Communications.

Editors of Phillipian:

I would like to say a word through your columns to the base-ball men in the school. It is of the utmost importance that there be at least two good batteries available when the base-ball season comes upon us next spring. The importance of this can clearly be shown from the work of the nine last year, when from the lack of suitable men who could be called upon to fill these positions where necessity required it, the whole team had to be broken up by men having to play in positions to which they were unaccustomed. As a result the team played poorer instead of better ball towards the close of the season.

At present there are only three or four candidates for these positions, which is a very small number for a school of this size. Now there must be other men in school who have had some experience in one of these positions. A man never knows just what he can do until he tries, and a winter's practice will do much for an energetic fellow. Let every one, therefore, who has had any experience in this line, or who would like to try for the first time, start in at once so that next spring will not find us handicapped as was the case last year.

CAPT.

Editors of Phillipian:

As the arrangements for the contests with Exeter are being made would it not be a good plan to arrange for a series of three games, instead of one game as hitherto? By past experiences we have been able to see that one game was not satisfactory to either side, as often it has happened that the school which had the best team has not been victorious through some unforeseen cause or other, which could not be remedied for that one game; but in a three game series the trouble could be easily adjusted, thereby giving to the team which was under a disadvantage in the previous game a chance to retrieve itself. As this system has proved so satisfactory to all the colleges there is every reason to believe that it would prove the same to us. I hope that this matter will be looked into as now while the new series are being formed is just the time to see to it.

L.C. 5, Salem St. O.

A game of hockey was played on the meadow back of the gymnasium on Wednesday afternoon between Latin Commons and Salem Street. The game consisted of two halves of thirty minutes each.

At the beginning of the first half Millard made a goal, and after some pretty playing, H. W. Thayer followed it up with another. In the second half Salem Street had worse luck than before, as H. W. Thayer succeeded in adding three more goals to L.C.'s score. The best playing for L.C. was done by H. W. Thayer and Millard; and for Salem Street by Eastman and Lineweaver. The sides were as follows: L.C., A. N. Thayer (capt.), Hooker, Hall, H. W. Thayer, and Millard. For Salem Street, H. Anderson, Eastman, Rustin, Camden (capt.) and Lineaweaver.

P.A. 93, 3; P.S. 93, 1.

A hockey game of fifteen minutes duration was played on Eastman's meadow Thursday noon between the two classes of '93. Though P.A. had much the better team, yet the game was quite sharp at times. Millard made the first goal, which was soon followed by one for P.S. by Pinchback. After some close playing Eastman and Millard each made a goal, thus leaving the score 3-1 in favor of P.A. For P.A. Millard, Fisher, and Eastman, and for P.S. Pinchback and Ziepprecht did the best playing. The teams were as follows: P.A., Millard (captain), G. Feeter, Eastman, Fisher, and Willets. For P.S. Coghlan, Pinchback, Henderson, S. Feeter, and Ziepprecht (captain).

Glee Club Concert at Tewksbury.

The Glee and Banjo Clubs gave their first full concert at Tewksbury last Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Village Improvement Society. The weather was fine, but the cold, in conjunction with the bad travelling, prevented many people from attending who would have been present under more favorable circumstances.

The programme rendered was substantially as follows:

"Wake! Freshman, Wake!"

"Old King Coul."

Selection by Banjo Club.

Eton Boating Song.

Solo by Mr. Smith.

Banjo and Guitar Duett.
Messrs. Hollister and Harrington.

"The Young Lover."

"Heinz von Stein."

Selection by Banjo Club.

"I am going Far Away."

"Rose of Wörthersee."

Guitar and Mandolin Duett.

Messrs. Harrington and Case.

Waltz Song.

The various pieces were received with considerable applause, the banjo club in particular being paid some very high compliments. As encores, the Glee Club sang some of the old favorites, and one or two of the comic selections called forth a second encore. The guitar and mandolin duet was exceedingly well rendered, and was met with very hearty applause.

After the concert the whole party partook of an excellent supper which had been provided for them, and then started for home, making, however, a call on Dr. Fisher at the Almshouse, by whom they were very cordially received, and shown over as much of the establishment as it was possible to see at so late an hour.

P.A.A.A.

A poorly attended meeting of the Athletic Association was held in Society Hall on Wednesday noon. President Bard took the chair, and Mr. Curtis, after stating that the object of the meeting was to elect three directors in place of those who had not returned to school, nominated Messrs. Lyon, Weyerhauser, and Dickson to fill the vacancies. There being no other nominations, Messrs. Lyon, Weyerhauser, and Dickson were unanimously elected. The meeting was then adjourned.

Philo.

