ANDOVER FIVE DEFEATS CUSHING

METTLER STARS

Last Saturday, the Andover basketball team easily conquered the Cushing Academy quintet in a rather one-sided game, the final score being 29 to 13, Andover's favor. Kellogg, who scored ten points, and Mettler, responsible for nine points, were the stars of the game, although neither was in his best form. Howan starred for the visitors and scored only six points, Andover's fine defense making the Cushing men rely almost entirely upon long shots. He threatened Andover continuously, and but for the guarding of Chaffee. Huppuch and Brown, would have gotten through several times. On the other hand Cushing's defense was rather poor and unorganized, and Andover was by far the more experienced team.

In the first quarter Howan started the scoring by dashing through our defense shortly after the tip-off, and in close order Kellogg made one. Marsh was substituted for Sherwin. Broadbent fouled Huppuch which resulted in another point for Andover, and Kellogg and Mettler simultaneously sank shots after a quick run down the floor. Cushing, to stop the rush of scoring, took time out, and then Saneriski fouled Mettler and Kellogg fouled Marsh, both of which resulted in points. The most spirited play took place in this quarter, although neither team had a great deal of teamwork.

The second quarter began when Broadbent was substituted for Sherwin. Immediately after the tip-off, Mettler rushed through the Cushing guards, who were taken by surprise, and scored. Page was then substituted for Howard and Brown for Chaffee. Howan again broke through and made a basket. The Andover team got the ball and by the pass work which Coach Blackmer has been drilling them in, made it possible for Mettler to score a basket. Tumman was sent in for Worthe. Huppuch twisted through the Cushing guards and made a basket, and after Broadbent was substituted for Marsh, the half ended.

Chaffee returned in Brown's place at the beginning of the second half and soon Kellogg scored a field goal. Howan was fouled and made a point, after which Brown was substituted for Chaffee. Mettler made a long shot which went squarely through the basket. Here the game dragged and slowed down, and for this reason Andover took time out for a new method of offense. No more scoring was done in this quarter.

Kellogg began the last quarter by making a basket. Holt was substituted for Broadbent, and Worthe made a basket, which in turn was followed by Page's making one. Neff was substituted for Mettler, Batchelder for Page, and Howard for Kellogg. Neff made a basket and Brown a point by a foul. Howan and Huppuch then each made a basket. When Batchelder had made a point by a foul and Hagerty had come in for Sherwin, the game ended.

BLUE MATMEN LOSE TO YALE FRESHMEN

SCORE 15-9

At New Haven last Saturday the Andover wrestling team was defeated by the Yale freshmen by the score of 15 to 9. Captain McGauley and Byrne were the only Andover men to win their matches, although the meet was undecided until the final match was finished.

All of the matches were extremely closely fought, and the Yale men were able to win the decision only after a long and hard struggle.

In the first bout Bigwood of Yale emerged victorious over Clark of Andover with a time advantage of two minutes 52 seconds. As this is Clark's first match for Andover this year he deserves a great deal of credit.

Byrne of Andover sprung a surprise in the one hundred and twenty-five pound class by winning by a fall in one minute and forty seconds of the overtime period. He used a half-nelson and chancery in gaining a fall over his opponent. His victory was especially noteworthy as he won his bout directly after coming out of the infirmary.

Captain McGauley kept his string of victories unbroken by winning his match in the hundred and thirty-five pound class with a time advantage of 2 minutes 32 seconds. So far this season he has won all his matches, two of them by falls. Eiseman lost his match to Fordyce of Yale after a hard struggle. Fordyce had a time advantage of

LEONARD SPEAKS ON THE TOC-H

FOUGHT IN WORLD WAR

Sunday evening the second of the Society of Inquiry's general meetings was held with Mr. Leonard, an enthusiastic member of Toc H, as the speaker. This meeting roused more interest in the student body as a whole than anything the Society of Inquiry has attempted so far this year. Everybody who attended this meeting went away with a deeper feeling of what true Christianity is, and the manner in which it may best be expressed. If there are more of this type of meeting this year the Society of Inquiry will have performed a signal service to the school.

