

NEW TEAM ON BASEBALL SCHEDULE MET TODAY

MERITS OF GENERAL ELECTRIC TEAM UNKNOWN

This afternoon at 2:30 the Andover baseball nine is to meet the General Electric team from Lynn. As there remains but a single game after the one this afternoon before the annual contest with Exeter on June 9, the result of this game should test the experience and ability of our team which, it is hoped, will bring home a victory one week from today.

There have been one or two recent changes on the Andover lineup; and the batting order, as well, has been slightly rearranged. Most of the infield, however, will remain the same. With Captain Jones behind the plate and Slader or Babcock in the box Andover's battery should prove a strong one. Chapin will play first base, Frank will be on second, and Kimball on third. Mettler will play at his regular position, short stop. In the outfield there are four probable players, Batchelder, Bassett, Jackson, and Allen.

The visiting team has not been reported as over-strong, but there are one or two star players on it. Domey at first base or center field, and Payson playing shortstop are thought to be good.

Following is the lineup of both teams:

ANDOVER GENERAL ELECTRIC
Bassett, c.f.	3b., Muzzey

MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES HELD AT THE TOWER

Last Wednesday the annual national holiday of Memorial Day was observed at Phillips Academy. The exercises in recognition of this holiday took place at ten o'clock in the morning at the Memorial Tower. The assemblage which parades every year marched up Main Street to Salem Street and then formed about the Tower. This parade consisted of a band which led the march, a body of World War veterans composed of American Legion men, among whom were several members of the Academy faculty, a group of soldiers which were to fire the military salute, several bands of local school-children, some of whom carried a large American flag, and a large group of Boy Scouts headed by their own band of bugles and drums. In addition, there were a few veterans of the Civil War, who rode along in automobiles. When, besides the large group represented in the parade, a good many students of Phillips Academy and many of the townspeople had gathered at the Memorial Tower, Headmaster A. E. Stearns gave a short speech, appropriate to the occasion, in praise and memory of the Andover men who had given their lives in the Great War, and

NETMEN PROVE VICTORS IN INTERSCHOLASTICS

EXETER COMES THROUGH IN SECOND PLACE

Upsetting all predictions, the Andover team brought home the shield from the Harvard Interscholastic Tennis tournament last Wednesday with ten points, topping both Newton High and Exeter by one point. Arthur Noble of Newton was the winner of the final round, played off Thursday afternoon. Although very strong, Andrews of Lawrenceville could not keep up his pace through five matches, and Noble won a bitter three-set match. Loomis and Columbia Grammar School had poor teams and did not enter. Having for chief competitors three undefeated teams, Newton High, Exeter and Worcester Academy, Andover won four of the six first matches, and Captain Field reached the semi-finals, when he was eliminated by Andrews of Lawrenceville, a player favored throughout the matches.

The Exeter six was not as good as was reported and this was proved by the scores: all her matches had been with weak teams, and Wednesday all were put out except Greene before the third round. The principal draw-back to Exeter's winning under the tournament scoring system is that all her strength is centered in her first two men, Harte and Greene.

Only four men were entered from Newton High, the recent conqueror of Andover, Scott came through to the fourth round, when he was beaten by the beautiful playing of Rayner Field. Noble, Canadian junior champion, played his usual good game.

All but one of Andover's men played at their best Wednesday. Smyth was off his game, and was too inaccurate to defeat Jackson, number two at Worcester Academy. Paine had a poor draw, meeting in the first round Scott of Newton, whom he did not defeat despite good playing; nevertheless, the contest was close until Paine served several doubles in the last game of the deciding set, which was 5-7. Heath played well to beat Schuman of Munroe High School (N.Y.) in his first match, but was a little poorer against Butler (Worcester), who had a stronger serve. Durell was as good as usual under fire, and was put out finally only by Andrews, the runner-up. The Blue player was hitting hard and getting some good serves, finally winning a very close battle from Orlandini of New Prep, 6-3, 0-6, 9-7. In his second round he met Andrews and lost, 6-3, 6-4. Smyth played his usual steady game all day, placing well, and stroking easily. When he faced Greene (Exeter number two) in his second encounter, he pulled up from the losing end of a 5-1 score in the first set to win, 7-5. Then Greene, who had been on the decline in this first set, tightened up and won the next two.

