

LAWRENCE Y. M. C. A. LOSES CLOSE GAME

Blue Quintet Makes Garrison Finish in Second Half. Rough Tactics Employed

GAME ENDS WITH SCORE OF 19 TO 14 IN ANDOVER'S FAVOR

Last Saturday in the gym, the basketball team had one of the closest games of the season. The visitors were the Lawrence Y. M. C. A. team. Until the last two minutes of play, Lawrence was in the lead, and in the final moments of the game the old Andover fighting spirit was put to a severe test, and came out on top. The team was greatly handicapped by the absence of Hatch, and the teamwork in the first half was not to be compared with that of the team of former games.

Andover started the game in earnest when a foul was made by Lawrence after the first few minutes of play, and Atterbury made the goal. The team then found itself pushed to the limit by a strong and fast opposing five, and the game started a long and hard fight for Andover. Lawrence followed Atterbury's foul goal by two field goals in quick succession. The playing then became even again, and Andover held her own for some time. After the ball had been in the territory of the Lawrence goal for several minutes, Sheriff, of the visitors managed to net a third basket. The Lawrence forward then missed a goal from an Andover foul, and when the team continued the game Sellman was playing right forward in place of Ferguson.

Andover then missed a goal from a foul, and the playing continued for several more minutes evenly. Lawrence made the score 9 to 1 by a goal from foul, and then missed another chance at goal. Andover fought the score up one point when Lawrence fouled, but was not able to make any more headway during the half. The Andover teamwork was not up to the usual standard, and the players were completely out-classed for the rest of the period. Lawrence made two more field goals, and then, after several minutes of playing, time was called for a short rest. When the playing continued, Lawrence made a goal from a foul, and the game went on through the half without further scoring. The whistle blew with the score: Lawrence 13, Andover 2.

The second half began a long uphill fight for Andover, and it was only the fighting spirit and the revived teamwork of the team that put Andover on top. The half began by Morgan netting a field basket for Andover. After this basket the team steadied and began the struggle necessary for victory. Morgan again made a basket for Andover, while in a hot scrimmage near the goal, and the score for Andover was brought up to 6. After a long period of fast and hot playing, Atterbury continued the Andover rally by netting a basket from a Lawrence foul. The playing continued faster as the time of the half drew nearer, and every pass was contested and every basket fought for. Andover missed

WRESTLING SCHEDULE FOR REST OF SEASON

February 22, Yale Freshmen at Andover.
March 1, Tafts at Watertown.
March 8, Harvard (pending), at Andover.
March 15, M. I. T. (return meet) at Cambridge.

BOXING PRELIMINARIES TO BE HELD THIS AFTERNOON

This afternoon at two o'clock, the boxing tournament will open. Every fellow who intends to box must be there at that time and have paid his due of 50 cents. It will take place on the gymnasium floor, and the rounds will be three per bout of two minutes each.

All fellows who have any inclination to box at all, are earnestly requested to turn out, as there is a decided lack of participants and quite a few more are needed to make this a success.

There are lots of fellows who are not occupied at this time by other school appointments, and who just don't think they can make good. That's the way good material is brought to light. You may develop into the best boxer in school before you leave. So let's go!

Not only should one come out for the spirit of it, but also there are to be cups given to the winners in every weight.

Professor Brigham Speaks

Friday evening at the Peabody House, Professor Brigham of Colgate University gave a very interesting lecture on the territory now assigned to the American army for occupation in Germany. He opened his lecture with a short geographical introduction as to the places of importance which would be considered in his ensuing talk, mainly consisting of the Moselle River valley, and its surrounding country through which the Americans travelled to the Rhine.

Assisted by lantern slides, he then proceeded to illustrate what he had just pointed out on his map with a series of very unusual pictures, in which he accentuated the topography of the surrounding country. This was formerly the bottom of the sea and consisted of high plateaus forming a level horizon as far as the eye could reach. Through this plain, at a depth of from one thousand to fifteen hundred feet, the river had cut a circuitous course to its junction with the Rhine at Coblenz.

All the way down the Moselle, the scenes, though very pretty, were of unvaried monotony. Every little town nestling beside the same river at the foot of the same kind of terraced banks, crowned with endless forests. For a height of perhaps two-thirds, the sides of these hillsides, there were continuous rows of grape vines; and on every conspicuous headland there seemed to be an old feudal castle each in itself containing numerous old traditions and stories.

