BLUE ELEVEN TO FACE DARTMOUTH FRESHMEN

The varsity football team will open the season this afternoon with the Dartmouth freshmen. Coach Shepard has been working the squad strenuously this last week in preparation for the game. A three-hour scrimmage was held Wednesday against the second team and Thursday the first eleven was sent through a long signal drill. The Andover coaches are anything but satisfied with the defensive power of the team. Time after time last Wednesday the scrubs ripped through the varsity forward line for large gains and by passes even managed to make a touchdown. However, the first team played much better on the offensive and scored three times on the seconds.

Mr. Benton, the line coach, has been trying Houston, Newton, Berns, and Bloombergh out at left guard, and anyone of these may be selected to start this afternoon. Brett Osborne has been showing up well at left tackle and will probably begin the game. Lindenberg or Miller will play the right end position. The left side of the line will be taken care of by Coyle, at right guard; Hoffman, a very promising new man, at right tackle; and Barres of last year's team at end. Captain Gould will begin his third year as center on the varsity.

The backfield will be lighter than in past years. Harris or Fiedler will play right halfback with the first choice on the former. Harris has been kept out of recent scrimmages because of minor injuries. Carroll and Wheeler, both new men, will play fullback and quarter respectively. Avery at left half will complete the starting backfield.

Little can be told about the strength of the Dartmouth freshmen as no reports have been heard concerning their practice. Two of Andover's last year's team, Roe and Frigard are enrolled at Dartmouth and will probably face their former team mates.

The players composing the Dartmouth squad are: Andrus, Brown, Burroughs, Clarke, Crehan, Dilley, Dwyer, Frigard, Harvey, Hetfield, Hewes, Johnson, Lee, Long, Lyon, Nelsen, O'Conner, Phinney, Robisen, Roe, Ryan, Stokes, Sullivan, Sutton, Walcott, Wheeler, and Wilson.

Officials for Andover-Dartmouth Game

The officials for the first contest of the season, Andover vs. Dartmouth Freshmen, will be: E. L. Scoles, Everett, referee; F. J. Herlihy, Boston, umpire; J. M. Duffy, Lowell, head linesman; and S. W. Young, Somerville, field judge.

Chapel Speaker

The speaker at the Sunday morning chapel service for October 2, will be the Rev. Robert W. Coe of the South Congregational Church of Brockton, Mass. Mr. Coe has spoken here in the past and has always been a welcome visitor. He will also conduct the vesper service.

SULLIVAN SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED WEDNESDAY

The Roger C. Sullivan Scholarships, which were founded in 1921 by Boetius H. Sullivan, in memory of his father, were awarded in chapel last Wednesday morning. Four scholarships of $300 each are presented annually to those members of the Senior, Upper Middle, Lower Middle, and Junior Classes who have made the greatest scholastic improvement during the year. The winner in last year's Senior class was William Fessenden Merrill, of Warwick, New York, who was unable to be present; in last year's Upper Middle Class, Richard Walker Hirst, of Seoul, Korea; in last year's Lower Middle Class, Theodore Munger Adams, of New Haven, Conn.; and in last year's Junior Class, Donald Ritchie, of Newton Center, Mass.

NOTICES

The following men have been elected officers of the Upper Middle Class: George Braun, Jr., president; Oliver Healey, vice-president and Alan Evans, Jr., secretary and treasurer.

Harry Jones of Ridgewood, N. J., has been appointed acting captain of the 1928 baseball team by the athletic council. Jones was catcher on last year's team and made four hits in the Exeter game. The appointment of Jones as captain is made because Captain-Elect Harding did not return to school this fall.

At 3.30 to-morrow afternoon Mr. Pfatteicher will play the following programme on the Carillon of the Memorial Tower:

- Adagio Pleyel
- Menuetto Van den Gheyn
- The Merry Peasant Schumann
- Folk Songs
- Theme and Variations Nees

The station of the Phillips Academy Radio Club, after having been dismantled for the summer, is again on the air and sending signals out all over the world.

On Friday afternoon the club was in communication with the Grenfell Expedition at Northwest River, Labrador, and a schedule for traffic, press, etc., for the United States was arranged.

Nearly everyone has heard of the wonderful work Dr. Grenfell has done up there, and it is an honor to be of assistance to him. Amateur Radio is the sole connection that these northern expeditions have with the outer world.