After the first battle on Wednesday during the course of which he won four matches, Field was at the top of his game. Neither played a fast game, and the initial steadiness of Bowers faded out toward the middle of the second set. The

Numeral Meet

This afternoon a numeral meet will be held on Brothers Field for all those who have not already won this insignia.

EXETER NEWS COLUMN

Crew

Last week in the annual letter race of the season against Middlesex, both Exeter's first and second boats were victorious over their opponents. In the first race Exeter and Middlesex rowed an even pace until the second turn; here the Red and Gray shell gradually out-distanced their opponents to win, by a margin of three-quarters of a length, in the good time of 2 min. and 50 sec. Exeter's second boat kept ahead from the start, and was never pressed to win. The time of this second race was 2 min. and 57 sec. On the same afternoon an All-class crew rowed against the strong Harvard Freshman eight and was beaten by three lengths. Rowing over a three-quarters mile course, the Crimson Freshmen took the lead early and gained steadily to win the race in 2 min. 59 sec.

Golf

By defeating the Thayer Academy team with the score of five matches to one, Exeter won its third consecutive victory in Golf. Since the match was played in the pouring rain, good playing was rendered impossible, and consequently no low scores were turned in. The Exeter golfers were aided by the fact that the meet was played on their home course.

Tennis

In the Harvard Interscholastics last Wednesday in which the team championship was won by Andover, Exeter won five matches, and Greene of the Red and Gray figured in the semi-finals. He was defeated, however, by Noble of Newton High, who won the Interscholastic tennis title.

Sports Called Off

The baseball game with Dartmouth Freshmen, and the tennis meet with Worcester were both called off on account of the rain.

Recently a letter was received from the Princeton-Andover Club, stating that Datne C. Smith Jr., P. A. '25, has been elected Assistant Editorial Editor of the Daily Princetonian.

BLUE TENNIS TEAM TO FACE NORTH ANDOVER

The tennis match this afternoon will be with the North Andover Country Club, who have a veteran team favored to win. Only two of their players are new men, and one of these is Mr. Murray, assistant coach of the Blue team, who plays a fine, fast game. The first man for the country club is G. E. Abbot, a former holder of the Massachusetts state doubles championship, who defeated Thomas in the match last year. A. E. Cameron is the second player, and a former holder of the Maine singles title. Mr. Murray is next man, and the fourth is S. F. Rockwell, Harvard 1900, a veteran of many championships. C. C. Kimball, P. A. '09, Harvard '13, plays fifth, and Dr. E. J. Sawyer sixth. The visitors have played only one match this year, when they defeated the Salem Country Club five to one with a four man team. For several years they have faced Andover, and each time the score has been close.

Andover surpassed all expectations in the Interscholastics; and if Field, Smyth, and Paine play as well as they did on Wednesday, the home team has a chance of winning, even against such an experienced group of players. Although it is very likely that the lineup will be rearranged before the meet, the order in which the Blue men played in their last match is given below, with the probable lineup of the Country Club:

1. Field (A) vs. G. E. Abbot (N.A.C.C.)
2. Smyth (A) vs. A. E. Cameron (N.A.C.C.)
3. Paine (A) vs. F. K. Murray (N.A.C.C.)
4. Durell (A) vs. S. F. Rockwell (N.A.C.C.)
5. Heath (A) vs. C. C. Kimball (N.A.C.C.)
6. Smith (A) vs. Dr. E. J. Sawyer (N.A.C.C.)

ANNUAL FIELD DAY TURNS IN VERY GOOD RESULTS

Last Wednesday the ninth annual field day was held. Because of the dry weather large crowds of students entered the events and many records were broken on the track. Beginning promptly at 10.30 o'clock, the meet went through quickly. Medals were awarded for all events except the Class B 1000-yard dash, in which the time was too slow.

Many of the races were spirited and close. Several men who would not have been chosen to win before the meet showed the fine results of a hard-worked track season and triumphed.

In Class A six records were broken; they were in the javelin, pole vault, broad jump, hammer throw, discus, and high hurdles. The only new mark set in Class B was 1 minute 33 2-5 seconds made in the 660-yard dash. None were made in Class C, the reason being a small attendance.

