

ANDOVER QUINTET WINS AMAZING VICTORY

DEAN ACADEMY DEFEATED IN SECOND HALF RALLY

By staging a second half rally which was little short of miraculous the Andover basketball team defeated the Dean Academy team 31 to 26 Saturday night. Seemingly hopelessly outclassed during the first half, Andover overcame the 18 to 8 lead of their opponents during the second. This feat is all the more remarkable when one considers the fact that Dean was the State prep school champion of last year and that it has won all games so far this season. At the close of the game coach Blackmer declared that he had never seen such a comeback on a court before.

When Andover went on the floor at the beginning of the second half it was an inspired team, and it began to play phenomenal basketball. In this half there were no individual stars, for every Andover man was playing better than ever before. Never were players guarded more closely than the Dean men in the last half. On the offense the Andover team showed more spark and vim than they have exhibited before this season. Toward the end of the period the stalling type of game, which coach Blackmer has been teaching the team, was used with very fine results.

Huppuch with his floor work was the man who personally contributed most to Andover's victory. The deadly eye of Metler for the basket returned to its former effectiveness in the second half to add greatly to Andover's score. Drick and Ederheimer played very well to augment the Andover attack. In the contest for the left guard position Chaffee appears to have the edge over his rival, Kellogg, as a result of his playing against Dean. Though its team play was Dean's shining light, Teckler and Hugret were the individual stars.

Mettler made the first score of the game, but Worrell soon evened it up and pushed Dean ahead with a foul and a basket. Hugret and Layden also made baskets to give Dean the advantage of a 6 to 4 score at the end of the period. The second quarter was just one Dean basket after another, although Drick and Huppuch managed to get a basket apiece toward the end. The score at half time stood: Dean 18, Andover 8.

Dean did not score during the third period, while Andover collected a total of 11 points to give herself the lead 19 to 18 at its close. Mettler, Ederheimer, and Drick were the Andover men who made baskets in this period. The last quarter found both teams making desperate efforts to score. Near the end, however, when baskets by Mettler, Drick, Ederheimer, and Huppuch had given Andover a 29 to 23 lead, our team began to stall. The game ended with the ball in the possession of Andover and with the score 31 to 26 in their favor.

ANDOVER MATMEN LOSE TO TUFTS FRESHMEN

CAPTAIN McGAULEY WINS FALL

The Andover wrestling team opened its season with the Tufts freshman meet last Saturday, in which the Blue lost to the older and more experienced visiting team with the score 12-8. Captain McGauley contributed 5 of Andover's 8 points by virtue of winning a fall from Heos. Barrows won a referee's decision over Minasian in the closest and most strenuous match on the card, thus bringing Andover's total up to 8.

In the 115-pound class Daniels of Tufts won a decision over Rowland with a time advantage of 2.26. During the first half of the match they circled and grappled continuously and seemed unwilling to come to grips. Daniels at last began to force the fighting and soon had Rowland under him. When Rowland finally broke away, it was too late to win the decision.

In the next weight Captain Lohmeyer of the Tufts team won over Lasater with a time advantage of 9.40. Lohmeyer, who had had more experience than his opponent, managed to hold Lasater down, but the latter's headwork and agility always saved him from losing by a fall.

Captain McGauley, in his match took the aggressive from the start and had little difficulty in holding Heos. After grappling a few seconds McGauley caught his opponent off guard and lifting him on his shoulder dropped him to the mat. Then after 4.36 he had Heos on his back.

The 145-pound class was closely contested, but the decision went to Robbins of Tufts who held a time advantage of 3.40 over Crandon.

Although Walden, in the next weight, put up a game fight, he was defeated by his opponent who held a 7.30 time advantage.

The heavy-weight match, as has been stated, was the closest and most gruelling contest of the meet. Barrows, representing Andover, nearly won a fall in the first few minutes, having twice thrown his man to the mat. In a moment the upper hand reversed, but Barrows managed to scramble out of his opponent's grip. From then on the contest seemed uncertain. Both men were tiring themselves very much by their strenuous efforts. When time was finally called, Barrows, who held a time advantage of 1.4, was declared the winner.