Orchestra

The orchestra has been organized by Dr. Pfatteicher. A good number have turned out, but he still lacks violins and trombones. All those playing either of these instruments are urged to come out. The following are the members:

- Violins — Poor, Kelly, Torrey, Sampson, Eisman, R. S. Gaston, Cousins, Heermance, Jacobson, Schirmer, Birch.
- Viola — Chase.
- Flutes — Bull, Peck, Woodruff, Hill, Marsh, Bunting,
- Clarinets — J. Rubenstein, J. Creighton, Hovey, Mendenhall, W. G. Reed, Keedy, Phillips.
- Saxophones — Culter, Birch, R. F. D'Arcy, D. Davis, Schafer.
- Trumpets — Hutter, Baldwin, E. Swift.
- French Horn — W. W. Miller.
- Tympani — Neill, Ludlam.
- Piano — Chorlian.
- Organ — W. Clark, Sjostrom.

Phillipiana

H. S. Aldrich and S. B. Kieselhorst, P. A. '26, represented Yale 1931 on the freshman reception committee.

MOVIES PRECEDED BY AN ORGAN CONCERT

At 7.30 this evening, preceding the movies, Dr. Pfatteicher will play the following popular programme upon the Martha Cochran Memorial Organ in George Washington Auditorium.

- Song of India, Rumsky Korsakoff
- Humoresque Dvorak
- Czecho Slovakian Folk Song Anon.
- Midnight Torjussen
- Romance sans Paroles Bonnet
- Song of the Volga Boatmen Anon.
- Folk Song Komzak

The fellows are invited to offer suggestions for these popular programmes. They are at liberty to congregate about the console, but are requested to refrain from talking.

A few new stops have been put in the organ this summer, completing the set, of which the most outstanding ones are the harp and chimes.

Club Tennis

At the beginning of the season seventy-five men reported for club tennis, one of the largest groups to ever report for this sport. A cut was made last week, reducing the squad to about fifty men, and as soon as the doubles tournament is over, another cut will be made which will reduce the number of men to twenty-four. After two more doubles matches the varsity material will continue practicing as long as the weather permits.

The singles tournament began on Monday and continued through Thursday. On Monday the Greek team composed of Durell, Evans, Fisher, Bixby, Taylor, and Chapin, defeated the Romans whose team was made up of Pierce, Baker, Merrell, Gardener, Lawrence, and Upham. The Saxons played the Gauls at the same time, but their contest was unfinished. The Saxons were represented by Ames, Paine, Kellogg, Heath, Fenn and Tyler, and the Gauls by Baird, Fitch, Gage, Swain, Tadlock, and Poore. On Tuesday the Saxons defeated the Romans, and the Greeks the Gauls, while on Thursday Romans and Gauls tied, and the Saxons defeated the Greeks.

One match has been played in the doubles tournament, the Saxons defeating the Gauls. The other match between the Romans and the Greeks was unfinished. There are to be four more matches in the doubles tournament; they will be played next week. The standings follow:

Saxons	3 1/2
Greeks	2
Gauls	1
Romans	1/2

Phillipiana

John Prior and William Lord are alternating at one end on the Harvard Varsity. Both are former Andover athletes.

Roy "Red" Randall former P. A. football star has returned to his position as quarterback in the Brown lineup. His hand having been hurt in a previous season workout, he was unable to play in the opening game last Saturday.

A. Foote, P. A. '24, holds down the position of halfback on the Yale varsity.

OPERA SOLOIST TO GIVE CONCERT OCTOBER 15

MME. MARIE SUNDELIUS TO BE FIRST ENTERTAINER

The Combined Musical Clubs have been very fortunate in securing for the opening musical attraction in George Washington Hall, Mme. Marie Sundelius soloist in the Metropolitan Opera company in New York. The concert will be given on Saturday evening, October the 15th at 8.15 and it is hoped that no boy will allow any other "date" to prevent him from enjoying this treat offered him.

The tickets for the general public will be $1.00 but any student in the academy can secure a ticket for any seat in the house (not already sold) for $.50. The tickets can be secured in Mr. J. H. Dye's office in George Washington Hall between 9 and 12 a.m. As they go on general sale on Monday it is important that as many as possible secure seats early. Only one seat will be allowed a boy at this price and additional seats will be at the regular price of $1.00.

Mme. Sundelius has sung at the other large boys' schools and has been very enthusiastically received there. She sang at the dedication of the new chapel at Mercersburg recently. Last summer she was the soloist at the reception given to Lindbergh by the city of Boston. Her program in Andover will be chosen largely with the desire to please an audience of boys and the committee feel sure that no one will be disappointed if he attends the concert. In addition to the pleasure derived therefrom, the clubs solicit the patronage of the entire student-body as the guarantee is heavy and the support of the school is needed to make the concert the success it will so richly deserve.

So go to Mr. Dye's office AT ONCE and get your seat. It is expected that the girls' schools in the vicinity will be present.