The summary of the meet is as follows:

CLASS A

Shot put—Won by Geselle; second, Bicknell; third, Beckwith. Distance, 39 ft. 11 1-4 in.

BASEBALL MEN LOSE TO TUFTS FRESHMEN

FAIRLY WELL MATCHED

Last Wednesday, after a two-week's period of inactivity, the Andover baseball team was defeated by the Tufts freshmen in a slow but interesting game by the score of 9 to 5. Except for the second inning, when Tufts tallied six runs, the contest was even. The Blue made only one error, which shows that their fielding is improving. Batchelder was the batting star, getting three hits including a double and a triple. Kimball played a good game at third, catching two men off base. A play by play description follows:

Ochert hit the first pitched ball and was an easy out, Mettler to Chapin. Then Bassett misjudged Pittcock's hit, which fell for a double and Lupien walked. Adams forced out Lupien and Aronian put Adams out in the same way. No runs, one hit.

The Blue tallied a run in their half. Bassett struck out, and Frank walked. On the shortstop's bad throw, Jones was safe. Jackson forced Jones, but Frank, who had stolen third, scored. Slader reached first on an error, but was left when Mettler fled to right field. One run, no hits, two errors.

Tufts soon took the lead. Peterson and Shea doubled down the left foul line, the former scoring. Godfrey singled to score Shea, and scored when Morton singled to right. After Ochert was safe on an infield hit, Babcock replaced Slader who went to the outfield in place of Bassett. Pittcock made an infield hit, and Lupien was the first out, Mettler to Chapin. Adams hit a long hit to center, and the runners scored. Then Frank ran out to short right to take Aronian's fly. Peterson was the third out, Frank to Chapin. Six runs, seven hits.

Morton and Ochert changed places at catcher and left field. Chapin was safe at first on a low throw, and Kimball fanned. Batchelder singled, but when Babcock lined to second Chapin was doubled off. One hit, no runs, one error.

The third inning was very short. Shea flied to Frank, Godfrey was out, Frank to Chapin, and Morton fanned. No runs, no hits.

In Andover's half, Frank was out, second to first, and Jones fouled out. Jackson ended the inning by a fly to left. No runs, no hits.

Tufts went out in order in the fourth. Ochert flied to center, Pittcock fanned, and on a weak roller, Lupien was out at first. No runs, no hits.

The Blue added two runs in their half. Slader flied out, but Mettler was safe on an error. However Chapin forced him. Kimball singled Chapin to third and stole second. Batchelder doubled to center, scoring both, but was left on base when Babcock was out. Two runs, two hits, one error.

In the fifth, Adams singled and Aronian sacrificed him to second. Adams scored when Jones threw wildly to catch the runner. Peterson walked, but Shea hit out to Chapin and he was caught at third. One run, one hit.

SATURDAY, JUNE 2, 1928

We are compelled to admit now that our rivals from New Hampshire showed something at the track meet two weeks ago that made us rather more than envious: When the Exeter hordes marched on the field, they were led by a really good student band. This organization was one of vital importance and of inestimable aid throughout the entire meet and showed that Exeter has stepped out ahead of us for a time in the field of enthusiasm and, in a certain measure, of competitive spirit. The way that they played was doubtless the result of hard work and lots of it; but after all, it was surely worth their efforts.

The natural thing for us to do now is to wonder why we don't have such an organization. We have now seen the aid it is and the spirit that it brings forth at Exeter, and so, although we hesitate to copy, it seems that we should have one. One cannot possibly say that it is a lack of ability that is keeping us from producing a band since we have two student jazz bands and a school orchestra. Probably the reason is a lack of initiative in the people who have musical ability and who could organize a band that would be a credit to the school. It would take work, hours of practice, but when the big meets and games come around anyone would be proud to be led by a competent student band.

to whom the Tower had been dedicated. At the conclusion of his address a wreath was presented. Then, the military salute of three volleys was fired, and Taps was played by a member of the band.

Communication

It is very strange that the Society of Inquiry is able to give lavish banquets for its executive board, to put large sums in trust for our great-great-grandchildren, to unite a superfluity of visitors to be present at the Sesquicentennial Celebration and yet has forced the student body to contribute to a separate fund for the movies, which fund has not lasted throughout the year. Of course this item was not included in their budget, but neither were many other expenditures which have recently been incurred. In former years the Society, although it had received a much smaller amount from the students, was, nevertheless, able to maintain a fund for movies. Since the Society has had such remarkable success in collecting money this year, to ask that movies be provided in the future by the Society seems a very small request indeed.