Finally the speaker reached the Rhine, and visited successively, Metz, now in the hands of the French, Treves, where the old Roman buildings still are in evi-

WRESTLING TEAM CLEANS UP TUFTS

Overcome Highly Rated Visitors by Score of 19 to 6; Opponents Fail to Secure a Fall

Last Saturday afternoon, Tufts College sent up one of the strongest aggregations in the country to grapple against us, and were defeated in a score of 19-6. Tufts Varsity has been so especially strong in her wrestling status during the past few years, that they are considering now, whether to make it a major sport and give a large "T" for it. So in overcoming her, our team has done something to be proud of.

To open the meet, T. Houk of Andover grappled with Shay of Tufts. At first the Tufts man looked by far the stronger, but with a clever hold, Houk obtained a fall in less than two minutes.

Almost the entire next bout, between Williams of our team and Ruggeri of the visitors, was used up by footwork. Williams had to remain on the defensive most of the time, because of the larger size of his opponent. Although Williams is one of our best men, nevertheless, the chances were 10 to 1 against him that the outcome would have been bad. As it was, he put up a very plucky fight.

In the 125 pound class, George Houk wrestled for us, and Cohen for Tufts. Both men were the extreme opposites in build, and it was difficult for anyone to judge as to the outcome of the match, but after a few seconds they were down on the mat and Houk got a good hold on his man, with which, although the other showed all kinds of fight and endurance, he obtained a fall in three minutes and fifty-three seconds.

The next bout was the heavy-weight with Scammon of Andover against Meade of Tufts. At first it appeared as if the two men were rather absent-minded, forgetting they were wrestling, and for several minutes they sparred so strongly that one grew concerned for their welfare and sent for some gloves, but finally the quick footwork gave way to slower and more defined tactics. But we are sorry to say that nine minutes were called with the two men back on their feet. The decision was awarded to Tufts because of Mead's superior "offensive".

Schreyer, our new 115 pound man, grappled with Hoyt of Tufts. Again was fought a nine minute round, although this time Andover secured the decision. No one could have told what the result would have been, had not the Tufts man got a scissors upon Schreyer's leg, which prevented either from changing their positions.

In the second 135 pound match, Hale bucked against Wade of the opponents. For two minutes footwork reigned, Hale being on the offensive most of the time. Then the men fell and after four minutes and six seconds more of hard work, Hale obtained a fall.

The last match was between Captain Scott and Hurd of the visitors. This bout was short and snappy, both men fighting hard, but Scott claimed the superiority

BASKETBALL TO-DAY WITH HAVERHILL HIGH

Today at three o'clock the basketball team will meet the Haverhill High School team in the gym. Although Haverhill is not in the interurban league, it has a very strong team, and out of the many

BLUE SWIMMERS AGAIN VICTORIOUS

Defeat Brookline High Decisively. Marshall Breaks Pool Record for the 200

SCORE OF MEET IS ANDOVER 36; BROOKLINE 17

Last Saturday afternoon Andover was again successful in the aquatic line against Brookline High.

The meet, as it progressed, did not seem to be one of any unusual interest. Andover started in by taking the lead in her first race and kept that throughout the whole course of events. For us, Captain Marshall did the star performing, as he broke our old tank record for the two hundred yard time which had previously been two minutes and twenty-five seconds, a record established by Jim Gould in 1913. He lowered the time by four second, establishing our present record of two minutes and twenty-one seconds.

The meet opened with the relay in which we were victorious by a fair margin, holding the advantage throughout the race. The time was one minute, forty-eight seconds.

The next event was the dive. In this, Donovan of Brookline showed himself to good advantage, receiving first place, while his team-mate Richardson, placed for third. Dudley ran Donovan a very close race for first place. Smith and Pole won first and second places respectively, in a very close fifty yard race for us, with Richardson again working hard to boost his team, following in their wake. In the plunge Anderson as usual, took the honors, seconded by Stilwell.

In the hundred, Marshall, as before stated, broke the school record. He continually held a large lead over Richardson, but there was a close race between Van Patten and Malloney for this, which the former won for us.

Richardson won the one hundred closely pressed throughout by Higgins. Kelly of Brookline won third.

The summary:

Relay—Won by Andover (Pole Colgate, Smith, Winkler); defeated Brookline High (P. Richardson, Kelly, Boyden, Mulowney). Time 1 m. 48s.

Diving—Won by Donovan, Brookline High; second, Dudley, Andover; third, P. Richardson, Brookline High.