Society of Inquiry

In keeping with the leadership which rules in the Society of Inquiry the election of a secretary and a treasurer will take place at the next regular meeting. It is the purpose of the Society to enlist the finest leadership at Phillips Academy. Negotiations are now in progress with a view to securing an evening which is not taken up by other important meetings at the same hour. Announcements in Chapel will disclose the date of the next meeting.

Several fellows of talent will perform at the piano and the organ for those who desire to come early before the scheduled time of the meetings. The meetings are held in the upper floor of the Peabody House, begin promptly at seven p.m. and terminate at 7:45 p.m. Ideas and ideals, tested and clarified, make for personal satisfactions. Ever since Dr. Johnson, Boswell, Reynolds, Garrick, Burke and Goldsmith compared and propounded their views of life — from then on, men of learning have found pleasure in comparing and in sharing their philosophy of life with others. Already the Society bids fair to become an interesting hour of reflection and of meditation.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1927

Despite all that has been said and done about the matter there still remains among many of the fellows in school that tendency toward studying in chapel. It is hard for those who are bending over a book for a last-minute perusal of the Latin vocabulary for the morning's lesson to realize how unattractive a sight it presents to visitors upstairs. Many of the men who do this have been reprimanded repeatedly, and yet not a single morning passes without some of this unsightly chapel studying.

And aside from the unattractiveness of such studying, the brief fifteen minutes taken from the morning hours for daily chapel are set apart for prayer, the hymn, and the morning announcements, not as a study period. Surely this one quarter of an hour does not afford much opportunity for concentrated study. The bustle and confusion of morning chapel before the actual commencement of the service, combined with the singing and the alternate rising and sitting after the service has begun would make devotion to text-books hard even were it necessary.

Why not try to get studying done during study hours, and avoid causing this blemish in the service? Whatever studying cannot be completed in the morning and evening hours devoted to that purpose certainly cannot be augmented a great deal in the short time afforded in chapel.

This afternoon Andover starts the football schedule with the Dartmouth freshmen. Coach Shepard will put a team on the field that is noticeably lacking in veterans and in heavy men. They will have to make up for their lack of weight in fight and in determination. In this the whole student body can be of assistance by going to today's and every other home game for the extent of the season. There is no doubt that if the team sees the stands packed with loyal Andover men, who are singing the school songs and giving the cheers with all the pep and enthusiasm at their command, they will fight harder and play better football. Mr. Shepard told the squad that a hundred and forty pounds of determination was worth more to him than one hundred and eighty pounds of body. If everyone is out there today, yelling encouragement, that will help strengthen this all important determination which is so necessary. If Dartmouth has piled up a lead, the student body, losing interest and thinking the game to be gone, must not drift away from the stands. Recall the second half of last year's Exeter contest, and whether the eleven starts the season in glory or in defeat, remember that the team has gained just that much experience and they will play just that much better football in every succeeding game.

Arnold's High Mark

One of the high spots in the career of Benedict Arnold came at the second battle of Saratoga. Arnold despised Gen. Horatio Gates, and did not hide his contempt. So Gates put him under arrest for insubordination, and he was confined in a small room of a farmhouse behind the American lines in charge of a sentry.

When the battle broke out Arnold scented the situation and evaded his guard, leaped upon a horse and led the attack that carried the British entrenchments. The field of Saratoga is well marked, and where Arnold penetrated Burgoyne's trenches stands a gray granite monument. On it is carved a cavalryman's jackboot, with the spur broken off. The marker bears no comment and no name, but it points the high-water level of Arnold's career.

Ocean Not Level

Another popular belief has been shattered, says Popular Science Monthly, by the report from Washington, D. C., that, after all, the sea isn't level at all, but is a "gently sloping hill!" H. G. Avers, of the coast and geodetic survey, made this announcement after extensive experimenting. The mean sea level at Biloxi, Miss., he says, is two centimeters below that at Galveston, Texas. Even more surprising is his report that the mean sea level at St. Augustine, Fla., was found to be 24 centimeters below that at Galveston, and 31 centimeters below that at Portland, Maine.

Phillipiana

The following last year's Andover men are out for the Harvard freshman football team: J. M. Cosgrove, T. O. Frazier, Dick Rideout, and W. A. Robinson.

Richard Allen, P. A. '19, who, while he was at Andover, was one of her best track men, suffered a fracture of his arm in an automobile accident last week.

H. Flynn, P. A. '27, who received his letter in the Exeter game last year, on account of his failure to pass his entrance examinations had to withdraw from the Harvard Freshman squad, where he was regarded as a very promising candidate.

John Prior, P. A. '25, appears to be the leading end candidate for the Harvard varsity eleven and will start in the Vermont game today.

Samuel Burns and William Jones both former Andover football players, starred in the scrimmage Wednesday between the Harvard varsity and the Seconds. Both men played on the varsity team.