All-Club Baseball

Last Wednesday, after the conclusion of the club baseball season, the all-club squad was chosen. The champion Greeks placed four men, the Gauls and Romans three, and the Saxons seven. Practice is beginning now, and by June 6th, when the Exeter all-class team is played, a formidable outfit should be at hand.

Three pitchers, Emery of the Gauls, Horn, Saxon, and Rugg, a Roman, were selected. They rank in the order named. The catchers are Whittlesey (Greek), and Willey (Gaul), with the former as first-string. Morgan, a Roman, and Dorman of the Saxons are the first basemen and are practically even in merit. At second base Hayes, a Saxon, and Bryant, of the Gaul Club, will play. A Greek and a Saxon, McClellan and Russell, were picked for shortstop, where the latter is considered a bit superior. As third baseman, Ederheimer, captain of the Greeks and Bond, a Gaul, are the leading contenders, with the Saxon man, Johnson, as third choice. The outfielders are Pierce and Cushman (Saxons), Brett, who is on the Greeks, and Mayer, of the Romans.

The whole squad picked was: Ederheimer (Gr.), McClellan (Gr.), Whittlesey (Gr.), Brett (Gr.) Emery (G), Willey (G), Bond (G), Morgan (R), Rugg (R), Mayer (R), Horn (S), Dorman (S), Hayes (S), Russell (S), Johnson (S), Pierce (S), Cushman (S).

Exeter Golf Preview

The golf team journeys this afternoon to face Exeter on the Exeter golf links. For the first time there will be also an all-club-all-class tournament. Last year in the varsity match Exeter was the winner, six to three. On Saturday, May 26th, Andover lost to the Yale Freshmen at New Haven, all but one of the two-somes and both foursomes. Nothing is known about the Exeter team or what schools they have played, so no comparison can be made.

The Andover lineups are as follows:

Varsity

1. Eaton
2. Couch
3. Adler
4. Mulliken
5. Dinsmoor
6. Neill

All-Club vs. All-Class

1. Parsons
2. Page
3. Vipond
4. Gage
5. Barnes
6. Abell

In the thirty-six hole medal-play matches for the school championship which are now going on, Captain Eaton is ahead, with an eighty-one and a seventy-five, made last Wednesday.

 Andover captain grew stronger and at last won a three-set match, 3-6, 6-1, 6-4. His next encounter, with the Exeter number three man and captain, was won easily; and in the first bout of the afternoon he played almost perfect tennis, making beautiful lobs and showing great accuracy and confidence. After thus ousting Avedon (Worcester), he met Scott. His self-assurance stayed with him, and his opponent, who was over-confident and rather inaccurate, could not afford much resistance, losing 6-3, 6-2. On Thursday Field lost to Andrews in the semi-finals, 6-3 6-4. The Lawrenceville man owed his victory chiefly to a hard-driving game with a canny change of pace. Field's downfall was due largely to double faults, although he showed flashes of brilliance. Noble's victory over Andrews was regarded by many as rather a surprise. The Newton High man is among the high-ranking juniors in Massachusetts, and recently went to the semi-finals in the Yale Interscholastics, besides being the Canadian junior champion. But Clark Andrews had been playing fine tennis both Wednesday and Thursday and was seeded number one in the draw. However, Noble proved too good for him in the fierce contest of the finals, and was the winner of three sets straight, 7-5, 7-5, 6-3.

