

ACADEMY TRACK TEAM DOWNS CRIMSON FRESH

BLUE FIELD EVENTS STRONG

Phillips Academy won their second victory of the out-door track season Saturday by defeating the strong Harvard freshmen squad, 71-55.

The overwhelming superiority of the Blue athletes in the field events gave Andover the victory. Kingston captured places in the weight events, winning a first in the shot-put, with a heave of 46 feet and 1½ inches. Beside this he placed first in the hammer throw and second in the discus throw. He threw the latter 114 feet 2 inches, and the former 141 feet 6 inches.

Watt of Andover also showed his ability by winning both the high and low hurdles. He was supported by Tate, who came in third in the high and by Pelletreau, who likewise captured third place in the low.

The crimson men surpassed Andover in the dash by a wide margin. The freshmen took all places in the 100-yard event, first and second in the 220, and first and third in the 440. The Harvard runners were well bunched at the finish of the 100, Nisson winning in the excellent time of 10 1-5 seconds. He also came in second in the 220. Wolf of Andover followed him closely, obtaining third place. Nunn won second in the 440, which Cummings captured in 52 4-5 seconds. Harvard again seized the first two places in 880-yard run. Barres of the Blue team placed third. Lee of Harvard won the mile but McSheehy gamely raced from sixth position on the final lap to place third for the Blue.

Coach Shepard's field men were in great form and a pleasing feature was the work of the javelin place winners, all three of whom tossed the spear more than 150 feet.

A clean sweep was made by Andover in the pole vault, discus, and javelin. Richardson won the high jump with the excellent jump of 5 feet 9 inches.

The summary:

120-yd. high hurdles — Won by Watt (A); second, Potter (H); third, Tate (A). Time: 16 4-5 sec.

BLUE NINE TO MEET HUNTINGTON TODAY

ROE TO START ON MOUND FOR ANDOVER

This afternoon at two o'clock Andover will face Huntington School on the diamond. The visitors have a particularly smooth working infield, which made three double plays in a game with Exeter. With O'Neil in the box for Huntington the Blue should have plenty of opposition. O'Neil is also somewhat of a hitter. Reardon, the catcher, is sure to give trouble to the Phillips Academy pitcher with his heavy hitting. His arm is rather weak, however, and the Andover base runners ought to have no trouble in stealing a few bases. Lathrop will cover first base, and Reed will cover second base. These two men are fast, brilliant fielders. Souther at third and Spargadi at shortstop will complete the strong infield. Holmes, who is a good hitter, will play right field. Fogarty will cover center field, and O'Brien, the star batter, will be seen in left field. This outfield is made up of men of a great deal of ability and speed. They have already saved several games this season by sensational catches and remarkable throws.

Andover will line-up as against Wentworth Institute with the exception of Murphy, who will take a well earned rest, and Hoffman. Roe will take the place of the former, and Osborne will cover the position of the latter. Frigard, whose hitting is improving in each game, will be behind the plate. The Andover catcher is good on fouls and has a very dangerous peg down to second base. Alexander will play second. At the beginning of the season the second base position did not seem to suit him, but in the last two games he has played a stellar game there. Captain Luce will, of course, be on third base and will probably play his usual brilliant game. Goodman, who has been doing very well, will complete the infield at short stop. The outfield will be made up of Page, Bassett, and Harding. This combination has worked very well so far and saved many runs by their sure fielding and catching.

The lineups will be as follows:

ANDOVER	HUNTINGTON
Bassett, c.f.	l.f., O'Brien
Alexander, 2b.	1b., Lathrop
Luce, 3b.	s.s., Spargadi
Osborne, 1b.	c., Reardon

J. Ward, P. A. '26, won his match for Harvard fresh against Exeter, when the Crimson was defeated, 7-5.

John Stephen Graetzer, P. A. '25, has been chosen captain of the Yale freshmen crew. He strokes the freshmen eight.