NEW PREP HOCKEY TODAY

Today the Blue hockey team meets the New Preparatory School of Cambridge. Encouraged by their victory over Tufts freshmen last Saturday, the Andover squad is looking forward to another victory.

During the past two days Coach Vaughn has been drilling his squad especially in defense work. The forward lines have been playing opposite their defense partners, thus giving both groups a chance to improve their passing and checking game. The team has greatly increased its playing speed and will

"Peter Stuyvesant", one of the Yale Chronicles in American history, will be shown at 7 o'clock this evening in the George Washington Auditorium. All members of the school are cordially invited to attend.

PHILO DEBATE TONIGHT IN PEABODY HOUSE

Philo has again gotten under way with very bright prospects for the coming year. About forty have joined already and it is hoped that before the end of the term there will be at least sixty in the roll. Mr. Wilkinson and Mr. Heely have kindly consented to act as sponsors this year and they will be very glad to give anyone suggestions on debating.

The meetings will begin at 6:45, and if the debate is not finished, it will be allowed to run over. Tonight in the Peabody House the first debate of the season will be held. The subject is "Resolved: that the Inter-allied war debt should be cancelled." R. M. Davis, A. Kidder, 2nd, and H. Cornish will uphold the affirmative, and G. C. Crosby, W. G. Sheldon and R. W. Brown, Jr., the negative.

This debate will be a very interesting one as it is an important current question, and one in which everyone is interested. If this season is a successful one, it is hoped that some outside debates can be arranged. The entire student body is invited to attend these debates and those who have already signed up are especially urged to be at the meetings and to bring others with them.

EXETER OPENS NEW CAGE

Exeter's new baseball cage and indoor running track, the gift of William B. Thompson '90, which has been in progress of construction for the past eight months, is to be the scene of the athletic activities there during the winter months from now on. It has been constructed at a cost of approximately $160,000.

The building is one of the best of its kind in the East and is modeled after those at Harvard and at Andover, but it is larger than these. The building is of steel framework, finished in stucco to match the limestone of the gymnasium, and is 160 feet square, thus

BLUE SWIMMERS DEFEAT DEAN ACADEMY

On Saturday last the Andover swimming team overwhelmed Dean Academy, 50 to 12. There is some justification for their rather poor showing, since this is the first year Dean has formed a swimming team, on account of which Captain Westfall did not swim in either the 50 or 100-yard dashes but was entered in the 200-yard free style instead. In spite of the lack of competition, however, one school record was broken. Anderson, who has been making and breaking records for the last three years, turned in the low time of 1 minute 7.4-5 seconds for the 100-yard backstroke event.

The Blue made a good start in the relay when King gained two yards over Holden. Mooney maintained this lead, and Jones converted it into about twenty yards. Captain Westfall, the Blue's anchor-man, finished nearly a lap ahead of Learned with the time of 47.2-5 seconds.

In the dive Williamson and McCloy showed excellent form, winning in that order. Hicks of Dean was third. Their points were respectively 79.5; 74.5; and 34.

Jones and King finished first and second in the 50-yard free style. Learned of Dean was third, nearly succeeding in beating out King for second place. The winning time was 27.2-5 seconds.

The Blue continued its winning streak by capturing the 100-yard free style. Mooney won in 1 minute 2.3-5 seconds. Jameson of Andover was second, and Ingram of the visiting team finished third.

In breaking his own record in the backstroke, Anderson easily outdistanced his competitors. Gates of Dean was second, and Willey of Andover came in third.

Tatlock won the 50-yard breaststroke for Andover when he placed in front of Learned of Dean in a very close finish. The winner just managed to touch the end an instant before Learned and thus took the event. Phillips of Andover placed third.

In the final event of the meet, the 200-yard race, Captain Westfall won by a large margin, with his teammate Fry placing second. Ingram of Dean was third. Westfall's time was 2 minutes 23.3-5 seconds, not quite four seconds above the record which he set last week.

