

The Phillipian.

VOL. XII.

PHILLIPS ACADEMY, ANDOVER, MASS., NOVEMBER 20, 1889.

NO. 19.

Philo.

An adjourned meeting of Philo was held on Tuesday evening, Pres. Stearns occupying the chair. Prayer was offered by Mr. Beard, after which miscellaneous business was in order. A committee consisting of Messrs. Stearns, Moré, and McLaran was appointed to arrange an entertainment to be given at the latter part of the term. On the regular programme being taken up W. F. Williams read a criticism of previous meeting, which contained much good advice. G. R. Noyes spoke extemporaneously on the subject, "Electricity", the Mirror was read by second editor Tyler, and a humorous selection entitled "Buzzfuz versus Pickwick" was read by Wilkin-son. The debate was then in order, as so few were present (on account of the storm) it was voted to omit the debate, and the meeting adjourned.

Foot-Ball Meeting.

A meeting of the foot-ball team, a notice of which failed, by mistake to appear in Saturday's issue; was called on Wednesday noon for the purpose of electing a captain for next year's team. The election resulted unani- mously in the repeated choice of Mr. L. Bliss for that position. Capt. Bliss has proved thoroughly his ability to conduct a team successfully by his steady display of tact, and skill in filling his position on the field, and has shown his personal ability as a foot-ball player by his excellent work behind the rush line. The team is to be congratulated upon so wise a choice, and the school need entertain no fears but that the best directed and most effectual efforts will be made next year to win the final game, which everybody hopes to see re-es- tablished, after a well-conducted sea- son of well-fought contests.

Princeton 41, Harvard 15.

Over ten thousand people assembled on Jarvis field at Cambridge on Satur- day last to witness the championship game between Princeton and Harvard. The day was an exceptionally fine one for foot-ball, the only drawback being that the ground was somewhat slippery by reason of the thaw during the warmer part of the day.

During the entire first half Har- vard held the Princeton rush line admirably well, and the lead in scoring vacillated between the two sides in a very close manner. Crosby, Harvard's end rush, made the first touch-down by an excellent play, breaking through and getting the ball from Princeton as it was muffed on a pass back. Channing and Ames did the best work for Princeton during the first half.

At the beginning of the second half the score stood 15-10 in favor of Harvard, but Princeton here braced up strongly, and won the game through her own hard playing and Harvard's over confidence at the beginning of the half. Princeton scored rapidly during the latter part of the game, and Harvard's spirits went down. Ames did some brilliant rushing and kicking during the last half, and Cowan, Poe, and Channing also did good work for Princeton. At the close the score stood 41-15 in Princeton's favor. Woodruff and Beecher, both old Yale men refereed and umpired respectively. About one hundred and fifty Andover students were present at the game, and saw two old P.A. men play; Upton, '89, for Harvard, and Janeway for Prince- ton.

The players lined up as follows:

HARVARD			PRINCETON.
Cumnock	} Rushers		Donnelly	} Rushers
Upton			Cowan
Cranston			Janeway
Tilton			George
Trafford			Riggs
Stickney			Cash.
Crosby			Warren
Dean	Quarter-backs		Poe
Lee	} Half-backs		Black	} Half-backs
Saxe			Channing
B. W. Trafford	Full-backs		Ames

Alumnorum.

Lieut. Commander E. T. Strong, of Andover, P.A. 1854, is now the executive officer on the school ship Saratoga, at Philadelphia.

Herman I. Davis, P.A. '87, Prince- ton, '91, received an appointment recently as assistant to Professor Todd, of Amherst, who is at the head of the government expedition to the east coast of Africa to observe the eclipse of the sun, Dec. 22.

F. B. Aldrich, ex-P.S. '88 is Secre- tary and Treasurer of the Putnam Confectionary Company of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Hon. W. W. Crapo, one of the two recent prominent candidates for gover- nor of Massachusetts, graduated from Phillips Andover in 1848 and from Yale in 1852.

Tilton has been elected captain of the Harvard crew. His father was principal here from 1871-1873.

Prof. Griffin, of Lake Forest Uni- versity, has an article in the October Chautauquan on "Explosions and Explosives." He was Peabody in- structor here from 1870 to 1874.

Emmons Blaine, ex-'73, has recently married a daughter of Cyrus McCor- mick, a lady who is said to have in- herited three millions from her father.

R. E. Speer, '85, Princeton '89, is visiting the colleges in the interests of the missionary volunteer move- ment.

H. S. Kellogg, of New York, ex-P.S. '86, was married recently to Miss Livingston, of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Jacob P. Palmer, an old P.A. man, so long at the head of the firm of Palmer, Batchelder, and Co., Bos- ton, has made an engagement with Tiffany and Co., New York. He is regarded as one of the most expert judges of diamonds in the world.

Reception.

A very unique and pleasing enter- tainment was given in Bartlet Chapel Friday evening by the ladies of the Sunday School, and was well attended by the members and their friends. Quite a number of the Academy stu- dents were present, and improved the somewhat rare opportunity given them to become acquainted with the people of Andover. The first part of the entertainment consisted of several selections from the play of Hamlet, which were acted in shadow panto- mine, and concluded with the pre- sentation of the "Oysterman." Those who took part in the entertainment are to be congratulated on their suc- cess, everything having passed off in a manner very enjoyable to those present. At the close of the enter- tainment refreshments were served, and an opportunity was given for all to engage in social intercourse until the gathering broke up.