50-yard swim—Won by Smith, A; second, Pole, A; third, D. Richardson, B. H. Time, 27s.

Plunge—Won by Anderson, A; 72 ft; second, Stillwell, Andover, 68 1-2 ft; Knowles, Brookline High, 55 ft.

200-yard swim—Won by Marshall, Andover; second, P. Richardson, Brookline; third, Van Patten, Andover. Time, 2m. 21 1-5s. (tank record).

100-yard swim—Won by R. Richardson, Brookline High; second, Higgins, Andover; third, Kelly, Brookline High. Time, 1m. 4 3-5s.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 19, 1919

As Saturday is a legal holiday, THE PHILLIPIAN will not be published then.

Early this week, Mr. Frederick J. Daly, '06, resumed his duties on the hill, as private secretary to Dr. Stearns. Mr. Daly left two years ago this spring, with the first ambulance unit for France. After a short time in the ambulance service, he joined the regular forces upon our entrance into the war. All of the older men who knew him in the old days are very glad to have him among us once more. He was the regular football coach in 1916 and this spring Mr. Daly will help with the drilling of the baseball squad. THE PHILLIPIAN in behalf of the school, extends to him, a hearty welcome.

Letters from Aubrey Russell

Aubrey H. Russell of Oak Hill, New Brunswick, entered Andover in the fall of 1913 and graduated in June, 1917. While at Andover he captained the 1916 track team. After he graduated Aub enlisted in the Canadian Forestry Corps, and he has done excellent work while in France.

The following are extracts taken from letters written by him while he was in France.

Beaver Hut, Strand,
London, Eng.

Oct. 23, 1918

We went to a show last night. Got stung in good shape. One has to look ahead to get anything good. * * * The Canadians are recognized as Foch's best, and its such lads as he that are putting us in the lead. I have been to quite a few house parties and dances given by the "Beaver Hut" and am going again to-night. This will have to be the best yet, as it will be my last night here. May stay in Paris over Sunday; am not sure. Will see how much money I have left.

This afternoon we are going sight-seeing. Oh, it's a grand and glorious feeling to have nothing to do but to enjoy oneself. Back to France to-morrow. Tickled to death to go.

France, Nov. 19, 1918

Have got another new job. Am working at the mill now. Have a crew rolling logs on the saw-bed. Wouldn't mind having a good meal of venison now, even if it is a little early. Looks as if we would be getting back before the winter is over. Hope so anyway.

Nov. 21, 1918

We are working an eight-hour day now, and have Saturday afternoons off. Wish I were a photographer now. We are allowed to take pictures now and to describe our surroundings, but there is not a heck of a lot here to describe.

Dec. 9, 1918

I've got another job now. Have a crew out in the woods loading cars. It will take us about three weeks to clean them all up. We are about three miles from camp. The truck takes us out in the morning and comes back for us at night.

Dec. 10, 1918

Another company has had the loading and transportation of logs to the mills all summer, but fell down flat on their job lately. So our company put on three loading crews and let them take their off. So they just have to get the loaded cars-to the mill and the empty ones back to us. They can't even do that, or won't try. It will take us three more weeks yet to get the stuff all in at the rate we are getting it in now. But still I suppose we are as well here as forming fours and doing "fatigue" at a base somewhere. Suppose the business in the war line will slack up quite a bit now. Guess the munition workers are overflowing the markets in England, now, looking for work. I believe, though, they are paid a small amount for a certain length of time.

Dec. 15, 1918

We are carrying on as usual yet. It will take a few weeks more to clean up; and then it will be a matter of getting home I suppose; but it is hard to say how long that will take. Suppose it is getting quite cold home now. We haven't had hardly any cold weather yet and not a bit of snow, and can get along nicely without it. We are having quite a lot of wet weather now; not a hard rain but a little "tout le jour".

Was to church this morning; better not tell Ma. She probably wouldn't like it. That makes the third time since coming to France.

December 23, 1918

Just have time to write a line before the picture show at the Y. M. Tried to have them twice before, but the machine wouldn't work. Killed our geese yesterday for Xmas. Have got a pig or two for New Year's. If I had coin enough, I would go to Paris tomorrow on a four-day leave. But haven't enough francs, so will have to stay here.

Best wishes to all,

AUG.