NOTICE

There will be a meeting of the Society of Inquiry Friday evening at 7 o'clock in Peabody House. The subject for discussion will be, "What does the younger generation think of Religion."

Varsity Tennis

This afternoon at 2.30, the Varsity tennis team is to face the Harvard Seconds, one of the strongest teams that the blue will encounter during the season. They opened their schedule last Saturday by a 9-0 victory at the expense of Brookline High. There are two men of the group who played against Andover last year when the blue was defeated twice by the scores of 8 to 1 and 5 to 4.

Lisker, who was number two man on the Freshman last year is only ranked sixth and had a hard fight to secure even this position.

Thomas, who easily won his match from Porter of Malden, 6-2, 6-3, last Wednesday, will be hard pressed to gain a victory over Kingsbury, the fourth man of last year's crimson team.

Captain Sturtevant is to oppose Reuter. The latter conquered Robertson last year and is capable of very good tennis. His net play is as good as Sturtevant's and his driving only a shade inferior, so a hard struggle is certain.

In the third match Robertson is to face Bailey, who is slow to get started, but has a fine collection of shots. Robertson's serve will aid him greatly. The match ought to take three sets to complete.

Baldwin has a slight edge over Sands because of his tricky service and well controlled drive.

Henry is opposed by French. Their type of play is much the same, both relying on fast serves and hard drives. It will be an interesting match to watch.

In the last singles match Lisker, a stellar member of last year's Freshman team will face Fitch, a slow, careful, player whose steadiness and placements are his main weapons.

Thomas and Sturtevant have the task of overcoming Kingsbury and Reuter. Both pairs have played together long enough to be formidable.

Bailey and Sands are to play Robertson and Baldwin. The latter pair work well together. In the department that one is weak the other is strong.

The third doubles match is between French and Lisker and Fitch and Henry. The latter pair has as yet had no competition, winning from James and Turner of Malden as they pleased last Wednesday by a 6-0, 6-0 score.

The lineups follow:

SINGLES

1. Thomas (A) vs. Kingsbury (H).
2. Captain Sturtevant (A) vs. Reuter (H).
3. Robertson (A) vs. Bailey (H).
4. Baldwin (A) vs. Sands (H).
5. Henry (A) vs. French (H).
6. Fitch (A) vs. Lisker (H).

DOUBLES

1. Thomas and Sturtevant (A) vs. Kingsbury and Reuter (H).
2. Robertson and Baldwin (A) vs. Bailey and Sands (H).
3. Fitch and Henry (A) vs. French and Lisker (H).

BLUE NETMEN CONQUER LOWELL HIGH SCHOOL

VISITORS SHOW STRENGTH

Last Saturday the Andover tennis team played an unexpectedly close meet with Lowell High, the score being 6-4, in favor of the blue team. Andover won four of the six singles, but split even in the doubles. There were only two extra set matches, both of which Lowell won.

In the first singles, Thomas, who came out of the infirmary to play, experienced some difficulty in handling E. Mahoney's accurate chops and fast serves, but finally won out, by virtue of his good net playing and all-around play. Score: 6-4, 6-3.

Captain George Young of Lowell could take only two games from Captain Sturtevant, who was right on top of his game, and kept the Lowell man running all over the court.

The third singles, Robertson versus Sullivan, resulted in a win for Andover. Sullivan's only spurt came after Robertson had taken the first three games, when the Lowell man took three in a row.

Baldwin scored an easy victory over Coughlin of Lowell. Coughlin's weak backhand could not cope with the fast drives of the blue man.

The fifth and sixth singles, both of which went to extra sets, were won by Lowell. Howard, one of Lowell's letter men beat Henry. The latter took the first set, executing several good passing shots. However, in the next two he couldn't keep the ball in the court and made numerous errors, losing 2-6, 7-5, 6-3.

Hale of Lowell beat Fitch in a match featured by long rallies. Fitch won the first set, but faltered, and Hale, hitting his stride, took the next two and the match, 1-6, 8-6, 6-3.