Mr. Leonard's talk centered chiefly around the origin and purpose of Toc H. To make his talk more vivid he showed upon an improved screen several pictures of the last war in its most gruesome form. Toc H had its origin in the muddy trenches of the world war. After a few weeks in the trenches the men were accustomed to go to the T. H. house for rest and good times. The proprietor of the house was a happy, cheerful man who loved everybody as a brother. He had constructed a rough chapel on the top floor of his house. This house with its chapel had a great deal to do with the upholding of the troops' morale during the defense of the salient of Ypres.

After the war the spirit of "Help your Brother", which was always

FIFTH INTERSCHOLASTIC MEET TO BE CONTESTED

LARGE FIELD ENTERED

On Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, the fifth Andover Interscholastic Track Meet will be held in the Case Memorial building. A large gathering is expected, both to view and to participate in the meet. Almost three hundred athletes, as many as last year, have been entered and several records may fall as a result of very close competition. Twenty-one high schools, mostly in Greater Boston, make up the list of entries. Several men who won in the recent B. A. A. Interscholastic Track Meet last Saturday are among those competing and since they are capable of very good performances, they will be watched with much interest. For the past two years Medford has won the shield donated by the Phillips Academy Athletic Association and emblematic of the championship for the year. This school will make a very determined bid again this year to win the award for the third successive year. In 1926 Lawrence won, and at the first meet Lowell was the victor. Brookline, Lawrence, Lowell, Medford, and Newton, however, will press the defending champions hard. These teams just mentioned will account for a great majority of the places in most of the events.

The list of running events and the order of their occurrence follow.

1. 40-yard low hurdles, trials and semi-finals.
2. 40-yard dash, trials and semi-finals.
3. Final—hurdles.
4. Final—dash.
5. 300-yard run to be run in heats, 1st and 2nd man to qualify.
6. 600-yard run. Three divisions, points awarded on times.
7. Final—300.
8. 1000-yard run in two divisions, points awarded on times.
9. Relay races.

Morin of David Prouty High School, who won this event last year. Satchell of Brighton, Farrell and Fuller of Brockton, Badaracco of Brookline, Dineen of Lawrence, Uanna of Medford, Ewing of Newton, the winner at the B. A. A. and Hayes of Somerville, who placed second a year ago, will all probably be in the final heat of the forty-dash. The record of 51.5 seconds by Janis, Lawrence, will probably fall, as Ewing won the B. A. A. meet in 44.5 seconds a week ago. This will be a very fast field.

Duane, Brookline, Lew. Lawrence, and Hayes, Somerville, will struggle for the honors in the hurdles. Doherty of Brockton, winner of the 300 at the B. A. A. and Dineen of Lawrence, will hold forth in that event. The thousand yard run will draw forth Cuneo of Medford and Fallon of Lynn Classical, who respectively won and placed at the B. A. A. Andrews of Medford, who won the 600 here last year, will again be seen in his specialty.

All the relay teams have been so paired that all ancient rivals will compete against each other. Med-

ANDOVER TO HAVE ITS ANNUAL SENIOR PROMENADE IN THE GYMNASIUM TONIGHT

BREAKFAST DANCE IN PEABODY HOUSE SATURDAY

PERLEY BREED'S ORCHESTRA TO PLAY

Saturday morning in Peabody House the Senior Council will hold its annual Breakfast dance following the Promenade on Friday night. This dance has come to be a regular part of the Promenade, and has met with great favor among the students. From nine to eleven o'clock breakfast will be served in the Grill, and at ten thirty Perley Breed will start his orchestra, which will furnish the music for this dance. This is the first time Mr. Breed has assisted at an Andover function, but, judging from the testimony of those who have heard him at the Shepherd Stores and over the Radio, we feel certain that his music will be received with much enthusiasm in Andover.

This dance is not limited to those who go to the Promenade, but is open to the entire school. Tickets, including breakfast, are three dollars.

FESTIVE OCCASION

One of the most beautiful of the Senior Promenades that has taken place in the gymnasium for many years will be observed this weekend. Every possible means has been employed to make this year's promenade one of which all the students should be very proud. The committee in charge, composed of J. W. Bannan, the chairman, J. Q. Newton Jr., J. McGauley, and L. B. Pitkin, has been working hard and using every effort for the last several weeks to make it a success. As a result of their attempts Whitman's Clowns, under the auspices of Morey Pearl, have been engaged to furnish the music. This orchestra, which has obtained a great reputation throughout the country as creators of very fine music, and one which is very difficult to get, has consented to play for us during its short stay at Boston. Refreshments will be served between the tenth and the eleventh dances as extras. These refreshments will be provided by Weigel, a Lawrence caterer.