The third regular meeting of Philo was held on Friday evening with the President occupying the chair. After prayer by Campbell and the roll call, five names were proposed for membership. Perham then read a very good critique of the previous meeting, and W. F. Williams, substitute for Warren, followed with an extempore on the reasons why we should have three contests in base-ball and foot-ball with Exeter instead of one. Second Mirror editor Mosely then read an interesting and well-written address on the life of Edward Everett, and Lamprey followed with a select reading from one of Mark Twain's book.

The subject for debate was, Resolved: That a young man's success in life depends more upon his surrounding circumstances than on his natural abilities, and the leaders were affirmative Tarbox, negative Thompson. The leader on the affirmative substituted Wilkinson, and as the leader of the negative did not appear, and failed to substitute, Moré was appointed by the chair. The President also appointed as assistants on the affirmative Messrs. Rogers, Bumstead, and Skinner; and on the negative Messrs. Wadhams, Cummings, and L. B. Smith. From the house there spoke on the affirmative J. P. Chamberlain and Bumstead; and on the negative Candee, Campbell, Robinson, and T. B. Williams, after which the debate was closed by the leader. The decision of the house on the merits of the question was affirmative 12, negative 14; and on the weight of the argument affirmative 11, negative 20. The chair gave his decision with the negative, and after the appointment of parts the meeting adjourned.

Class Meeting.

P.A. '90 held a meeting on Wednesday noon for the purpose of hearing the report of the committee on a Senior gift to the school. Several drafts of a desk for the Chapel Hall were produced, and a motion was carried to defer the decision of the class in regard to a selection until a later date in order that all might have an opportunity to examine the drafts more closely.

Another meeting was called on Friday noon at which the class decided upon the draft submitted by Keeler of Boston. The desk is of a handsome pattern, and will be made of quartered oak. Upon the front will appear P.A. '90.

The University boat race between Oxford and Cambridge will be rowed at 11.40 A.M., April 1. It is thought in England that the Oxford eight is the better crew, and will win the race this year.—Ex.

The receipts of the Yale Foot-Ball Association last season were $8,000 and the expenses $4,750. The surplus will go to the navy and field corporations.

THE ANDOVER PRESS, PRINTERS.

The PHILLIPIAN regrets to state that, owing to the pressure of other duties, Mr. Atha has seen fit to resign his position as editor.

The subject of the communication in another column, with regard to playing more than one game with Exeter in foot-ball and base-ball each year, is one which has not, within our remembrance, been brought conspicuously before the school, nor has any discussion with regard to it ever been taken up generally among the students. It can readily be seen that it is a question which admits of more or less discussion on both sides, and if there is likely to be a general interest aroused in the matter, there can surely be no fitter time than now to recognize the merits and demerits of a plan for having more than one contest in each sport before final arrangements are made for the coming season.

If Yale and Harvard should form a dual league, there is no reason to think that the championship between the two universities would be decided by a single contest in each sport except in rowing, the conditions of which render more than one race impracticable. On the other hand there are several strong points which could be urged, in the case of Andover and Exeter, in favor of continuing the present plan of having a single contest in all branches of athletics.

Lecture at Abbot Academy.

Rev. E. G. Porter of Lexington.

P.A. '54, gave a very interesting talk on Korea last Tuesday evening at the Abbot Academy. Mr. Porter gave a very graphic account of the life and customs of the people, as he had seen them, and showed many characteristic articles of dress and ornament. One of the Fem. Sems. appeared in the native costume, making a very pretty tableau. Several gentlemen in the audience kindly consented to try on the native hats, which far surpass in size any of those worn in this country. One of the fellows from the Academy had the novel experience of walking down the aisle with a Fem. Sem., each being enveloped by a hat of umbrella size. The audience were much amused to notice, as they turned to look after them, that the two hats were in close contact, and from beneath an odd buzzing sound was arising. Another of the fellows put on a white horse-hair hat at the request of the lecturer, whereupon, much to the amusement of the Fem. Sems., he was informed that only men who were engaged were allowed to wear hats of that kind.

At the close of the lecture the audience were invited to examine photographs, coins, fans, and other articles, and after a little social time all went home feeling that they had spent a very pleasant as well as profitable evening.

INQUIRY.

Inquiry to-morrow evening at 6.45. subject, Let your light shine. Matt. vii. 13-16. Leader, Beard, '90.

Mr. McCormick would advise all Seniors to sit for their pictures this term, as he can guarantee good pictures only when he has time. If you wait until the spring term the class, base-ball, and school organization pictures will interfere with the speedy finish of those of the Seniors.

We would be pleased to notify the students of the colleges that we shall be in Andover, Wednesday, Jan. 26, to take measures for custom shirts. We guarantee a perfect fit and the finest work. Full dress shirts a speciality. We are confident we can give you satisfaction.

Please favor us with a small trial order, and oblige,

Yours truly,