Robertson and Baldwin played first doubles for Andover, and defeated Captain Young and Atkinson in a very one-sided and dull match.

Fitch and Henry were overcome by E. Mahoney and Sullivan. The losers put up a plucky fight in the first set, but the Lowell players started to lob in the second set, and, since Henry and Fitch proved weak on smashing, won it with ease.

Huxley and Smyth won over Boyle and Coughlin by virtue and hard hitting. Huxley's service was working well, and bothered the opposing team very much. The score was 6-4, 6-4.

V. Mahoney and Shaw, two midgets from Lowell, beat Durell and Merwin. It seemed that the youngsters could return everything.

The summary:

Thomas (A) defeated E. Mahoney, 6-4, 6-3.

Sturtevant (A) beat G. Young, 6-1, 6-1.

Robertson (A) won over Sullivan, 6-4, 6-3.

Baldwin (A) defeated Coughlin, 6-1, 6-1.

Howard (L) beat Henry, 2-6, 7-5, 6-3.

Hale (L) won over Fitch, 1-6, 8-6, 6-3.

ANDOVER VICTORIOUS OVER WENTWORTH

CONTEST LASTS 12 INNINGS

Phillips Academy defeated the Wentworth Institute nine by a 7 to 6 score in an exciting 12-inning game Saturday afternoon at Andover. A cleverly executed squeeze play put across the winning tally for the Blue.

The feature of the game was the exceptional work of Captain Luce, who handled 14 chances without a slip at third base, in addition to making three hits, one a triple. Several of his chances were difficult, and he made a sensational one hand catch of a line drive. His quick throw to Hoffman at first base put out Shortall, who had started for second. This was the only double play of the game.

Murphy and Shortall, the rival pitchers, both went the full twelve innings and each seemed to improve as the game went along. Murphy fanned ten opponents while the Wentworth hurler struck out eight.

Connelly and Shortall led in the hitting for the visitors. The former made three hits including a double, and the latter singled twice. Castonquay starred in the infield for Wentworth, accepting six chances without an error.

The Andover outfield, Bassett, Page, and Harding, played very well and cut off several runs by their quick fielding. Harding also hit a two bagger, and Page made a very pretty stop of a hit when the ball took a bad bounce. Bassett caught three difficult flies and made one hit. Alexander's playing was somewhat poorer than last week, but he made several good stops. Hoffman, also, was not up to his usual game.

The play by play account of the game is as follows:

FIRST INNING

Church, the first man up for the visitors, bunted, but was thrown out at first by the quick fielding of Frigard. Manning hit to third base and was also out at first. Connolly drove a hard grounder to Goodman, who allowed him to reach first when he fumbled the ball. Mathew fouled out to Luce. No hits. No runs. No errors.

Bassett was hit by the pitcher and went to first. Alexander bunted, but Bassett was thrown out at second. Luce hit a single, and advanced Alexander to second. They each advanced a base on a passed ball. Hoffman hit a grounder to shortstop, and Alexander was touched out at the plate. Luce scored when the catcher threw over the third baseman's head in an attempt to catch the Andover captain off the base. Hoffman also scored on Frigard's Texas leaguer. Harding ended the inning by grounding out to shortstop. Two hits. Two runs. Two errors.

Score: Andover 2, Wentworth 0.

SECOND INNING

Untiet hit a line drive to Luce, and Jolly struck out. Castonquay knocked a pop fly to Luce. No hits. No runs. No errors.