PHILO HOLDS SUCCESSFUL DEBATE

LARGE ATTENDANCE PRESENT

Wednesday night, Philo held its third debate of the year, at which a record number of fellows turned out, there being over eighty. The subject debated was "Resolved—that Science does not conflict with Religion." On the affirmative were Wood, Dinsmore, and Rill, while Preston, Laundon, and Gelser upheld the negative side. The society overwhelmingly voted in favor of the former team.

The meeting opened with Wood speaking first for the affirmative. He said that people, through the medium of Science, have found a confliction by reading the Bible literally, whereas, if they had taken the true meaning, no friction would have appeared. He then showed that Science dealt with facts alone, and that religion went beyond the facts.

The first speaker for the negative was Preston, who showed that Science proves that a prayer cannot change a chain of events,

GEORGE WASHINGTON AUDITORIUM

Almost everyone who has been in George Washington Auditorium, at one time or another has wondered whose portraits hang on each side wall. There are ten pictures, five on each side. Every one is in some way connected with Phillips Academy and is therefore of interest to the student body. Four of these pictures are either copies or originals painted by Gilbert Stuart.

Starting at the left side at the rear and moving forward, the first picture is of Oliver Wendell Holmes, P. A. 1852, the famous poet. Next is William Augustus Stearns. He was at one time president of Amherst and a member of the board of trustees of Andover about 1823. Samuel F. B. Morse, P. A. 1802, is the central portrait on this side. He is especially remembered here at Andover because of the new science building named in his honor. The next portrait is that of Charles Bulfinch, 1763-1844, the famous architect, who drew the plans for Pearson and Bulfinch Halls. The statehouse in Boston is another of his products. The final picture is John T. Kirkland, a president of Harvard College, and graduate of Phillips Academy in 1785. This is a copy of the original painting by Gilbert Stuart.

evident in the trenches, refused to die. Therefore, a group of soldiers bound themselves in groups which they called Toc II after the old Toc II house. Today this group is active all over the world carrying into practice the idea that everybody is your brother and "peace be on earth and goodwill to man".

The picture nearest the stage on the right hand wall is Madame Phoebe Foxcroft Phillips, the wife of Samuel Phillips. Foxcroft Hall has been named in honor of her. Next to this is a copy of Stuart's portrait of Paul Revere. He is well-remembered for his connection of Andover, for he designed and engraved the seal of the school. The third is a picture of Colonel George Corbin Washington, P. A. 1806; a grand-nephew of the founder of our country and one of the boys sent here by our first president. Colonel Washington served as an officer in the War of 1812. The next is Josiah Quincy, another former president of Harvard, who was graduated from Andover in 1786. The final picture is John Phillips, 1784, a member of the family that founded this school, and the first mayor of Boston.

Three other pictures are worthy of our attention also. The first is the painting of George Washington made by Gilbert Stuart, probably in 1795. In the rear of the Auditorium is another original portrait by Stuart of Lieutenant-Governor William Phillips, a nephew of Samuel Phillips. He was president of the board of trustees from 1821 until 1827. The third picture is found in the Headmaster's office and is of Samuel Phillips, the man who founded Phillips Academy Andover, in 1778.

whereas Religion is based on the exact opposite idea, thus causing a conflict. He also said that Science would make Religion materialistic, which should not be the case.

Dinsmoore, in support of his colleague Wood, proved that the theory of evolution does not conflict with Religion. He then defined evolution.

Laundon, of the negative, spoke first of the miracles of the Bible. One of his points was that Science has definitely proved these wrong, here causing a conflict. Another was that scientific inventions have so speeded up the world that people do not have as much time for church-going as in the old days.

The affirmative's last speaker, Rill, said that Science and Religion, both working in different directions, do not cause a conflict. Also according to history, the former can not exist without the latter. He said that if anyone ought to know the answer to the question, it was the scientists themselves, and he gave proof that the most prominent were devout religionists.