CLUB BASKETBALL

This afternoon the club basketball season will be started. The Romans are to play the Greeks and the Saxons will be pitted against the Gauls. The Romans under the coaching of Mr. Jacob are favored to repeat their football victory, thought the game this afternoon against the Greeks under Mr. L. C. Newton promises to be extremely close. In the other game the Gauls coached by Mr. Sanborn appear to be the stronger five although the Saxons under C. K. Howard should not be underrated.

B. D. Jeffery, P. A. '28, was awarded soccer numerals for playing on the Dartmouth freshmen team last fall.

HOCKEY TEAM WINS OVER TUFTS FRESHMEN

SUPERIOR ANDOVER TEAM GAINS 2-1 VICTORY

In a game in which poor playing was the prevailing feature of both teams, Andover defeated the Tufts Freshmen hockey team 3 to 1 last Saturday. The Blue did not seem to show as much teamwork as in the Melrose game, partly due to the fact that the opposition was poor and did not force them to exert themselves in order to win. The forward line did not keep position properly, and for this reason lost many chances to score. Instead, the game as played by the front line was really a series of individual dashes with but few combined efforts at the goal. The defense, likewise, was not up to its usual standard. In spite of their lack of teamwork Saturday, the Blue men showed good points. They played a considerably speedier game than heretofore. The players also seemed more sure of themselves and of each other. The one casualty of the game occurred early in the second period when Jackson, Andover right defense man, fell on the poor ice and was hit above the left eye by Kennedy's stick. The cut was not serious, but he was taken out for the remainder of the game.

Childs of Tufts received the puck from Kennedy as the game started and took a shot at the Andover net, which Neill ably stopped. McDougall then made an attempt at an open goal but failed. Kennedy brought the puck to Andover territory where a general mix-up ensued. Fawcett received a pass from Wing, shot, and missed. He then recovered the puck and passed back to Wing, who shot by Packard to score the first goal of the game. Rugg, Kellogg, Bachman, and Sherman then entered the game. Soon after this McDougall nearly scored.

Our line kept the play up around the Tufts net until Verge dashed down the ice and almost scored on a rebound from the boards. Packard knocked off a shot from MacDougall with his hands, but Rugg, who was standing directly in front of the net, pushed the puck in.

The original teams started the second period. Shortly after its opening Jackson was hurt, and Rugg took his position. Graham's solo dash was broken up by Wing and MacDougall. Soon afterwards Kennedy forced Neill to make a close save with his skate. Our substitutes then came in. Soon after this Wilson, who had replaced Neill as goal-tender, missed a shot between his feet, accounting for the one Tufts goal. Gardner, who had been substituted for Captain MacDougall, made several rushes down toward the opponent's goal with Rugg, but did not manage to score. Graham was penalized shortly before the end of the period for using a stiff stick on Gardner.

Shortly after the beginning of the last period, Bryant lifted the puck from center-ice and scored Andover's third goal. During the remainder of the game Tufts made repeated attempts at scoring, but the Blue defense held, with Wilson guarding the goal.

FENCING

In a round-robin tournament on last Wednesday, January 23rd, there were several changes made in the ranking of the various members on the Fencing squad. The tournament opened with a duel between Ludlam and Frame. Ludlam won this quite easily with five points to his opponent's two. Next came a match in which Greenway defeated Folda. Although the score was very close, Greenway made better thrusts and outplayed his opponent. If it might be called that, Ludlam again beat Greenway by the same score by which he defeated him last week: this was 5 to 1. Jones then defeated Folda without much trouble by the score 5 to 3. Greenway again conquered his opponent, this time beating Frame 5 to 4. This match was followed by one between Ludlam and H. M. Jones, from which Ludlam emerged victorious with the score 5 to 2. The most interesting match of the day was that between Jones and Greenway, who have been fighting for the third place on the squad. After a very close struggle, Jones conquered Greenway 5 to 4. The round-robin now closed with a bout between Frame and Folda. The latter was defeated 5 to 4.

The rank of the members is as follows:

J. M. Murray, Ludlam, H. M. Jones, Greenway, Frame, and Folda. Last week Greenway was at the third position, but this week he has dropped from the third to fourth. Manager Barclay has the first meet scheduled for the ninth of February, so Coach Barss will have plenty of time to learn the value of each man and to decide who will be entered in the first match.

having 10 feet more room than our cage has. There are shed-like wings which are 45 feet wide and extend 80 feet from the main structure. These wings have a dirt floor similar to that of the remaining part. A gallery extends around the building, furnishing space for spectators.