A summary of Andover's matches and those of the winner follows:

Became your Mother, I married the other,
 But we have drifted apart.
 6 MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME
 Weep no more, my lady, O weep no more to-day;
 We will sing one song for the old Kentucky home,
 For the old Kentucky home, far away.
 7 IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMER
 In the good old Summer time,
 In the good old Summer time,
 Strolling down the shady lane, with your sweetheart mine;
 She holds your hand and you hold hers,
 And that's a very good sign
 That she's your tootsie-wootsie,
 In the good old summer 'ime.
 8 ANNIE ROONIE
 She's my sweetheart, I'm her beau;
 She's my Annie, I'm her Joe;
 Soon we'll marry, never to part;
 Little Annie Rooney is my sweetheart.
 9 SIDEWALKS OF NEW YORK
 East side, west side, all around the town,
 We all play ring-a-rosie, London Bridge is falling down.
 Boys and girls together, me and Mamie
 O'Rourke,
 We tripped the light fantastic on the sidewalks of New York.
 10 SWANEE RIVER
 Way down upon the Swanee river, far far away,
 There's where my heart is turning ever,
 There's where the old folks stay;
 All up and down the whole creation, sadly
 I roam,
 Still longing for the old plantation,
 And for the old folks at home.
 All the world am sad and dreary, ev'ry-
 where I roam,
 O darkeys, how my heart grows weary,
 Far from the old folks at home.
 11 MAGGIE MURPHY'S HOME
 On Sunday night 'tis my delight and pleasure, don't you see,
 Meeting all the boys and all the girls
 that work down town with me.
 There's an organ in the parlor to give the house a tone,
 And you're welcome every evening at
 Maggie Murphy's home.
 12 AFTER THE BALL
 After the ball is o-ver,
 After the break of morn,
 After the dan-cers leav-ing, after the stars
 are gone;
 Ma-ny a heart is ach-ing, if you could read them all;
 Ma-ny the hopes that have van-ished,
 Af-ter the ball.
 13 AMICI
 Our strong band can ne'er be broken,
 Formed in Theta Psi,
 Far surpassing wealth unspoken,
 Sealed by friendship's tie.
 Chorus
 Amici usque ad aras,
 Deep graven on each heart,
 Shall be found unwavering, true,
 When we from life shall part.
 College life at best is passing,
 Gliding swiftly by;
 Then let us pledge in word and deed,
 Our love for Theta Psi.
 14 INTEGER VITAE
 Integer vitae scelerisque purus,
 Non eget, Mauris jaculis, nec arcu,
 Nec venenatis gravaida sagittis,
 Fusce, pharetra
 Sive per Syrtis iter aestuosas,
 Sive facturus per inhospitalern
 Caucasum, vel quae loca fabulosus
 Lambit Hydaspes.
 15 THE POPE
 The Pope he leads a jolly life,
 He's free from every care and strife,
 He drinks the best of Rhenish wine:
 I would the Pope's gay life were mine.
 The Sultan better pleases me,
 His life is full of jollity,
 His wives are many as he will:
 I fain the Sultan's throne would fill.
 So, when my sweetheart kisses me,
 I'll think that I'd the Sultan be;
 And when my Rhenish wine I tope,
 Oh, then I'll think that I'm the Pope.
 15 AMERICA
 My country, 'tis of thee,
 Sweet land of liberty,
 Of thee I sing:
 Land where my fathers died!
 Land of the Pilgrims' pride!
 From ev'ry mountain side
 Let freedom ring!
 Our father's God, to Thee,
 Author of liberty,
 To Thee we sing:
 Long may our land be bright
 With Freedom's holy light;
 Protect us by Thy might,
 Great God, our King!
 18 BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC
 Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
 He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
 He hath loosed the fateful lighting of His terrible swift sword:
 His truth is marching on.
 Chorus
 Glory, glory hallelujah!
 Glory, glory, hallelujah!
 His truth is marching on.

SENTENCE SERMONS

The gates of heaven are lightly locked.—G. K. Chesterton.

In the part which merely concerns himself man's independence is, of right, absolute.—John Stuart Mill.

Beware of a physician of souls who puts a poultice on the sore and lets alone the poison of infection at its seat and source.

The most gladsome thing in the world is that few of us fall very low; the saddest that, with such capabilities, we seldom rise very high.—Barrie.

He is a churl that can warm his hands by no fireside but his own; but he is less than a man who does not love his own fireside best.—W. M. Punshon.

To set the mind above the appetites is the end of abstinence, which one of the fathers observes to be not a virtue, but the groundwork of a virtue.—Johnson.

HEARD IN PASSING

Nobody blames the ice man in the winter time nor the coal man in the summer.

Nothing ventured, nothing gained—but you may be able to keep what you have.

Two of the greatest bores on earth are an oil drill and the man who says "I told you so."