Gelser then summed up the negative's side by saying that due to the modern lack of church-going the ministers were greatly disturbed, and therefore Science caused a conflict. He also said that if the miracles are false, then the negative side is true.

After a brief intermission, the rebuttals followed. Preston talking for the negative and Rill for the affirmative.

The following are some of the suggested topics for future debates, and, if anyone should want to use one of them, he should let the Philo officers know as soon as possible. Resolved: 1. that no-excuse men should go to the movies; 2. that only one chapel service should be held on Sunday; 3. that seniors should be allowed room smoking privileges; 4. that seniors should be granted freedom until 9 p.m.; 5. that regular evening study hall for all juniors is desirable; 6. that men on no-excuse should be allowed to participate in major sports; 7. that secret societies in preparatory schools should be prohibited; 8. that the holding of school offices and honorary positions should be limited for each boy; 9. that literature is a more important factor in the development of the mind than science; 10. that wealth is a greater power in the world than learning; 11. that intellectual curiosity will lead a man further than necessity will drive him.

SEVEN-FOLD TIE

Seven-fold tie is unlined. It is a special type of neck-wear construction in which the silk is hand-folded seven times before stitching.

The advantages of the seven-fold construction are manifold. First, this type of tie will "make up" with a degree of grace and drapiness that cannot be obtained in a lined tie. Again, the life of the tie is much longer as the tendency to wrinkle is minimized because there is no wool lining for the silk to twist around and the hard pulling necessary in tying the ordinary tie is eliminated.

These ties are shown in small figures, shark-skin and pin designs. They are undoubtedly a great improvement over the old type construction.

POT POURRI NOTICE

All students who through incapability or sickness have not turned in their Pot Pourri blanks are asked to do so immediately. If anyone fails to do this his name will not appear in the book this year. Also all non-returning upper-middlers are asked to check up on their pictures and to be sure the photographer who took it understands that it is for the Pot Pourri.

Dr. Pfatteicher has decided upon Saturday evening, April 13, as the date for the annual Andover-Exeter Musical Clubs concert, which will be held in George Washington Auditorium. This date remains to be confirmed by the director of music at Exeter.

As a result of the elections held last Saturday, Amory Howe Bradford of Providence, R. I., was elected manager of hockey for next year.

R. B. Greenough, '28, star of freshman football and track teams, holder of Amherst cage record in shot put, is president of '32.

Aarne Frigard, P. A. '27, who left Dartmouth last June, has returned there and will continue his course. He played quarterback on the freshman football team, forward on the freshman basketball team, and second base on the freshman baseball team, starring in all three sports.

Frank Luce, P. A. '27, has been playing regularly at center for the Yale hockey team all this season.

Flarsheim, P. A. '28, lost his match to Captain McGauley of Andover, when he wrestled for Yale freshmen last Saturday.

Great emphasis has been put upon the decorating of the gymnasium this year. One of the foremost features of this phase will be a large portrait of George Washington to be placed at one end of the room. Blue and white bunting will be placed around the walls and on the balcony, with an occasional Andover banner, and the orchestra will be raised on a platform surrounded by green lattice-work. The usual lights will be outside, and over the door the figures "1929" will be placed.

Mrs. Fuess, Mrs. Poynter, Mrs. Heely and Mrs. Dake have consented to act as patronesses for the Promenade. Their efforts are greatly appreciated and will be a definite benefit to the smooth-going of so important an affair. The faculty and their wives are cordially invited to attend by the committee in charge.

As a result of the work done in preparation of this occurrence, all should have little trouble in having a most enjoyable and pleasant

ANDOVER FENCERS MEET.
DEFEAT

In the second meet of the year the Andover fencers met defeat by a score of 4-5 at the hands of the Commercial High School of Boston, which beat Providence, our adversary of last Saturday, 8 to 1. Until the seventh bout of the afternoon, it looked as though Andover would certainly win, for at the sixth the score stood four to two in the Blue's favor. However, at the eighth, the score was tied four all, and the meet hinged on the ninth bout, which they won five to two.

