will be formed of the best players in the club and several meets will be held with teams of other schools. This proposition, however, will have to be presented to the Faculty and is very uncertain.

Several rules were decided upon. If some of the men on a team do not appear on scheduled time for a game, that team will play, suffering the loss of those who are not present. A member of one team will not be permitted to play on any other team. The refereeing is to be carried on by a captain of one team which is not playing.

Rev. Brewer Eddy Addresses November Club

Rev. D. Brewer Eddy, P. A. '94, delivered to the November Club, on January 15, a lecture entitled "Five Weeks with Kitchen's Mob." Mr. Eddy spoke from his own personal experience gained from watching the training of "Tommy Atkins" at the base camps throughout England. The lecture was enthusiastically received, just as it had been received elsewhere.

Mr. Eddy is to speak at the Society of Inquiry meeting on February 4.

New Poems by Gibson

Wilfred Wilson Gibson, the English poet who read the selections from his poems last Wednesday evening in the chapel, has a new volume of his poems, entitled "Livelihood" ready for publication. The book will be brought out by Macmillan.

Relay Squad

Candidates for the relay team are working out on the new board track back of Bartlett Hall, under the direction of Coach Blanchard. The squad will be in good shape by the time of the B. A. A. meet, which comes in the early part of February.

There are three veterans of last year's team; Converse, captain of track; Brennan, Lumpkin. Besides these there are the following: C. Bailey, Roger Woolley, A. Davis, Barker, Ivins, Northridge, Bogert, E. R. Andrew, Baldwin, Fields, Emmett.

College Notes

No event ever given in honor of a Yale athletic team has created the interest that has been shown in the dinner and reception to Captain "Cupid" Black's victorious football team, although there have been many of considerable interest and importance since the Blue started to take a leading place in athletic affairs. Elaborate plans are being made to honour the football team. The dinner will be held next Friday evening, in New York.

work. Of course, they were poverty stricken. In order to show Hampton's precaution against laziness, the speaker outlined a day's work. Every student rises at 5.30 a.m. Breakfast is at 6 a.m. Except for two hours of the afternoon which are left for recreation, the negroes occupy every minute of their time and have to be in bed with lights out at 9.30. A negro is held responsible for the cleanliness of his room, and his room must be open to inspection at any time of the day. Work soon becomes a mere habit, as a result of such strict discipline. After four years of this training any streak of laziness is thoroughly wiped out.

All except about four of the buildings at Hampton have been erected by the negroes themselves. The uniforms which are worn have all been made by the girls of the Institution. All the labor is carried on by the negroes.

Besides learning to ply their hands, the negroes learn to use their minds practically. For instance, the chemistry course takes up proper food and proper selection of food. It also instructs the girls in regard to supporting families very economically.

One of the greatest assets of the Institute is the Hampton spirit which is made so prominent. To illustrate the spirit of Hampton, the speaker told of two experiences he had had with Hampton boys. One boy, who was taking a blacksmith course, told Mr. Whipple that he wanted to go to Tennessee to be a blacksmith, but, when he graduated, he said, "No, I won't go to Tennessee. I'm goin' back home where they need a blacksmith." The other boy, in the manual training department, asked permission to go home to build better buildings for his people who would give him a dollar a day. He was offered six dollars a day if he would remain on his job another year. He refused the offer, saying that he had learned to obey the call of duty and he was needed at home.

Mr. Whipple thanked Andover for the help it affords for Hampton and said that he wanted to appeal to us not for charity, but for standing behind a national institution. Every negro wants a chance to live decently.

The entertainment closed with several more songs by the quartet.

Baseball Meeting

In order to get a line on the new available material in school, Coach Quinby announced at the baseball meeting last Monday that practice would be held in the gymnasium at 1.45 p.m. on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Besides this practice, each one of those who are taking up baseball will have a special practice of about five minutes with Mr. Quinby. A schedule of these practices is posted in the gymnasium and should be noted by everyone, so as to avoid mistakes.

About eighty or ninety turned out for the meeting. Due to this large number of candidates, Mr. Quinby may make two divisions one of which would practice on Wednesday, the other on Saturday.

There are five veterans who played in the Exeter game last spring: Captain Brennan, Wilson, Crane, Warren, Allen.

Class Wrestling Try-Outs

Try-outs for class wrestling will be held in the wrestling room of the gymnasium at 2.15 this afternoon. Everyone who has had any experience in wrestling is asked to come out.

Why they're Sensible

Occasionally, a more heavy, full-powered cigarette than Fatima tastes mighty good. But heavy cigarettes are a little too "oily" and rich to suit most men for long.

You are certain to find more comfort in a delicately balanced Turkish blend like Fatima—a comfort that can come only from pure tobaccos properly blended.

That is why Fatimas are so sensible—because they leave a man feeling keen and "fit" even after smoking more often than usual. Prove it yourself.