Goodman hit a long fly to the right fielder, who made a very good catch. Page and Murphy both grounded out to the shortstop, who handled the ball very well. No hits. No runs. No errors.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

WEDNESDAY, MAY 4, 1927

The recent communication from a student and the reply from Dr. Pfatteicher, published in the PHILLIPIAN on the subject of musical activities on the Hill have aroused considerable discussion among the student body. It is not really, however, so much of a discussion as a general and almost unanimous protest against the type of music which is now to be heard. It is indeed wholly deplorable that, in a school with all the wonderful musical equipment of this one, which, as Dr. Pfatteicher says, surpasses that of all other prep schools and of many colleges, almost no one of the students should have any real interest in the music. And yet when one makes further investigation, one finds that nearly all do care for music in some form — and that not by any means necessarily jazz — but that they have not been educated to understand such artists as Bach. Hence to most of us, the music which we hear, beautiful and artistic though it most certainly is, arouses only such interest as does an athlete whom we see performing exercises in a gymnasium. We are mildly interested in his activities and movements and appreciate them in so far as we realize that he is doing with perfect skill and coordination some rather difficult feat, but, beyond that we are not in the least thrilled or inspired. It has been declared that if one listens to Bach again and again the light will eventually dawn in his soul and he will be able to appreciate it to the full in all its beauty. All of which is undoubtedly true and much to be desired. But the fact remains that this opportunity for learning is not accepted by the majority of the students because there can exist no attraction for them in a program consisting entirely of selections which they do not understand nor even care particularly about understanding. Accordingly they do not attend the various recitals. At the recent organ recital on Sunday afternoon for example, there were present perhaps one hundred and fifty or two hundred townspeople and less than a dozen students. This certainly should not be the case, when we realize that the school with its opportunities for developing musical as well as literary tastes is after all intended primarily for the student. It is true that the music which is now heard is only of the very best and most high-class, but it is also unfortunately true that the average student has not been educated to appreciate that best. What then can be done and indeed must be done to better the situation as it now exists?

Club Baseball

The Saxons conquered the Romans in the most exciting game of the club series thus far. The score stood three-three with seven minutes left to play, as the games are stopped immediately at three-thirty o'clock. Captain Kimball put over a run and the Saxons were fielded out. Field of the Romans was forced out in their half of the inning for the first out. Babcock and Kimball then put across a quick double play to end the game, leaving the Saxons ahead by one run.

Babcock and Rakestraw both pitched close games for their respective teams and were well supported. The hitting of Kimball, the Saxon captain, was excellent.

In yesterday afternoon's game, the Greeks and Gauls fought an even battle to a 5-5 tie. Features of the game were Baird's home run with three men on bases, and Donaldson's three-base hit with a man on third. Trexler of the Gauls pitched a steady game for his team except in the third inning when he allowed his opponents five runs. Rhodes, pitching for the Greeks, did well from the second inning on. Baird, who pitched the first inning, gave the Gauls a good start by allowing them four runs.

Lecture

On the evening of Friday, April 6th, in the auditorium of George Washington Hall, Mr. Frank Branch Riley, one of the best known travel lecturers in this country, will give an illustrated talk on the subject, "The Lure of the Great Northwest." Mr. Riley, in an earlier appearance at Andover, delighted his audience by his marvelous pictures of mountain and lake scenery, and his description of the beauties of our American northwest. Those who heard him at his earlier appearance will certainly wish to hear him again. No admission fee will be charged for this lecture, and the general public are cordially invited.

Exeter Notes

"Caleb" Layton, last year's An-last Saturday for Princeton freshmen, and had the Exeter batters at his mercy, the freshmen winning,

8 to 1. Exeter's only run came in the ninth when Rolfe singled,
stole second, and scored on Coombs hit past third. Only one scratch hit was made off Layton up to the ninth.
Princeton bunched their hits in the fourth and sixth innings, and also profited by Exeter's misplays.

Club Track

Next Friday afternoon the third set of club track meets are to be held. The Saxons and Romans encounter one another to see which club shall occupy last place, while the Greeks and Gauls will clash to determine the leader. This latter meet is a crucial one, for the winner of it will probably gain the championship, unless it turns out as last year when the Greeks lost to the Saxons during their first encounter,
but defeated them in the second and so tied for first place. The Gauls are slight favorites to win
because their margin of victory
over the Saxons was eleven points greater than the Greeks'. The times for the various races are almost identical.