Captain Murray was not at hand until the eighth duel, when he substituted for Frame. Ludlam showed top notch form, fencing well on the offensive. The star for Commercial was Leonardi, who fought aggressively and who won all three of his matches. McFetridge, who had a shorter reach than anyone on our team, did very well, defeating Murray in a fast, offensive match. The most spectacular bout of the afternoon was between Ludlam and Leonardi. Greenway and Donoghue, in the deciding match, paid careful attention to their parrying, and the touches were a long time in coming.

The Blue fencers got off to a fast start, and had they been able to keep the pace, they would have emerged victors.

Summary of the bouts:

First: Leonardi beat Frame 5 to 2.
Second: Greenway beat McFetridge 5 to 4.
Third: Ludlam beat Donoghue 5 to 3.
Fourth: Leonardi beat Greenway 5 to 1.
Fifth: Ludlam beat McFetridge 5 to 1.
Sixth: Frame beat Matthai, (substituted for Donoghue), 5 to 3.
Seventh: Leonardi beat Ludlam 5 to 1.
Eighth: McFetridge beat Murray (substituted for Frame), 5 to 3.
Ninth: Donoghue beat Greenway 5 to 2.

Whitman's Masked Clowns

THERE is a certain excellence about Glengair hose that is traditionally Scottish. It is not entirely the rich, luxurious comfort of the heavy, pure-wool yarn, nor the painstaking workmanship (so carefully is this hosiery made that skilled workers on Scotch hand frames knit only twelve pairs a week). It is not wholly the variety of its beauty—ranging from colorful clan plaids to the unrelieved solid colors that are the vogue today.

The excellence of Glengair golf hose is something more than any one of these. It is something that breathes of green bracken dotted with thistles, of brown moors at twilight, and of bright lochs under the forbidding cliffs of towering, red-granite bens—that breathes, too, of fierce, raiding clans, of Hielanders and the strains of bagpipes, of traditional plaids, and of a world-famous superiority in the knitting and styling of wool products.

We invite you to inspect this imported Scottish golf hose. You will find its appearance, long life and comfort unsurpassed. You can identify it by the Glengair coat-of-arms.

In Andover, Glengair hose is sold at the Burns' shop

ford, which turned in the best relay time for last year and for the entire series of meets, by winning in two minutes twenty-four and three-fifths seconds, will run against Newton.

The list of relay races follows:

1. Beverly vs. Winthrop.
2. Concord vs. David Prouty H. S.
3. Methuen vs. Punchard.
4. Lynn Classical vs. Lynn English.
5. Brighton vs. Hyde Park.
6. Salem vs. Watertown Senior H. S.
7. Dorchester vs. Somerville vs. Boston Latin.
8. Brockton vs. Brookline.
9. Lawrence vs. Lowell.
10. Medford vs. Newton.
11. Andover vs. Harvard '32.

As an added event, this final relay race between Andover and the Harvard freshmen will be run to top off the meet. This ought to prove a very close race and one of great interest to us all. Since the Exeter race, several men have been added to the squad, besides Captain Wright, Pitkin, French, Henry, and O'Kane. Osborne has become eligible and will try out in this event, and Newfield has recovered from the sickness which prevented his running at the Boston Arena. Mr. Shields has not yet definitely picked his team, but it will be from among these men. Likewise it is not known who will run for the freshmen. J. Cole, T. Cole, Currier, Eirstein, Mitchell, Walker, Morrison, and Woodbury will make the trip.

Fink of Brookline bids fair to win the shot-put. He placed third at the B. A. A. meet with nearly forty-six feet. Another who ought to finish near the top is Knightly of Lawrence. Racheotes of Brookline and Anderson, who took second place here last year, will be in the standing broad jump. Morin of David Prouty H. S., last year's winner, will also compete.

Sandler of Lowell who jumped third a week ago will be among the high jumpers, as will Saunders of Lawrence.

ANDOVER OVERWHELMS BROWN FRESH IN TRACK

Andover's track team defeated the Brown freshmen easily by the score of 72 2-3—8 1-3 when they opposed each other in a meet in the cage Saturday. Brown was extremely weak in practically every event so that Andover had little trouble in taking every first and all but two second places. Brown took second in the 880-yard run and placed one man in a triple tie for second place in the high jump. Moore again came out a double winner, easily outjumping the field in both the high and broad jump events.