The Berkeley Oval.

The Berkeley Athletic Club has voted to lay out $1000 on improve- ments about the Berkeley Oval. The seating capacity will be enlarged sufficiently to accomodate 20,000 per- sons. At the east end of the oval will be erected a one-story grand stand which will seat 4000 persons. In front of this a new base-ball diamond will be laid out. In addition to these improvements a number of new tennis courts will be laid out, and everything possible done to make it one of the best places for athletic contests in the country. Extensive preparations are being made by the club for an impor- tant athletic meeting to be held early in the spring, for which invitations will be sent to the leading athletes all over the world. It is expected that base-ball and cricket teams will be organized.

The Phila May Concert.

The following programme insures every fellow who may attend an en- joyable evening at the concert Friday evening. Miss Phila May is one of the leading sopranos of the country, and has a most excellent and interest- ing company with her. The low price tickets, 25 and 35 cents, and the attractive programme should in- sure a large audience, and it should include many Phillips students.

College Items.

Columbia is the wealthiest of Ameri- can Universities, and Harvard comes next, with property valued at some- thing less than $8,000,000, and a yearly income amounting to $363,121.

A meeting of the Advisory Com- mittee of the Intercollegiate Foot-ball Association was held last Thursday to take action concerning the chal- lenges made against Ames of Prince- ton, and Dean, Cranston, Stickney, and Upton of Harvard. The result of the meeting was that the five men in question were allowed to play last Saturday.

THE ANDOVER PRESS, PRINTERS.

The apathy displayed by some of the classes, more especially '92 and '93, towards forming class teams is most undesirable for the foot-ball interests in the school, both present and future, and is worthy of some censure on the part of the school. It is true that the best foot-ball material is in the two upper classes; nevertheless this should not be made an excuse for the classes which are weaker in this respect for not forming teams to contest with the stronger ones, and seeing what can be done against them. It is somewhat deplorable that '91, with as good material as she contains, has not already formed and practised a team. In previous years the class contests have been a subject of intense interest and rivalry, and it is very undesirable that the interest in this direction should flag. '90 has formed an example which if followed by all the other classes would result in some interesting, and perhaps close, contests. It is to be hoped that the three delinquent classes will take up the matter as soon as possible, and arrange games before cold weather prevents playing.

We can say, with confidence, that the liberality of the faculty in allowing all who wished to attend the Harvard-Princeton game was very much appreciated. It was a concession which cost nothing, and in which no important principle was involved, but it was highly valued by all, and we have yet to learn that it was abused in any way.

We have been very fortunate this year in having fine weather. Not only has it helped the time to pass pleasantly, but the amount of out-door exercise taken by the students this term has been unprecedented. In addition to the regular school eleven and the second eleven, the different house and street teams have been working almost every day, and these, taken in connection with the Hare and Hound Club, the Bicycle Club, and tennis, not only give every man an opportunity to exercise, but bring influence to bear to make him exercise. This general tone of vigor is the most desirable end of all school athletics, and though we miss this year some of the excitement attending athletics, we can congratulate ourselves on the fact that the general interest in the sports is not falling off.

Piano Recitals.

The people and students of Andover are pleased to find that the piano recitals carried on by Abbot Academy in previous years, and which were missed so much last season, are to be resumed this winter. Prof. Downs, the musical instructor at Abbot Academy and other institutions, has succeeded in obtaining the distinguished pianist, Miss Ous der Ohe, to open the course. Miss Ous der Ohe is one of the most noted living pianists, a favorite player at the Symphony Concerts, and one who seldom plays outside of large cities. This event alone makes the course of these recitals one of the most attractive ever given in Andover, and one which should be largely attended. Mr. Carl Baerman is one of the other performers and is a favorite in Andover.

THANKSGIVING.

Gov. Ames Issues the Official Proclamation Fixing the Day.

By His Excellency Oliver Ames, governor, a proclamation for a day of public thanksgiving and praise. From its earliest days the commonwealth has set apart, at the close of the harvest season, a day for its people to acknowledge their dependence on Almighty God, and to express their recognition of his goodness and mercies. In accordance with this hallowed custom, and by virtue of the authority vested in me, with the advice and consent of the executive council, I hereby appoint Thursday, the 28th day of November next, to be our annual Thanksgiving day. Upon that day, within our homes and in all our assemblies, let us devoutly reverence the Hand which has led our state and sustained our beloved institutions, making her quick and influential in upbuilding the larger destinies of the republic. Let us in this year, so rich with blessings, renew our consecration as a people to the ideal principles inherited from our fathers, which were their inspiration and support. Let gratitude, good cheer, and neighborly intercourse mark the day.

Given at the council chamber, in Boston, this 23d day of October, in the year of our Lord, 1889, and of the Independence of the United States of America the 114th

OLIVER AMES.

By his excellency the governor, with the advice of the council.