Notice

Excuses for the week-end can only be obtained after Chapel services on Saturday morning. In order to visit out of town, it is necessary to have a written permission from home, or statement from the person visited. This applies to all except those who are going home.

games which they have played thus far this season, they have lost only one. Considering the Haverhill record, we can expect a hard game today.

As a result of the practices this week and the good showings of the men, we can look for a hard game today, and the old Andover fighting spirit which was displayed last Saturday will play a big part in the determining of to-day's score.

a foul goal but soon made one from another foul and brought the score to 13 to 8, still in favor of Lawrence. Time was then called for a rest and the players retired for two minutes. When the game continued, the Andover players fought for every advantage. Lawrence could not get the ball into Andover territory, and the result of her trying to get there was more fouling. Andover missed two goals from Lawrence fouls, and soon afterward Lawrence missed a goal from an Andover foul. Atterbury shot a basket for Andover while in a group of players all struggling to get the ball, and time was called for a rest with the score 13 to 10. When the game was renewed, Andover had to fight for a lead with all the spirit that the cheering on the sidelines and the desire for a victory could instill. Sellman made a foul for Lawrence which pushed Andover's score up one point, and the contest went to a finish. After a minute of playing Morgan shot a neat basket from the middle of the floor, and made the score a tie, 13 to 13. With only three minutes go, Lawrence again got a lead by making a basket from an Andover foul. Then Lawrence fouled, and Sellman brought the score again to a tie. Two minutes were left in which to get a victory. Lawrence was fighting to keep the score down, but Morgan again broke away and shot another goal. This gave Andover the lead for the first time since the starting goal. Wellman again made a basket from a foul, and soon afterwards put Andover well in the lead by a field goal. The play still went on, with Lawrence fighting against defeat, but the whistle blew with the score Andover 19, Lawrence 14.

Inquiry

The money which was pledged to the Society of Inquiry at the beginning of the term, is due to-day. Little has been said about paying up the money, because the amounts pledged were quickly paid, in most cases. However, there still remains much to be paid in order that the Society's work may continue without any hindrance. Please pay the money up to R. Flather, treasurer, at Bartlett 12.

Music Notes

Arrangements have been made for two joint concerts to be given next May and June by the combined choirs of Phillips and Bradford Academies in celebration of the Peace. One concert will be given at Bradford, the other at Andover. The work to be performed is Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise". An orchestra from Boston and solists will assist in the performance. Both choirs have already begun rehearsals for these concerts. There will also be a concert of orchestral music in the chapel, by the School Orchestra, in the early part of the next term.

The annual concert of the Andover-Exeter musical clubs is on the 19th of March.

An organ recital will be given this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Stone Chapel, by Marshall S. Bidwell, organist at the Centre Methodist church, Malden. The following program will be rendered:

- Passacaglia in C minor Bach
- Prayer Lemaigre
- Fiat Lux Dubois
- Le Cygne Saint-Saens
- Sonata No. 1 in D minor Guilman
- 1. Introduction and Allegro
- 2. Pastorale
- 3. Finale—allegro assai

The organists at the remaining Wednesday afternoon recitals will be as follows:

February 19th, Mr. Marshall Bidwell, Malden.

February 26th, Mrs. Foote, piano, Mr. Pfatteicher, organ.

March 5th, Mr. Frazee (Fenway Theatre) popular programme.

March 12th, Mr. Hammond (Holyoke College) 8 p. m.

March 19th, Mr. Townsend Moog (Smith College) or Mr. Pfatteicher (popular programme).

Class Meets

There will be wrestling, swimming and basketball meets between the classes after the varsity meets this afternoon. So far, 1920 stands at the head of the classes, since she has won three meets in every sport and not lost one. Of the other classes, 1919 is slightly in the lead, but this is no reason for the little competition, and the poor support of the teams that is shown by the classes as a whole.

The following tables show the standing of the classes.

	BASKETBALL		P. C.
	Won	Lost
1919	1	2	.333

dence, Koblenz, at the junction of the Rhine and Moselle, with its famous castle of Ehrenbreitstein, which is now in allied hands; and finally Mainz, Strassbourg, with its famous old cathedral, and the university city of Bonn.

From there he went to Berlin and showed a few views of the city with its monuments and historic landmarks and its shipping; he concluded his lecture with Heligoland as his final point of interest, detailing a few of the more conspicuous points of this famous little island with some unusual pictures.

The meeting was under the direction of Mr. Roth of the History Department. It was attended by his several history classes in a body, and all found the evening a most instructive one.