Andover placed four men in the finals of the 40-yard dash against Brown's two, Woodward winning the event for the Blue in 4 4-5 seconds. O'Kane, his teammate, was second, and Burnham of Brown was third.

Andover made a clean sweep of the high hurdles when all three of the Blue men finished ahead of the Brown's single entry. It was a fight from the start between Pitkin and P. K. Allen. They came over the final hurdle even, but Pitkin won out in the last three yards. Hayes finished third after a close race with the Brown man. Pitkin's time was 5 4-5 seconds.

Brown showed its greatest strength in the 880-yard run, taking second and third. For the first three laps Rasmussen of Brown and Henry of Andover led the field. In the fourth lap Henry stepped out past Rasmussen and began to steadily increase his lead, while Lawrence of Andover moved into third position. In the last lap and a half, Patton of the visitors who had been trailing quite a ways back, uncorked a sprint which carried him into second place and rapidly cut down the distance between him and Henry. However, he was too far behind and could not catch Henry. Lawrence put up a game struggle against Rasmussen, but the latter won out by a few inches. Henry's time was 2:11 3-5.

Wright led the 440 without much trouble, and it remained for Newfield and Ensign of Brown to put the excitement into the race by their contest for second place. They ran neck and neck the whole distance, but Newfield, with a great sprint, crossed the line ahead of his opponent. The winning time was 55 3-5 seconds.

Duschesne outclassed the field in the mile event and finished a good half lap ahead of the second man. He took the lead from the start and steadily increased it, even lapping the last man on the final lap. His time was 4:4-7. Chickering again ran a fine race to capture second. Both he and Frank trailed fourth and fifth until next to the last lap, when they sprinted past Dickinson and Johnson to finish second and third.

A summary of events follows:
40-yard dash—Won by Woodward (A); second, O'Kane (A); third, Burnham (B). Time: 4 4-5 seconds.

40-yard high hurdles—Won by Pitkin (A); second, P. K. Allen (A); third, Hayes (A). Time: 5 4-5 seconds.

440-yard dash—Won by Wright (A); second, Newfield (A); third, Ensign (B). Time: 53 3-5 seconds.

880-yard run—Won by Henry (A); second, Patton (B); third, Rasmussen (B). Time: 2m. 11 3-5 seconds.

Mile run—Won by Duschesne (A); second, Chickering (A); third, Frank (B). Time: 4m. 47 seconds.

Shot put—Won by Jackson (A); distance—47 ft. 9 in; second Houston (A); distance—45 ft. 8 in; third Brunner (A) distance—43 ft.

Broad jump—Won by Moore (A), distance—21 ft. 3 1-4 in; second tie between Churchill and Woodward, both (A) distance—19 ft. 5 1-2 in.

Pole vault—Tie between Smith, Pierce, Pickett, and Brown, all (A), height—10 ft. 9 in.

High jump—Won by Moore (A), height—5 ft. 9 in; second, tie between Reed (A), Brunner (A), and Bond (B), height—5 ft. 4 in.

only 1 minute 4 seconds which shows the closeness of the bout.

Williams of Yale using a leg hold and three-quarter nelson threw Walden to the mat in 4 minutes 55 seconds in the one hundred and forty-five pound class. This brought the score to 12 to 9, so the result of the meet hinged on the next event.

In the last and deciding bout, Barrows was defeated by Captain Brodie of Yale in an overtime match. Brodie had a time advantage of 2 minutes 28 seconds over his rival.

The one hundred and sixty-five pound class was not contested, as it is not customary to have this class in the colleges.

M. H. Cardozo and B. D. Jeffrey, both P. A. '28, swam on the Dartmouth freshman swimming team that defeated Andover 40-22.

R. Rogers, P. A. '25, scored for the Dartmouth varsity hockey team when it was defeated by Harvard, 3-2, last Saturday.

H. R. Elsas and W. H. Guyer, both P. A. '28, were members of the Harvard freshman wrestling team that was defeated by M. I. T. freshmen, 19-15, last Saturday.

C. Barton, '28, captain of freshman wrestling and track teams, is star in four events at Amherst.