The baseball diamond is in the middle, and a cinder track extends around this, while directly over the cinder track is a board track. The width of the track is 10 feet, which is several feet wider than those at Harvard and at Andover.

On the south side there is another wing of equal proportions. As this is sufficiently long to make it possible for a one hundred-yard straightaway, the runners will have plenty of workouts this winter and on rainy days during the spring. The building will also be a great aid to the football team during bad weather in the fall.

With the completion of the cage, steps will now be taken for a new hockey rink, and it is possible that one may be provided for by another season.

Exeter defeated the Brown and Nichols hockey team 7 to 0 a week ago today. As we play the latter Saturday a good comparison of the two teams can be made. Captain Saltonstall was the star for Exeter accounting for four goals himself.

In the first track meet to be held in Exeter's new cage the Exeter track team was defeated by the Boston College freshmen 32 1-3 to 30 2-3 points. It is significant that many of the marks made in that meet were far below the marks made by the Andover seconds on the same day.

While Andover was winning over Dean swimming team, Exeter was doing the same over Huntington school. An interesting fact is that in only one event was an Exeter time better than any in the Andover meet.

Headmaster Lewis Perry sailed on January nineteenth for a two-weeks stay in Bermuda and plans to return to Exeter on February ninth. Accompanying Dr. Perry is Mr. Moreau Delano of New York.

Although only $45,000 of the necessary $60,000 has been pledged and received, it is at present the plan of the stadium committee at Exeter to start work when the weather permits this spring. The site of the stadium will be the present class field, which is farthest from the river, and being on higher ground, is more easily drained. Contrary to the expectations of everyone at Exeter, the new field will be surrounded by a quarter-mile running track. The straightaway will be on a lower level than the rest of the track. There will be stands, each one hundred yards in length, and the total seating capacity will be six thousand. If more seats are needed, a curved section may be added to the stands on the south end of the field.

BASKETBALL TEAM TO MEET WORCESTER

After last Saturday's victory, the Andover basketball team expects to make its fourth straight win today at the expense of Worcester Academy, despite the probable loss of Drick and Huppuch. Drick played the entire Dean game with an infected foot, and as a result it is doubtful whether he will be able to start today. Huppuch has been unexpectedly called home for a few days. Thus Andover enters the game somewhat crippled, but the determined spirit that was so apparent last Saturday should carry them through with flying colors.

The work of Coach Blackmer showed such fruitful results in the Dean game that everybody is expecting and foretelling a highly successful season for Andover on the court. Mr. Blackmer's efforts to perfect the team's freezing play had a very severe trial in the closing minutes of the Dean game and the manner in which the team held the ball was remarkable. A very marked improvement was noticed in the way each member of the team guarded his man. All of these improvements are due entirely to the faithfulness with which the team has kept at practice during the trying period of the past fortnight.

Coach Blackmer's starting lineup is subject to many changes, due to the probable absence of Drick and Huppuch. He will probably start Kellogg and Chaffee at the guard positions, Batchelder at center and Mettler and Ederheimer as forwards. The lineup will give Coach Blackmer a fine chance to weigh the comparative merits of Kellogg and Chaffee. The fight of these two men for the position of standing guard has been the only contest for a position on the team. As a result of his playing in the Dean game Chaffee appears to have the edge at present.

Absolutely nothing is known as to the ability of the Worcester team, but from past experiences the visitors should be a strong aggregation from whom a victory can be taken only with the greatest effort.

SECOND TEAM TRACK MEET

The Andover second team barely scored a 32-31 victory when they met the Medford High School track team at the cage last Saturday. The Andover runners showed up well in all events except the 300 and 1000-yard runs, in which the Blue took only two points out of a possible 16.

The 600-yard run was the feature of the meet with Lawrence of Andover carrying off first honors.
Medford won the toss and McNamara chose the pole. They were off with a sprint and for the first couple of laps it looked like a race between McNamara and Newhall.
However, the pace was too fast and forced them to drop back of Andrews. At this point, Lawrence, who had been running fifth, began to step out, and after gaining steadily he passed Andrews on the final turn. McNamara took third.
Lawrence's winning time was 1.25 1-5.

The Andover team assumed the lead in the opening event, the 40-yard dash. The heats were first run off, and then the finals. Woodward took first, beating out Uanna by a hair's breadth. H. Lindenberg finished third. The time was 5 flat.

P. K. Allen increased Andover's lead by adding five points in the 40-yard low hurdles. R. Allen contributed 1 point to the Blue's total.

In the 300-yard run both Andrews and Miller of Medford placed ahead of H. Lindenberg, An-dover's first man. Andrews was clocked at 36 1-5 seconds. Medford duplicated their feat in the 1000-yard run and annexed 8 of the 9 points. Johnston ran a pretty race for the Blue, for after trailing Cuneo and Bowdoin he set a sprint
in the last lap which gave promise of victory. Both Medford men had a reserve energy left, and Johnston could not quite over take them.
Cuneo won in 2.29.

Griffin of Medford gained 5 points in the shot put with a throw of 41 feet 2 inches. Brunner and Viviano counterbalanced this by taking second and third with throws of 40ft. 3in. and 40ft. respectively.

In the final event the Andover high jumpers came through by capturing every place to nose out Medford in the total score by a single point. Reed cleared 5 ft. 3 inches while Hayes and Marsh tied at 5 ft.
2 in.

A special relay event was run which did not count in the regular results of the meet. The Andover spectators were given another thrill when the Blue combination of Avery, Morrow, Darcy, and Person outran Allen, Farnham, Uanna, and Miller. Avery trailed Allen by a few yards, but Morrow made this up on Farnham and in addition gave his team a two-yard lead. Darcy increased this lead to ten yards.
Miller, the Medford anchor-man, ran a terrific race, but Person managed to come in a yard ahead
at the finish.

Most Well Dressed Prep School and College Men Have Chosen Henry Gold's Evening Clothes

We claim the distinction of having furnished the majority of the best dressed men at Andover with their evening clothes.

Why?

Perhaps it is because of the grace and beauty of our full dress coats as they swing across a dance floor. Perhaps it is due to the perfect lines of a Henry Gold Tuxedo. Or perhaps it is the unrivalled fitting which our tailors impart. Whatever it is — let us show you how it can be done for you.

make the game this afternoon a fast contest. Bryant, Fawcett, and Wing, the usual forward line, with Jackson and McDougall, on the defense, will start. Neill will be at the goal.

The New Prep sextet played Belmont Hill Monday and won 2 to 0.

However, they lost to Melrose High 5 to 1. Thus it can be seen that Andover has a very good chance to defeat these opponents. Martin, center for the Cambridge team, is their best player and will have to be carefully watched. Rosenfeld, captain of hockey at Andover last year, will also play

DISCUSSION GROUPS

The first discussion groups of the winter term were held last Sunday night, and very much interest seemed to be taken in them. There were groups under Mr. Spencer, Mr. Paradise, and Mr. Heely, and each was very successful. On the next discussion night Mr. Murray will hold a group along with these others. Their subjects will be announced in the near future. Each will discuss what he chooses and the subjects will not be limited to religious matters. These groups will be held every Sunday when The Society is not entertaining delegations from other schools and colleges. It is hoped that these groups will be as successful in the future as they were the first meeting and that everyone in school will recognize their value.

ARCHAEOLOGY DEPARTMENT

Some time ago the Archaeology Department received three oil paintings of Western Indians in their ancient costumes. These were secured from their artist by the father of Miss Rebecca Chickering, about 1840. It is interesting to know, that aside from exhibits in the Peabody Museum at Harvard and in the Smithsonian at Washington, no life studies of our plains tribes are in existence. Whether George Catlin, or McKenna and Hall were the painters of these subjects now on exhibition in the Archaeology building, no one can tell. It is not impossible that they were done by the famous Catlin, who went up the Missouri in 1831 on the first steamboat to ascend that river.
